PUBLICIS GROUPE PERFORMANCE AMONG TOP
IN INDUSTRY WITH 1 Q REVENUES UP 4.6%

PARIS, MAY 14, 2002 -- Publicis Groupe S.A. (Euronext Paris: 13057, NYSE: PUB) reported consolidated revenues of EUR 576 million to March 31, 2002, an increase of 4.6% over the EUR 550 million in the same period of 2001.

Restated for constant exchange rates and identical unit reporting, revenues eased 2.2% in the first quarter. This is one of the best performances of any major communications group in the first quarter and is particularly impressive given current market conditions.

o REVENUES BY REGION:

	EUR MILLION	GROWTH
		ORGANIC	GROSS
Europe	251	- 0.1%	+ 6.4%
North America	260	- 4.9%	+ 4%
Asia-Pacific	40	+ 3%	+ 4.4%
Rest of World	25	- 1.7%	- 3.8%
Total	576	- 2.2%	+ 4.6%

Consolidated billings to March 31 came to EUR 4.65 billion, a jump of 30% more than the EUR 3.58 billion for the same period of 2001. Vigorous growth at the group's media agencies and the integration of Zenith Media make this figure relatively less meaningful than in the past, but it nonetheless remains a key indicator of business activity.

Maurice Levy, Chairman & CEO of Publicis Groupe SA, commented, "As expected, the downturn in the fourth quarter of 2001 continued into the first three months of 2002. The market was down significantly compared to last year, as shown by figures reported by many companies in the sector. In this environment, our performance is extremely encouraging, with revenues up 4.6% in absolute terms and a decline of just 2.2% on a comparative basis. Given the marketplace's limited visibility, and in preparation for our merger with Bcom3, Publicis will be focusing on carefully managing and further developing our extremely strong and broad client portfolio and on improving operating margins in order to achieve the ambitious targets we have set.

The outlook for the year remains very promising, compared with those for most of our competitors. Administrative and technical steps related to the bcom3 merger are being implemented, and initial indications lead us to believe that there will be no major obstacles, except for the time normally required for regulatory review. Closing will probably take place in August or September.

Publicis continued to expand in Specialized Agencies and Marketing Services (SAMS) in the first quarter, with acquisitions including:

- Gravitass, a Japanese communications agency specialized in marketing services and public relations. It will be the platform to launch the new Publicis Dialog unit, enriching the services we offer in Japan.
- Johnston & Associates, a Washington lobbying firm, representing both public and private sector clients before the US federal government, and strengthening the reach of Publicis Consultants.
- Magnesium, a Belgian marketing services agency, boosting our holistic offering in the market.
- Media Publicis (business tourism), Sales Story (relationship marketing) and ECA 2 (events) giving Publicis Dialog an unparalleled range of services in France.

New business:

Despite the persistent slowing on world advertising markets that meant a reduction in new business opportunities, Publicis Groupe SA units won around EUR 130 million in net new accounts over the period. This figure takes into account the loss in January 2002 of the sizeable Saturn account in the United States.

BOND ISSUE ("OCEANE")

Publicis Groupe SA launched a EUR 690 million issue of bonds convertible into or exchangeable for new or existing Publicis shares in January 2002, its first transaction of this type. The aim was to refinance a large portion of group borrowing, previously essentially short term, and reduce average interest expense through a particularly attractive rate (yield-to-maturity 2.75%).

MERGER WITH BCOM3 AND STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP WITH DENTSU

Strategic developments in the first quarter of 2002 include the acquisition of Bcom3, the world's seventh largest communications group, and the agreement signed with Dentsu, no.1 in Japan, the leading market force in Asia (see press release dated 7 March 2002).

The acquisition places Publicis Groupe SA indisputably in the top rank of the industry; Publicis will be number four worldwide with revenues of over EUR 4.5 billion. In addition to Publicis Worldwide and Saatchi & Saatchi Worldwide, the Group will own Leo Burnett, D'Arcy and media agency Starcom MediaVest. The acquisition significantly strengthens the group's market service offering, while the agreement with Dentsu will broaden access to the Japanese market.

News of the agreement was extremely well received by employees and clients of both groups. Closing should take place by September 2002 at the latest.
