Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

The Board of Directors of Skechers U.S.A., Inc. (the "Company") elected Richard Rappaport and Thomas Walsh as additional members of the Board effective as of September 10, 2010. The Company's bylaws require that each class of the Company's directors be as nearly equal in number as possible if the size of the Board of Directors is increased. In accordance with the Company's bylaws, Mr. Rappaport will serve as a Class I director until the Company's annual meeting of stockholders in 2011, while Mr. Walsh will serve as a Class III director until the Company's annual meeting of stockholders in 2012. Each of them will serve thereafter until his successor is duly elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal.

Since 1999, Mr. Rappaport has been the Chief Executive Officer of WestPark Capital, a full service investment banking and securities brokerage firm. Mr. Walsh worked for over 30 years as an asset-based lending executive until retiring in 2006, which included serving as Senior Vice President and Portfolio Manager at Colbie Pacific Capital from 1993 until his retirement. The Board of Directors has determined that they are both independent under Section 303A.02 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual, and there are no related party transactions between the Company and either of them that are reportable under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
