Elbit Systems Receives $47 Million Contract from the Israeli Ministry of Defense

for the Supply of UAV Systems to Israel Defense Forces

Monday June 9, 6:39 am ET

HAIFA, Israel, June 9 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Elbit Systems Ltd. (Nasdaq: ESLT - News), today announced that it has received a $47 million contract from the Israeli Ministry of Defense for the supply of Unmanned Airborne Vehicle (UAV) systems to Israel Defense Forces (IDF). The contract is to be performed over a three-year period.

Elbit Systems, through its subsidiary Silver Arrow, is the primary supplier of advanced tactical UAV systems to the IDF. The new contract follows a UAV project for the IDF that was successfully completed by Silver Arrow.

Joseph Ackerman, President & CEO of Elbit Systems, commented on the award: "UAV systems, which are one of our core businesses, have recently received high priority in the defense market in light of the new defense needs and lessons learned from the recent conflicts in Afghanistan and Iraq. The proven capabilities and extensive experience that Elbit Systems has acquired in the area of advanced UAV systems, have contributed to the award of this new contract."

Silver Arrow's UAV systems are based on the Hermes family of tactical UAV's including the Hermes 450, Hermes 180 and Hermes 1500 as well as Elbit Systems' capabilities in UAV related systems -- electro optical payloads developed by El-Op, command and control ground stations, communications systems and advanced training systems.

Elbit Systems will present its line of tactical UAV systems in the Paris Air Show on June 15 through 22.
