Commission File No. 000-26366

Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation/Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. Merger

As previously announced, on January 31, 2017, Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation (“BMBC”) and Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. (“RBPI”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) pursuant to which RBPI will merge with and into BMBC (the “Merger”), and thereafter Royal Bank America, a Pennsylvania chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of RBPI, will be merged with and into The Bryn Mawr Trust Company, a Pennsylvania chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of BMBC. As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of RBPI will cease and BMBC will continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger.

On April 14, 2017, BMBC and RBPI filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) a Proxy Statement/Prospectus on Form S-4 (SEC File No. 333-216995) that was declared effective by the SEC on April 18, 2017 (the “Proxy Statement/Prospectus”) in connection with the proposed Merger. The Proxy Statement/Prospectus was first mailed to the shareholders of RBPI on April 20, 2017.

As has previously been described in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, following announcement of the Merger Agreement, a complaint (the “Lawsuit”) was filed in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, against members of the RBPI board, BMBC and RBPI. The lawsuit, which is captioned Parshall v. Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:17-cv-01641-PBT, alleges class claims on behalf of all RBPI shareholders and is based on allegations of material misstatements and omissions in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and violations of the Exchange Act. The lawsuit seeks, among other remedies, to enjoin the merger or, in the event the merger is completed, rescission of the merger or rescissory damages; to direct defendants to account for unspecified damages; and costs of the lawsuit, including attorneys’ and experts’ fees.

BMBC and RBPI have vigorously denied, and continue to vigorously deny, any wrongdoing or liability with respect to all claims asserted in the Lawsuit, including (i) that they have committed any violations of law, (ii) that they have acted improperly in any way, (iii) that they have any liability or owe any damages of any kind to any plaintiff in the Lawsuit, and (iv) that any additional disclosures (including the additional disclosures described herein) are required under any applicable rule, regulation, statute, or law. Rather, they are providing the additional disclosures set forth below in an effort to settle the Lawsuit in order to, among other things, (i) eliminate the burden, inconvenience, expense, risk, and distraction of further litigation, (ii) conclusively resolve all the claims that were or could have been asserted against them in the Lawsuit, and (iii) permit the Merger to proceed without risk of injunctive or other relief. Nothing in this document or in any stipulation of settlement or other document shall be deemed to be an admission of liability or wrongdoing by any defendant in the Lawsuit, nor shall anything in this document, or in any stipulation of settlement or other document, be deemed an admission of the materiality of any of the disclosures set forth herein. Notwithstanding the additional disclosures made herein, there can be no assurance that the Lawsuit will be settled, or, if settled, the terms of any such settlement.

These additional disclosures amend and supplement the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and should be read in conjunction with the disclosures contained therein. To the extent that information in this Current Report on Form 8-K differs from or updates information contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the Current Report on Form 8-K is more current. Capitalized terms used but not defined in the additional disclosures have the meanings given to them in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Additional Disclosure Regarding Background and Negotiation of the Merger

The section entitled “Background of the Merger” beginning on page 74 of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus is hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

The following language is added at the end of the fifth paragraph on page 76 of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

“RBC was engaged by RBPI on December 9, 2016 as a second advisor to RBPI’s board of directors. RBPI’s board of directors deemed it advisable to engage RBC based on RBC’s extensive knowledge of the financial services industry in the Mid-Atlantic Region and its ability to answer questions from a different perspective. During the two years preceding its engagement, RBC did not provide any investment banking services to BMBC or to RBPI.”

The following language is added on page 87 of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to the first paragraph of the section captioned “Net Present Value Analysis” immediately after the sentence that reads “The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 15.0% which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of RBPI common stock.”

“Sandler O’Neill utilized the equity build-up method to calculate the appropriate discount rate for RBPI common stock. As detailed in the following table, the discount rate equals the sum of the risk free rate, the equity risk premium, the size premium and the industry premium:

Risk Free Rate	2.49 %
Equity Risk Premium	5.80 %
Size Premium	3.58 %
Industry Premium	0.91 %
Discount Rate	12.78 %

The risk free rate is represented as the yield on the 10-year U.S. Treasury note as of January 27, 2017. The equity risk premium, size premium and industry premium were sourced from the Duff & Phelps 2016 Valuation Handbook.”

The following language is added to the first paragraph on page 88 of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus immediately after the sentence that reads “The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 13.0% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of BMBC common stock.”

“Sandler O’Neill utilized the equity build-up method to calculate the appropriate discount rate for BMBC common stock. As detailed in the following table, the discount rate equals the sum of the risk free rate, the equity risk premium, the size premium and the industry premium:

Risk Free Rate	2.49 %
Equity Risk Premium	5.80 %
Size Premium	1.70 %
Industry Premium	0.91 %
Discount Rate	10.90 %

The risk free rate is represented as the yield on the 10-year U.S. Treasury note as of January 27, 2017. The equity risk premium, size premium and industry premium were sourced from the Duff & Phelps 2016 Valuation Handbook.”

The first sentence of the first paragraph on page 88 of the Proxy Statement/ Prospectus is revised to read as follows:

“Sandler O’Neill also performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of BMBC common stock assuming that BMBC performed in accordance with publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate of 8% for BMBC for the years thereafter. This analysis also assumed that dividends paid per share by BMBC on its common stock would be consistent with BMBC’s historical practices.”

The third sentence of the second paragraph under the section captioned “Sander O’Neill’s Relationship” on page 89 of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus is revised to read as follows, and an additional sentence is added immediately thereafter.

“Most recently, Sandler O’Neill acted as placement agent to BMBC in connection with its offer and sale of $30 million of subordinated notes on August 6, 2015, for which Sandler O’Neill received a fee in an amount equal to $375,000. Sandler did not provide any other services to BMBC during the past two years. Currently there are no agreements, arrangements or understandings with respect to any services to be provided to BMBC by Sandler O’Neill in the future.”

The following sentence is added immediately below the table on page 89 of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus in the section captioned “Certain Non-Public, Unaudited, Forward-Looking Information Provided by RBPI.”

“In preparing financial projections of RBPI, Sandler O’Neill used estimated annual net income growth of 10%, annual balance sheet growth of 5%, and annual loan and deposit growth of 11% and 3%, respectively. These estimated annual growth rates were provided to Sandler O’Neill by senior management of RBPI.”
