¹ Includes 725,749,060 Common Shares of Siliconware Precision Industries Co., Ltd. (“SPIL”), par value NT$10.00 per share (“Common Shares”) and 10,650,188 American depository shares (“ADSs”) of SPIL, each representing five Common Shares.

Item 1. Security and Issuer

Advanced Semiconductor Engineering, Inc. (“ASE”) hereby amends and supplements its report on Schedule 13D, as filed on October 2, 2015 (the “Schedule 13D”), with respect to the Common Shares, NT$10 par value per share (the “Common Shares”), and American depositary shares, each representing five Common Shares (“ADSs”), of Siliconware Precision Industries Co., Ltd., a company limited by shares under the Company Law of the Republic of China (“SPIL”). Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms used in this Amendment No. 9, but not defined herein, shall have the meaning assigned to such terms in the Schedule 13D.

Except as set forth herein, the Schedule 13D is unmodified.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following information:

As of December 21, 2015, SPIL’s board of directors had not responded to ASE’s written proposal to acquire 100% of SPIL’s outstanding Common Shares not owned by ASE for NT$55 per share and 100% of its outstanding ADSs not owned by ASE for NT$275 per ADS. ASE believes that at its existing ownership level it will continue to face defensive measures from SPIL thereby eliminating any realistic possibility of a cooperative dialogue between the parties, and that this inherently unstable situation will have an adverse effect on the interests of ASE’s and SPIL’s shareholders.

Accordingly, on December 22, 2015, in order to protect ASE’s investment in SPIL, ASE announced that it plans to commence on December 29, 2015 concurrent tender offers in the Republic of China (the “ROC Offer”) and in the United States (the “U.S. Offer”, together with the ROC Offer, the “Offers”) for up to 770,000,000 Common Shares (approximately 24.71% of the issued and outstanding share capital of SPIL), including those represented by ADSs, at a price of NT$55 per Common Share and NT$275 per ADS.

If the Offers are consummated, subject to either (i) SPIL’s shareholders not approving the transaction with Tsinghua Unigroup Ltd. (the “Third Party Transaction”) at the proposed extraordinary shareholders’ meeting on January 28, 2016 or (ii) SPIL terminating the Third Party Transaction in accordance with its terms or applicable law and cancelling the proposed extraordinary shareholders’ meeting, ASE will seek to cause SPIL to enter into a share exchange or other similar business combination with ASE pursuant to which ASE would acquire 100% of the shares of SPIL not owned by ASE (a “Proposed Combination”) for the consideration of NT$55 per Common Share and NT$275 per ADS (subject to adjustment if SPIL issues shares or cash dividends prior to the closing of such Proposed Combination or otherwise in accordance with applicable law). In order to implement the Proposed Combination, if the Offers are consummated, ASE will seek to discharge SPIL's board of directors (the "SPIL Board") at one or more shareholders' meetings or await the expiration of the current Board's term and elect new nominees to the SPIL Board. If after such election one-half or more of the SPIL Board is composed of candidates nominated or designated by ASE, ASE intends to cause the SPIL Board to resolve in favor of a Proposed Combination. The consummation of any Proposed Combination will (i) require approval by SPIL and ASE at their respective board and shareholders' meetings and (ii) be subject to receipt of all requisite competition, antitrust or other government approvals.

During and after completion of the Offers, subject to applicable law, ASE may make additional proposals to SPIL and otherwise attempt to influence the management of SPIL. In addition, ASE may consider other possibilities, including further acquisitions of Common Shares and ADSs after the expiration date of the Offers, whether in the market or through one or more tender offers, or one or more other potential transactions. After completion of the Offers, ASE will continue to review its investment in SPIL on the basis of available information.

A copy of ASE's Press Release is attached as Exhibit 12.
