Section 3 Securities and Trading Markets

Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On October 2, 2008, Westwood One, Inc. (the Company) was notified by the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) that the Company had fallen below the NYSE's continued listing standard relating to total market capitalization and shareholders' equity. Rule 802.02 of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual requires that the Company have a minimum average market capitalization of $75 million over a consecutive 30-day trading period if total stockholders' equity is less than $75 million. This notice is in addition to the notice relating to the Company's failure to maintain a $1 minimum share price as disclosed in the Company's Form 8-K filed with the SEC on September 18, 2008.

Under the NYSE rules, the Company has ten business days to notify the NYSE of its receipt of such notification and of its intention to submit a business plan within 45 days of its receipt of the NYSE notification as permitted by the NYSE rules. The Company will be notifying the NYSE of its receipt of such notice within such ten business day period and of its intention to submit a plan demonstrating how the Company will comply with the continued listing requirements within an 18-month period in accordance with the NYSE rules. The NYSE will review the plan and determine whether the Company's common stock will continue to be eligible for trading on the NYSE or be subject to suspension and delisting. Under the NYSE rules, the Company's common stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE, subject to the Company's compliance with other NYSE continued listing requirements. Although the Company intends to cure its deficiency and to return to compliance with NYSE continued listing requirements, there can be no assurance that it will be able to do so.
