Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously reported on September 23, 2008, on September 22, 2008, Energy Transfer Partners, L.P. (the “Partnership”) entered into a Contribution Agreement with OGE Energy Corp. (“OGE”) pursuant to which the Partnership and OGE agreed to form a joint venture company named ETP Enogex Partners LLC (“ETP Enogex”). A copy of the Contribution Agreement was attached as Exhibit 2.1 to the Partnership’s Form 8-K/A filed on September 26, 2008.

Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, the Partnership would contribute 100% of its ownership interest in the Transwestern pipeline, 100% of its ownership interest in Canyon Gas Resources and its 50% interest in the entity that owns the Midcontinent Express pipeline, to ETP Enogex. OGE would contribute 100% of its ownership interest in Enogex LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Enogex”), to ETP Enogex. ETP Enogex would be equally controlled by the Partnership and OGE. Consummation of the transaction was conditioned on receipt of certain third party consents and certain other customary closing conditions. The transaction was also conditioned upon obtaining financing pursuant to a specified financing plan that would provide funding for payments from ETP Enogex to the Partnership and OGE at the closing of the transaction as well as other financings for ETP Enogex to provide longer-term credit capacity. Subsequent to entering into the Contribution Agreement, conditions in the credit markets have deteriorated and the parties have not been able to obtain financing on favorable terms. On February 12, 2009, the parties mutually agreed to terminate the Contribution Agreement pursuant to its terms. Accordingly, the Contribution Agreement will be of no further force and effect and neither party shall have any further liability or obligation thereunder.
