COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") was established in 1992 and is comprised of two of the independent, non-employee members of the Board of Directors. Neither of these individuals was an officer or employee of the Company at any time during fiscal 2005 or at any other time and neither of them have interlocking relationships as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Compensation Committee is responsible for setting and administering the policies governing annual compensation of executive officers, considers their performance and makes recommendations regarding their cash compensation and stock options to the full Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee periodically reviews its approach to executive compensation and makes changes as appropriate.

The Compensation Committee's philosophy is that executive compensation must be competitive with other comparable employers to insure that qualified employees can be attracted and retained and that the Company's compensation practices should provide incentives and rewards for achieving or exceeding goals and for creating a return to the Company's shareholders. The Compensation Committee uses three components to achieve these goals: base salary, bonuses and stock based awards. In 2004, the Compensation Committee retained Mercer Human Resource Consulting to assess the market competitiveness of the compensation of the Company's executive officers and to evaluate the pay-for-performance criteria of the compensation program. Mercer Human Resource Consulting also made a presentation to the Compensation Committee on the trends in executive compensation.

On December 5, 2005, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors approved an annual cash bonus program which is designed to link incentive with performance. The bonus program is intended to provide incentives to eligible participants to grow the business of the Company both financially and strategically while also increasing shareholder value. The program will be effective for fiscal 2006.

The Compensation Committee evaluates and establishes base salary levels in light of economic conditions and comparisons to other similarly situated companies. Bonuses, if any, are dependent upon an evaluation of the Company's performance and achievement of its financial and other goals during the relevant period, and the achievement of specific objectives of each executive officer. The Company maintains stock option plans which allow for the grant of stock options and restricted stock awards to directors and executive officers of the Company as well as other employees of the Company. In 2004, the Board of Directors approved the amendment of the stock option plans to provide for the issuance of stock appreciation rights which gave the Compensation Committee broader compensation alternatives. However, no stock appreciation rights were granted in 2004 or 2005. Stock options and restricted stock awards, which the Compensation Committee believes provide a strong link between executive compensation and shareholder return, are used to provide long-term incentives based on shareholder return.

In establishing compensation levels for the executive officers of the Company, including the Named Executives, the Compensation Committee considers compensation at companies in the electronics industries with similar levels of sales and capital. The companies considered were not necessarily the same as those included in the performance chart set forth in this Proxy Statement due to the difference in the size of the companies considered. The Compensation Committee adjusts executive compensation in connection with this review. Generally, the Compensation Committee believes that its expectation of performance of the Company and its executive officers should allow executive compensation to fall within the median to 75th percentile of compensation of this comparison group. The Compensation Committee believes that its three-part approach results in a compensation program which is aligned with the Company's needs and results and balances both short and long-term goals.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the Company's ability to deduct certain compensation (in excess of $1,000,000 per year per person) paid to the Named Executives unless certain formal requirements are satisfied. The Compensation Committee believes however that its ability to subjectively evaluate executive officer performance is an important part of its function and its ability to provide incentives. Additionally compensation paid to the Named Executives has historically not exceeded deductibility limits under Section 162(m). Accordingly the Compensation Committee has not required that all compensation programs comply with Section 162(m) although the Compensation Committee considers compliance in establishing individual compensation components.

2005 EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Base salaries for executive officers of the Company are established primarily upon an evaluation of the executive officer's position in the Company, competitive market practices, individual performance, level of responsibility and technical expertise. The base salaries for Mr. Smith and Mr. Lewis are set forth in their respective employment agreements which are described above under the caption Certain Agreements. Annual bonus and stock option awards are based on subjective and objective factors such as individual performance, position in the Company relative to other executive officers, length of service with the Company, competitive market practices, past contributions to the Company and expected future contributions and the Company's performance and achievement of its financial and other goals during the fiscal year and the achievement of specific objectives of each executive officer. In fiscal 2005, Mr. Smith received a bonus of $188,500. Mr. Smith also received 1,000 shares of restricted stock with a value of $14,560. The restricted stock was granted on January 17, 2005 and the closing price was $14.56. There were no dividends and the restrictions lapsed quarterly over a one year period. Mr. Smith also received 75,000 stock options. Mr. Lewis received a bonus of $75,000. Mr. Lewis also received 500 shares of restricted stock with a value of $7,280. The restricted stock was granted on January 17, 2005 and the closing price was $14.56. There were no dividends and the restrictions lapsed quarterly over a one year period. Mr. Lewis also received 30,000 stock options. Mr. Fego, who resigned from the Company on January 25, 2005, did not receive a bonus or any stock options for fiscal 2005.

2005 CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION

Mr. Macricostas is not an employee of the Company but is compensated pursuant to a consulting agreement (which is described above under the caption Certain Agreements) he entered into on April 18, 2003 which was amended and superseded on July 11, 2005. Mr. Macricostas served as Chief Executive Officer of the Company until June 7, 2005. In fiscal 2005, Mr. Macricostas received $200,089 pursuant to his consulting agreement referred to above. Mr. Macricostas received a bonus of $150,000 for his performance as Chief Executive Officer. This bonus was determined based on subjective and objective factors such as his individual performance, his position in the Company, length of service with the Company, competitive market practices, past contributions to the Company, and expected future contributions and the Company's performance and achievement of its financial and other goals during the fiscal year and the achievement of Mr. Macricostas' specific objectives. Mr. Macricostas also received $40,000 as Chairman of the Board for fiscal 2005 as well as 4,000 shares of restricted stock. The restricted stock was granted on February 14, 2005. The closing price was $16.65 and therefore the restricted stock had a value of $66,600. There were no dividends and the restrictions lapsed quarterly over a one-year period. Mr. Macricostas also received 30,000 stock options.

Mr. Luttati, who became Chief Executive Officer of the Company on June 7, 2005, received a salary of $171,730 and a bonus of $190,000 for fiscal 2005. Mr. Luttati's base compensation is set forth in his employment agreement which is described above under the caption Certain Agreements. Pursuant to Mr. Luttati's employment agreement, Mr. Luttati has the opportunity to receive a performance based incentive bonus up to an amount equal to 100% of his base salary. The percentage may be increased to 125% of his base salary to reward extraordinary performance. For fiscal 2005, Mr. Luttati received a bonus of 100% of his base salary pro-rated to reflect the fact that he joined the Company in June 2005. Mr. Luttati also received 250,000 stock options in fiscal 2005.

Respectfully submitted,

Walter M. Fiederowicz, Chairman

Joseph A. Fiorita, Jr.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares the yearly percentage change at October 31(*) of the indicated year in the cumulative total shareholder return on the Company's Common Stock with the cumulative total return on (i) securities traded on the NASDAQ market, and (ii) publicly traded securities of companies which have indicated that their business falls within Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Code 367 (Electronic Components and Accessories) (the "Peer Index"). The graph assumes that $100 was invested on October 31, 2000 in the Company's Common Stock; in the NASDAQ market index and in the Peer Index, and that all dividends were reinvested. Although the Company believes this graph reflects favorably on the Company, it does not believe that the comparison is necessarily useful in determining the quality of the Company's performance or in establishing executive compensation.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company is a party to a long-term service contract entered into in 2002 pursuant to which it outsources the administration of its global wide area network and related communication services to RagingWire Enterprise Solutions, Inc. ("RagingWire"), a supplier of secure data center facilities and managed information technology services, located in Sacramento, California. Constantine Macricostas is a founder, majority shareholder and the Chairman of the Board of Directors of RagingWire, and his son, George Macricostas is a director and Executive Vice Chairman of Raging Wire. Since 2002, the Company has entered into additional contracts with RagingWire ranging from 12 months to 52 months to provide additional services. The decision to pursue an outsourced solution to satisfy the Company's network and communications needs was made by management, and the Company obtained bids from and reviewed the service offerings of six other global and regional vendors before RagingWire was selected as the most favorably priced solution for its service offerings. During the 2005 fiscal year, the Company incurred expenses of $3.7 million for services provided to the Company by RagingWire.

Soo Hoo Jeong, an officer of the Company, who also serves as the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company's majority held subsidiary in Korea, PK Ltd. (PKL) is also a significant shareholder of S&S Tech which serves as a supplier of photomask blanks to the Company. In 2005, the Company purchased $13.6 million of photomask blanks from S&S Tech of which $1.8 million was owed to S&S Tech as of October 30, 2005.

The Company has an operating policy with the purpose of ensuring that contracts with entities in which any director, officer or other member of management has a financial interest are competitively priced and commercially reasonable. Under the policy, any such contract must be reviewed and approved in advance by the Audit Committee, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company and the Company will obtain independent assessment of the commercial reasonableness of the contract as considered necessary.

The Company believes that the terms of the transactions described above with affiliated persons were negotiated at arm's-length and were no less favorable to the Company than the Company could have obtained from non-affiliated parties.

During fiscal 2005, the Company initiated a plan to acquire all of the outstanding shares of PKL. As part of the purchase of outstanding shares, the Company acquired 1,136,036 shares or 3.4% from employees, including officers, of PKL for 8,980 won per share or $8.70 U.S. dollars per share. Two of the employees from whom the shares were purchased were Soo Hoo Jeong the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of PKL and Margaret Sakai, the Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of PKL and an officer of the Company. The total purchase price of $9.9 million from PKL employees represents a premium of approximately 15% per share above similar purchases of stock from other stockholders during the same time period.
