Item 8.01. Other Events.

Announcement of Arbitration Award

Kemper Corporation (the “Registrant” or the “Company”), issued a press release on October 11, 2017 announcing that its subsidiary, Kemper Corporate Services, Inc. (“KCSI”), has received a favorable ruling in a confidential arbitration proceeding against a software vendor.

In October 2015, KCSI filed a demand for arbitration with the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”), claiming that the vendor had breached the terms of a master software license and services agreement and related agreements (collectively, the “Agreements”) by failing, among other things, to timely produce and deliver certain software to KCSI. The vendor denied KCSI’s claims and filed a counterclaim.

In April 2017, the parties participated in an evidentiary hearing before a AAA-appointed arbitrator. Subsequently, the parties submitted post-hearing briefs, held closing arguments, and submitted proposed awards to the arbitrator.

On October 2, 2017, the arbitrator issued a partial final award (“Partial Final Award”) in favor of KCSI. Pursuant to the material portions of the Partial Final Award: (i) KCSI’s claim that the vendor had breached the Agreements was granted; (ii) the vendor’s counterclaim and affirmative defenses were denied; (iii) KCSI was awarded direct damages of $84,296,581; and (iv) KCSI is entitled to pre-judgment interest in an amount to be calculated at a rate of 9%. Under the award, KCSI is also entitled to submit a petition seeking an award of certain costs and expenses of the arbitration.

The arbitrator’s decision on the vendor’s liability for breach and the damages for that breach is final, subject to challenge by the vendor on any grounds available under applicable law. KCSI intends to pursue confirmation and enforcement of the Partial Final Award in a court of competent jurisdiction, and intends likewise to do so with respect to any final award by the arbitrator that includes the addition of prejudgment interest and any of KCSI’s costs and expenses (including attorneys’ fees) the arbitrator deems recoverable. The Registrant cannot make any assurance as to the final amount that will actually be awarded or when it will be collected. The Partial Final Award is treated as a gain contingency for accounting purposes, and accordingly will not be recognized in the Registrant’s third quarter 2017 consolidated financial statements.

Announcement of Third Quarter Earnings Call and Catastrophe Loss Estimate

The Company also issued a press release on October 11, 2017 announcing that: (i) it will issue its third quarter 2017 earnings release and financial supplement and will also file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) before the markets open on Monday, October 30, 2017; (ii) it will host its conference call to discuss third quarter 2017 results on Monday, October 30, 2017 at 4:00 p.m. Eastern (3:00 p.m. Central); and (iii) it estimates that its third quarter 2017 results will include pre-tax catastrophe losses in the range of $30 million to $37 million, including the impacts of Hurricanes Harvey and Irma and adverse development from re-estimates of losses from catastrophes that occurred in the first half of 2017. Except for recoveries under the Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund, the Company does not expect to recover any of these losses under its primary catastrophe reinsurance program. The Company’s recoveries under the Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund are expected to be less than $1 million.

The two press releases are attached as Exhibit 99.1 and 99.2, respectively, to this report and incorporated herein by reference.
