Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, on April 15, 2019, Achaogen, Inc. (the ‘Company’) filed a voluntary petition for bankruptcy protection under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. The filing was made in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the ‘Court’) (Case No. 19-10844).

On April 16, 2019, the Company entered into a Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Loan and Security Agreement (the ‘DIP Loan Agreement’) with Silicon Valley Bank (‘SVB’), with the interim approval of the Court. The DIP Loan Agreement provides for a debtor-in-possession loan facility in an original principal amount not to exceed $4.3 million (the ‘Initial Commitment’) until entry of a final order of the Court approving the DIP Loan Agreement (the ‘Final DIP Order’) and an original principal amount not to exceed $25.0 million (inclusive of the Initial Commitment) following the Court’s entry of the Final DIP Order. Upon the Court’s entry of the Final DIP Order, the Company must use $15.0 million of the funds available under the DIP Loan Agreement to repay in full its outstanding obligations and liabilities to SVB under the Loan and Security Agreement dated February 26, 2018, as amended by the Waiver and First Amendment dated April 12, 2019 (the ‘Prior Loan Agreement’). SVB is not required to advance any funds to the Company under the DIP Loan Agreement exceeding $10.0 million in the aggregate except in connection with its repayment of its outstanding obligations and liabilities under the Prior Loan Agreement. The $10.0 million of available funding under the DIP Loan Agreement may be used by the Company in accordance with a budget for working capital approved by SVB and to fund the costs and expenses of its Chapter 11 case.

Obligations under the DIP Loan Agreement, subject to a carveout, have priority over all other allowed Chapter 11 administrative expenses under the United States Bankruptcy Code, and are secured by various liens on and security interests in all assets and property of the Company, including a security interest on its intellectual property including, without limitation, its copyrights, trade secrets, trademarks, patents and mask works, granted pursuant to the Intellectual Property Security Agreement between the Company and SVB dated April 16, 2019 (the ‘IP Security Agreement’).

Borrowings under the DIP Loan Agreement bear interest at a floating per annum rate equal to the prime rate plus 5.5%. The Company is permitted to make monthly interest-only payments on the outstanding principal amount until the maturity date, which is the earliest of (i) September 30, 2019, (ii) the date of an optional prepayment of all its obligations under the DIP Loan Agreement, (iii) the date of acceleration of its obligations under the DIP Loan Agreement pursuant to an event of default or (iv) the date on which a sale of the Company or substantially all its assets is consummated.

The Company is obligated to pay a commitment fee to SVB of $3.0 million (or $1.5 million if the Final DIP Order has not been entered by the Court) at the maturity date, and the final payment of $1.5 million owed to SVB by the Company relating to the Company’s Term B loan facility under the Prior Loan Agreement will be waived upon entry of the Final DIP Order. The Company may voluntarily prepay all, but not less than all, of the outstanding borrowings under the DIP Loan Agreement. The DIP Loan Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants.

The foregoing description of the DIP Loan Agreement and the IP Security Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Loan and Security Agreement between the Company and SVB filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and the Intellectual Property Security Agreement between the Company and SVB filed as Exhibit 10.2 hereto, both of which are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

To the extent required, the information set forth in Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.03.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Trading in the Company's Securities

The Company's securityholders are cautioned that trading in the Company's securities is highly speculative and poses substantial risks during the pendency of the Chapter 11 case. Trading prices for the Company's securities may bear little or no relationship to the actual recovery, if any, by holders thereof in the Company's Chapter 11 case. Accordingly, the Company urges extreme caution with respect to existing and future investments in its securities.
