Edgar Filing: HUBBELL INC - Form 8-K

On November 5, 2004, Hubbell Incorporated (the "Company") placed William T. Tolley on a paid administrative leave from his position as Chief Financial Officer of the Company, following his notifying the Company that he had received a letter from the Staff of the Division of Enforcement of the Securities and Exchange Commission stating that the Division had preliminarily decided to make a recommendation to the SEC that it bring a civil injunction action against Mr. Tolley alleging violations of certain provisions of the federal securities laws stemming from his prior employer's conduct in 2000 resulting in restatements of earnings in 2000. Mr. Tolley advised the Company that he had agreed to settle the Commission's charges by consenting to the entry of a final judgment permanently enjoining him from further violations of the federal securities laws, without admitting or denying the allegations of the SEC's complaint, and to pay a civil penalty in the amount of $50,000. The charges, which are described in SEC Litigation Release No. 19215 issued May 3, 2005, are not related to the Company or to Mr. Tolley's service as Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

Effective May 2, 2005, Mr. Tolley returned to the Company in the capacity of Director of Special Projects, a non-executive position which does not involve responsibility for the Company's financial statements or financial reporting. Gregory F. Covino, the Company's Corporate Controller and Chief Accounting Officer, who was appointed Interim Chief Financial Officer in November, will continue to serve in such position.
