Kelvin Leung
Secretary
Firsthand Technology Value Fund, Inc.
150 Almaden Boulevard
Suite 1250
San Jose, CA 95113

Dear Mr. Leung:

We received the letter you faxed to us dated December 5, 2015 in which you state: "It is our view that the letter [Full Value Partners previously submitted dated November 12, 2013] does not constitute valid advance notice under the Company's Bylaws" and that "all of the information set forth in Section 11 of Article II" of the Bylaws is required. You also state that if we do not provide such information by December 19, 2013, our nominations and our proposal may be ruled out of order at the Annual Meeting.

We do not believe that the board is entitled to demand any additional information to "adequately consider and respond" to our nominations and our proposal. Rather, the sole purpose of an advance notice bylaw is to ensure that shareholders that do not attend the meeting have an opportunity to cast an informed vote via proxy. Moreover, the board has a fiduciary duty to not enact or enforce an advance notice bylaw provision that has no legitimate business purpose, is intended to interfere with shareholders' voting rights, or whose primary purpose is to aid the board's electioneering. In this regard, we urge you to review Shaker, et al. v. Foxby Corp., et al., 2005 WL 914385 (Md. Cir. Ct.) and Daniels v. New Germany Fund, Inc., No. MJG-05-1890, (D. Md. Mar. 29, 2006). Also, see International Banknote Co. v. Muller, 713 F.Supp. 612, 623 (S.D.N.Y.1989) ("Courts have consistently found that corporate management subjects shareholders to irreparable harm by denying them the right to vote their shares or unnecessarily frustrating them in their attempt to obtain representation on the board of directors.")

Much of the information purportedly required by Section 11 of Article II of the Company's Bylaws appears to have no legitimate business purpose. For example, we see no legitimate reason to require us to provide (1) the identity of other stockholders supporting our nominees, and (2) a copy of our offering memorandum. If you disagree, please tell us what business purpose is served by imposing these requirements. In addition, if our nominees are elected, they will promptly submit the questionnaire you provided but, again, there seems to be no legitimate business purpose served by submitting it at this time. Acquiring a dossier on us and our nominees is not a legitimate business purpose and is particularly inappropriate given the fact that the Company has sued me and may use any information provided against me in that lawsuit.

In sum, our position is that none of the information beyond what we have already provided is required to achieve the objective of ensuring that shareholders that do not attend the meeting will have an opportunity to cast an informed vote via proxy. Nevertheless, we hereby affirm that none of the activities set forth in Section 11(a)(3)(iii)(C) is applicable to us, our nominees or our affiliates.

We respectfully ask that you confirm that we will be permitted to submit our nominations and our proposal at the Annual Meeting. Should you refuse to do so, we reserve our right to seek a legal remedy to insure that shareholders are not disenfranchised. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

/S/ Phillip Goldstein
