Item 8.01 Other Events

On November 12, 2015, First Midwest Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company” or “First Midwest”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with NI Bancshares Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“NIBA”). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, NIBA will merge with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving entity (the “Merger”). The Merger Agreement also provides that, following the consummation of the Merger at a time yet to be determined, The National Bank & Trust Company of Sycamore, a national bank and wholly owned subsidiary of NIBA (“NB&T”), will merge with and into First Midwest Bank, an Illinois state-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (“First Midwest Bank”), with First Midwest Bank continuing as the surviving bank.

Under the Merger Agreement, each outstanding share of NIBA common stock will be converted into $13.17 in cash and 2.8858 shares of Company common stock, which is based on the volume weighted average stock price of the Company’s common stock over the fifteen day trading period ending on and including November 11, 2015, and results in an overall aggregate transaction value of $70 million.

On November 12, 2015, the Company issued a press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement and provided presentation materials relating to the transaction and certain other matters. A copy of the press release is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 and a copy of the presentation materials is attached as Exhibit 99.2, both of which are incorporated herein by reference.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain certain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as “may,” “might,” “will,” “would,” “should,” “could,” “expect,” “plan,” “intend,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “probable,” “potential,” “possible,” “target,” “continue,” “look forward,” or “assume” and words of similar import. Forward-looking statements are not historical facts but instead express only management’s beliefs regarding future results or events, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and outside of management’s control. It is possible that actual results and events may differ, possibly materially, from the anticipated results or events indicated in these forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and First Midwest cautions you not to place undue reliance on these statements. Forward-looking statements are made only as of the date of this report, and First Midwest undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements contained in this report to reflect new information or events or conditions after the date hereof.

Forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions, including, but not limited to: expected synergies, cost savings and other financial or other benefits of the proposed transaction between First Midwest and NIBA might not be realized within the expected timeframes or might be less than projected; the requisite stockholder and regulatory approvals for the proposed transaction between First Midwest and NIBA might not be obtained; credit and interest rate risks associated with First Midwest’s and NIBA’s respective businesses, customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices, and general economic conditions, either nationally or in the market areas in which First Midwest and NIBA operate or anticipate doing business, may be less favorable than expected; new regulatory or legal requirements or obligations; and other risks, uncertainties and assumptions identified under the sections entitled “Risk Factors” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in First Midwest’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, as well as First Midwest’s subsequent filings made with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). However, these risks and uncertainties are not exhaustive. Other sections of such reports describe additional factors that could impact First Midwest's business and financial performance and pending or consummated acquisition transactions, including the proposed acquisition of NIBA.

Additional Information for Stockholders

The information contained herein does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities or a solicitation of any vote or approval. In connection with the proposed merger of First Midwest and NIBA, First Midwest will file a registration statement on Form S-4 with the SEC. The registration statement will include a proxy statement of NIBA, which also will constitute a prospectus of First Midwest, that will be sent to the stockholders of NIBA. Stockholders are advised to read the registration statement and proxy statement/prospectus when it becomes available because it will contain important information about First Midwest, NIBA and the proposed transaction. When filed, this document and other documents relating to the transaction filed by First Midwest can be obtained free of charge from the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. These documents also can be obtained free of charge by accessing First Midwest's website at www.firstmidwest.com under the tab "Investor Relations" and then under "SEC Filings." Alternatively, these documents can be obtained free of charge from First Midwest upon written request to First Midwest Bancorp, Inc., Attn: Corporate Secretary, One Pierce Place, Suite 1500, Itasca, Illinois 60143 or by calling (630) 875-7463, or from NIBA upon written request to NI Bancshares Corporation, Attn: Michael A. Cullen, President and Chief Executive Officer, 230 W. State Street, Sycamore, Illinois 60178 or by calling (815) 895-2125.

Participants in this Transaction

First Midwest, NIBA and certain of their respective directors and executive officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from NIBA stockholders in connection with the proposed transaction between First Midwest and NIBA under the rules of the SEC. Certain information regarding the interests of these participants and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be included in the proxy statement/prospectus regarding the proposed transaction when it becomes available. Additional information about First Midwest and its directors and certain of its officers may be found in First Midwest's definitive proxy statement relating to its 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders filed with the SEC on April 14, 2015. This definitive proxy statement can be obtained free of charge from the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.
