In the Form 8-K, the Company indicated that in conjunction with Mr. Claus' promotion, it would enter into a new employment agreement with Mr. Claus, which would supersede the Executive Employment Agreement dated November 11, 2002, between Mr. Claus and A&P Canada (the "Canadian Agreement"). On September 8, 2005, the Company executed the new employment agreement with Mr. Claus (the "Claus Employment Agreement").

Under the Claus Employment Agreement, Mr. Claus shall serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, reporting directly to Christian Haub, Executive Chairman of the Company. The initial term of the Claus Employment Agreement shall terminate on August 14, 2008, after which it shall renew automatically for successive twelve (12) month periods, unless either party gives notice of non-renewal at least six (6) months prior to the date on which the applicable term would otherwise terminate. Mr. Claus will receive a base salary of $550,000 and will be eligible for a cash bonus, if he and the Company meet certain performance targets, of up to 200% of his base salary. The Claus Employment Agreement contains the following additional benefits: (i) a signing bonus of $800,000, (ii) a grant of 150,000 restricted stock units pursuant to the Company's 2005 Turnaround Incentive Compensation Plan, (iii) continued participation in the Company's Supplemental Retirement Plan and in all other employee benefit plans and programs from time to time in effect for the benefit of senior executives of the Company, and (iv) certain severance benefits, including twenty-four (24) months of salary, in the event that the Company terminates Mr. Claus without Cause (as defined therein), or Mr. Claus terminates his employment for Good Reason (as defined therein); provided, however, that such severance payments are reduced to twelve (12) months of salary if the Company terminates Mr. Claus for Performance (as defined therein).

The foregoing description of the Claus Employment Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Claus Employment Agreement, filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K, and incorporated herein by reference.
