Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On September 1, 2017, Micronet Enertec Technologies, Inc., or the Company, received a written notice from the NASDAQ Stock Market LLC, or Nasdaq, indicating that the Company was not in compliance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2), as the Company's closing bid price for its common stocks was below $1.00 per share for the last 30 consecutive business days.

Pursuant to Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has been granted a 180-calendar day compliance period, or until February 28, 2018, to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement. During the compliance period, the Company's common stocks will continue to be listed and traded on the Nasdaq Stock Market. If the Company chooses to implement a reverse stock split, it must complete the split no later than ten business days prior to the expiration date, February 28, 2018, in order to regain compliance. To regain compliance, the closing bid price of the Company's common stocks must meet or exceed $1.00 per share for at least 10 consecutive business days during the 180-calendar day compliance period.

If the Company is not in compliance by February 28, 2018, the Company may be afforded a second 180-calendar day compliance period. To qualify for this additional time, the Company will be required to meet the continued listing requirement for market value of publicly held shares and all other initial listing standards for Nasdaq with the exception of the minimum bid price requirement, and will need to provide written notice of its intention to cure the deficiency during the second compliance period, by effecting a reverse stock split, if necessary.

If the Company does not regain compliance within the allotted compliance period(s), including any extensions that may be granted by Nasdaq, Nasdaq will provide notice that the Company's common stocks will be subject to delisting.

The Company intends to monitor the closing bid price of its common stocks between now and February 28, 2018 and will consider available options to resolve the Company's noncompliance with the minimum bid price requirement as may be necessary. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement or will otherwise be in compliance with other Nasdaq listing criteria.
