On August 1, 2008, Dot Hill entered into a credit agreement with Silicon Valley Bank to provide for a revolving credit facility for cash advances and letters of credit of up to an aggregate of $30 million based upon an advance rate of 85% of eligible accounts receivable. Borrowings under the credit facility bear interest at the prime rate and are secured by substantially all of Dot Hill's accounts receivable, deposit and securities accounts. The agreement provides for a negative pledge on Dot Hill's inventory and intellectual property, subject to certain exceptions, and contains usual and customary covenants for an arrangement of its type, including an obligation of Dot Hill to maintain at all times a net worth of $55 million (subject to certain increases). The agreement also includes provisions to increase the financing facility by $20 million subject to Dot Hill meeting certain requirements, including $40 million in borrowing base for the immediately preceding 90 days, and Silicon Valley Bank locating a lender willing to finance the additional facility. In addition, if Dot Hill's cash and cash equivalents net of the total amount outstanding under the credit facility fall below $20 million (measured on a rolling three-month basis), the interest rate will increase to prime plus 1% and additional restrictions will apply. The credit agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 4, 2008, Dot Hill terminated its credit agreement dated July 1, 2004, as amended, with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, effective as of August 6, 2008. The material terms and conditions of the credit agreement are described in Dot Hill's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. The credit agreement was terminated as it was no longer necessary given the establishment of Dot Hill's revolving credit facility with Silicon Valley Bank. There were no early termination penalties associated with the termination of the credit agreement and no outstanding borrowings under the credit line established by the credit agreement at the time of its termination.
