Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 23, 2014, Validus Specialty, Inc. (the “Acquiror”), a subsidiary of Validus Holdings, Ltd. (“Validus”), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the “Stock Purchase Agreement”) with Western World Insurance Group, Inc. (“Western World”), the shareholders of Western World (the “Sellers”), Validus (solely for purposes of Article I, Section 5.08, Section 6.08, Section 9.03 and Article XI thereof), and Andrew S. Frazier (in his capacity as the Sellers’ Representative).

Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Acquiror has agreed to purchase, and the Sellers have agreed to sell, all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Western World for an aggregate purchase price of $690 million in cash, which purchase price is subject to adjustment based on pre-closing payments to shareholders, transaction expenses and the timing of closing as further described in the Stock Purchase Agreement. Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, Validus has agreed to guarantee the obligations of the Acquiror under the Stock Purchase Agreement.

The Stock Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of the Sellers, Western World, the Acquiror and Validus, including covenants requiring Western World to conduct its business in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Stock Purchase Agreement and the closing of the transaction and requiring the parties to use their respective reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary to obtain all required governmental and regulatory approvals in connection with the transaction. Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Sellers and the Acquiror have agreed to indemnification obligations for damages resulting from breaches of their respective (and, in the case of the Sellers, Western World’s) representations, warranties and covenants and other stated matters, subject to stated thresholds and limitations. At the closing of the transaction, a portion of the purchase price equal to $34.5 million will be deposited into an escrow account for a limited period of time to satisfy the indemnification obligations of the Sellers and any post-closing adjustment of the purchase price. Subject to certain limited circumstances, the amount deposited in escrow will act as the Acquiror’s sole recourse against the Sellers for breaches of their or Western World’s representations, warranties or covenants.

The closing of the transaction is subject to certain customary conditions, including receipt of required regulatory and antitrust approvals and the absence of a material adverse effect on the business of Western World.

The foregoing description of the Stock Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Stock Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The representations, warranties and covenants of the Acquiror, Validus, Sellers and Western World contained in the Stock Purchase Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of the parties thereto. In addition, such representations, warranties and covenants (a) have been made only for purposes of the Stock Purchase Agreement, (b) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Stock Purchase Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors, (c) are made only as of the date of the closing of the transaction or such other date as is specified in the Stock Purchase Agreement and (d) have been included in the Stock Purchase Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between the contracting parties rather than establishing matters as fact. Accordingly, the Stock Purchase Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Acquiror, Validus, Sellers, Western World or their respective businesses. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Acquiror, Validus or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Stock Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Validus’ public disclosures.
