Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

From time to time in the ordinary course of its business, Sotheby's will guarantee to a consignor a minimum sale price in connection with the sale of property at auction (an "auction guarantee"). In the event that the property sells for less than the guaranteed price, Sotheby's must perform under the auction guarantee by funding the difference between the sale price at auction and the amount of the auction guarantee. Sotheby's is generally entitled to a share of the excess proceeds (the "overage") if the property under the auction guarantee sells above the guaranteed price. If the property does not sell, the amount of the auction guarantee must be paid, but Sotheby's has the right to recover such amount through the future sale of the property.

Sotheby's may reduce its financial exposure under auction guarantees through contractual risk and reward sharing arrangements under which a counterparty commits to bid a predetermined price on the guaranteed property (an "irrevocable bid"). If the irrevocable bid is the winning bid, the counterparty purchases the property at the predetermined price plus the applicable buyer's premium, which is the same amount that any other successful bidder would pay at that price. If the irrevocable bid is not the winning bid, the counterparty is generally entitled to receive a share of the auction commission earned on the sale and/or a share of any overage. Sotheby's irrevocable bid counterparties are typically major international art dealers or major art collectors. Sotheby's could be exposed to losses in the event any of these counterparties do not perform according to the terms of these contractual arrangements.

As reported in its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2013, as of July 31, 2013 Sotheby's had outstanding auction guarantees totaling $18.8 million. Subsequent to that date and through the date of this filing, Sotheby's has entered into additional auction guarantees totaling $147.6 million, which increased the aggregate amount of outstanding auction guarantees to $166.4 million. Each of the outstanding auction guarantees has a minimum guaranteed price that is below or within the range of the pre-sale auction estimates for the underlying property. As of the date of this filing, Sotheby's financial exposure under these auction guarantees is reduced by irrevocable bids totaling $23.5 million. Sotheby's may further reduce its exposure under these auction guarantees through the use of additional irrevocable bids prior to the sale. The property related to these auction guarantees will be offered at auctions in the fourth quarter of 2013. As of the date of this filing, $70.8 million of the aggregate guaranteed amount had been advanced by Sotheby's.

Subsequent to the date of this filing, Sotheby's may enter into additional auction guarantees. If any incremental auction guarantees are deemed to be material, individually or in the aggregate, Sotheby's will provide updated disclosure in a future Form 8-K or in its next quarterly periodic filing on Form 10-Q, dependent upon the timing of the execution of the related contracts.
