Syngenta acquires flowers business in Japan

Basel, Switzerland, 16 February 2004

Syngenta announced today that it has acquired all outstanding shares of Dia-Engei, the Japanese leader in producing and marketing seedlings of flowering plants and vegetables. The terms of the transaction were not disclosed. Dia-Engei's sales in 2003 were ¥ 858 million ($8 million). Japan is the third largest flower seed market in the world.

Dia-Engei was established in 1989 as a joint venture company between Syngenta and Mitsubishi Chemical Corporation. Before this acquisition, Syngenta's holding in Dia-Engei was 33%.

This acquisition underscores our commitment to further expand our growing flowers business, said Jeff Beard, Chief Operating Officer for Syngenta Seeds. The purchase of Dia-Engei will enable Syngenta to accelerate growth in the important Japanese market for flower seeds and young plants.

Syngenta is a leader in breeding superior quality flowers, marketed as seeds, young plants and cuttings to professional growers. Under the S&G® Flowers brand, the company currently ranks number two in the global flower seeds market.

Syngenta is a world-leading agribusiness committed to sustainable agriculture through innovative research and technology. The company is a leader in crop protection, and ranks third in the high-value commercial seeds market. Sales in 2003 were
