LETTER TO CUSTOMERS

-----
[PECHINEY LOGO]

Paris, July 11th, 2003

Dear Sir/Madam,

As you know, Pechiney is the target of a hostile proposed public offer by its competitor Alcan. This is obviously a major event for our Group and we are addressing the consequences with great determination.

At the heart of that determination is our overriding goal of maintaining our relationship with you. The core objective of all the technological, industrial and commercial strategies implemented in recent years has been to better respond to your needs. Today more than ever, we remain fully committed to that objective.

As soon as this hostile public offer was announced, I wrote personally to every Pechiney employee to ask them to continue serving their customers with their usual concern for quality and attention to detail. To achieve this, we are going to ensure that the management of questions related to the public offer does not affect the everyday organization and operating of our Divisions. Every team is and will remain totally customer-focused.

No investment, whether industrial, commercial or R&D-related, has been suspended and our teams continue to implement our strategy with the same energy.

In addition, we have upgraded our information systems to ensure that your day-to-day contacts are kept up-to-date in real time of any changes to the situation. This will allow our teams to answer any questions you may have without delay.

You can also contact us online 24 hours a day by clicking on "contact" on our website www.pechiney.com.

We remain wholly motivated by the fulfillment of our current and future commitments in a spirit of continuous improvement. You can count on me and on our teams' unwavering dedication to your full satisfaction.

Sincerely

/s/ Jean-Pierre Rodier
