PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

Organizational History

Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc. (we, us, our or the Company) was incorporated as Auror Capital Corp. under laws of the State of Nevada on March 16, 2006. We are a global provider of learning products and training solutions with a focus on corporate training, language learning and technology development. We have offices in 7 major cities in the United States, Canada, Hong Kong and Mainland China.

We began our operations as an exploration stage company engaged in the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties. On January 23, 2009, our former management decided to abandon the Company's Katrina mineral claim due to unsuccessful explorations to date and inability to attract investment capital to proceed with further exploration on the claim. We then began seeking other opportunities with established entities for the merger or other combination of a target business with the Company.

On July 27, 2009, we changed our business purpose to focus on becoming an educational software development and sales company. In furtherance of our new approach, we entered into an exclusive License Agreement with Mount Knowledge, Inc. (MtK), a corporation formed by the Chairman of our Board of Directors, Erwin Sniedzins, pursuant to which we obtained the exclusive worldwide licensing rights to promote, market and sell MtK's products. At that time, MtK's products included the Syntality Knowledge Generator and Complete English Real Time Intelligent Self Learning Systems. This License Agreement was subsequently superseded by an exclusive Master Software License Agreement dated January 21, 2010 (the Master Software License Agreement). The Master Software License was subsequently cancelled on December 27, 2010. See the discussion below under Arrangements with UCandu Learning Centres Inc. Purchase of Intellectual Property.

Recent Developments

Arrangements with UCandu Learning Centres Inc.

On December 28, 2010, the Company entered into an Intellectual Property Purchase Agreement (the IP Purchase Agreement) with Erwin Sniedzins, the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, and UCandu Learning Centres Inc., an Ontario corporation founded and controlled by Mr. Sniedzins (UCandu and, together with Mr. Sniedzins, the UCandu Sellers), pursuant to which the UCandu Sellers sold that certain software commonly referred to between the parties as the Real-Time Self Learning Systems (the Software), including all copyrights, patents, trademarks, service marks and trade secrets therein (collectively, with the Software, the Intellectual Property) to the Company. The Company previously licensed the Intellectual Property from MtK pursuant to the Master Software License Agreement. Pursuant to the IP Purchase Agreement, the Company acquired the Intellectual Property and as a result, the Master Software License Agreement was no longer needed.

On December 28, 2010, the Company entered into an Independent Contractor Agreement (the Independent Contractor Agreement) with UCandu pursuant to which the Company engaged UCandu to provide sales and marketing and technology services to the Company. As compensation for such services, the Company shall pay UCandu an aggregate of $432,000 in equal monthly payments of $12,000 per month on the first business day of each month, which such payments commenced on January 3, 2011. The term of the Independent Contractor Agreement commenced upon execution of the agreement and shall continue in full force and effect through December 31, 2013. The agreement may only be extended thereafter by mutual agreement of the parties. The Company may terminate the agreement at any time upon 30 days written notice. The Company may terminate the agreement, effective immediately; with Cause as such term is defined in the agreement. If the Company terminates the agreement without cause on or before December 31, 2011, UCandu will continue to receive monthly payments of $12,000 for the period of time between the date on which the agreement was terminated and December 31, 2011 and for the eight months thereafter.

If the Company terminates the agreement without cause after December 31, 2011, Ucandu will continue to receive monthly payments of $12,000 for the period of time that is the lesser of (i) eight (8) months after the termination date or (ii) the period of time between the termination date and the end of the term of the agreement.

The shares of MTK Tech's common stock underlying the Option represent all of the shares of MTK Tech's common stock held by Ucandu as of December 28, 2010.

If the Company defaults on a payment, and fails to cure such default within sixty (60) days from the date of such default, LK Asia is entitled to liquidated damages in the amount of $500 per day for each and every day the Company is in default after the sixtieth (60th) day until such default has been cured. Sales and Marketing Overview

The Company's sales and marketing strategy combines direct sales and service-based sales techniques.

In certain markets, one-on-one training and product sales in corporately owned or partnered learning centers or schools in conjunction with a monthly residual web-based business model and/or a direct internet sales and marketing approach may be the most cost-effective and efficient method.

In addition, we expect that marketing channel alliances will play a significant role in our Company's sales strategy, capitalizing on existing marketing and distribution channels. However, our Company's long-term strategy is to maximize all sales and marketing channels available, including corporate and direct consumer alliances and co-marketing channels.

Revenues

The Company anticipates generating revenues from the marketing and sale of the Company's learning products and services. Management foresees the primary source of our revenues in 2011 to come primarily from the sale of its products and services in US, Canada, China and Hong Kong.

Milestones

Our milestones and objectives over the next 12 months are significantly dependent on various factors which the Company may or may not be in control of, including, but not limited to: (a) obtaining adequate financing to sustain and expand our operations; (b) ability to identify suitable acquisition targets; (c) acquiring synergistic business operations to accelerate revenue growth; (d) ability to develop new partnerships and distribution channels in China; (e) launching new marketing and sales strategies; (f) completing market-specific product enhancements; (g) creating new B2B applications, (h) generating adequate cash flow from the sales of the Company's products and services to sustain its operations.

Our plan of operations for the next twelve months is to complete the objectives described under the heading Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operations .

Capital & Uses of Proceeds

Capital Needs

To implement our plan of operations, we will need to continue to raise capital in an amount between $2.5 to $5.0 million in equity from restricted stock sales or other acceptable financing vehicles over the 6 month period beginning in the first quarter of 2011 on terms and conditions to be determined. Management may also elect to seek subsequent interim or bridge financing in the form of debt as may be necessary.

We anticipate the need to raise additional capital beyond the first 6 months of operations, subject to the successful implementation of our initial milestones over the first 180 days of operations and our revenue growth cycle thereafter. At this time, management is unable to determine the specific amounts and terms of such future financings.

Proceeds

We foresee the proceeds from capital raised to be allocated as follows: (a) consolidation and integration; (b) growth capital; (c) acquisition research and due diligence; (d) business enterprise applications; (e) product enhancements, membership programs and technology partners; (f) new business development and marketing; (g) legal, audit, SEC filings and compliance fees; (h) financing costs; (i) working capital (general and administrative); (j) reserve capital for costs of acquisition and market expansion.

Competition

Competition Overview

The Company conducts its business in an environment that is highly competitive and unpredictable. The Company has identified at least 20 other companies and/or products that compete directly in the same educational/learning market.

Its competition may have considerable financial resources at their disposal, which could facilitate their access to the market under more favorable terms than the Company and could allow them faster market penetration.

Each of our competitors has existing marketing campaigns, fully developed products and an established customer base, to varying respective degrees.

The amount of the first installment (the First Payment Amount), which is due on the first anniversary of December 28, 2010 (the First Anniversary Date), shall be determined as follows:

- (i) in the event that the Closing Date Appraised Value is equal to or greater than $2,047,339.20 (the Target Value), the First Payment Amount shall be an amount equal to $1,023,669.60;
- (ii) in the event that the Closing Date Appraised Value is less than the Target Value but greater than $1,000,000 (the Threshold Value), the First Payment Amount shall be equal to the Closing Date Appraised Value less the Threshold Value; and
- (iii) in the event that the Closing Date Appraised Value is less than the Threshold Value, the First Payment Amount shall be equal to zero.

In lieu of a cash payment, the Company may elect to pay all or part of the First Payment Amount in shares of its common stock based on a price per share equal to the closing bid price of the Company's common stock on the trading date that immediately precedes the First Anniversary Date. The second installment is payable on the second anniversary of December 28, 2010 by delivery of 2,500,000 shares of the Company's common stock to the Sellers.

In the event of an Acceleration Event, as defined in the IP Purchase Agreement, the then-outstanding portion of the Purchase Price, if any, through the date of such event, shall become, at the Sellers' election in writing to the Company, immediately due and payable. The IP Purchase Agreement contains customary warranties and representations and indemnification and confidentiality provisions and provides that the Sellers are subject to noncompetition and noninterference covenants.

However, the approval of one or more patents of the products developed and owned by Company may increase its competitive advantage in the marketplace in terms of proprietary features, functions, and overall value proposition to the customers we intend to serve.

Plan of Operations

Over the 12-month of 2011, we must raise capital and complete certain milestones as described below:

Milestones

The Company anticipates the completion of the following objectives over the next 12 months, beginning in the first quarter of 2011:

First 180 Days of Operations (Administrative).

In the first 180 days of operations, beginning in the first quarter of 2011, our primary focus will be to complete necessary administrative functions and consolidations from recent acquisitions, obtain new financing and acquire certain existing marketing and sales agreements in order to properly position the Company execute its business plan. These proposed objectives are as follows:

1. Consolidation of Operations and Integration of Recent Acquisitions. On December 31, 2010, the Company acquired 100% ownership of Language Key Asia Ltd and its operational subsidiaries in Hong Kong and China. In addition, the Company acquired 54% ownership interest of Mount Knowledge USA, Inc. in the US. Lastly, the Company acquired 49% of Mount Knowledge Technologies Inc. in Canada. As a result of these recent transactions, the Company now has operations in Novi, Michigan, Toronto, Canada, Hong Kong, Beijing, Guangzhou, Shanghai and Shenzhen, China. Additionally, the audit financial statements for each acquisition are required to be filed in one or more amendments to the Current Report on Form 8-Ks filed for each acquisition no later than 71 days after the date on which the Current Report on Form 8-Ks were required to be filed. The preparation of the audited financials and the integration of the operation under the management structure of the Company are expected to take approximately 90 days at an estimated cost of $250,000.
2. Language Key Subscription Agreement (Growth Capital). In connection with the closing of Language Key Asia Ltd., the Company and Mount Knowledge Asia, Ltd., its wholly owned subsidiary, entered into a subscription agreement with Language Key Asia, Ltd. for the purchase by the Company (and/or MTK Asia) of 10,000,000 shares of ordinary B stock of LK Asia for an aggregate purchase price of $1,000,000. Such shares were delivered at the closing and the Purchase Price is payable as follows:
 - ◆ A payment in the amount of $75,000 is due and payable on or before December 31, 2010;
 - ◆ A payment in the amount of $75,000 on or before January 15, 2011;
 - ◆ A payment in the amount of $200,000 on or before February 15, 2011;
 - ◆ A payment in the amount of $125,000 on or before March 15, 2011; and

Seven (7) equal payments of $75,000 payable on first day of each month beginning on or before April 15, 2011

To date, total payments of $80,000 towards the total $1,000,000 commitment by the Company have been made. However, other advances totaling approximately $250,000 were made to one of the Language Key companies in the form of loans from October 1, 2010 and to the closing date, December 31, 2010. Management will re-allocate such loan payments and equity payments per the executed Subscription Agreement in the next financial quarter.

The purpose of the $1,000,000 subscription by the Company was to provide Language Key Asia Ltd an amount of required equity capital (or growth capital) to execute on its accelerated growth strategy and expansion plan throughout the Asia territory over the next 12 months.

3. Accelerated Acquisition Strategy. As of 2011, the Company's management has implemented an accelerated acquisition strategy to acquire synergistic companies in the language learning and training business sector. The Company will first target the vast English learning China market and other Asian territories in 2011, with a long-term vision of expanding into other world markets in 2012. The estimated costs initially of research and due diligence of suitable acquisitions targets is $150,000. There can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully negotiate and consummation and such acquisition with any target that we identify.

4. Secondary Offering and/or Other Financings. We intend to raise between $2,500,000 and $5,000,000 within the next 6 months to finance our operations and acquisition strategy. Such offering may take the form of equity or debt. We make seek additional funding as deemed necessary by our management. There can be no assurance that such financing will be available to us on terms that are acceptable or at all.

Next 180 days of Operations.

In the next 180 days of operations beginning the first quarter of 2011, we plan to expand our objectives to include new product enhancements, the development of new partnerships and distribution channels, and direct sales opportunities in the form of infomercials and online membership programs, including the option of bundling our product with potential technology partners to increase brand awareness and product reach as follows:

1. Business Enterprise Applications (Corporations, Schools and Government Agencies). With the acquisition of Language Key, we foresee the use of the our products and services as a learning solution for schools, government agencies, healthcare facilities, and corporations to provide an enhanced, interactive learning program to facilitate new job skills training and continual education programs. Therefore, we intend to develop product-specific enhancements to our existing products and services for use in various business applications. It is likely that most of the product enhancements for business applications will be in the form of client-specific modifications based upon requests for customized specifications and functionality. As such, we anticipate that some of the costs for these modifications will be borne by each respective client. Therefore, it is difficult to accurately determine the upfront costs attributable to us for any research and development of business enterprise applications.
2. Product Enhancements, Membership Program and Technology Partners. Subject to the successful launch of our products and services in the US, Canada, China and Hong Kong, we plan to provide product enhancements consistent with perceived customer requirements for other world markets. Most of these enhancements are believed by management to be in the form of updated graphics, to enhance the fluidity of the user experience and interface, and some market-specific content. In addition, we foresee a web-based e-learning membership program with recurring monthly fee based revenues as being one of the more important and lucrative long-term revenue models for us. It is difficult to accurately estimate the total cost involved in the design and development of this program, including the time required to implement such a program. Furthermore, we will seek to identify and develop relationships with globally recognized technology providers and OEM s to pursue the possibility of bundling the Mount Knowledge products and services with established product platforms, including mobile applications (PDA) to provide the Company with an ancillary revenue stream. We see this as a potentially significant opportunity to generate revenues, if the Company can successfully demonstrated the desirability of the Knowledge Generator product with its initial audience and market(s).
3. New Business Development and Marketing (Additional Partnerships and Distribution Channels). We will also pursue our business development and marketing efforts in other territories of Asian, including North American and European markets. We anticipate an initial budget of approximately $150,000 to seek new partnerships and distribution channels commencing sometime after the first 90 days of operations and continuing for a period of time thereafter as determined by us, subject to the availability of adequate financing and ongoing sales results.

The milestones outlined above represent our objectives for the purpose of obtaining revenues from the marketing and sales of our products and services through various marketing and distribution channels.

Although, we have arranged and specified each respective milestone in a defined order, or timeline, over the next 12 months, beginning the first quarter of 2011, we may find the need to modify any or all of the milestones listed, subject to unforeseen circumstances and other contingences which may require us to alter, in whole, or in part, certain aspects of each respective milestone in order for us to successfully realize revenue and ultimately attempt to achieve profitability.

Each milestone may begin at a different time than indicated and may continue for a shorter or longer period of time than suggested, depending upon if such milestones have successfully resulted in generating revenues for us. Also, each milestone may require more or less capital than anticipated and may need to be adjusted from time to time. Furthermore, any adjustments made to the proposed milestones may adversely affect the revenue potential of each milestone and overall revenues and/or our profitability.

Requirements and Utilization of Funds

To implement our plan of operations, including some or all of the above described milestones (objectives), we will need to continue to raise capital in an amount between $2.5 and $5.0 million over the next 6 month period beginning in the first quarter of 2011 on terms and conditions to be determined. Management intends to raise such capital through the issuance of equity securities. Management may elect to seek subsequent interim or bridge financing in the form of debt (corporate loans) as may be necessary.

We anticipate the need to raise additional capital beyond the first 6 months of operations, subject to the successful implementation of our initial milestones over the first 180 days of operations and our revenue growth cycle thereafter. At this time, management is unable to determine the specific amounts and terms of such future financings.

We foresee the proceeds from capital raised to be allocated as follows: (a) consolidation and integration; (b) growth capital; (c) acquisition research and due diligence; (d) business enterprise applications; (e) product enhancements, membership programs and technology partners; (f) new business development and marketing; (g) legal, audit, SEC filings and compliance fees; (h) financing costs; (i) working capital (general and administrative); (j) reserve capital for costs of acquisition and market expansion.

Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2010, we had $288,872 in the bank and $2,747 of prepaid expenses. We had revenues of $1,901,396 during the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2010. We are illiquid and need cash infusions from investors and/or current shareholders to support our proposed marketing and sales operations.

Management believes this amount may not satisfy our cash requirements for the next 12 months and as such we will need to either raise additional proceeds and/or our officers and/or directors will need to make additional financial commitments to our company, neither of which is guaranteed. We plan to satisfy our future cash requirements, primarily the working capital required to execute on our objectives, including marketing and sales of our product, and to offset legal and accounting fees, through financial commitments from future debt/equity financings, if and when possible.

Management believes that we may generate some sales revenue within the next twelve (12) months, but that these sales revenues will not satisfy our cash requirements during that period. We have no committed source for funds as of this date. No representation is made that any funds will be available when needed. In the event that funds cannot be raised when needed, we may not be able to carry out our business plan, may never achieve sales, and could fail to satisfy our future cash requirements as a result of these uncertainties.

If we are unsuccessful in raising the additional proceeds from officers and/or directors, we may then have to seek additional funds through debt financing, which would be extremely difficult for an early stage company to secure and may not be available to us. However, if such financing is available, we would likely have to pay additional costs associated with high-risk loans and be subject to above market interest rates.

At such time as these funds are required, management would evaluate the terms of such debt financing and determine whether the business could sustain operations and growth and manage the debt load. If we cannot raise additional proceeds via a private placement of our common stock or secure debt financing we would be required to cease business operations. As a result, investors in our common stock would lose all of their investment.

The staged development of our business will continue over the next 12 months. Other than engaging and/or retaining independent consultants to assist the Company in various administrative and marketing related needs, we do not anticipate a significant change in the number of our employees, if any, unless we are able to obtain adequate financing.

Our auditors have issued a going concern opinion. This means that there is substantial doubt that we can continue as an on-going business for the next 12 months unless we obtain additional capital to pay our expenses. This is because anticipated revenues during the next 12 months will not be enough to satisfy our cash requirements. Accordingly, we must raise cash from sources other than from the sale of our products.

The following summary of our results of operations should be read in conjunction with our audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2010 which are included herein.

We used net cash in operating activities in the amount of $ (69,022) for the period from January 1, 2010 to December 30, 2010 and $ 83,701 during the year ended December 31, 2009. Cash used in operating activities was funded by cash from financing activities.

Disclosure of Outstanding Share Data

As of April 15, 2011, we had 100,287,123 shares of common stock issued and outstanding..

Going Concern

The financial statements accompanying this report have been prepared on a going concern basis, which implies that our company will continue to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. Our company has generated limited revenues since inception and has never paid any dividends and is unlikely to pay dividends or generate earnings in the immediate or foreseeable future. The continuation of our company as a going concern is dependent upon the continued financial support from our shareholders, the ability of our company to obtain necessary equity financing to achieve our operating objectives, and the attainment of profitable operations.

As of December 31, 2010, we had accumulated losses of $79,278 since January 1, 2009 and a working capital deficit of $765,037. We do not have sufficient working capital to enable us to carry out our stated plan of operation for the next twelve months. These financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should our company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Due to the uncertainty of our ability to meet our current operating expenses and the capital expenses noted above in their report on the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2010, our independent auditors included an explanatory paragraph regarding concerns about our ability to continue as a going concern. Our financial statements contain additional note disclosures describing the circumstances that lead to this disclosure by our independent auditors.

The continuation of our business is dependent upon us raising additional financial support. The issuance of additional equity securities by us could result in a significant dilution in the equity interests of our current stockholders. Obtaining commercial loans, assuming those loans would be available, will increase our liabilities and future cash commitments.

Future Financings

We anticipate continuing to rely on equity sales of our common shares in order to continue to fund our business operations. Issuances of additional shares will result in dilution to our existing stockholders. There is no assurance that we will achieve any additional sales of our equity securities or arrange for debt or other financing to fund our planned activities. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain financing to carry on our legal, accounting and reporting needs.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have no significant off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that are material to stockholders.

Application of Critical Accounting Estimates

The financial statements of our company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (GAAP). Because a precise determination of many assets and liabilities is dependent upon future events, the preparation of financial statements for a period necessarily involves the use of estimates, which have been made using careful judgment.

The financial statements have been prepared within the framework of the significant accounting policies summarized below:

Mineral Property and Exploration Costs

Until abandonment of its mineral property on January 23, 2009, we were an exploration stage mining company and had not realized any revenue from its operations. We were primarily engaged in the acquisition, exploration and development of mining properties. Exploration costs are expensed as incurred regardless of the stage of development or existence of reserves.

Costs of acquisition are capitalized subject to impairment testing, in accordance with ASC Topic 360, Property, Plant and Equipment - Subsequent Measurement, (formerly SFAS 144), when facts and circumstances indicate impairment may exist, as defined in Note 3, Newly Adopted Accounting Policies And Recent Accounting Guidance.

We regularly performed evaluations of any investment in mineral properties to assess the recoverability and/or the residual value of its investments in these assets. Also, long-lived assets were reviewed for impairment whenever events or circumstances change which indicate the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable.

Management periodically reviewed the carrying value of its investments in mineral leases and claims with internal and external mining related professionals. A decision to abandon, reduce or expand a specific project was based upon many factors including general and specific assessments of mineral deposits, anticipated future mineral prices, anticipated future costs of exploring, developing and operating a production mine, the expiration term and ongoing expenses of maintaining mineral properties and the general likelihood that the Company will continue exploration on such project.

The Company did not set a pre-determined holding period for properties with unproven deposits; however, properties which had not demonstrated suitable metal concentrations at the conclusion of each phase of an exploration program were re-evaluated to determine if future exploration was warranted, whether there has been any impairment in value and that their carrying values was appropriate.

If an area of interest is abandoned or it is determined that its carrying value cannot be supported by future production or sale, the related costs are charged against operations in the year of abandonment or determination of value. The amounts recorded as mineral leases and claims represent costs to date and do not necessarily reflect present or future values.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

We do not expect the adoption of any recently issued accounting pronouncements to have a significant impact on our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

DECEMBER 31, 2010

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc.
Novi, Michigan

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc. and its Subsidiaries (the Successor Company or the Company) as of December 31, 2010, and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the one day period from December 30, 2010 to December 31, 2010 for the Successor Company and the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Language Key Asia Ltd. and its Subsidiaries (the Predecessor Company or the Company) as of December 31, 2009, and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income, shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended and for the period from January 1, 2010 through December 30, 2010. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Successor Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Successor Company as of December 31, 2010, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the one day period from December 30, 2010 to December 31, 2010 and the consolidated financial position of the Predecessor Company as of December 31, 2009 and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended and for the period from January 1, 2010 through December 30, 2010 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Successor Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has incurred losses for the period from January 1, 2010 through December 30, 2010, which raises substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans regarding those matters also are described in Note 2. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

MOUNT KNOWLEDGE HOLDINGS, INC.
(Formerly Auror Capital Corp.)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. BUSINESS, BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc. (MKHD) (the Company or Successor Company) was incorporated as Auror Capital Corp. under the laws of the State of Nevada on March 16, 2006. On January 25, 2010, the Company filed an amendment and restatement to the Articles of Incorporation of the Company with the State of Nevada, which were approved by the Board of Directors on October 20, 2009 by written consent in lieu of a special meeting in accordance with the Nevada Corporation Law, changing its name to Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc. and increasing the number of authorized common and preferred shares.

The Company began as an exploration stage company engaged in the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties. On January 23, 2009, the Company decided to abandon its mineral claim due to unsuccessful explorations to date and inability to attract investment capital to proceed with further exploration on the claim.

On July 27, 2009, the Company changed its business purpose from a mining and exploration to an educational software development and sales company offering innovative and proprietary learning software products and teaching services. The Company's principal executive offices are now in Novi, Michigan.

On January 21, 2010, the Company executed a new exclusive Master Software License Agreement with Mount Knowledge Inc, a corporation owned by the Company's founder and present Chairman and director based in Ontario, Canada, wherein the Company was granted the exclusive world-wide license rights to promote, market and sell any and all of Mount Knowledge Inc's products, both existing and future. These existing products consist of patent pending Real Time Learning and Self Improvement Educational System and Method software application referred to as Syntality. The Agreement supersedes the Master Product License Agreement executed on or before July 27, 2009 and provides updated terms and conditions, including, but not limited to new definitions of duties, responsibilities and costs to be borne by the respective parties. During December 2010, Company acquired 100% ownership interest in the intellectual property and the license agreement was cancelled.

On October 19, 2010, the Company formed Mount Knowledge Asia Ltd, a Hong Kong corporation (wholly owned by Company) for the purposes of facilitating the acquisition of Language Key Asia Ltd and to acquire other Business-to- Business (B2B) and Business-to-Consumer (B2C) business interests throughout Asia.

On December 16, 2010, the Company acquired 490,000 shares of common stock of Mount Knowledge Technologies, Inc., an Ontario corporation (f/k/a 1827281 Ontario Inc.) (MTK Tech) for a purchase price of $490, representing 49% ownership interest in MTK Tech with the remaining 51% ownership interest of MTK Tech owned and held by Ucandu Learning Centres Inc., an Ontario corporation, controlled by a director of the Company. MTK Tech provides software development services for the Company pursuant to an executed Services Agreement dated December 1, 2010 with Mount Knowledge USA, Inc., a subsidiary of the Company.

On December 31, 2010, the Company acquired, via Mount Knowledge Asia, 100% ownership of Language Key Asia Ltd. (LKA or Predecessor Company), a Hong Kong corporation formed in October 2010 as a holding company for ownership interests in Business-to-Business operations in Asia. LKA was established to centralize the administrative, governance, management, and financing for the Language Key Group of companies (LK Group), all of which are wholly-owned by LKA, which consists of

- a) Language Key Corporate Training Solutions Ltd., a Hong Kong corporation, and formerly The Language Key China Ltd., established on August 21, 2002 (LKCTS),
 - b) The Language Key Training Ltd., a Hong Kong corporation established on March 21, 2003, (LKTR),
F-7

c) The Language Key China Ltd., a Wholly Owned Foreign Enterprise registered in Shanghai, China established on October 11, 2002, (LKCH), and

d) Language Key Publishing Ltd., established on January 11, 2011 (LKPUB).

LKA was further established to enable the efficient acquisition of the LK Group by the Company and to be the vehicle into which to receive equity capital contributions from the Company.

The LK Group provides custom-tailored business English and communications skills courses and workshops, executive coaching and other related services to public and private sector clients.

As all of the companies in the LK Group are under common control, this structure has been accounted for as a reorganization of entities under common control and the financial statements have been prepared as if the reorganization had occurred retroactively.

Upon the completion of the Language Key Asia Acquisition, LKA became a wholly owned subsidiary of Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc. (See Note. 3) and the Successor Company no longer qualified as a development stage enterprise as defined under SFAS No. 7 Accounting and Reporting by Development Stage Enterprises.

On December 31, 2010, the Company acquired a 54.34% interest in Mount Knowledge USA, Inc. (MTK USA) by issuing 11,166,690 shares of its common stock and 8,888,888 shares of its Series A Convertible Preferred Stock.

MTK USA markets, sells and distributes a proprietary real time self learning system software application domestically and internationally to a variety of customers, including individuals, schools, government agencies, and businesses.

The following chart sets forth the structure of Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries:

The following chart sets forth the structure of Language Key Asia Ltd. and its subsidiaries:

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (US GAAP). The Company's functional currency is the US dollar. The LK Group's functional currencies are the Chinese Renminbi and Hong Kong dollar. However, the accompanying financial statements have been translated and presented in United States dollars.

On December 31, 2010, the Company changed its fiscal year end from October 31 to December 31.

Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. Intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in preparing the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Language Key Asia Ltd. is deemed as the Predecessor and Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc. is the Successor for the purpose of financial reporting in accordance with SEC rules.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying disclosures. Actual results may differ from the estimates.

Financial Instruments and Concentration of Risk

The fair value of financial instruments, which consist of cash, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and loans payable, were estimated to approximate their carrying values due to the immediate or relatively short maturity of these instruments. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that this Company is not exposed to significant interest or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

Basic and Diluted Loss per Share

In accordance with the Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) subtopic 260-10 (formerly SFAS No. 128 Earnings Per Share), the basic loss per common share is computed by dividing net loss available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted loss per common share is computed similar to basic loss per common share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive. At December 31, 2010, the Company had no stock equivalents that were anti-dilutive and excluded in the earnings per share computation.

Foreign Currency Translation

Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc.'s functional currency is the U.S. dollar.

While Language Key Asia Ltd. presents its consolidated financial results and accompanying notes in U.S. dollar terms, its functional currency for its operations in The People's Republic of China (PRC) is the Chinese Renminbi, and its functional currency for its operations in Hong Kong is the Hong Kong dollar. Transactions in Renminbi and Hong Kong dollars are translated into U.S. dollars as follows:

- i) monetary items at the exchange rate prevailing at the balance sheet date;
- ii) non-monetary items at the historical exchange rate;
- iii) revenue and expense at the average rate in effect during the applicable accounting period.

Translation adjustments resulting from this process are recorded in Stockholders' Equity as a component of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income (Loss). Gains and losses arising on translation or settlement of foreign currency denominated transactions or balances are recorded in the Statement of Operations.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash is comprised of cash on hand and demand deposits. Cash equivalents include short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

Accounts Receivable

The Company records an Account Receivable when it issues an invoice for a particular training contract. Accounts Receivable is reduced by the collection of payments from clients for such invoices. Invoices issued prior to the start of a training course, and therefore in advance of the recognition of any revenue associated with that training course, are classified on the Company's balance sheet as Deferred Revenues. The Company currently does not maintain an Allowance for Doubtful Accounts due to its good collections history with its clients.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation on property and equipment is calculated on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets as set out below:

	Residual Value	Estimated Useful Life
Office furniture and equipment	5%	5 years
Vehicles	5%	5 years

Investment in Unconsolidated Subsidiary

The Company has investments in certain subsidiary of which the Company does not have a majority-ownership interest that do not require consolidation. The investment is accounted for under the equity method.

Income Taxes

The Company has adopted the ASC subtopic 740-10. ASC 740-10 requires the use of the asset and liability method of accounting of income taxes. Under the asset and liability method of ASC 740-10, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statements carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

F-10

The Company provides deferred taxes for the estimated future tax effects attributable to temporary differences and carry forwards when realization is more likely than not. If it is more likely than not that some portion or all of a deferred tax asset will not be realized, a valuation allowance is recognized.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of purchase price and the estimated fair value of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. In accordance with ASC 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other, goodwill is reviewed for impairment annually in the fourth quarter of each of its fiscal year or more frequently if facts and circumstances warrant a review. The provisions of ASC 350 require that a two-step test be performed to assess goodwill for impairment. First, the fair value of each reporting unit is compared to its carrying value. If the fair value exceeds the carrying value, goodwill is not impaired and no further testing is performed. The second step is performed if the carrying value exceeds the fair value. The implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill must be determined and compared to the carrying value of the goodwill. If the carrying value of a reporting unit's goodwill exceeds its implied fair value, an impairment loss equal to the difference will be recorded.

Comprehensive Income

The Company has adopted ASC220, Reporting Comprehensive Income, which establishes standards for reporting and displaying comprehensive income, its components, and accumulated balances in a full-set of general-purpose financial statements. The Company's accumulated other comprehensive income represents the accumulated balance of foreign currency translation adjustments.

Share-based Payments

The Company accounts for share-based payments in accordance with the authoritative guidance issued by the FASB on stock compensation, which establishes the accounting for transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services. Under the provisions of the authoritative guidance, share-based compensation expense is measured at the grant date, based on the fair value of the award, and is recognized as an expense over the requisite employee service period (generally the vesting period). The Company estimates the fair value of share-based payments using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. Additionally, share-based awards to non-employees are expensed over the period in which the related services are rendered at their fair value.

Revenue Recognition

The Company and its subsidiaries recognize revenues from training sales equally over the duration of training contracts. Revenues recognized for training courses that commence prior to an invoice being issued are classified on the Company's balance sheet as unbilled revenues.

Related parties

A party is considered to be related to the Company if the party directly or indirectly or through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the Company. Related parties also include principal owners of the Company, its management, members of the immediate families of principal owners of the Company and its management and other parties with which the Company may deal if one party controls or can significantly influence the management or operating policies of the other to an extent that one of the transacting parties might be prevented from fully pursuing its own separate interests. A party which can significantly influence the management or operating policies of the transacting parties or if it has an ownership interest in one of the transacting parties and can significantly influence the other to an extent that one or more of the transacting parties might be prevented from fully pursuing its own separate interests is also a related party.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

The Company does not expect the adoption of any recently issued accounting pronouncements to have a significant impact on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

2. GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. As shown in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, for the period from January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2010, the Company incurred net losses aggregating $79,278. In addition, the Company had a working capital deficit of $765,037 and an accumulated deficit of $686,351 as of December 31, 2010. These conditions raise substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to obtain financing and become successful in marketing products under the license agreement described above. Management has plans to seek additional capital through debt, and private and public offerings of its common stock. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded assets, or the amounts of and classification of liabilities that might be necessary in the event the Company cannot continue in existence.

3. ACQUISITIONS

a) Language Key Asia Ltd. (LKA)

On December 31, 2010, MKHD announced an agreement on the terms of the acquisition of all of the Ordinary A stock of LKA, being 325,710 shares, by Mount Knowledge Asia Ltd. for cash of $66,960 and 1,800,000 common shares of MKHD at a fair value of $0.20 per share, based on the closing price of MKHD's common stock at December 31, 2010.

The acquisition valued the entire issued share capital of LKA at $426,960. As a result of the acquisition, LKA became a wholly owned subsidiary of MKA. The Acquisition closed on December 31, 2010.

The acquisition of LKA was accounted for as a business combination under ASC 805, Business Combinations, using the acquisition method. Accordingly, the results of LKA have been included in the Company's consolidated financial statements since the date of acquisition. The components of the consideration paid are shown below.

The purchase price of $426,960 was allocated based upon the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition using available information and certain assumptions management believed reasonable. The following table summarizes the allocation of the purchase price:

Assets Acquired
Cash	$ 246,089

F-12

The acquisition resulted in allocations of the purchase price to goodwill of $375,292. Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price over the net identifiable tangible and intangible assets acquired. The Company determined that the acquisition of LKA resulted in the recognition of goodwill primarily because the acquisition is expected to help LKA to reach critical mass and shorten the timeframe to its long term financial and strategic objectives through geographic and training product expansion, as well as through the development, launch, and ongoing support of ECO-Learning.

The goodwill is subject to review for impairment as indicators of impairment develop and otherwise at least annually.

The Company assumed certain liabilities in the acquisition including deferred revenue that was ascribed a fair value of $203,970 using a cost-plus profit approach. The Company is amortizing deferred revenue over the remaining term of the contracts, which reflects the estimated period to satisfy these contract obligations.

Tax issues

The tax authority of the PRC Government conducts periodic and ad hoc tax filing reviews on business enterprises operating in the PRC after those enterprises had completed their relevant tax filings, hence the Company's PRC subsidiaries' tax filings may not be finalized. It is therefore uncertain as to whether the PRC tax authority may take different views about the Company's PRC subsidiary's tax filings which may lead to additional tax liabilities.

One area in which the Company's PRC subsidiary faces such uncertainty is with respect to China's Circular on Strengthening the Administration of Enterprise Income Tax on Non-Resident Enterprises' Share Transfer Income ("Circular 698") that was released in December 2009 with retroactive effect from January 1, 2008.

The Chinese State Administration of Taxation (SAT) released a circular (Guoshuihan No. 698 - Circular 698) on December 10, 2009 that addresses the transfer of shares of Chinese resident companies by nonresident companies. Circular 698, which is effective retroactively to January 1, 2008, may have a significant impact on many companies that use offshore holding companies to invest in China. While Circular 698 does not apply to shareholders who are individuals, Language Key Corporate Training Solutions Ltd., the sole shareholder of The Language Key China Ltd., and a wholly owned subsidiary of LKA, is a Hong Kong corporation. The PRC authority has the discretion to determine whether this enterprise shareholder is treated as a resident enterprise. If such shareholder is recognized as a non-resident enterprise, Circular 698 may be applicable to the Share Exchange Agreement due to the transfer of shares of LKA, which indirectly holds the equity interests of The Language Key China Ltd., to the Company. Circular 698 provides that where a non-resident enterprise investor indirectly transfers the equity of a PRC resident enterprise, if the overseas intermediary holding company being transferred by the non-resident enterprise is established in a country/region where the effective tax rate is less than 12.5% or which does not tax the overseas income of its residents, the non-resident enterprise must submit the required documents to the PRC tax authority in charge of the PRC resident enterprise within 30 days after the equity transfer agreement is concluded. However, there is uncertainty as to the application of Circular 698. For example, while the term "indirectly transfer" is not defined, it is understood that the relevant PRC tax authorities have jurisdiction regarding requests for information over a wide range of foreign entities having no direct contact with China. Moreover, the relevant authority has not yet promulgated any formal provisions or formally declared or stated how to calculate the effective tax in the country or jurisdiction and to what extent and the process of the disclosure to the tax authority in charge of that Chinese resident enterprise.

LKA has sought the advice of PRC legal counsel regarding the application of and the risks associated with Circular 698. Circular 698, which provides parties with a short period of time to comply its requirements, indirectly taxes foreign companies on gains derived from the indirect sale of a Chinese company.

Based upon the advice of legal counsel, during January 2011, LKA retained an accounting and tax advisory firm (the "Advisory Firm") to assist in the preparation and submission of the necessary documents to the SAT for the purpose of applying to be recognized as a resident enterprise per the definition of Circular 698 following its acquisition by MKHD. Said designation would make LKA exempt from a 10% withholding tax on the equity transfer gains resulting from the sale of LKA and the pro-rata value of its China subsidiary, LKCH, relative to the overall transactional value of the acquisition.

Per the guidelines provided by the Advisory Firm, LKA completed the preparation of the documents required for submission to the SAT. Prior to the end of thirty (30) day submission deadline from the date of the acquisition, the Advisory Firm, acting as the official representative of the Company, met with a representative of the local SAT office of the in Pudong, Shanghai and was verbally informed by said representative that LKA was not required to file any documents on the completed acquisition. Despite the initial conclusion by the Advisory Firm and the local SAT office, LKA intends to proactively submit formal documents to the SAT in the second quarter of 2011 in order to remain in good standing with the PRC tax authority and to receive a written confirmation of the designation and exemption.

If the PRC tax authorities determine that Circular 698 applies to the Share Exchange Agreement and LKA needs to pay withholding taxes on the pro-rata equity transfer gains of LKCH, the taxes would equal the equity transfer gains applicable to LKCH multiplied by the applicable income tax rate determined by the PRC tax authorities, and pursuant to Circular 698, equity transfer gains will equal the balance of the equity transfer price after deducting the cost of equity investment in LKCH. LKA's legal counsel had advised that the pertinent tax rate to be applied against such equity transfer gains would be 10%.

While LKA cannot be certain of how the PRC tax authorities will treat the matter because the consideration received by LKA's former shareholders in the Share Exchange Agreement was exclusively in the form of the publicly traded common stock of MKHD, LKA can, based on certain assumptions, estimate the potential tax liability. On the closing date of the Share Exchange Agreement, the share price of MKHD was $0.20 per share. As LKA's shareholders received 1,800,000 in exchange for one hundred (100%) percent of their equity in LKA, the dollar value of the consideration was $360,000. At the time of the Share Exchange Agreement, the registered capital of LKCH was $140,000. Therefore, if one hundred (100%) percent of the acquisition consideration received by the former shareholders of LKA were attributable to LKCH, then the equity transfer gain would be $220,000. Applying a ten (10%) percent withholding tax to this amount yields a tax liability of $22,000. However, LKA regards this estimated tax amount to be the upper limit of its potential tax liability because not all of the consideration received by its former shareholders in the Share Exchange Agreement was attributable to LKCH. In addition to LKCH, LKA has an operating subsidiary in Hong Kong (LKTR) which generates significant revenues and holds the rights to the "Language Key" trademark in the PRC. Therefore, LKA believes that a certain percentage of the consideration received by its former shareholders in the Share Exchange Agreement would be attributable to LKTR. However, due to the short history of the New EIT law and lack of applicable legal precedents, it remains unclear how the PRC tax authorities will determine the PRC resident enterprise tax treatment of LKA.

13. INCOME TAXES

United States

The Company incorporated in United States, and is subject to tax on income or capital gain under the current laws of the United States.

Taxation in the income statement represents the provision for US profits tax for the period. US profits tax is calculated at 34% of the estimated assessable profit for the tax period.

Prior to the acquisitions of MKT USA and Language Key Asia Ltd, the Company had minimal operations and generated no revenue. Consequently, the Company incurred net operating losses through December 31, 2010.

The Company's subsidiary, LKA is incorporated in Hong Kong, and is subject to tax on income or capital gain under the current laws of the Hong Kong. LKA's subsidiaries are subject to income tax as described below.

Hong Kong

Taxation in the income statement represents the provision for Hong Kong profits tax for the period. Hong Kong profits tax is calculated at 16.5% of the estimated assessable profit for the period.

The charge for current income tax is based on the results for the period as adjusted for items that are non-assessable or disallowed. Income tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. However, if the deferred tax arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss, it is not accounted for.

The deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is recovered or the liability is settled, based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, tax losses and credits can be utilized.

The People's Republic of China (PRC)

Prior to January 1, 2008, LKA was governed by the previous Income Tax Law (the " Previous Tax Law") of China. Under the Previous Tax Law, LKA's PRC subsidiary, The Language Key China Ltd. was entitled various preferential tax treatments.

On March 16, 2007, the National People's Congress passed the new Enterprise Income Tax law (the " new EIT law") which imposes a single income tax rate of 25% for most domestic enterprises and foreign investment enterprises. The new EIT law was effective as of January 1, 2008. The new EIT law provides a five-year transition period from its effective date for those enterprises which were established before March 16, 2007 and which were entitled to a preferential lower tax rate under the then effective tax laws or regulations, as well as grandfathering tax holidays.

The new EIT Law also provides that an enterprise established under the laws of foreign countries or regions but whose "de facto management body" is located in the PRC be treated as a resident enterprise for PRC tax purposes and consequently be subject to the PRC income tax at the rate of 25% for its worldwide income. The Implementing Rules of the new EIT Law merely defines the location of the "de facto management body" as " the place where the exercising, in substance, of the overall management and control of the production and business operation, personnel, accounting, properties, etc., of a non-PRC company is located." On April 22, 2009, the PRC State Administration of Taxation further issued a notice entitled "Notice Regarding Recognizing Offshore-Established Enterprises Controlled by PRC Shareholders as Resident Enterprises Based on Their Place of Effective Management." Under this notice, a foreign company controlled by a PRC company or a group of PRC companies shall be deemed as a PRC resident enterprise, if (i) the senior management and the core management departments in charge of its daily operations mainly function in the PRC; (ii) its financial decisions and human resource decisions are subject to decisions or approvals of persons or institutions in the PRC; (iii) its major assets, accounting books, company seals, minutes and files of board meetings and shareholders' meetings are located or kept in the PRC; and (iv) more than half of the directors or senior management personnel with voting rights reside in the PRC. Based on a review of surrounding facts and circumstances, the Company does not believe that it is likely that its operations outside of the PRC should be considered a resident enterprise for PRC tax purposes. However, due to limited guidance and implementation history of the new EIT Law, should the Company be treated as a resident enterprise for PRC tax purposes, the Company will be subject to PRC tax on worldwide income at a uniform tax rate of 25% retroactive to January 1, 2008.

Edgar Filing: Mount Knowledge Holdings, Inc. - Form 10-K/A

The new EIT Law also imposes a withholding income tax of 10% on dividends distributed by a foreign invested enterprise to its immediate holding company outside of China, if such immediate holding company is considered as a non-resident enterprise without any establishment or place within China or if the received dividends have no connection with the establishment or place of such immediate holding company within China, unless such immediate holding company's jurisdiction of incorporation has a tax treaty with China that provides for a different withholding arrangement. Such withholding income tax was exempted under the previous income tax regulations.

LKA's subsidiary, The Language Key China Ltd., as an enterprise established in Shanghai, PRC, was entitled to a preferential enterprise tax rate of 18% prevailing in Pudong Economic Zone for all years before 2008, and the following preferential rates started on January 1, 2008:

Year	Tax Rate
2008	18%
2009	20%
2010	22%
2011	24%

Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

The Company adopted the provisions of Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes on January 1, 2007. The provisions clarify the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with the standard Accounting for Income Taxes, and prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The provisions of Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition.

The Company may from time to time be assessed interest or penalties by major tax jurisdictions. In the event it receives an assessment for interest and/or penalties, it will be classified in the financial statements as tax expense.

Based on the Company's evaluation, the Company has concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition in its financial statements.

14. CONCENTRATION

Major Customers

Predecessor Company

For the period from January 1, 2010 through December 30, 2010 and for the year ended December 31, 2009, LKA had one major customer which contributed 11.8% and 17.5% of its consolidated revenue, respectively.

15. OPERATION RISKS

Lack of Insurance

The Company could be exposed to liabilities or other claims for which the Company would have no insurance protection. The Company does not currently maintain any business interruption insurance, products liability insurance, or any other comprehensive insurance policy except for property insurance policies with limited coverage. As a result, the Company may incur uninsured liabilities and losses as a result of the conduct of its business. There can be no guarantee that the Company will be able to obtain additional insurance coverage in the future, and even if it can obtain additional coverage, the Company may not carry sufficient insurance coverage to satisfy potential claims. Should uninsured losses occur, any purchasers of the Company's common stock could lose their entire investment.

Country Risk

The Company has significant operating risk in the PRC. The operating results of the Company may be adversely affected by changes in the political and social conditions in the PRC and by changes in Chinese government policies with respect to laws and regulations, anti-inflationary measures, currency conversion and remittance abroad, and rates and methods of taxation, among other things. The Company can give no assurance that those changes in political and other conditions will not result in have a material adverse effect upon the Company' s business and financial condition.

Exchange Risk

The Company cannot guarantee the relative Renminbi, Hong Kong dollar, and U.S. dollar exchange rates will remain steady, therefore the Company could post the same profit for two comparable periods and post higher or lower profit depending on the relative movements in the price of these currencies. The exchange rate could fluctuate depending on changes in the political and economic environments without notice.

Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist of cash and accounts receivable. A significant portion of the Company's cash balances are on deposit at financial institutions in the PRC, the currency of which is not free trading. Foreign exchange transactions are required to be conducted through institutions authorized by the Chinese government and there is no guarantee that Chinese currency can be converted to U.S. or other currencies.

16. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

License Revocation and Assignment

On December 31, 2010, the former LKA shareholders agreed to cause the cancellation of the trademark licensing royalty agreement (the " Royalty Agreement") with Foxglove International Enterprises Ltd, a British Virgin Islands Corporation (the " Licensor") as set forth in the executed license revocation and release deed agreement dated December 31, 2010, (the " License Revocation and Release Deed Agreement"), in exchange for a cash payment from the LKA in the amount of Thirty-Three Thousand Four Hundred Eighty and No/100 Dollars (USD $33,480.00), due and payable to the Licensor on the Closing Date, including the assignment to the LKA the full and unencumbered rights to the " Language Key" name, trademarks, service marks, and any other intellectual property rights owned by Licensor with no limitations and free and clear any claims against the LKA, and/or its operation subsidiaries, now or in the future, as set forth in the executed assignment agreement dated December 31, 2010, (the " Assignment Deed Agreement"), in exchange for a cash payment from the LKA in the amount of Thirty-Three Thousand Four Hundred Eighty and No/100 Dollars (USD $33,480.00), due and payable to the Licensor on the Closing Date.

As of the date of this filing, no cash payments have been made with respect to the aforementioned deeds, and the Licensor currently holds a lien against the "Language Key" trademark. The terms of this lien provide that the Licensor shall receive interest at a rate of 1.5% per month on the unpaid balance of the $66,960 in aggregate payments due, retroactive to January 1, 2011. The LKA intends to satisfy this obligation to the Licensor during April 2011.

The Note is a short-term non-interest bearing thirty (30) day demand note due and payable on or before March 31, 2011 (Due Date). If the Note is not repaid on or before the Due Date, then the principal amount of the Note accrues interest at a rate of 10% per annum until the Note is repaid in full. ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE.

We had no changes in or disagreements with accountants on accounting and financial disclosure in 2010 or 2009.

ITEM 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Management's evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures

As required under the Exchange Act, we evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report, being December 31, 2010. We are responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal controls and procedures for the financial reporting of our company. Disclosure control and procedures are the controls and other procedures that are designed to ensure that we record, process, summarize and report in a timely manner the information that we must disclose in reports that we file with or submit to the SEC. Our management has concluded, based on their evaluation, that as of December 31, 2010, as the result of the material weaknesses described below, our disclosure controls and procedures were ineffective in providing reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes.

Management's report on internal control over financial reporting

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with US GAAP. Management has concluded that there are material weaknesses in both the design and operation of the Company's internal controls and procedures for financial reporting. A material weakness, as defined by SEC rules, is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis. The material weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting that were identified include:

- i. there is a lack of adequate segregation of duties in our accounting and financial reporting functions;
- ii. there is a lack of entity wide controls, including no audit committee, and a failure to maintain formalized accounting policies and procedures;
- iii. senior management has not established and maintained a proper tone as to internal control over financial reporting;
- iv. there may be a lack of sufficient controls relating to user access security levels in our accounting software to restrict access to certain financial applications only to employees requiring access to complete their job functions.

As a result of the existence of these material weaknesses as of December 31, 2010, management has concluded that we did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2010.

While we believe our financial statements included in this Annual Report present fairly, in all material respects, our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented, as a result of the material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting, there is a reasonable possibility that material misstatements of the financial statements including disclosures will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

This Annual Report does not include an attestation report of the company's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the company's registered public accounting firm pursuant to temporary rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission that permit the company to provide only management's report in this annual report.

Remediation

We will engage an independent accounting firm to advise us in respect of our internal controls over financial reporting, and to provide accounting counsel on various matters relating thereto. We will continue to implement further improvements to our internal controls as they are identified. We will use the criteria and framework set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) in the publication Internal Control-Integrated Framework, an integrated framework for the evaluation of internal controls, for the evaluation of our internal controls in the future. Senior management will continue to consult with external experts to assist with the accounting for complex and non-routine accounting transactions.

Changes to Internal Controls and Procedures Over Financial Reporting

There have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during our fiscal year that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting, except as discussed herein.

Audit Committee

For the year ending December 31, 2010, the Company did not have an audit committee. However, the Company intends to establish a new and independent auditing committee consisting of a minimum of three members in accordance with a new corporate governance policy to be adopted by the Company in 2011 in order to comply with the rules and regulations of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Audit Committee Financial Expert

Our board of directors has determined that it does not have an audit committee member that qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined in Item 407(d)(5)(ii) of Regulation S-K. We believe that the audit committee to be formed will have members capable of collectively analyzing and evaluating our financial statements and understanding internal controls and procedures for financial reporting. In addition, we believe that retaining an independent director who would qualify as an audit committee financial expert would be overly costly and burdensome and is not warranted in our circumstances given the early stages of our development and the fact that we have not generated revenues to date.

Code of Ethics

We adopted a Code of Ethics applicable to all of our directors, officers, employees and consultants, which is a "code of ethics" as defined by applicable rules of the SEC. Our Code of Ethics is attached as an exhibit to our annual report on Form 10-KSB filed on February 13, 2008. If we make any amendments to our Code of Ethics other than technical, administrative, or other non-substantive amendments, or grant any waivers, including implicit waivers, from a provision of our Code of Ethics to our chief executive officer, chief financial officer, or certain other finance executives, we will disclose the nature of the amendment or waiver, its effective date and to whom it applies in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our executive officers and directors and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of our equity securities to file with the SEC initial statements of beneficial ownership, reports of changes in ownership and annual reports concerning their ownership of our common stock and other equity securities, on Forms 3, 4 and 5 respectively. Executive officers, directors and greater than 10% shareholders are required by the SEC regulations to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) reports that they file.

Based solely on our review of the copies of such forms received by us, or written representations from certain reporting persons, we have determined that the applicable Form 3s as required by Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act were not filed by our Chief Executive Officer, Daniel Carr, our Chief Technical Officer, Simon Arnison, and the Chairman of our Board of Directors, Erwin E. Sniedzins within ten (10) days of their appointment to such positions on January 21, 2010. Further, we have determined that the applicable Section 16(a) filings were not filed with the SEC for the following transactions: (a) 11,116,690 shares of restricted stock of the Company held by Birch First Advisors, LLC which was issued on January 10, 2011 for the purchase of 54.34% controlling ownership interest in Mount Knowledge USA, Inc. dated December 31, 2010, and (b) 1,955,536 shares of restricted common stock of the Company held by Mount Knowledge Inc., a company controlled by Erwin E. Sniedzins, Chairman and Director of the Company, (c) 712,053 and 264,959 shares of restricted stock of the Company issued, respectively, to Dirk Haddow, the President and CEO and Jeff Tennenbaum, the CFO and VP of Corporate Development of LKA, a subsidiary of the Company, which had not filed as of April 15, 2011. Director Independence

Our common stock is quoted on the OTC bulletin board interdealer quotation system, which does not have director independence requirements. Under NASDAQ rule 4200(a)(15), a director is not considered to be independent if he or she is also an executive officer or employee of the corporation. Our director, Daniel A. Carr, is also our chief executive officer, president and treasurer, our director Erwin Sniedzins, is also our Chairman, and our director, Simon Arnison, is also our Vice President and Chief Technology Officer. As a result, we do not have any independent directors.

As a result of our limited operating history and limited resources, our management believes that we will have difficulty in attracting independent directors. In addition, we would be likely be required to obtain directors and officers insurance coverage in order to attract and retain independent directors. Our management believes that the costs associated with maintaining such insurance is prohibitive at this time.

The audit committee has adopted specific policies and procedures for the engagement of non-audit services as set out in the Audit Committee Charter of our company. A copy of our company's Audit Committee Charter is filed as an exhibit to this annual report.

Transactions with Independent Directors

Our director, Daniel A. Carr, is also our chief executive officer, president and treasurer, our director Erwin Sniedzins, is also our Chairman, and our director, Simon Arnison, is also our Chief Technology Officer. As a result, we do not have any independent directors.

Board of Directors

Our board of directors currently acts with three members consisting of Erwin Sniedzins, Daniel A. Carr and Simon Arnison. We have determined that Erwin Sniedzins, Daniel A. Carr and Simon Arnison are not independent as that term is defined in National Instrument 52-110 due to the fact that they were all directors and officers.

Our board of directors facilitates its exercise of independent supervision over management by endorsing the guidelines for responsibilities of the board as set out by regulatory authorities on corporate governance in Canada and the United States. Our board's primary responsibilities are to supervise the management of our company, to establish an appropriate corporate governance system, and to set a tone of high professional and ethical standards.

The board is also responsible for:

- ◆ selecting and assessing members of the Board;
- ◆ choosing, assessing and compensating the Chief Executive Officer of our company, approving the compensation of all executive officers and ensuring that an orderly management succession plan exists;
- ◆ reviewing and approving our company's strategic plan, operating plan, capital budget and financial goals, and reviewing its performance against those plans;
- ◆ adopting a code of conduct and a disclosure policy for our company, and monitoring performance against those policies;
- ◆ ensuring the integrity of our company's internal control and management information systems;
- ◆ approving any major changes to our company's capital structure, including significant investments or financing arrangements; and
- ◆ reviewing and approving any other issues which, in the view of the Board or management, may require Board scrutiny.

Orientation and Continuing Education

We have an informal process to orient and educate new recruits to the board regarding their role of the board, our committees and our directors, as well as the nature and operations of our business. This process provides for an orientation with key members of the management staff, and further provides access to materials necessary to inform them of the information required to carry out their responsibilities as a board member. This information includes the most recent board approved budget, the most recent annual report, the audited financial statements and copies of the interim quarterly financial statements.

The board does not provide continuing education for its directors. Each director is responsible to maintain the skills and knowledge necessary to meet his or her obligations as directors.

Nomination of Directors

The board is responsible for identifying new director nominees. In identifying candidates for membership on the board, the board takes into account all factors it considers appropriate, which may include strength of character, mature judgment, career specialization, relevant technical skills, diversity and the extent to which the candidate would fill a present need on the board. As part of the process, the board, together with management, is responsible for conducting background searches, and is empowered to retain search firms to assist in the nominations process. Once candidates have gone through a screening process and met with a number of the existing directors, they are formally put forward as nominees for approval by the board.

Assessments

The board intends that individual director assessments be conducted by other directors, taking into account each director's contributions at board meetings, service on committees, experience base, and their general ability to contribute to one or more of our company's major needs. However, due to our stage of development and our need to deal with other urgent priorities, the board has not yet implemented such a process of assessment.

ITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICESAudit fees

The aggregate fees billed for the two most recently completed fiscal periods ended December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009 for professional services rendered by Jorgenson & Co. in 2009 and MaloneBailey LLP in 2010, both Chartered Accountants for the audit of our annual consolidated financial statements, quarterly reviews of our interim consolidated financial statements and services normally provided by the independent accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for these fiscal periods were as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2010	Year Ended December 31, 2009
Audit Fees and Audit Related Fees	120,000	5,000
Tax Fees	-	300
All Other Fees	-
Total	120,000	5,300

In the above table, audit fees are fees billed by our company's external auditor for services provided in auditing our company's annual financial statements for the subject year. Audit-related fees are fees not included in audit fees that are billed by the auditor for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit review of our company's financial statements. Tax fees are fees billed by the auditor for professional services rendered for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. All other fees are fees billed by the auditor for products and services not included in the foregoing categories.

Policy on Pre-Approval by Audit Committee of Services Performed by Independent Auditors

The board of directors pre-approves all services provided by our independent auditors. All of the above services and fees were reviewed and approved by the board of directors either before or after the respective services were rendered.

The board of directors has considered the nature and amount of fees billed by Jorgenson & Co. and Malone Bailey LLP and believes that the provision of services for activities unrelated to the audit is compatible with maintaining Malone Bailey LLP.
