Amendment to Kaman Corporation 2003 Stock Incentive Plan

At its February 20, 2012 meeting, the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board"), upon recommendation of the Personnel and Compensation Committee, approved amendments to the Company's 2003 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan") in order to prohibit the repricing of stock options and stock appreciation rights without shareholder approval (the "Amendment"). The Company does not intend to reprice stock options or stock appreciation rights without shareholder approval or except in connection with a corporate transaction, as defined in the Amendment. The adoption of the Amendment formally memorializes the intent of the Company in this regard.

Specifically, the Amendment provides that, except in connection with a corporate transaction, the exercise price of an outstanding stock option or stock appreciation right may not be reduced without shareholder approval, nor may an outstanding stock option or stock appreciation right be surrendered in exchange for cash or other equity awards having an exercise price less than the fair market value of the originally issued stock option or stock appreciation right without shareholder approval. The Amendment applies to all Plan participants, including all of the Named Executive Officers listed in the Company's 2011 Proxy Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 28, 2011.

The above summary of the Amendment does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendment.

A copy of the Amendment to the 2003 Stock Incentive Plan is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.2.
