News Release

June 28, 2003

US GAAP accounts □ year ended March 31, 2003

RBI approves dividend payment; record date set

The Board of Directors of ICICI Bank Limited (NYSE: IBN) at its meeting held at Goa today, approved the audited US GAAP accounts of the Bank for the year ended March 31, 2003 (FY2003).

As stated in the Bank's press release dated April 25, 2003, there are significant technical differences in the basis of accounting between US GAAP and Indian GAAP. Therefore, the financial statements under US GAAP and Indian GAAP for the Bank are not comparable. The impact of the key differences is set out below:

- a. ICICI Bank's net worth as per US GAAP on March 31, 2003 was Rs. 9,221 crore (US$ 1,940 million), which was significantly higher than the consolidated net worth as per Indian GAAP of Rs. 6,672 crore (US$ 1,403 million).
- b. Under Indian GAAP, capital gains of Rs. 1,191 crore (US$ 250 million) on the sale of shares of ICICI Bank and provisions of Rs. 1,791 crore (US$ 377 million) were both accounted for in the profit and loss account. US GAAP requires the capital gains to be directly added to the net worth without being routed through the profit and loss account while provisions of Rs. 2,226 crore (US$ 468 million) were accounted for in the profit and loss account under US GAAP.

Thus, while the US GAAP profit and loss account does not include the capital gains, it includes the full negative impact of the provisions.

- c. Under US GAAP, ICICI is deemed to have acquired ICICI Bank and therefore ICICI Bank's assets were stated at fair values while accounting for the merger. Thus, ICICI Bank's investment portfolio on the date of the merger was marked-to-market with a positive impact on the value of the portfolio and on the net worth. As a result, treasury gains of Rs. 447 crore (US$ 94 million) realised during the year and recognised as treasury income under Indian GAAP were lower by Rs. 215 crore (US$ 45 million) as this amount was already recognized in the opening net worth under US GAAP.

The technical accounting differences in respect of capital gains and treasury gains alone have a negative impact of Rs 1,406 crore (US$ 296 million) on the US GAAP profit and loss account, although the positive impact is accounted for in the net worth.

Under Indian GAAP, ICICI Bank's consolidated profit after tax was Rs. 1,152 crore (US$ 242 million). The US GAAP accounts show a profit before provisions against loans and investments, taxation and effect of accounting changes, of Rs. 1,122 crore (US$ 236 million). However, as a result of the significant differences in the basis of accounting under US GAAP and Indian GAAP as mentioned earlier, the US GAAP accounts show a net loss of Rs. 798 crore (US$ 168 million) in FY2003. As mentioned earlier, the net worth as per US GAAP is higher at Rs. 9,221 crore (US$ 1,940 million), compared to the consolidated Indian GAAP net worth (Rs. 6,672 crore, or US$ 1,403 million). A reconciliation of consolidated profit after tax as per Indian GAAP with net income as per US GAAP for FY2003 is given in the Annexure.

As mentioned above, the financial statements under US GAAP and Indian GAAP are not comparable. These differences are expected to continue in future years as under US GAAP, ICICI is deemed to have acquired ICICI Bank (vis-à-vis ICICI Bank having acquired ICICI, as per Indian GAAP). The US GAAP accounts are prepared in compliance with United States regulations governing the Bank's American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) and do not impact the Bank's operations or functioning.

RBI approves dividend payment; record date set

ICICI Bank's profit after tax as per Indian GAAP (unconsolidated) was Rs. 1,206 crore (US$ 254 million) for FY2003. The Board of Directors of the Bank at its meeting on April 25, 2003, had recommended a dividend of Rs. 7.50 per equity share for FY2003 (Rs. 15.00 per ADR, since each ADR represents 2 underlying shares), subject to the approval of Reserve Bank of India and the shareholders of the Bank. The approval of RBI has since been received. The Board has fixed August 5, 2003 as the Record Date for the purpose of payment of dividend.
