As previously disclosed, Spire Corporation (the “Company”) has been exploring various alternatives on how to fund working capital needs and has suffered severe constraints on its liquidity and operations. On March 10, 2016, as a result of the continued deterioration of the Company’s business and financial condition and lack of sufficient liquidity, the Company determined to cease operations. In consultation with its financial advisor, the Company intends to pursue a potential pro rata settlement arrangement with Company’s creditors. The Company will layoff or furlough employees and only retain a limited staff to assist with remaining contractual obligations and to assist in the creditor settlement process. If the Company is not successful in reaching such settlement with its creditors or is not able to obtain additional financing, the Company may be required to file for bankruptcy.
