Item 8.01 Other Events

Shareholder Approval of the Merger Agreement

On December 14, 2009, the shareholders of Sunair Services Corporation (Sunair), voting at a special meeting (Special Meeting), approved the merger (Merger)of Sunair with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Massey Services, Inc. (Massey). In connection with the Merger, each outstanding share of Sunair s common stock (other than shares held by Massey) will be automatically converted into the right to receive $2.75 per share in cash.

In a press release issued December 14, 2009, Sunair announced the approval of the merger agreement by its shareholders at the Special Meeting.

Denial of a Motion for a Temporary Injunction

On December 3, 2009, Gerald Corsover, individually and behalf of other similarly situated, served an emergency motion for a temporary injunction in the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit for Broward County, State of Florida (Court). For more information about the plaintiff s class action lawsuit, please see Sunair s Form 8-K filed on October 15, 2009. On December 11, 2009, the Court denied the plaintiff s motion for a temporary injunction.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-looking Statements

This Form 8-K contains one or more forward-looking statements, within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are identified by words such as will, expected, believe and other similar words. Sunair cautions readers not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. A variety of known and unknown risks and uncertainties could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results which include, but are not limited to: satisfaction of all conditions required for closing and adverse developments in Sunair s business. In addition, other risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we consider immaterial could affect the accuracy of any such forward-looking statements. Sunair does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events that occur or circumstances that exist after the date on which they were made. Additional risks and uncertainties include those detailed from time to time in Sunair s publicly filed documents, including its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2008.
