PRESS RELEASE

Grupo Televisa appoints Bernardo Gomez and Alfonso de Angoitia
co-Chief Executive Officers effective January 1, 2018

New York, NY – October 26, 2017 – The Board of Directors of Grupo Televisa, S.A.B. (“Televisa” or the “Company”; NYSE:TV; BMV:TLEVISA CPO) today announced the appointment of Bernardo Gomez and Alfonso de Angoitia as co-Chief Executive Officers of Televisa, reporting to the Board of Directors. Emilio Azcárraga Jean will continue to lead the long term strategy of the firm as Executive Chairman of the Board. In addition, Mr. Azcárraga will continue to have direct responsibility for Televisa’s soccer business, including the America soccer team, as well as for Fundación Televisa. These changes will take effect on January 1, 2018.

Mr. Azcárraga said “Our industry is undergoing a massive transformation, presenting us with big challenges, but even bigger opportunities. For over two decades, and through some critical business moments, Bernardo and Alfonso have been driven and passionate executives who have outgrown their current roles at the company. Their new leadership roles will allow me to focus on the Company’s long-term strategy.”

Mr. Azcárraga added. “I have tremendous faith in their capabilities and I am confident that Televisa will continue to strengthen its presence as one of Mexico’s fastest growing telecom providers and as the leading Spanish-language content producer worldwide, driving value for our shareholders.”

Mr. Gomez and Mr. de Angoitia were instrumental in the successful restructuring of Televisa’s capital structure when the new control group, led by Mr. Azcárraga, took over the Company in 1997. This was followed by a profound turnaround of the Company’s various operations from 1998 through 2000 in order to bring them back to profitability. Since 2000, they have been instrumental in the growth and profitability of the Company.

Among the most successful transformational steps taken by the Company and led by Mr. Gomez and Mr. de Angoitia were the renegotiation of the programming license agreement with Univision, which now provides Televisa with a very relevant stream of dollar-denominated revenue; the acquisition and consolidation of four cable operations; and the diversification of Televisa beyond its traditional broadcast advertising business into telecommunication services, which now account for over 50% of consolidated revenues. Today, over 60% of the Company’s Operating Segment Income originates in its non-Content operations. Over this period of time, the Company reached and maintained an investment grade rating, and Operating Segment Income margin has remained strong, at approximately 40%.

Mr. Gomez and Mr. de Angoitia stated: “We are honored to be given the opportunity to take on this new role, and grateful to Emilio and the Board for the trust they place in us. Under the leadership of Emilio, Televisa has assembled and developed a very unique set of assets, which we intend to leverage while continuing to drive strong growth in content and telecom services. We look forward to jointly leading Televisa and positioning the Company to excel in this rapidly changing competitive environment.”

In addition to these changes, effective immediately, Salvi Folch, formerly Chief Financial Officer of Grupo Televisa, will become Vice President of Strategic Planning. Carlos Ferreiro will become Vice President of Finance and Jose Antonio Lara will become Vice President of Administration.

About Televisa

Televisa is a leading media company in the Spanish-speaking world, an important cable operator in Mexico and an operator of a leading direct-to-home satellite pay television system in Mexico. Televisa distributes the content it produces through several broadcast channels in Mexico and in over 50 countries through 26 pay-tv brands, and television networks, cable operators and over-the-top or "OTT" services. In the United States, Televisa's audiovisual content is distributed through Univision Communications Inc. ("Univision") the leading media company serving the Hispanic market. Univision broadcasts Televisa's audiovisual content through multiple platforms in exchange for a royalty payment. In addition, Televisa has equity and warrants which upon their exercise would represent approximately 36% on a fully-diluted, as-converted basis of the equity capital in Univision Holdings, Inc., the controlling company of Univision. Televisa's cable business offers integrated services, including video, high-speed data and voice services to residential and commercial customers as well as managed services to domestic and international carriers through five cable Multiple System Operators in Mexico. Televisa owns a majority interest in Sky, a leading direct-to-home satellite pay television system in Mexico, operating also in the Dominican Republic and Central America. Televisa also has interests in magazine publishing and distribution, radio production and broadcasting, professional sports and live entertainment, feature-film production and distribution, and gaming.
