Section 7 Regulation FD

Item 7.01 Regulation FD.

The Company is furnishing under Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K the information included as Exhibit 99.1 to this report. The Exhibit contains certain information about the Company, its financial and operating results, competitive position, fleet strategy and business strategy.

This information is being presented at meetings with investors or is otherwise being made available to interested parties. Statements in the presentation included as Exhibit 99.1 regarding the airline industry and market conditions for aircraft are based on management's views of current market conditions.

The information in Sections 7 and 9 of this Current Report on Form 8-K, including the information set forth in the Exhibit, is furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 of Form 8-K and shall not be deemed to be "filed" for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section. As such, this information shall not be incorporated by reference into any of the Company's reports or other filings made with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Forward-Looking Statements: Under the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, statements included in the presentation that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are only estimates or predictions based on management's beliefs and assumptions and on information currently available to management. Forward-looking statements include statements regarding business strategies, competitive position, industry environment and potential growth opportunities. Forward-looking statements include all statements that are not historical facts and can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as the words "believe," "expect," "guidance," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "estimate" or similar expressions.

Forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. Important risk factors that could cause the Company's results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements generally may be found in the Company's periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission at www.sec.gov. These risk factors include, without limitation, the effect of the economic downturn on leisure travel, increases in fuel prices, the introduction of a second fleet type, terrorist attacks, risks inherent to airlines, demand for air services to our leisure destinations from the markets served by the Company, the Company's ability to implement its growth strategy, unionization efforts, the Company's dependence on its leisure destination markets, the ability to add, renew or replace gate leases, the competitive environment, problems with the Company's aircraft, dependence on fixed fee customers, the Company's reliance on its automated systems, economic and other conditions in markets in which the Company operates, aging aircraft and other governmental regulation, increases in maintenance costs and cyclical and seasonal fluctuations in operating results.

Any forward-looking statements are based on information available to the Company today and the Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of future events, new information or otherwise.
