PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON JUNE 28, 2002

This Proxy Statement provides information that you should read before you vote on the proposals that will be presented to you at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Aether Systems, Inc. (Aether). The 2002 Annual Meeting will be held on June 28, 2002 at the BWI Airport Marriott, 1743 West Nursery Road, Baltimore, Maryland, 21240.

This Proxy Statement provides detailed information about the Annual Meeting, the proposals you will be asked to vote on at the Annual Meeting, and other relevant information. The Board of Directors (Board) of Aether is soliciting these proxies.

At the Annual Meeting, you will be asked to vote on the following proposals:

1. Elect eight directors, each for a one-year term;
2. Ratify the appointment by the Board of Directors of the firm of KPMG LLP as independent public accountants of Aether for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002; and
3. Such other matters as may properly come before the meeting.

The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote for election of the board s nominees for director and for approval of the other proposal.

On May 28, 2002, we began mailing this proxy statement to people who, according to our records, owned common shares of Aether as of the close of business on May 6, 2002. We have mailed with this proxy statement a copy of Aether s Annual Report.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE 2002 ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING

The Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting will be held on June 28, 2002 at the BWI Airport Marriott, 1743 West Nursery Road, Baltimore, Maryland 21240, at 10:00 a.m. local time.

This Proxy Solicitation

We are sending you this proxy statement because Aether's Board of Directors is seeking a proxy to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting. This proxy statement is intended to assist you in deciding how to vote your shares. On May 28, 2002, we began mailing this proxy statement to all people who, according to our stockholder records, owned shares at the close of business on May 6, 2002.

Aether is paying the cost of requesting these proxies. Aether's directors, officers and employees may request proxies in person or by telephone, mail, facsimile or otherwise, but they will not receive additional compensation for their services. Aether will reimburse brokers and other nominees for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of our shares.

Voting Your Shares

You may vote your shares at the Annual Meeting either in person or by proxy. To vote in person, you must attend the Annual Meeting and obtain and submit a ballot. Ballots for voting in person will be available at the Annual Meeting. To vote by proxy, you must complete and return the enclosed proxy card in time to be received by us before the Annual Meeting. By completing and returning the proxy card, you will be directing the persons designated on the proxy card to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions you give on the proxy card.

If you hold your shares with a broker and do not tell your broker how to vote, your broker has the authority to vote on all proposals.

If you decide to vote by proxy, your proxy card will be valid only if you sign, date and return it before the Annual Meeting, to be held on June 28, 2002.

In the election of directors, the eight nominees for director who receive the most votes will be elected. If you do not vote for a particular nominee, or you indicate WITHHELD on your proxy card, your vote will not count either for or against the nominee. For the other proposal, you may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN. If you ABSTAIN as the proposal, it has the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal.

If you are a beneficial owner and do not provide the shareowner of record with voting instructions, your shares may constitute broker non-votes. If you hold your shares with a broker and you do not tell your broker how to vote, your broker has the authority to vote on all of the proposals scheduled to be presented at this year's meeting. If there nevertheless are broker non-votes, in tabulating the voting result for any particular proposal, shares that constitute broker non-votes are not considered entitled to vote on that proposal and will not be considered votes cast for the foregoing purposes. Thus, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of any of the matters being voted upon at the meeting.

Failure to return a proxy or vote in person will not affect the outcome of the proposals as long as a quorum is achieved. If you sign your proxy card or broker voting instruction card with no further instructions, your shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board (FOR all of Aether's nominees to the Board, and FOR all other items described in this proxy statement and in the discretion of the proxy holders on any other matters that properly come before the meeting).

We have described in this proxy statement all the proposals that we expect will be made at the Annual Meeting. If we or a stockholder properly present any other proposal to the meeting, the proxies have discretion to vote your shares on the proposal as they see fit.

Revoking Your Proxy

If you decide to change your vote, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted. You may revoke your proxy in one of three ways:

You may notify the Secretary of Aether in writing that you wish to revoke your proxy. Please contact: Aether Systems, Inc., 11460 Cronridge Drive, Owings Mills, Maryland 21117, Attention: David C. Reymann, Secretary. We must receive your notice before the time of the Annual Meeting.

You may submit a proxy dated later than your original proxy.

You may attend the Annual Meeting and vote. Merely attending the Annual Meeting will not by itself revoke a proxy; you must obtain a ballot and vote your shares to revoke the proxy.

Vote Required for Approval

Shares Entitled to Vote. On May 6, 2002 (the Record Date), 42,140,412 shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding. Each share issued and outstanding on the Record Date will be entitled to one vote on each of the proposals.

Quorum. The quorum requirement for holding the meeting and transacting business is that a majority of the shares issued and outstanding on the Record Date be present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to be voted. Accordingly, 21,070,207 shares must be present in person or by proxy for a quorum to be present. If a quorum is not present, a vote cannot occur. Both abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for the purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Votes Required. In the election of directors, the eight persons receiving the highest number of FOR votes will be elected. The other proposal requires the affirmative FOR vote of a majority of those shares present and entitled to vote.

Additional Information

We are mailing our Annual Report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, including consolidated financial statements, to all shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, together with this proxy statement. The Annual Report does not constitute a part of the proxy solicitation material.

Proposal 1:

Election of Directors

Nominees for election to the Board of Directors are:

J. Carter Beese, Jr.
James T. Brady
George M. Davis
Jack B. Dunn IV
Edward J. Mathias
David S. Oros
George P. Stamas
Kendra VanderMeulen

The Board of Directors has decided to increase the size of the Board from seven members to eight. Three of our directors are not standing for re-election. We thank these members for their service.

Each director will be elected to serve for a one-year term, unless he or she resigns or is removed before his or her term expires, or until his or her replacement is elected and qualified. Four of the eight nominees are currently members of the Board of Directors and have consented to serve as directors if re-elected. More detailed information about each of the nominees is available in the section of this proxy statement titled Directors and Executive Officers, which begins on page 8.

NexGen Technologies, L.L.C. (NexGen), Telcom-ATI Investors, L.L.C. (Telcom-ATI) and Reuters America, Inc. (Reuters), who together hold approximately 22.1% of the shares of our common stock, are parties to a stockholders agreement that governs voting for our directors. The agreement requires each party to vote all its shares for one director named by NexGen, two directors named by Telcom-ATI, one director named jointly by NexGen and Telcom-ATI, and one director named by Reuters. Pursuant to this agreement, NexGen has named Mr. Oros as its designee and Telcom-ATI and Reuters have waived their rights to designate directors. The agreement will last until all but one of the parties holds less than a certain percentage of the shares it held in Aether at the time of our initial public offering.

If any of the nominees cannot serve for any reason (which is not anticipated), the Board of Directors may designate a substitute nominee or nominees; however, if the nominee is a designee of a party to the stockholders agreement, then the Board of Directors will designate a substitute nominee named by the respective entity who designated the vacating representative. If a substitute is nominated, we will vote all valid proxies for the election of the substitute nominee or nominees. Alternatively, the Board of Directors may also decide to leave the board seat or seats open until a suitable candidate or candidates are located, or it may decide to reduce the size of the Board.

Proxies at the Annual Meeting may not be voted for more than eight directors.

Recommendation

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR each of the nominees to the Board of Directors.

Proposal 2:

Ratification of Independent Auditors

The Board of Directors has appointed KPMG LLP, an international accounting firm of independent certified public accountants, to act as independent accountants for Aether and its consolidated subsidiaries for 2002. The Board believes that KPMG's experience with and knowledge of Aether are important, and would like to continue this relationship. KPMG has advised Aether that the firm does not have any direct or indirect financial interest in Aether or any of its subsidiaries, nor has KPMG had any such interest since Aether's inception in 1996 other than as a provider of auditing and accounting services.

In making the recommendation for KPMG to continue as independent accountants for the year ended December 31, 2002, the Audit Committee reviewed past audit results and the non-audit services performed during 2001 and proposed to be performed during 2002. In selecting KPMG, the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors carefully considered KPMG's independence. The Audit Committee has determined that the performance of the non-audit services performed by KPMG did not impair the independence of KPMG.

KPMG has confirmed to Aether that it is in compliance with all rules, standards and policies of the Independent Standards Board and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) governing auditor independence.

A representative of KPMG is expected to attend the Annual Meeting. The KPMG representative will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so and will be able to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

Recommendation

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR ratification of the appointment of KPMG.

He joined FTI in 1992, serving as a director since May 1992 and chairman of the board since December 1998. Mr. Dunn is a limited partner of the Baltimore Orioles. Prior to joining FTI, he was a member of the board of directors and a managing director of Legg Mason Wood Walker, Inc. and directed its Baltimore corporate finance and investment banking activities. He received a B.A. from Princeton University and a J.D. from the University of Maryland Law School.

Edward J. Mathias has been a managing director of The Carlyle Group, a Washington, D.C. based private merchant bank, since 1994. Mr. Mathias served as a managing director of T. Rowe Price Associates, Inc., an investment management firm, from 1971 to 1993.

Kendra VanderMeulen has been a strategic consultant since August 2001. From July 1994 until August 2001, she served as senior vice president of product development and strategy for AT&T Wireless (formerly McCaw Cellular Communications, Inc.), with responsibility for definition, development, introduction and management of new mobility products. Prior to joining McCaw Cellular, Ms. VanderMeulen was with Cincinnati Bell Information Systems (now Convergys), where she served as chief operating officer and president of the communication systems group. Directors serve for a one year term.

Our executive officers are appointed by, and serve at the discretion of, our Board of Directors. We expect that each of our officers will devote substantially full time to our affairs. We expect that our non-employee directors will devote such time to our affairs as is necessary to discharge their duties. There are no family relationships among any of our executive officers, directors or key employees.

Meetings of the Board of Directors and Standing Committees

The Board of Directors held a total of 12 meetings during 2001, and executed three unanimous consents in lieu of a meeting. Each of the directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board except for Mr. Wenig.

The standing committees of the Board of Directors include an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee consists of Messrs. Beese and Wheeler, with Mr. Beese as its chairman. Following the annual meeting, we expect the Board of Directors to elect a new member of the Compensation Committee to replace Mr. Wheeler. During 2001, Mr. Rahul C. Prakash was also a member of the Compensation Committee until he resigned from the Board of Directors in June 2001. The Compensation Committee determines the compensation of senior executive officers (such as the chief executive officer and chief financial officer), subject, if the Board so directs, to the Board's further ratification of the compensation; determines the compensation for other officers or delegates such determinations to the chief executive officer; grants options, stock or other equity interests under our stock option or other equity-based incentive plans; and administers those plans and, where such plans specify, our other employee benefit plans. The Compensation Committee held a total of five meetings during 2001, which were attended by all of the Compensation Committee members.

The Audit Committee consists of Messrs. Beese, Bonsal and Wheeler, with Mr. Beese as its chairman. Mr. Wheeler joined the Audit Committee in June 2001. Following the annual meeting, we expect the Board of Directors to elect new members of the Audit Committee to replace Messrs. Bonsal and Wheeler. The Audit Committee's responsibilities are described in a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee makes recommendations to the Board concerning the engagement of independent accountants; reviews with the independent accountants the plans and results of the audit engagement; approves professional services provided by the independent accountants; considers the range of audit and non-audit fees; verifies that auditors are independent of management and are objective in their findings; reviews annual CPA audit and recommendations of internal controls and related management response; reviews the audit reports with management and the auditor; oversees the internal audit function; and monitors management's efforts to correct deficiencies described in any audit examination. A report of the Audit Committee can be found on page 19 of this proxy statement. The Audit Committee held a total of 10 meetings during 2001, which were attended by all of the Audit Committee members, except that Mr. Bonsal missed one meeting and Mr. Wheeler missed two meetings.

Director Compensation

Except for reimbursement for reasonable travel expenses relating to attendance at Board meetings and discretionary grants of stock options, directors are not compensated for their services as directors. Directors who are employees are eligible to participate in our equity incentive plan. The following table identifies options that we have granted to our current non-employee directors since January 1, 2001.

Executive Officer Compensation

Summary Compensation. The following table sets forth compensation for 1999, 2000 and 2001 awarded to, earned by or paid to our chief executive officer and the four other most highly paid executive officers. In addition, we have provided this information with respect to two persons who were executive officers during 2001, but are no longer executive officers: Mr. Jackson, who separated from Aether in September 2001; and Mr. Shelton, who separated from Aether in April 2002. We refer to these seven officers as the named executive officers.

Ten-Year Option Repricing. In late 2000, we offered all option holders the opportunity to exchange options whose exercise prices were then above the market price of our common stock for a smaller number of restricted shares of common stock. The exchange provided for the issuance of 0.3 shares of restricted common stock for each share of common stock for which the option was or would become exercisable. The shares are subject to restrictions that prevent transfer or voting of the shares, and the restrictions lapse on substantially the same schedule as the options to be replaced would have become exercisable. Executive officers were given the opportunity to elect to exchange options for shares and our executive officers did elect to make this exchange. The exchange became effective with respect to executive officers in 2001 when the stockholders approved the amendment to the 1999 Equity Incentive Plan to permit the issuance of shares.

The following table shows certain information regarding the exchange relating to our chief executive officer and each of the named executive officers:

(1) Upon Mr. Shelton's separation from Aether, Mr. Shelton and Aether agreed to prorate his restricted shares through April 2002, his last month of employment. Accordingly, on April 1, 2002, the 30,000 restricted shares were replaced with 4,950 unrestricted shares with a cost basis of $4.37 per share.

Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year. The following table shows information regarding stock options granted to the named executive officers during the year ended December 31, 2001. (1) Options were in the money to the extent the closing price of Aether's common stock on December 31, 2001 exceeded the exercise price of the options. The value of unexercised options represents the difference between the exercise price of net options and $9.20, which was the last reported sale price of Aether common stock on December 31, 2001.

Employment Agreements

We have entered into an employment contract with Mr. Oros, which became effective June 22, 1999, and provides for a salary of $200,000 per year, a performance bonus of up to $100,000 per year, and additional bonuses based on annual revenue targets and proceeds raised from private placements of our equity securities in 1999. The contract has an initial term expiring in June 2002, and automatically extends for additional one month increments until terminated by Aether or Mr. Oros on 15 days notice. Pursuant to the contract, in 1999 we granted Mr. Oros a warrant to acquire 875,000 shares of our common stock. The warrant currently has an exercise price of $1.60 per share of common stock. Mr. Oros subsequently received our permission to assign part of his warrant, leaving him with a warrant to acquire 775,000 shares. We also gave Mr. Oros the right to allocate to key employees of his choosing warrants to acquire 125,000 shares of common stock having the same terms and conditions. Mr. Oros awarded warrants for 106,250 shares of our common stock to current and past executive officers of Aether. In 1999, Mr. Oros also received a warrant to acquire 175,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $4 per share. From this grant, Mr. Oros subsequently assigned a warrant exercisable for 17,500 shares of our common stock. Each of these warrants became exercisable upon completion of our initial public offering. Warrants that Mr. Oros and other named executive officers continue to hold are included in the table headed "Aggregate Option Exercises and Holdings," above. If we terminate Mr. Oros without cause, he is entitled to receive from us an amount equal to the salary he would have received during the balance of the term of the employment contract. Under the contract, "cause" means committing an act of gross negligence or other willful act that materially adversely affects Aether, refusing to comply in any respect with specific directions of our Board of Directors, or being convicted or pleading no contest to any felony or any misdemeanor involving fraud, breach of trust or misappropriation.

On June 8, 2001, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Reymann. The agreement has an initial term expiring in June 2003, and automatically extends for additional one year increments until terminated by Aether or Mr. Reymann on 90 days notice before the end of the initial term or the extensions. The agreement provides for a salary of not less than $150,000 per year and annual bonuses to be established by the Board, the Compensation Committee or, if the board directs, our chief executive officer or president. Mr. Reymann may resign with 90 days notice to Aether. If we terminate Mr. Reymann without cause, he is entitled to receive an amount equal to 12 months salary, COBRA group health coverage premium costs, immediate vesting of options, restricted stock or other equity instruments, and a pro rata share of the bonus for the year of his termination. Under the agreement, "cause" means committing a material breach of the agreement, committing an act of gross negligence with respect to Aether or otherwise acting with willful disregard for Aether's best interests, or being convicted of or pleading guilty or no contest to a felony or, with respect to his employment, committing either a material dishonest act or common law fraud or knowingly violating any federal or state securities or tax laws. The agreement provides that if there is a change in control of Aether and within 12 months Mr. Reymann resigns for good reason or is terminated without cause, all options, restricted stock or other equity instruments held by Mr. Reymann will become fully exercisable. A change in control means the occurrence of any of the following: a sale of all or substantially all of Aether's assets, the dissolution or liquidation of Aether, a person or group purchasing over half of Aether's voting securities, a merger or consolidation of Aether, a successful proxy contest replacing our board of directors, or during any two year period the incumbent board ceasing to constitute a majority of the board, provided that individuals that a majority of the incumbent directors approve for service on the board are treated as incumbent directors.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of Aether's Board of Directors consists solely of two non-employee directors. The Compensation Committee determines all compensation paid or awarded to Aether's key executive officers, except that Aether's Board has delegated to Mr. Oros, as a Board Committee of one, the ability to grant options to new hires for up to 40,000 shares, subject to his duty to report periodically to the Compensation Committee.

Philosophy. The Compensation Committee's goal is to recruit and retain executives with superior talent. To do so, the Committee attempts to offer competitive and fair compensation that rewards executives for exceptional performance and holds them accountable for Aether's performance. Particular objective factors that the Committee believes are important in assessing performance include growth in Aether's customer base, the development and execution of strategy that focuses on core revenue-generating opportunities, growth in revenue, earnings before interest expense, taxes, depreciation, and amortization, and earnings per share. Additionally, more subjective factors the Committee believes are important in evaluating performance include success in leveraging and creating value-added business relationships, continuing to improve overall efficiencies, and hiring and retention of key employees.

In establishing appropriate levels for base salary, the Compensation Committee considers the market for senior executives of public companies in businesses comparable to Aether's, based on their own business experience. The Committee also considers the particular officer's overall contributions to Aether over the past year and previously. Annual performance bonuses are based on the Compensation Committee's evaluation of the executive's performance in achieving general annual goals relating to the metrics specified in the preceding paragraph as well as other contributions that enhance Aether's value. Option grants are designed to reward an executive officer for his overall contribution to Aether and to serve as an incentive to achieve Aether's goal of increasing shareholder value.

Executive officers' compensation consists primarily of three components: (i) base salary, (ii) cash bonus and (iii) stock options.

Base Salary. The Committee establishes base salaries after considering a variety of factors that determine an executive's value to Aether, including the individual's knowledge, experience, and accomplishments and the level of responsibility assumed. The Committee also sets base salaries at levels it considers necessary to retain key employees. Senior executives at Aether were granted base salary increases for 2002 averaging approximately 5%, based on a variety of performance and current market metrics.

Cash Bonus. The Committee determined each individual's cash bonus for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001. Cash bonuses are based on the Committee's overall evaluation of the performance and accomplishments of each executive officer in achieving various specified goals for the year. Senior executives of Aether, exclusive of the CEO and one executive from an acquired company who had a unique arrangement, were generally granted cash bonuses averaging approximately 8% of their year 2001 salaries. The one executive officer, who joined Aether as a result of an acquisition in 2000, received an additional bonus based upon goals determined at the time of the acquisition.

Stock Options. The Committee believes achievement of Aether's goals may be fostered by a stock option program that is tailored to employees who significantly enhance Aether's value. The Compensation Committee determined each individual's grant of stock options. Stock option grants are based on the Committee's overall evaluation of the performance and accomplishments of each executive officer in achieving various specified goals for the year. Each executive officer, exclusive of the CEO, received an option grant in July 2001 as part of an annual grant for which all employees (including executive officers) are eligible as part of Aether's performance management process. As discussed in the Compensation Committee's report in the proxy statement for the 2001 shareholder meeting, the Compensation Committee previously determined to offer all employees, including executive officers, the opportunity to exchange options for restricted shares of Aether common stock. Information regarding options exchanged by executive officers is set forth on page 6 of the proxy statement for the 2001 shareholder meeting. The Compensation Committee offered employees this opportunity because it determined that many of the stock options issued to employees no longer acted as a meaningful incentive in light of the significant change in general stock market conditions in the technology sector which resulted in a decline in the market price of Aether's common stock.

Chief Executive Officer's Compensation. Mr. Oros is one of Aether's largest stockholders. His financial well-being is therefore directly tied to Aether's performance as reflected in the price per share of common stock. For his services as Aether's chairman of the Board of Directors and chief executive officer, Mr. Oros received an amount of compensation for 2001 determined in accordance with the employment contract entered into in 1999, and did not receive an increase for 2002. In determining whether to award Mr. Oros a bonus for 2001, the Compensation Committee reviewed a number of factors, including general progress of the company, its competitive nature within the industry, current market conditions, and the current value of Aether stock. The committee recognized the progress that had been made to reduce operating expenses and improve operations in a challenging economic environment. However, the Compensation Committee agreed with Mr. Oros' suggestion that he not receive a cash bonus for 2001 and that he not receive an option grant with respect to his status as an executive officer. The Compensation Committee did grant Mr. Oros an option for 18,000 shares during 2001 as part of a grant in which each of Aether's directors received a grant of an option for 18,000 shares (plus additional shares for those directors who serve on committees).

Compensation Deduction Limit. The SEC requires that this report comment on Aether's policy with respect to a special rule under the tax laws, section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. That section limits, with exceptions described below, the compensation that a corporation can deduct for payments to a chief executive officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers to $1 million per officer per year. A company can deduct compensation (including from exercising options) in excess of $1 million if it pays the compensation under a plan that its shareholders approve and that is performance-related. Option exercises are typically deductible under such a plan if granted with exercise prices at or above the market price when granted or if grandfathered because granted before the public offering. The Committee's policy with respect to the compensation deduction limit is to make every reasonable effort to ensure that compensation likely to be received by a senior executive is deductible under section 162(m), while at the same time giving Company executives incentives to stay with and enhance Aether's value. The Committee believes, however, that compensation exceeding the $1 million deduction limit should not be ruled out where such compensation is justified based on the executive's value to Aether and its shareholders. The Committee believes that no executive compensation expenses paid in 2001 will be non-deductible under section 162(m).

This Report shall not be deemed incorporated by reference in any document previously or subsequently filed with the SEC that incorporates by reference all or any portion of this proxy statement, unless the report is specifically incorporated by reference.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

None of the members of our Compensation Committee is or has ever been an officer or employee of Aether or any of its subsidiaries. None of our executive officers serves as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of any entity that has one or more executive officers serving on our Board of Directors or Compensation Committee, except that Messrs. Clarke, Oros and Keane serve on the board of directors of Sila Communications, Limited, of which Mr. Oros is an executive officer.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) requires our officers (as defined in regulations issued by the SEC) and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of Aether's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on a review of copies of such reports of ownership furnished to us and certifications from executive officers and directors, we believe that during the past fiscal year all filing requirements applicable to our officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were complied with.

Stock Performance Chart

As part of proxy statement disclosure requirements mandated by the SEC, we are required to provide a comparison of the cumulative total shareholder return on our common stock with that of a broad equity market index and either a published industry index or a peer group index. This graph is not deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the SEC or subject to the SEC's proxy rules or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the 1934 Act, and the graph shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any prior or subsequent filing by the corporation under the Securities Act of 1933 or the 1934 Act.

The following chart compares the yearly percentage change in the cumulative total shareholder return in Aether's common stock since our initial public offering on October 21, 1999 with the cumulative total return on the S&P 500 Index (the equity index) and the Business Software Services Index prepared by Media General Financial Services (the peer index). The comparison assumes $100 was invested on October 21, 1999 in Aether's common stock and in each of the above indices with reinvestment of dividends.

Reuters Limited

On May 6, 2000, Aether and Reuters Limited (Reuters) formed Sila Communications Limited (Sila). Reuters was one of our original investors and continues to hold approximately 6.7% of our common stock. In addition, under the terms of a voting agreement among some of our stockholders, Reuters has the right to appoint one director, who is currently Devin N. Wenig. David S. On November 30, 2001, Aether paid $2,136,600 to Sila and Sila issued a promissory note to Aether in the original principal amount of $2,136,600, which will increase as Aether makes future payments to Sila under the Funding Agreement up to a total of $4,273,200, which amount was equivalent to the £3,000,000 total Aether has agreed to pay Sila under the Funding Agreement. Future payments up to the £3,000,000 total are to be paid by Aether at the written request of Sila. In consideration of the funding, Sila agreed to prepare, within a reasonable time after the date of the funding, a rationalization plan containing provisions relating to the restructuring of its business. Also in connection with the restructuring, Sila, Sila Technology Limited (Sila Technology), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sila, Reuters S.A., and Aether entered into a Software License Agreement pursuant to which Sila and Sila Technology granted a license to Aether and Reuters S.A. allowing the use of certain Sila and Sila Technology software. The license, which is in consideration of the funding and is non-exclusive, world-wide, perpetual, irrevocable and royalty-free, is a license to install, use, sell, modify, enhance, adapt, copy, and create derivative works from the licensed software.

Reuters also provided financial data services to Aether during 2001 and received $347,034 in payment for these services. Aether provided Reuters employees MarketClip services during 2001 and Aether received compensation of $13,862 for these services.

Huber Oros & Company, LLC

Since the middle of 2000, Huber Oros & Company, LLC (Huber Oros) has been the administrative agent of our corporate benefits program. Matthew Oros, the chief executive officer and founder of Huber Oros, is the brother of David S. Oros, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Deutsche Banc Alex. Brown Deutsche Banc Alex. Brown (Deutsche Banc) provides financial services and investment banking services to Aether. George P. Stamas, one of our directors, served as the vice chairman of the board and managing director of Deutsche Banc until December 2001 and currently serves on the advisory board of DB Capital Partners Inc., the private equity arm of Deutsche Banc. During 2001, we incurred fees to Deutsche Banc in connection with financial advice and we paid for software acquired from a third party who assigned the account receivable to a financing subsidiary of Deutsche Banc.

Aircraft Rental

During 2001, Dave Oros, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, reimbursed Aether $273,756 for his personal use of Aether's corporate jet, which Aether is currently seeking to sell. The amount reimbursed to Aether included the direct costs associated with the flights as well as a portion of the indirect overhead costs that are billed to Aether by an independent management company.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE, AUDIT FEES AND AUDITOR INDEPENDENCE

Audit Committee Report

In accordance with its charter, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with Aether's management and KPMG, Aether's independent auditors, the consolidated financial statements of Aether and its subsidiaries set forth in Aether's 2001 Annual Report to Stockholders.

The Audit Committee has discussed with KPMG the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, which includes, among other items, matters relating to the conduct of an audit of Aether's financial statements.

The Audit Committee has received the written disclosure and the letter from KPMG required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with KPMG their independence from management and Aether and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with KPMG's independence. The Audit Committee does not believe that the rendering of these services by KPMG is incompatible with maintaining KPMG's independence.

Based on its review and discussions with management of Aether and KPMG, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that Aether include the consolidated financial statements of Aether and its subsidiaries for the year ended December 31, 2001 in Aether's Annual Report to Stockholders and in Aether's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The members of the Audit Committee are not professionally engaged in the practice of auditing or accounting and are not experts in the fields of accounting or auditing, including in respect of auditor independence. Members of the Audit Committee rely without independent verification on the information provided to them and on the representations made by management and the independent accountants. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management had maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or appropriate internal control procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations.
