2010 Incentive Compensation Plan

On April 29, 2010, at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (Annual Meeting) of Life Technologies Corporation (Company), the Company's stockholders approved and adopted the 2010 Incentive Compensation Plan (Plan). The Company's Compensation and Organizational Development Committee (Committee) previously approved the Plan on February 24, 2010.

The Plan is a performance-based compensation bonus plan designed to comply with Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (Section 162(m)), such that the Company will be able to fully deduct bonus payments made pursuant to the Plan as a compensation expense. Section 162(m) and related guidance generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation in excess of $1 million paid during a single year to its chief executive officer and its three other most highly compensated named executive officers, excluding its chief financial officer. Certain compensation is exempt from this Section 162(m) deduction limit if it qualifies as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m).

To qualify as performance-based compensation, the payment of any bonus under the Plan must be made contingent upon the achievement of one or more of the performance goals identified in the Plan. The performance goals may be applied to either the Company as a whole or to a business unit, affiliate, region or business segment, or any combination thereof, and may be measured either on an absolute basis or relative to a pre-established target, to a previous period's results or to a designated comparison group.

The Committee will administer the Company's annual cash incentive program under the Plan. Only the Company's named executive officers and other officers subject to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 will be eligible to participate in the Plan.

A copy of the Plan is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the Plan set forth above does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to such agreement.

Deferred Compensation Plan

On April 28, 2010, the Committee approved an amendment and restatement of the Company's Deferred Compensation Plan (DCP). The DCP combines into a single non-qualified plan the deferred compensation plans previously sponsored by the Company and its subsidiaries. The Company's named executive officers, along with certain other highly compensated employees and the non-employee members of the Company's board of directors, are eligible to participate in the DCP.

Employees who participate in the DCP will be permitted to defer up to 75% of their annual base salary and up to 100% of their annual cash bonus and sales commission. The Company will provide matching contributions on a participant's behalf if the participant's 401(k) matching contributions are required to be limited pursuant to applicable qualified retirement plan contribution limitations. In addition, the Company will provide participants with a supplemental matching contribution of up to 25% of the annual target cash bonus and sales commission (payable in 2011) the participant defers and allocates into the Company's common stock, subject to a three-year cliff vesting period. The supplemental match amount and associated vesting is subject to annual approval by the Committee. Each non-employee director can participate in the DCP by deferring any cash retainer fee or other cash fee paid by the Company as consideration for the non-employee director's service to the Company. The non-employee directors are not entitled to participate in the supplemental matching contribution offered by the Company to its participating employees.

A copy of the DCP is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the DCP set forth above does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to such agreement.
