Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On August 8, 2008, Conexant Systems, Inc. (the "Company") completed the sale of certain assets related to its Broadband Media Processing business (the "Closing") to NXP B.V. ("NXP"), pursuant to the terms of an Asset Purchase Agreement dated April 29, 2008 (the "Agreement"). NXP paid to the Company an aggregate of approximately $110 million (of which $11 million was deposited into an escrow account). The escrow account will remain in place for twelve (12) months following the Closing to satisfy potential indemnification claims by NXP. Additional consideration of up to $35 million is payable to the Company contingent on the achievement of certain financial milestones through the end of the 2009 calendar year.

Assets sold pursuant to the Agreement include, among other things, specified patents, inventory, contracts and tangible assets. NXP assumed certain liabilities, including obligations under transferred contracts and certain employee-related liabilities. Subject to certain exceptions and other provisions, each party has agreed to indemnify the other for breaches of representations and warranties, breaches of covenants and certain other matters.

NXP and the Company also entered into an IP License Agreement, which became effective upon the Closing. Pursuant to the IP License Agreement, the Company granted to NXP a license to use certain of the Company's retained technology assets in connection with NXP's current and future products in certain fields of use, along with a patent license covering certain of the Company's retained patents to make, use, and sell such products (or, in some cases, components of such products). The licenses granted to NXP are nonexclusive, except that, for a limited period of time after the Closing, NXP has certain exclusive rights under the technology license in certain fields of use. In addition, NXP has granted back to the Company a license to use the technology assets that were sold by the Company to NXP in certain fields of use, along with a patent license in certain fields of use covering the patents that were sold by the Company to NXP. The licenses granted back to the Company are nonexclusive, except that, for a limited period of time after the Closing, the Company has certain exclusive rights under the technology license in certain fields of use. All of the licenses granted in the IP License Agreement are royalty-free and irrevocable.
