On February 17, 2012, the Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Board granted restricted stock to its named executive officers (NEOs) in connection with 2011 performance. The actions taken were consistent with the requirements of the Interim Final Rule on TARP Standards for Compensation and Corporate Governance issued by the U.S. Department of the Treasury in June 2009 (the TARP Interim Final Rule). The TARP Interim Final Rule imposes certain restrictions on compensation paid by the Corporation to its senior executive officers and certain other employees as a participant in the TARP Capital Purchase Program (CPP).

In light of the CPP-related restrictions, the Corporation's incentive program for NEOs is solely in the form of restricted stock, thereby aligning executive performance with the Corporation's long-term profitability and the optimal use of shareholder capital. Consistent with the requirements of the CPP, the shares will vest (i.e., no longer be subject to forfeiture) on the second anniversary of the grant date and will be transferable in 25% increments as the Corporation repays each 25% portion of the aggregate financial assistance received under TARP, or on its totality upon completion of repayment of the TARP funds. However, in addition to the above CPP requirements, in order to be transferable the Corporation must also have achieved profitability for at least one fiscal year. The Committee added profitability as a condition for transferability in order to enhance the alignment of the Corporation's executive compensation with shareholder interests. The awards are subject to clawback if they are found to have been based on materially inaccurate financial statements or performance criteria.

The Corporation's NEOs were each awarded equity equivalent to 50% of prior-year base pay (i.e., less than the maximum permissible amount of one-third of annual compensation under the TARP Interim Final Rule) in light of the reduced total incentive opportunity under CPP restrictions and in recognition of the Corporation's financial performance and each NEOs specific contributions during 2011.

The following are the restricted stock grants to NEOs:

NEO	Number of Shares of Restricted Stock Awarded
Richard L. Carrión Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer	391,756
Jorge A. Junquera Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer	184,375
Carlos J. Vázquez Executive Vice President and President of Banco Popular North America	181,607
Ignacio Alvarez Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer	169,494
Eli Sepúlveda Executive Vice President	114,048
