Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

On September 30, 2006, for the sole purpose of migrating the Issuer from the British Virgin Islands to Delaware, China Security & Surveillance Technology Inc., a British Virgin Islands company ("CSST BVI") and its wholly owned subsidiary, the Issuer, entered into a plan of merger, pursuant to which CSST BVI merged with and into the Issuer, with the Issuer as the surviving corporation (the Merger). As a result of the Merger, Whitehorse was issued a total of 11,000,000 shares of common stock of the Issuer in exchange for shares that it had previously held in CSST BVI and Ms. Li was issued a total of 2,627,500 shares of common stock of the Issuer in exchange for shares that she had previously held in CSST BVI. As a result of the Merger, each of Whitehorse, Ms. Li and Mr. Tu, the sole owner of Whitehorse and indirect beneficial owner of Whitehorse's shares of the Issuer, became subject to Schedule 13D reporting requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act).

In November 2006, the Issuer acquired the security and surveillance business of Jian Golden An Ke Technology Co. Ltd., or Jian An Ke, Shenzhen Golden Guangdian Technology Co. Ltd., or Shenzhen Guangdian, Shenyang Golden Digital Technology Co. Ltd., or Shenyang Golden, and Jiangxi Golden Digital Technology Co. Ltd., or Jiangxi Golden, of which the Issuer's CEO and director Guoshen Tu formerly owned 80%, 60%, 42% and 90%, respectively. These companies are referred to herein as the Four-Related Companies. The former minority shareholders of the Four-Related Companies received in aggregate 850,000 shares of the Issuer's common stock in exchange for the value of the Four-Related Companies, which was determined to be $6,970 by a third party valuation firm. Mr. Tu did not receive any consideration in the Issuer's acquisition of the Four-Related Companies. However, his wife, Ms. Zhiqun Li, was issued 100,000 of the 850,000 shares for her ownership in Jian An Ke. Simultaneously with the receipt of her shares of the Issuer's stock, Ms. Li transferred all of the shares she received to employees of the company in which she had an ownership interest. The other minority shareholders of the Four-Related Companies also transferred a portion of the Issuer's stock they received to employees of the Four-Related Companies and others. The shares transferred to the employees were considered to be performance incentives for services rendered by them prior to the acquisition. Shenzhen Guangdian is engaged in the business of manufacturing and distributing security and surveillance products. The other three companies are engaged in the business of distributing security and surveillance products.

On February 27, 2007, Ms. Li and Mr. Tu directly acquired 10,000 and 30,000 shares of the Issuer's common stock, respectively, under the Issuer's 2007 Equity Incentive Plan. As a result of these grants, Ms. Li indirectly acquired beneficial ownership of 30,000 shares of the issuer's common stock as the spouse of Mr. Tu and Mr. Tu indirectly acquired 10,000 shares of the Issuer's common stock as the spouse of Ms. Li. However, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act and this Statement, Mr. Tu expressly disclaims beneficial ownership of the 10,000 shares acquired by Ms. Li and Ms. Li expressly disclaims beneficial ownership of the 30,000 shares acquired by Mr. Tu.

On October 22, 2007, Mr. Tu directly acquired 100,000 shares of the Issuer's common stock as a result of a grant under the Issuer's 2007 Equity Incentive Plan. Ms. Li indirectly acquired beneficial ownership of such stock as the spouse of Mr. Tu. However, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act and this Statement, Ms. Li expressly disclaims beneficial ownership of the 100,000 shares acquired by Mr. Tu.

The Notes were issued to a stockholder of the Issuer that is secured by such stockholder's own holdings of the Issuer's common stock and the Notes will neither result in any dilution of shares of common stock held by other stockholders of the Issuer, nor will interest on the Notes, which is payable by Whitehorse and/or Mr. Tu and not the Issuer, in any way currently affect the Issuer's net income. Whitehorse entered into the transaction with Investor in order to have cash available to financially assist the Issuer in the future if necessary through the permitted use of proceeds of the Notes as discussed above.
