Compensation of Directors

Under a compensation plan based on a study conducted by SCA Consulting LLC, the Board pays to each non-employee director an annual retainer fee of $20,000, payable quarterly, plus a fee of $1,000 for each regular meeting attended in person. Committee chairpersons receive an additional $1,000 per year. All of the directors, except for Mr. Hodson, are currently considered to be non-employee directors of the Company.

The 1995 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, provides that each non-employee director automatically be granted options to purchase 2,083 shares of the Company's Common Stock, effective at the conclusion of each annual meeting. All such stock options (i) vest ratably at 25% at the end of each calendar quarter following the grant, provided the director holding the options continues to serve as a director at the end of each such quarter, and (ii) have an exercise price equal to the "fair market value" of the underlying shares, which is defined in the 1995 Stock Incentive Plan as the closing trading price on the day before such annual meeting.

In April 2004, based on the financial condition of the Company, the Board of Directors unanimously agreed to defer the payment of the Director fees discussed above until such time as the financial condition of the Company improves.

Employment Agreements and Arrangements

Simon Hodson currently does not have a written employment agreement with the Company. His previous employment agreement expired on September 30, 2001. Mr. Hodson receives an annual salary of $500,000, subject to annual review and increase at the discretion of the Board of Directors. He may also be entitled to receive (i) an annual bonus, the amount of which is determined by the Compensation Committee, and (ii) options or other rights to acquire Common Stock, under terms and conditions determined by the Stock Option Committee. Mr. Hodson may be terminated at any time with or without cause. In order to conserve cash until the Company is able to establish its royalty revenue stream, Mr.

Edgar Filing: EARTHSHELL CORP - Form 10-K/A

Hodson agreed to a 40% reduction in base salary to $300,000 per year effective April 16, 2004.

D. Scott Houston entered into a written employment agreement with the Company on October 19, 1993. Mr. Houston receives an annual salary of $320,000, subject to annual review and increase at the discretion of the Board of Directors. He may also be entitled to receive (i) an annual bonus, the amount of which is determined by the Compensation Committee, and (ii) options or other rights to acquire the Common Stock, under terms and conditions determined by the Stock Option Committee. Mr. Houston may be terminated at any time, with or without cause, upon thirty (30) days notice. In order to conserve cash until the Company is able to establish its royalty revenue stream, Mr. Houston agreed to a 75% reduction in base salary to $80,000 per year effective April 16, 2004, and is currently working on a part-time basis.

Vincent J. Truant entered into an employment agreement with the Company with a commencement date of May 1, 1998. The agreement provides for an annual salary of $225,000 and options to acquire 6,250 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price equal to $252.00 per share, which is the price at which the Company's Common Stock was first sold to the public in the Company's initial public offering. The Board of Directors increased Mr. Truant's annual salary to $250,000 on September 29, 1999. The Board of Directors further increased Mr. Truant's salary to $275,000 effective January 1, 2000. On May 15, 2002, the Board increased Mr. Truant's salary to $350,000 in connection with his new responsibilities as President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Truant may also be entitled to receive (i) an annual bonus in an amount equal to one year's base salary, provided certain financial and other milestones determined by Mr. Truant and the Compensation Committee are met by Mr. Truant and the Company, and, in the event such milestones are not met, or are significantly exceeded, such other lesser or greater bonus as the Compensation Committee shall determine, and (ii) options or other rights to acquire Common Stock, under terms and conditions determined by the Stock Option Committee. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Truant may be terminated at any time, with or without cause, upon thirty (30) days written notice, provided that, if the Company terminates Mr. Truant's employment for other than cause, he will be entitled to receive a one-time severance payment equal to 100% of his then-current annual base salary.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

All decisions relating to executive compensation during 2003 were made by the Company's Compensation Committee, which was comprised of Mr. Khashoggi, Mrs. Khashoggi and Mr. Moyer through July 2003 (at which time Mr. Moyer resigned from the Board), and Mr. Khashoggi, Mrs. Khashoggi and Dr. Roland from July 2003 through December 31, 2003. None of the members were officers of the Company in 2003. Mr. Khashoggi is the controlling stockholder of EKI, the Company's principal stockholder with whom the Company has certain relationships and related transactions described below. Mr. Khashoggi is the beneficial owner of 35.91% of the Common Stock of the Company.

The Company has an exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to use and license EKI technology to manufacture and sell disposable, single-use containers for packaging or serving food and beverages intended for consumption within a short period of time (less than 24 hours).

On July 29, 2002, the Company entered into an amendment to its Amended and Restated License Agreement with EKI (the "License Agreement") expanding the field of use for the EarthShell technology to include noodle bowls used for packaging instant noodles. Because the noodle bowl development was made at no cost to EarthShell and is an incremental field of use, EarthShell will pay to EKI 50% of any royalty or other consideration it receives in connection with the sale of products within this field of use.

In addition, on July 29, 2002 the Company entered into a License & Information Transfer Agreement with Biotec (the "Biotec Agreement"), a wholly owned subsidiary of EKI, to utilize Biotec technology for foodservice applications, including food wraps and cutlery used in foodservice applications. EKI had previously granted to the Company priority rights to license certain product applications on an exclusive basis from Biotec in consideration for the Company's payment of a $100,000 monthly licensing fee to Biotec. In addition, in consideration of the monthly payment, Biotec agreed to render technical services to the Company at Biotec's cost plus 5%. The licensing fee and services arrangements were continued in the Biotec Agreement. Under the terms of the Biotec Agreement, Biotec is entitled to receive 25% of any royalties or other consideration that the Company receives in connection with the sale of products utilizing Biotec technology.

During 2002, and January 2003, EKI made a series of loans to the Company totaling approximately $5.8 million. These loans were used to pay operating costs, and accrued interest at 7% or 10% per annum. In connection with the issuance and sale in March 2003 of the Company's 2% secured convertible debentures due in 2006 (the "2006 Debentures") to a group of institutional investors, EKI agreed to subordinate the repayment of these loans to the payment in full of the Company's obligations under the 2006 Debentures. In addition, EKI and Biotec agreed to subordinate certain payments to which they were otherwise entitled under the License Agreement and the Biotec Agreement referenced above (other than their respective percentages of any royalties received by the Company) to the satisfaction in full of the Company's obligations under the 2006 Debentures. They further agreed to not assert any claims against the Company for breaches of the License Agreement or the Biotec Agreement (other than the assertion of certain equitable remedies to enjoin the Company from, for example, selling products outside its field of use) until such time as the Company's obligations under the 2006 Debentures are satisfied in full. EKI and Biotec also agreed to allow the Company to pledge its interest in the License Agreement to secure its obligations under the 2006 Debentures, and certain additional concessions were made by EKI and Biotec to permit the Company greater flexibility in selling its rights under the License Agreement and the Biotec Agreement to third parties in an insolvency context. These rights terminate upon the satisfaction in full of the obligations under the 2006 Debentures. In consideration for its willingness to subordinate the payments and advances that are owed to it, the Company issued to EKI in March 2003 an immediately vested warrant to acquire 83,333 shares of the Company's common stock at a price of $6.00 per share with a ten year term.

Under the terms of the License Agreement and the Amended and Restated Patent Agreement for the Allocation of Patent Costs between the Company and EKI, any patents granted in connection with the EarthShell technology are the property of EKI, and EKI may obtain a benefit therefrom, including the utilization and/or licensing of the patents and related technology in a manner or for uses unrelated to the license granted to the Company in the foodservice disposables field of use. Effective January 1, 2001, EarthShell assumed direct responsibility to manage and maintain the patent portfolio underlying the License Agreement with EKI and to pay directly all related costs.

In connection with the issuance and sale of the 2006 Debentures, Mr. Essam Khashoggi, who controls EKI and is the beneficial owner of 35.91% of the Company's Common Stock, agreed for himself and on behalf of EKI, not to sell any of the Company's shares for an 18 month period ending in August 2004 (excluding shares issuable to former EKI employees under existing option grants and shares pledged under an existing security agreement with a third party lender).

Edgar Filing: EARTHSHELL CORP - Form 10-K/A

During 1998, EKI entered into certain agreements with an equipment manufacturer providing for the purchase by EKI of certain technology applicable to starch-based disposable packaging. EKI licenses such technology to the Company on a royalty-free basis pursuant to the License Agreement. In connection with this purchase, and pursuant to the terms of a letter agreement with EKI, the Company agreed to pay the seller of the technology $3.5 million on or about December 31, 2003. In the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company negotiated a reduction of the obligation to $1.6 million, which was then paid in the fourth quarter of 2003. In addition, the Company is required to pay the seller $3.0 million over the five-year period commencing January 1, 2004 if EKI, the Company or their licensees make active use of the technology and have not purchased, by December 31, 2003, at least $35.0 million of equipment from the seller. As of December 31, 2003, the Company and its licensees have neither actively used the technology nor purchased equipment from the seller. The Company does not plan to make active use of the technology during the year ending December 31, 2004. EKI has agreed to indemnify the Company to the extent the Company is required to pay any portion of this $3.0 million obligation solely as a result of EKI's or its licensees' active use of such patents and related technology (other than use by the Company or its sublicensees).

In July 2002, the Company extended a loan in the amount of $55,000 to Mr. Vincent Truant, President and Chief Operating Officer. The loan is due upon demand by the Company.

In 2003, the Company paid Mr. Rast, a Director, a $4,000 consulting fee for doing a detailed evaluation of its demonstration equipment in Europe.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of EarthShell Corporation is pleased to present its annual report on executive compensation. This report describes the function of the Compensation Committee, the objectives of the Company's executive compensation program, the various components of compensation, and explains the basis upon which 2003 compensation determinations were made by the Compensation Committee with respect to the executive officers of the Company, including the Named Executive Officers, with the exception of Mr. Kumar who was not an officer of the Company.

Compensation Committee Charter

The Compensation Committee is charged with the following responsibilities:

- o reviewing and recommending to the Board of Directors the annual base salary, bonus and other benefits for the senior executive officers of the Company;
- o reviewing and commenting on new executive compensation programs that the Company proposes to adopt;
- o periodically reviewing the results of the Company's executive compensation and perquisite programs to ensure that they are properly coordinated to yield payments and benefits that are reasonably related to executive performance;
- o ensuring that a significant portion of executive compensation is reasonably related to the long-term interests of the stockholders;

Edgar Filing: EARTHSHELL CORP - Form 10-K/A

- o participating in the preparation of certain portions of the Company's annual proxy statement;
- o if necessary, hiring a compensation expert to provide independent advice on compensation levels; and
- o ensuring that the Company undertakes appropriate planning for management succession and advancement.

Compensation Components

The Company's executive compensation program consists of a mixture of base salary, cash bonuses and stock options. In determining the mix and total amount of compensation for each executive officer, the Compensation Committee subjectively considers each executive's overall value to the Company including past and expected contributions by the executive to the Company's goals. In addition, the Compensation Committee strives to balance short-term and long-term incentive compensation to achieve desired results.

Shortly following the Company's initial public offering in March 1998, anticipating that it would be hiring several new executives as part of its next stage of development, the Company commissioned SCA Consulting LLC ("SCA"), a Los Angeles based executive compensation consulting firm, to update its executive compensation strategy and total pay structure. As part of its assignment, SCA developed a study of the compensation practices of newly public, development stage companies. The Compensation Committee references this study as it administers each of the three components of its executive compensation program to ensure that its compensation practices are competitive and that the overall compensation package appropriately attracts, motivates, rewards, and retains key employees with outstanding abilities.

Base Salary. The Company has historically determined base salary for its executives based on qualifications, job requirements and competitive market salaries that such qualifications and job requirements command. As the Company grows, it will continue to rely on peer group competitive compensation practices to remain consistent and competitive in its compensation practices.

The Company paid base compensation to Mr. Vincent Truant, President and Chief Operating Officer, in the amount of $350,000 for his services to the Company during 2003. Pursuant to an employment agreement effective October 15, 1993, Mr. D. Scott Houston, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary received base compensation during 2003 of $327,200, reflecting various adjustments since 1993. In addition, the Company paid a base salary to Dr. Per J. Andersen, Chief Science Officer in the amount of $287,200 for his services to the Company during 2003. The base salary figures for Mr. Houston and Dr. Andersen reflect a $7,200 car allowance.

Salaries for executives are reviewed by the Compensation Committee on an annual basis and may be adjusted based upon their assessment of the individual's contribution to and financial growth of the Company as well as competitive pay levels. The Compensation Committee made no executive salary adjustments in 2003. In order to conserve cash until the Company is able to establish its royalty revenue stream, Mr. Hodson and Mr. Houston agreed to a 40% and 75% reduction in base salary, respectively, effective April 16, 2004.

Bonus. Bonuses may be granted for a fiscal year after the financial results for that fiscal year become available. The Compensation Committee meets to consider annual bonuses for each executive based on individual performance as well as overall financial results of the Company for the year. There is no plan requiring that bonuses be paid. However, pursuant to their employment agreements, certain executive officers may be entitled to receive an annual bonus, the actual amount of which is determined in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee.

The Compensation Committee also may consider bonus compensation in light of the accomplishment of specific milestones developed by management in support of the annual strategic plan.

On March 24, 2004, the Compensation Committee met to review and consider the performance of senior management. In determining whether to grant management bonuses for 2003, the Compensation Committee considered both individual performance as well as the Company's overall performance. Although the Compensation Committee noted several significant individual and Company achievements during the year, in light of the delays the Company has experienced in commercializing the Company's technology as well as the financial condition of the Company, the Compensation Committee determined that no bonuses for 2003 would be granted.

Stock Options. The Compensation Committee believes that significant equity interests in the Company in the form of stock options held by the Company's management serve to align the interests of the executive management team with those of stockholders. The Stock Option Committee may grant stock options and restricted stock to executives and other key employees of the Company pursuant to the 1995 Stock Incentive Plan. In September of 2003, the Stock Option Committee granted to individual members of management fully vested stock options issued under the 1995 Stock Incentive Plan at the then-current market price exercisable only upon successful completion of certain milestones that are critical to the long-term success of the Company. The option grants were as follows:

	Stock Options

Simon K. Hodson	41,667
Vincent Truant	20,833
D. Scott Houston	20,833
Per J. Andersen	20,833

The stock options granted are reflected in the Stock Options Grant table.

The Stock Option Committee will continue to consider various methods to provide additional incentives to management and employees of the Company, including granting additional stock options and/or restricted stock. In determining the grants of stock options and restricted stock, the Stock Option Committee will take into account, among other things, the respective scope of responsibility and the anticipated performance requirements and contributions to the Company of each proposed award recipient as well as the amounts of prior grants.

Compensation to Chief Executive Officer in 2003

Edgar Filing: EARTHSHELL CORP - Form 10-K/A

The Compensation Committee meets annually to evaluate the Chief Executive Officer's performance and to review the Chief Executive Officer's compensation. A founder of the Company and co-innovator of the technology, Mr. Simon K. Hodson has been a driving force in making the Company - as a corporation and as a new packaging concept - a reality. His concern for the environment, coupled with his visionary leadership and commitment, has helped the Company achieve its current state of development.

In reviewing Mr. Simon Hodson's compensation, the Compensation Committee considers his principal responsibilities, which include providing overall vision and strategic direction for EarthShell, attracting and retaining highly qualified employees and developing and maintaining key customer and capital relationships.

Mr. Hodson received a base compensation of $500,000 during 2003. This amount was based on the Compensation Committee's assessment that Mr. Hodson is uniquely qualified to lead the Company through its early development stages to initial commercialization. The Board determined that his vision for the Company, both from a technical and business viewpoint, continues to be pivotal in bringing the Company to the point of commercializing its first product lines. Based in part on the foregoing, the Compensation Committee concluded that the $500,000 base salary compensation was appropriate for 2003.

In order to conserve cash until the Company is able to establish its royalty revenue stream, Mr. Hodson agreed to a 40% reduction in base salary effective April 16, 2004.

In determining Mr. Hodson's 2003 annual bonus, the Compensation Committee considered both Mr. Hodson's individual performance as well as that of the Company overall. Although the Compensation Committee noted several significant achievements during the year, in light of the delays the Company has experienced in commercializing the Company's technology as well as the financial condition of the Company, the Compensation Committee determined that no bonus for 2003 would be granted.

On September 19, 2003, Mr. Hodson was granted 10-year, fully vested options to purchase 41,667 shares of Common Stock at the then-current market value, exercisable only after the completion of certain milestones that are critical to the long-term success of the Company

Mr. Hodson owns a minority profits interest in EKI, the Company's majority stockholder.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), limits the deductibility of compensation over $1 million to certain executive officers unless, in general, the compensation is paid pursuant to a plan which is performance related, non-discretionary and has been approved by the Company's stockholders. The Company did not pay any compensation in 2003 that would be subject to Code Section 162(m). The Compensation Committee intends to establish policies regarding qualification of compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code to the extent it considers such policies appropriate.
