Action Complaint. The plaintiffs have not indicated whether they intend to appeal the court's decision.

2. A Brazilian subsidiary of the Company has been responding to a series of excise and income tax assessments from the Brazilian tax authorities asserting that the establishment in 1995 of separate manufacturing and distribution companies in that country was done without a valid business purpose. On March 18, 2004 a Brazilian subsidiary of the Company was informed that a mandatory second-level appellate review had confirmed an earlier appellate decision rejecting income tax assessments totaling approximately $150 million (including interest). The remaining assessments were not affected by the decision.

3. On March 16, 2004 the Superior Court for the State of California issued an order in response to Avon's demurrer to plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint in the matter of Blakemore, et al. v. Avon Products, Inc., et al. The court dismissed plaintiffs' fraud and breach of contract causes of action, dismissed with leave to amend plaintiffs' cause of action based on the California Business and Professions Code, and allowed plaintiffs' unjust enrichment cause of action to go forward. The court also dismissed three of the four named plaintiffs in the action.
