Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Triage Purchase Agreement

On July 15, 2017, Quidel Corporation (the “Company”), solely for purposes of Sections 6.13 and 12.15 thereof, entered into a Purchase Agreement (the “Triage Purchase Agreement”) with Alere Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Seller”), QTB Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (“Purchaser”), and, for the limited purposes set forth therein, Abbott Laboratories, an Illinois corporation (“Abbott”), pursuant to which Seller agreed to sell, and Purchaser agreed to acquire, Seller’s cardiovascular and toxicology Triage® MeterPro business (the “Triage Business”).

As aggregate consideration for the Triage Business, Purchaser will pay $400.0 million in cash at the closing of the acquisition (subject to an inventory adjustment as set forth in the Triage Purchase Agreement) and assume certain post-closing liabilities. Purchaser expects to fund the cash purchase price for the Triage Business with a combination of cash on hand and new debt financing pursuant to the commitment letter described below. The Triage Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants made by each of Purchaser and Seller, as well as mutual indemnification obligations.

The transactions contemplated by the Triage Purchase Agreement are subject to certain closing conditions, including: (i) the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 30, 2016, as amended on April 13, 2017, by and among Seller, Abbott and Angel Sub, Inc. (as amended, the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which Seller will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Abbott (the “Merger”), (ii) no law or judgment (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) shall have been promulgated, entered, enforced, enacted or issued by any governmental authority, including a court, that remains in effect and that prohibits, enjoins or makes illegal the consummation of the transactions, (iii) the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the BNP Purchase Agreement (as defined below), and (iv) other customary closing conditions. Seller is divesting the Triage Business in connection with review by the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”) and the European Commission (the “EC”) of the Merger, which remains subject to FTC and EC approvals and other regulatory approvals. Purchaser’s acquisition of the Triage Business is also subject to approval by the FTC and the EC of Purchaser as the buyer of the Triage Business and other regulatory approvals. Consummation of Purchaser’s acquisition of the Triage Business is expected to occur concurrent with, or as soon as practicable following, the closing of the Merger.

The Triage Purchase Agreement may be terminated under certain circumstances, including: (i) the parties’ mutual agreement, (ii) in the event that Abbott determines in good faith that the FTC, the EC or another governmental authority is not likely to approve the Triage Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, or Purchaser as the buyer of the Triage Business, (iii) if any governmental authority issues a final, non-appealable judgment permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the Triage Purchase Agreement, (iv) if the Merger Agreement is terminated, (v) the non-terminating party’s uncured material breach of the Triage Purchase Agreement, or (vi) if the transactions contemplated by the Triage Purchase Agreement have not been consummated within 90 days after the consummation of the Merger.

The Triage Purchase Agreement contemplates the entry by the parties into certain ancillary agreements as of the closing of the transactions, including: (i) a mutual transition services agreement, (ii) a manufacturing and supply agreement, pursuant to which Purchaser shall provide Seller with certain components, and (iii) lease agreements, pursuant to which Seller or its affiliates will lease portions of the real property in San Diego, California that will be acquired by Purchaser pursuant to the Triage Purchase Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Triage Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Triage Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.

BNP Purchase Agreement

Also on July 15, 2017, the Company, solely for purposes of Section 11.15 thereof, entered into a Purchase Agreement (the “BNP Purchase Agreement”) with Seller, Purchaser, and, for the limited purposes set forth therein, Abbott, pursuant to which Seller agreed to sell, and Purchaser agreed to acquire, assets and liabilities relating to Seller’s contractual arrangement with Beckman Coulter, Inc. for the supply by Seller of antibodies and other inputs related to, and distribution of, the Triage® BNP Test (the “BNP Product”) for the Beckman Coulter Access Family of Immunoassay Systems (the “BNP Business”).

As aggregate consideration for the BNP Business, Purchaser will pay up to $40.0 million in cash, payable in five annual installments of $8.0 million, the first of which will be paid approximately six months following the closing of the transactions contemplated by the BNP Purchase Agreement, and assume certain post-closing liabilities. The cash purchase price is subject to an inventory adjustment as set forth in the BNP Purchase Agreement. Purchaser’s obligation to pay the annual installments will (i) terminate if Purchaser’s net sales of BNP Product fall below a specified amount in the European Economic Area and certain other specified market conditions occur, and (ii) accelerate, and be immediately payable, if Purchaser transfers or conveys certain associated rights, assets or properties. Purchaser intends to fund the cash purchase price for the BNP Business from cash on hand. The BNP Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants made by each of Purchaser and Seller, as well as mutual indemnification obligations.

The transactions contemplated by the BNP Purchase Agreement are subject to certain closing conditions, including: (i) the consummation of the Merger, (ii) no law or judgment (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) shall have been promulgated, entered, enforced, enacted or issued by any governmental authority, including a court, that remains in effect and that prohibits, enjoins or makes illegal the consummation of the transactions, (iii) the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Triage Purchase Agreement, and (iv) other customary closing conditions. Seller is divesting the BNP Business in connection with review by the EC of the Merger. Purchaser’s acquisition of the BNP Business is also subject to approval by the EC of Purchaser as the buyer of the BNP Business and other regulatory approvals. Purchaser’s acquisition of the BNP Business is expected to occur at, or as soon as practicable following, the closing of the Merger.

The BNP Purchase Agreement may be terminated under certain circumstances, including (i) the parties’ mutual agreement, (ii) in the event that Abbott determines in good faith that the FTC, the EC or another governmental authority is not likely to approve the BNP Purchase Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, or Purchaser as the buyer of the BNP Business, (iii) if any governmental authority issues a final, non-appealable judgment permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the BNP Purchase Agreement, (iv) if the Merger Agreement is terminated, (v) the non-terminating party’s uncured material breach of the BNP Purchase Agreement, or (vi) if the transactions contemplated by the BNP Purchase Agreement have not been consummated within 90 days after the consummation of the Merger.

The BNP Purchase Agreement contemplates the entry by the parties into certain ancillary agreements as of the closing of the transactions, including: (i) a transition services agreement, pursuant to which Seller shall provide certain transitional services to Purchaser and (ii) a distribution agreement, for the distribution of the BNP Product in markets outside of the European Economic Area.

The foregoing description of the BNP Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the BNP Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Form 8-K and is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.

Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants in the Triage Purchase Agreement or the BNP Purchase Agreement or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, any of its subsidiaries, the Triage Business or the BNP Business. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of such purchase agreements, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company’s public disclosures.

Commitment Letter

Also, on July 15, 2017, in connection with the entry into the Triage Purchase Agreement, the Company entered into a commitment letter (the “Commitment Letter”) with Bank of America, N.A. (“Bank of America”) and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (“JPMorgan” and together with Bank of America, the “Initial Lenders”) and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (or any of its designated affiliates, “MLPFS”) and JPMorgan (“JPMS” and together with MLPFS, the “Lead Arrangers”). The Commitment Letter provides that, in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Triage Purchase Agreement and subject to the conditions set forth in the Commitment Letter, the Initial Lenders will provide to the Company a $245.0 million senior secured term loan facility (the “Term Loan”) and a $25.0 million revolving credit facility (the “Revolving Credit Facility,” and together with the Term Loan, the “Financing”). The Financing will be guaranteed by certain subsidiaries of the Company and will be secured by liens on certain of the assets of the Company and the guarantors. The Lead Arrangers will attempt to further syndicate the Financing.

Various economic terms of the Financing are subject to change in the process of syndication.

The Company intends to use, along with cash on hand, the proceeds of the Term Loan and a portion of the Revolving Credit Facility (a) to pay the consideration for the Triage Business and (b) to pay the fees and expenses incurred in connection with the acquisition of the Triage Business pursuant to the Triage Purchase Agreement (the “Triage Acquisition”) and the acquisition of the BNP Business pursuant to the BNP Purchase Agreement (the “BNP Acquisition” and together with the Triage Acquisition, the “Acquisitions”).

The commitment to provide the Financing remains subject to certain conditions, including consummation of the Acquisitions; the negotiation and execution of definitive documentation consistent with the Commitment Letter; the delivery of certain financial information, the absence of a material adverse effect on the Triage Business; the accuracy of specified representations and warranties of Seller and Abbott in the Triage Purchase Agreement and specified representations and warranties of the Company to be set forth in the definitive loan documents; the Lead Arrangers having been provided a specified period to syndicate the Financing, with the assistance of the Company as set forth in the Commitment Letter, and other customary closing conditions.

The actual documentation governing the Financing has not been finalized, and accordingly, the actual terms may differ from the description of such terms in the Commitment Letter.

The foregoing summary of the Commitment Letter does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Commitment Letter, which is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this Form 8-K and is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.
