PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

In May 2005 we entered into an agreement to supply comprehensive security solutions for a sensitive site in Europe. As part of the agreement, we received an advance payment, secured by a bank guarantee, which was to be reduced proportionally according to the progress of the execution of the project. We commenced the execution of the project and delivered some of the equipment and other deliverables to the customer in 2005. We recognized revenues from this project in accordance with our revenue recognition policy according to which revenue is recognized based on the percentage to completion achieved in accordance with the "Input Method." In April 2006, the customer informed us that it was canceling the agreement due to errors in the design documents submitted by us. In addition the customer did not make the payments required under the agreement. We believe that there is no factual or legal ground for the cancellation and accordingly, the agreement is still valid. On April 28, 2006 we commenced arbitration proceedings against the customer. In these proceedings we have asked the arbitrators to find that the agreement is valid and to enforce the payments due us pursuant to the agreement. We intend to vigorously pursue our claim. The customer has not yet filed its response. Based on its cancellation of the agreement, the customer collected $3.2 million that was secured by the bank guarantee on June 20, 2006.

As a result of the cancellation and the return of the $3.2 million, we determined that it would be appropriate to reverse those revenues previously recognized under the agreement.

Based on the foregoing, we were unable to complete the preparation and review of our financial statements to reflect these events within the prescribed time
