5. FULL DESCRIPTION OF MATERIAL CHANGE

On March 31, 2010, the Government announced that the remaining conditions to the effectiveness of the Investment Agreement among the Government, the Company, its subsidiary, OT LLC and Rio Tinto had been fulfilled. These conditions included the completion of a number of corporate transactions intended to establish an efficient foundation for the operation of the project and the respective interests of the parties, such as tax-related restructuring of subsidiaries and conversion of certain exploration licences to mining licences. As a result of such conditions having been fulfilled, the terms of the Investment Agreement became effective as of the Effective Date.

The Investment Agreement provides for, among other things, a framework for maintaining a stable tax and operational environment for the Oyu Tolgoi copper and gold project in Mongolia (the Oyu Tolgoi Project), protection of the parties' investment in the Oyu Tolgoi Project, the amount and term of the parties' investment in the Oyu Tolgoi Project, the right to realize the benefits of such investment, the undertaking of mining activities with minimum damage to the environment and human health, the rehabilitation of the environment, the social and economic development of the Southern Gobi region and the creation of new jobs in Mongolia.

OT LLC, two indirect, wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company through which the Company holds its interest in OT LLC (the Company Shareholder Subsidiaries) and Erdenes MGL LLC (Erdenes), a company wholly-owned by the Government are parties to a Shareholders Agreement dated October 6, 2009 (the Shareholders Agreement). Under the terms of the Shareholders Agreement, within 14 days of the Effective Date, OT LLC must issue to Erdenes a number of common shares of OT LLC that, upon issuance, represent 34% of the then issued and outstanding common shares of OT LLC.

Pursuant to a treasury bill purchase agreement dated October 6, 2009 (the T-Bill Purchase Agreement) between OT LLC and the Government, OT LLC agreed to purchase a series of discounted treasury bills issued by the Government.
