Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory
Arrangements of Certain Officers

(e) On October 26, 2012, Harris Corporation (Harris or the Company) entered into a new indemnification agreement in substantially the same form as the Company s new form of director and executive officer indemnification agreement (the New Indemnification Agreement Form) attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, with each current member of the Company s board of directors (the Board), including William M. Brown, the Company s President and Chief Executive Officer. The Company intends to enter into a new indemnification agreement in substantially the same form as the New Indemnification Agreement Form with each of the other executive officers currently employed with the Company, including the other named executive officers currently employed with the Company, in the near future. Each new indemnification agreement with a current director or an executive officer currently employed with the Company replaces and supersedes the prior indemnification agreement between the Company and such director or executive officer, if such director and executive officer was a party to a prior indemnification agreement with the Company. The New Indemnification Agreement Form is intended for use by the Company for indemnification agreements entered into by the Company with directors and executive officers on or after October 26, 2012.

Under the New Indemnification Agreement Form, the Company agrees to indemnify each of its directors and executive officers (each, an Indemnitee) with respect to the Indemnitee s activities as a director, officer or employee of the Company, including service at the request of the Company as a director, officer, trustee, member, stockholder, partner, incorporator or liquidator or in any other capacity for another corporation, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or as a fiduciary, trustee or administrator (or in any similar capacity) of any employee benefit plan or other plan or program sponsored by the Company or any subsidiary of the Company (an Agent), against any judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement and Expenses (as defined therein) actually and reasonably incurred, in connection with any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, arbitration, alternative dispute mechanism or any other proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether brought by a third party or by or in the right of the Company, individually or collectively (a Proceeding), to which the Indemnitee was, is, or is threatened to be made a party or may reasonably be expected to become a party by reason of facts which include the Indemnitee being or having been such a director, officer, employee or Agent, to the extent of the highest and most advantageous benefits to the Indemnitee under one or any combination of the following: (i) the Company s certificate of incorporation or By-Laws in effect on the date of the indemnification agreement or at the time indemnification is sought or Expenses are incurred by the Indemnitee; (ii) Delaware law in effect on the date of the indemnification agreement or the law of the jurisdiction under which the Company exists at the time indemnification is sought or Expenses are incurred by the Indemnitee; (iii) liability insurance obtained by the Company; and (iv) then existing practices of the Company. The Company also agrees to promptly pay, at the Indemnitee s request, the Expenses as and when incurred by the Indemnitee in advance of any final disposition of any Proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Indemnitee to repay such amounts so paid on the Indemnitee s behalf if it shall ultimately be determined that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company.

The foregoing summary of the Company s New Indemnification Agreement Form is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the complete text of the Company s New Indemnification Agreement Form, filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Amendment to Restated Certificate of Incorporation

At the 2012 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company held on October 26, 2012, the shareholders of the Company approved an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the Amendment) to permit holders of 25% of the voting power of all the outstanding shares of common stock to require the Company's Secretary to call special meetings of shareholders, to the extent required by the Company's By-Laws (which also have been amended, as described below). The Amendment became effective upon filing of the Company's Certificate of Amendment to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on October 26, 2012. A copy of the Certificate of Amendment is filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference into this Item 5.03.

Amendment and Restatement of By-Laws

On October 26, 2012, effective concurrently with the effectiveness of the Amendment, the Company's By-Laws were amended and restated, pursuant to action by the Board of Directors (the Board) of the Company, upon the recommendation of the Company's Corporate Governance Committee. The following is a summary of the changes effected by the amendments to the By-Laws:

The By-Law amendments provide that the 25% voting power standard set forth in the Amendment will be determined by reference to record ownership. In particular, only net long shares (as defined in the By-Law amendments which have been held for one year or longer will be counted, to ensure that the shareholders seeking to call a special meeting have a true economic and long-term interest in the Company. In addition, the By-Law amendments establish the procedures by which shareholders may require the Company's Secretary to call a special meeting. The By-Law amendments impose certain procedural requirements on shareholders requesting such a meeting (including the provision of the same information required for shareholder proposals at annual meetings under the Company's advance notice By-Law provisions). The By-Law amendments also impose qualifications designed to prevent duplicative and unnecessary meetings by eliminating proposals that:

are not proper subjects for shareholder action under applicable law;

are received during the period beginning 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the prior annual meeting of shareholders and ending on the date of the next annual meeting of shareholders;

are substantially similar to another item, other than the nomination, election or removal of directors, that was presented at a meeting of shareholders held within the prior 12 months;

are for the nomination, election or removal of directors and a similar item was presented at a meeting of shareholders held within the prior 120 days; or are substantially similar to another item that is included in the Company's notice as an item of business to be brought before a shareholder meeting that has been called but not yet held or that is called for a date within 90 days of the receipt of the request.

The By-Law amendments provide that a special meeting must be called within 90 calendar days after the receipt by the Company of valid requests by holders of the requisite number of shares.

The foregoing summary of the By-Law amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the complete text of the Company's By-Laws, as amended and restated effective October 26, 2012, filed as Exhibit 3.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference into this Item 5.03.
