On April 4, 2014, Glowpoint, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a letter agreement (the “Agreement”) with GP Investment Holdings, LLC, Main Street Capital Corporation (“Main Street”), Brian Pessin, Sandra Pessin and Norman Pessin (collectively, the “Investor Group”). One or more persons or entities included as part of the Investor Group are stockholders of the Company. According to a Schedule 13D filed by members of the Investor Group with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 16, 2013, the members of the Investor Group beneficially own in the aggregate 15,349,586 shares of the Company’s common stock, which represented approximately 43% of the outstanding shares of the Company’s common stock as of March 3, 2014. Main Street is also a lender, the administrative agent and the collateral agent under the Company’s loan agreement for its senior secured term loan and senior secured revolving loan facilities.

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, among other things, the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) has appointed James H. Cohen and Patrick Lombardi (together, the “New Directors”) as members of the Board to fill the vacancies resulting from the resignations of Jon DeLuca and Grant Dawson (together, the “Resigning Directors”) as directors of the Company (as described under Item 5.02 of this Form 8-K), the Company will nominate, recommend and support the New Directors as two of five total nominees (the “Company Slate”) to stand for election as directors of the Company at the 2014 annual meeting of stockholders of the Company (the “2014 Annual Meeting”) and the Company will reimburse certain fees and expenses incurred by the Investor Group in connection with matters related to the 2014 Annual Meeting and the negotiation and execution of the Agreement. The Agreement also provides that the Investor Group will vote for the election of the Company Slate at the 2014 Annual Meeting and abide by certain standstill obligations through the conclusion of the 2014 Annual Meeting.

Cohen or Lombardi nor any related person of either of them has a direct or indirect material interest in any existing or currently proposed transaction to which the Company is or may become a party.
