Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On June 2, 2011, InterDigital, Inc. (the company) held its 2011 annual meeting of shareholders (the 2011 annual meeting). At the 2011 annual meeting, the company s shareholders, upon the recommendation of the board of directors (the board), voted in favor of amending the company s articles of incorporation (the articles) to implement a majority voting standard for all director elections other than contested elections (the articles amendment). The voting results are set forth in Item 5.07 below. The articles amendment is more fully described in the company s proxy statement for the 2011 annual meeting filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 18, 2011.

On June 3, 2011, the company filed, with the approval of the board, Articles of Amendment (the Articles of Amendment) with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (the Department of State) to amend and restate the articles to reflect the articles amendment approved by the shareholders at the 2011 annual meeting. The amended and restated articles became effective upon filing with the Department of State.

In light of the articles amendment, the board approved (contingent upon the effectiveness of the articles amendment) (i) conforming amendments to the company s bylaws (the bylaws) to provide for a majority voting standard for all director elections other than contested elections and to define the term contested election and (ii) certain immaterial conforming and technical changes to the bylaws, including without limitation conforming the use of defined terms throughout the bylaws and updating references in the bylaws to provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law to reflect amendments thereto. All of the aforementioned amendments to the bylaws became effective on June 3, 2011 upon the filing of the Articles of Amendment with the Department of State.

This summary of the amendments to the articles and the bylaws does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the articles and bylaws, each as amended and restated, which are attached as Exhibits 3.1 and 3.2, respectively, to this report.
