Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers;
Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

The Company has increased the overall responsibilities of Steve Dykman, including those in the area of investor (e)relations. His title remains Vice President, Finance and Treasurer and he is already an executive officer with reporting requirements under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

In connection with Mr. Dykman's increased responsibilities, on December 19, 2012, the Company set Mr. Dykman's annual salary at $186,316 (effective in accordance with Company policy and procedures). He remains eligible for profit-sharing bonuses and discretionary bonuses, which are also available to all salaried employees and officers generally and which, in operation, provide for the same method of allocation of benefits between management and non-management participants. In addition, Mr. Dykman will also receive a 16,200-share stock option grant and a restricted stock grant of 7,500 shares, pursuant to the Company's shareholder approved Employee Stock Option Plan and shareholder approved Second Restricted Stock Plan, respectively, with such grants to be made at the next regularly scheduled Compensation Committee meeting (in accordance with Company policies and procedures). Moreover, Mr. Dykman is to receive a $40,000 discretionary bonus based on cost containment efforts, as well as efforts in the area of investor relations.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mr. Dykman does not have a written employment agreement and will continue to be an at-will employee of the Company as is the case with all employees of the Company.
