Under the terms of the Company's Employee Defined Contribution Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), employees of the Company beneficially own the shares of Common Stock allocated to their stock accounts through the Trust, and the Trust is the holder of record of such shares. When the Plan and the Trust became effective, all of the shares of Common Stock held in the Trust were allocated to the Company's employees. Of the 4,502,050 shares of Common Stock held in the Trust as of May 15, 2002, only 29,220 were unallocated. Shares become unallocated under the Plan as a result of forfeitures by former employees of the Company. None of the shares in the Trust may revert to the Company or its affiliates.

Pursuant to the terms of the Plan, each Plan participant who has stock allocated to his or her stock account is entitled to instruct the Trust's trustee (the "Trustee") as to the manner in which the shares of Common Stock allocated to his or her stock account will be voted. The Plan also provides that the Trustee has no discretion with respect to the voting of any shares of Common Stock held in the Trust, and as such (i) the Trustee may not vote shares for which it has not received instructions from a Plan participant; and (ii) the Trustee must vote unallocated shares in the same proportion as the allocated shares for which it has received instructions. Should the Plan participants be requested to tender or exchange their shares of Common Stock, the Trustee is required to follow each participant's instructions, may not act in the absence of such instructions and must tender or exchange unallocated shares in the same proportion as the allocated shares for which it has received instructions. Additionally, the Trustee does not have dispositive power with respect to shares held in any Plan participant's stock account.

Because the Trustee has no discretion with respect to the voting or disposition of the shares of Common Stock held through the Trust, the Trust has no reporting obligation pursuant to Section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules promulgated thereunder.
