Dear Stockholder:

The board of directors of UICI has unanimously approved a merger agreement providing for the acquisition of UICI by affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners, each of which is a private equity firm. If the merger is completed:

UICI s public stockholders will receive $37.00 in cash per share of UICI common stock and will cease to hold any equity interest in UICI, except for public stockholders who properly exercise and do not withdraw their statutory appraisal rights;

shares of UICI common stock currently held by certain senior managers of UICI, which comprised less than 1% of UICI s outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting will remain outstanding and unchanged, other than to be renamed class A-1 common stock; and shares of UICI common stock beneficially owned through UICI s agent stock accumulation plans by UICI s independent insurance agents associated with the UGA-Association Field Services or Cornerstone America marketing divisions (which shares comprised approximately 6.9% of UICI s outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting) will be exchanged on a one-for-one basis for shares of a new class of UICI common stock to be known as the class A-2 common stock. The terms of the class A-2 common stock are described in the attached proxy statement/ prospectus. Shares withdrawn from the agent stock accumulation plans prior to the closing of the merger will be treated the same as shares owned by UICI s public stockholders.

The $37.00 per share price represents a premium of approximately 19% over the closing price per share of UICI s common stock on September 14, 2005, the last trading day before the public announcement of the merger.

The board of directors of UICI has unanimously approved and declared the merger and the merger agreement advisable, and has determined that it is in the best interests of our stockholders for UICI to enter into the merger agreement and consummate the merger on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement. The board of directors recommends that UICI stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

You should be aware that certain stockholders who are members of the family of the late Ronald L. Jensen (our founder and former Chairman) and permitted transferees of the Jensen family, and who collectively held or had voting control over an aggregate of approximately 28% of the outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting, have agreed to vote their UICI shares in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

The time, date and place of the special meeting to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the merger agreement are as follows:

Wednesday, March 29, 2006
10:00 a.m., Central Time
Courtyard by Marriott, DFW Airport West - Bedford, 2201 Airport Freeway, Bedford, Texas 76021

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

The following questions and answers address briefly some questions you may have regarding the special meeting and the proposed merger. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a UICI stockholder. Please refer to the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and the annexes and other documents referred to or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What is the proposed transaction?

A: The proposed transaction is the acquisition of UICI by affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners through a cash merger, with UICI surviving the merger. Shares held by certain members of senior management and shares held by agents through UICI s agent stock accumulation plans at the time of the merger will not be cashed out in the merger.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: UICI s public stockholders will receive $37.00 in cash per share of UICI common stock and will cease to hold any equity interest in UICI, except for public stockholders who properly exercise and do not withdraw their statutory appraisal rights;

shares of UICI common stock currently held by certain senior managers of UICI, which comprised less than 1% of UICI s outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting, will remain outstanding and unchanged, other than to be renamed class A-1 common stock; and

shares of UICI common stock beneficially owned through UICI s agent stock accumulation plans by UICI s independent insurance agents associated with the UGA-Association Field Services or Cornerstone America marketing divisions (which shares comprised approximately 6.9% of UICI s outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting) will be exchanged on a one-for-one basis for shares of a new class of UICI common stock to be known as the class A-2 common stock. Shares withdrawn from the agent stock accumulation plans prior to the closing of the merger will be treated the same as shares owned by UICI s public stockholders.

The class A-1 and class A-2 common stock will be subject to certain provisions set forth in the form of certificate of incorporation attached as Annex B to this document, which will become the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation at the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting will be held at Courtyard by Marriott, DFW Airport West Bedford, 2201 Airport Freeway, Bedford, Texas 76021 on Wednesday, March 29, 2006, at 10:00 a.m., Central Time.

Q: What vote of our stockholders is required to adopt the merger agreement?

A: For us to complete the merger, stockholders holding at least a majority of the shares of our common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date must vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement. Failure to vote or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: What if I abstain from voting or fail to instruct my broker on how to vote on the merger proposal?

A: Abstaining from voting or failing to instruct your bank, brokerage firm or nominee to vote your shares will have the same effect as a vote against the merger.

Q: How does UICI s board of directors recommend that I vote on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement?

A: Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement. You should read The Merger Recommendation of our Board of Directors; Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 40 for a discussion of the factors that our board considered in deciding to recommend the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We urge you to read this document carefully, including its annexes and the other documents incorporated into this document by reference, and to consider how the merger affects you and to vote your shares as soon as possible to ensure that your shares are represented at the special meeting. You can vote your shares before the special meeting as follows:

Telephone voting, by dialing the toll-free number and following the instructions on the proxy card;

Via the Internet, by going to the web address www.proxyvote.com and following the instructions on the proxy card; or

Mail, by completing and returning the proxy card in the enclosed envelope. The envelope requires no additional postage if mailed in the United States.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker or other nominee, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Yes, but only if you provide instructions to your broker on how to vote. You should follow the directions provided by your broker regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares. Without those instructions, your shares will not be voted, which will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

Q: What does it mean if I get more than one proxy or vote instruction card?

A: If your shares are registered differently and are in more than one account, you will receive more than one card. Please complete and return all of the proxy and vote instruction cards you receive (or submit your proxy by telephone or the Internet, if available to you) to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: How will my proxy vote my shares?

A: The designated proxy holders will vote according to the instructions you submit on your proxy card. If you sign and return your card but do not indicate your voting instructions on one or more of the matters listed, the proxy holders will vote all uninstructed shares FOR these matters.

Q: May I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy or vote instruction card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You may change your vote in any of the following ways:

by sending a notice of revocation to the corporate secretary;

by sending a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card;

by logging onto the internet address or by calling the telephone number, in each case, set forth on your proxy or vote instruction card, if you are eligible to do so and following the instructions on your proxy or vote instruction card; or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

Attending the special meeting without voting will not revoke a proxy. If you wish to revoke your proxy other than by attending the special meeting and voting in person, you must take action to revoke your proxy no later than the beginning of the special meeting.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker or other nominee, you should contact your broker or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the merger as quickly as possible. We anticipate that it will be completed in the first half of 2006. In order to complete the merger, we must obtain stockholder approval and satisfy the other closing conditions in the merger agreement. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 77.

Q: Do I have appraisal rights?

A: Yes. If you deliver a written demand for appraisal to UICI before the vote on the merger proposal and do not vote in favor of the merger proposal and you otherwise comply with the requirements and procedures of Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (which we refer to as the DGCL), you are entitled to exercise appraisal rights. Appraisal rights generally entitle stockholders to receive a cash payment equal to the fair value of your common stock in connection with the merger. A detailed description of the appraisal rights and procedures available to you is included in The Merger Appraisal Rights beginning on page 65. The full text of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached as Annex E to this document.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Shortly after the merger is completed, you will receive a letter of transmittal with instructions informing you how to send in your stock certificates to the paying agent in order to receive the merger consideration. You should use the letter of transmittal to exchange stock certificates for the merger consideration to which you are entitled as a result of the merger. DO NOT SEND ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY.

Q: Who can help answer my other questions?

A: If you have more questions about the merger, need assistance in submitting your proxy or voting your shares or need additional copies of this document or the enclosed proxy card, you should contact our proxy solicitation agent for the merger, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., toll-free at (800) 322-2885 or collect at (212) 929-5500. If your broker holds your shares, you should call your broker for additional information.

The Special Meeting

Matters to be Considered at the Special Meeting

You will be asked to vote on the following proposals:

to adopt the merger agreement;

to approve a motion to adjourn or postpone the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal; and to conduct other business that properly comes before the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

Record Date; Voting

You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned UICI common stock at the close of business on February 13, 2006, the record date for the special meeting. You will have one vote for each share of UICI common stock you owned on the record date. On the record date there were 46,626,369 shares of UICI common stock outstanding and entitled to be voted.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

Our board of directors unanimously recommends you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and FOR the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, as more fully described under The UICI Special Meeting beginning on page 27.

Share Ownership of UICI Directors and Officers

On the record date, our directors and executive officers owned and were entitled to vote 433,741 shares of common stock, or less than 1% of the shares of our outstanding common stock. Each of our directors and executive officers has advised us that he intends to vote his shares in favor of the merger proposal.

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, certain stockholders who are members of the family of the late Ronald L. Among other things, the voting agreement provides that the shares of common stock owned or controlled by these stockholders will be voted in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, against any competing transaction and against any action or agreement intended to result in a failure of any condition to the completion of the merger being satisfied. These stockholders and their permitted transferees who agreed to be bound by the terms of the voting agreement beneficially own approximately 28% of our outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting.

For a more complete description of the voting agreement see The Merger Voting and Non-Compete Agreements beginning on page 63.

The Merger

A copy of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 15, 2005, is attached as Annex A to this document. We encourage you to read the entire merger agreement carefully because it is the principal document governing the merger.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

If the merger is completed,

UICI s public stockholders will receive $37.00 in cash per share of UICI common stock and will cease to hold any equity interest in UICI, except for public stockholders who properly exercise and do not withdraw their statutory appraisal rights;

shares of UICI common stock (which we sometimes refer to as management shares) currently held by certain senior managers of UICI, which comprised less than 1% of UICI s outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting, will remain outstanding and unchanged, other than to be renamed class A-1 common stock; and shares of UICI common stock beneficially owned through UICI s agent stock accumulation plans by UICI s independent insurance agents associated with the UGA-Association Field Services or Cornerstone America marketing divisions (which shares, together with management shares, we sometimes refer to as retained shares and which comprised approximately 6.9% of UICI s outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting) will be exchanged on a one-for-one basis for shares of a new class of UICI common stock to be known as the class A-2 common stock. The terms of the class A-2 common stock are further described in this proxy statement/ prospectus. Shares withdrawn from the agent stock accumulation plans prior to the closing of the merger will be treated the same as shares owned by UICI s public stockholders.

For a more complete description of the merger consideration, see The Merger Agreement Consideration to be Received in the Merger beginning on page 70.

Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Shares and Share Credits

In connection with the merger, all options to purchase common stock under our employee benefit plans outstanding immediately prior to completion of the merger will become fully vested and exercisable and will, in settlement of each such option, be cancelled at the time the merger is completed. The holder of each option will receive an amount in cash (subject to any applicable withholding tax) equal to the difference between $37.00 and the exercise price per share, to the extent such difference is a positive number, except that options held by certain members of senior management who have executed employment commitment agreements and agreed to retain these options after the merger will remain vested and outstanding after the merger and be exercisable into shares of class A-1 common stock of the surviving corporation.

Immediately before the effective time of the merger, all applicable forfeiture provisions of restricted shares will lapse, to the extent not already lapsed, and each holder of restricted shares will be entitled to receive the $37.00 per share cash merger consideration for each restricted share as if the share was not restricted.

Each holder of each awarded and allocated share equivalent credit outstanding as of the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of UICI s phantom share plans will receive at the time the share equivalent credit would have otherwise become fully vested and nonforfeitable in accordance with the terms of the applicable phantom share credit plans in effect as of the date of the merger agreement, an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the number of shares subject to such awards held by such holder multiplied by $37.00 per share. Immediately before the effective time of the merger, we will reallocate all forfeiture credits in accordance with the terms of the phantom share credit plans to the extent we have not already done so.

For a more complete discussion of the treatment of UICI stock options and other stock-based awards, see The Merger Agreement Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Shares and Share Credits beginning on page 71.

Opinion of Morgan Stanley

Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated has delivered its opinion to our board of directors that, as of September 15, 2005, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the $37.00 per share cash consideration to be received by the holders of shares of UICI common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares). Morgan Stanley s opinion was directed to the board of directors of UICI, addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by holders of UICI common stock pursuant to the merger agreement (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares) as of the date of the opinion, and does not address any other aspect of the merger. Morgan Stanley s opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of UICI common stock as to how such stockholder should vote at the special meeting. In addition, Morgan Stanley s opinion does not constitute any opinion or recommendation as to whether any participant in any agent stock accumulation plan should refrain from withdrawing shares of UICI common stock from such plan or as to whether any member of UICI senior management who holds management shares should take action to cause such shares not to be converted into the merger consideration and, in any such case, should not be relied upon by any such participant or holder, respectively, as such. For a more complete description of the opinion of Morgan Stanley, see The Merger Opinion of Morgan Stanley beginning on page 42.

The full text of Morgan Stanley s written opinion, dated September 15, 2005, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Morgan Stanley in rendering its opinion is attached as Annex C to this document. We urge you to read the entire opinion carefully.

Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc., an affiliate of Morgan Stanley, is a party to the commitment letter with respect to the senior debt financing for the merger and has agreed to act as a joint lead arranger, joint bookrunner and syndication agent for the senior unsecured debt facilities contemplated thereby. If such financing is consummated, Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc. will receive fees for its services. For a more complete description of the merger financing, see The Merger Agreement Financing beginning on page 75.

Opinion of New Vernon Capital

New Vernon Capital LLC has delivered its opinion to our board of directors that, as of September 15, 2005, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the $37.00 per share cash consideration to be received by the holders of shares of UICI common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares). New Vernon Capital s opinion was directed to the board of directors of UICI, addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by holders of UICI common stock pursuant to the merger agreement (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares) as of the date of the opinion, and does not address any other aspect of the merger. New Vernon Capital s opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of UICI common stock as to how such stockholder should vote at the special meeting. In addition, New Vernon Capital s opinion does not constitute any opinion or recommendation as to whether any participant in any agent stock accumulation plan should refrain from withdrawing shares of UICI common stock from such plan or as to whether any member of UICI senior management who holds management shares should take action to cause such shares not to be converted into the merger consideration and, in any such case, should not be relied upon by any such participant or holder, respectively, as such. For a more complete description of the opinion of New Vernon Capital, see The Merger Opinion of New Vernon Capital beginning on page 54.

The full text of New Vernon Capital s written opinion, dated September 15, 2005, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by New Vernon Capital in rendering its opinion is attached as Annex D to this document. We urge you to read the entire opinion carefully.

Directors and Executive Management Following the Merger

After the merger certain individuals affiliated with Premium Acquisition, Inc., Mulberry Acquisition, Inc. and DLJMB IV First Merger Co Acquisition Inc. (each of which is referred to as a Merger Co and all of which are collectively referred to as the Merger Cos) and William J. Gedwed (our chief executive officer) are expected to serve on the board of directors of the surviving corporation. In addition, we expect that the initial board of directors may include up to three additional directors to the extent they are deemed necessary or advisable.

The merger agreement provides that the officers of UICI immediately before the effective time will be the officers of the surviving corporation immediately after the effective time. We expect that our current executive officers generally will continue to hold such offices of the surviving corporation following completion of the merger.

For a more complete discussion of management of the surviving corporation, see The Merger Composition of the Board of Directors and Executive Management of the Surviving Corporation Executive Officers beginning on page 63.

Interests of UICI s Directors and Officers in the Merger

Some of our directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of our stockholders. These interests include:

- execution of employment commitment agreements relating to their employment with the surviving corporation, including their salary, bonus potential, severance eligibility and their commitment to retain existing equity if the merger is completed;
- entitlement to receive a success bonus award payment in connection with the merger;
- the acceleration of all or a portion of their unvested stock options and cancellation of their stock options in exchange for a cash payment representing the difference between the exercise price and $37.00 per share, to the extent the difference is a positive number, and an opportunity to re-invest all or a portion of the cash payment in the surviving corporation;
- the lapse of restrictions on their outstanding restricted shares resulting in receipt of the $37.00 per share merger consideration for each outstanding restricted share, and an opportunity to re-invest all or a portion of the cash payment in the surviving corporation; and
- a continuation of indemnification and insurance for our directors and officers for customary events occurring at or before the merger, including those that are related to the merger agreement.

For a further discussion, see The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 59.

Financing

In connection with the merger, a maximum of approximately $1.76 billion in cash will be paid to our stockholders and holders of stock options and share credits. These payments are expected to be funded by a combination of debt financing and equity contributions to the surviving corporation by affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners.

In connection with the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners obtained a commitment letter from JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P. and Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc. providing for up to $600 million in debt financing, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions contained in the commitment letter. The surviving corporation may also issue up to $100 million of preferred stock provided that the total debt and preferred stock financing will not exceed an aggregate of $600 million.

The merger is conditioned on the availability of financing on the terms described in the commitment letter. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 77 and The Merger Agreement Financing beginning on page 75.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Before we can complete the merger, a number of conditions must be satisfied or, if permitted, waived. These conditions include:

- receipt of stockholder approval;
- receipt of required state insurance regulatory and other regulatory approvals;
- the absence of a legal prohibition on the merger;
- the absence of a material adverse effect on us;
- the proceeds of the debt financing being available on the terms and conditions set forth in the commitment letter; and
- since September 12, 2005, less than 25% of certain active independent insurance agents shall have withdrawn from the agent stock accumulation plans and less than 12.5% of certain senior independent insurance agents shall have withdrawn from the agent stock accumulation plans.

The merger agreement provides that any or all of these conditions may be waived, in whole or in part, to the extent legally permitted. For a more complete discussion of the conditions to the merger, see The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 77.

Termination of the Merger

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time before the effective time of the merger, as follows:

- by mutual written consent of UICI and Premium Finance, LLC (which we refer to as SibCo 1 and which, together with Mulberry Finance Co., Inc. and DLJMB IV First Merger LLC, we collectively refer to as the SibCos);
- by SibCo 1 or UICI at any time before the effective time of the merger if:
  - the merger has not been consummated by June 15, 2006, in certain cases;
  - the merger agreement has been submitted to our stockholders for adoption at a stockholders meeting and the requisite stockholder vote is not obtained upon a vote taken thereon; or
  - any law prohibits completion of the merger or any order restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits completion of the merger, and such order has become final and nonappealable;
- by SibCo 1 at any time before the effective time of the merger if:
  - (i) our board of directors withdraws, modifies or amends its recommendation in favor of the merger in any manner adverse to SibCo 1 or the Merger Cos, (ii) our board of directors approves, endorses or recommends an alternative takeover proposal, or (iii) we or our board of directors resolves or announces an intention to do any of the foregoing;

- we (i) materially breach our no-solicitation obligations or our obligations to hold a stockholders meeting or our board of directors or any committee thereof resolves to do any of the foregoing or (ii) materially breach our obligations to prepare this document and the breach is not cured within five business days after our receipt of written notice asserting such breach from SibCo 1;
- we breach any of our representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach (i) would give rise to the failure of the related conditions set forth in the merger agreement and (ii) has not been cured by us within 20 business days after our receipt of written notice of the breach from SibCo 1; or
- a material adverse effect occurs and continues to occur and has not been cured by us within 20 business days after such SibCo s or such Merger Co s receipt of written notice of such breach from us.

by UICI if any SibCo or any Merger Co breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach (i) would give rise to the failure of a related condition in the merger agreement and (ii) has not been cured by such SibCo or such Merger Co within 20 business days after such SibCo s or such Merger Co s receipt of written notice of such breach from us.

See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 81.

Termination Fees

The merger agreement provides that, upon termination of the merger agreement under specified circumstances involving an alternative transaction, we may be required to pay SibCo 1 a termination fee of $65 million in the following circumstances:

- if the merger agreement is terminated by SibCo 1 pursuant to the first two scenarios described under the third bullet point in Termination of the Merger Agreement above; or
- if (A) certain alternative takeover proposals have been made or proposed to us or otherwise publicly announced (and not withdrawn at certain times), (B) the merger agreement is terminated by SibCo 1 or us pursuant to the first two scenarios described under the second bullet point in Termination of the Merger Agreement or by SibCo 1 pursuant to the third scenario under the third bullet point in Termination of the Merger Agreement above and (C) within 12 months following the date of such termination, we enter into a contract providing for the implementation of certain alternative takeover proposals or consummate certain alternative takeover proposals.

See The Merger Agreement Termination Fees beginning on page 81.

Appraisal Rights

Delaware law provides you with appraisal rights in connection with the merger. This means that, if you comply with the procedures for perfecting appraisal rights provided for under Delaware law, you are entitled to have the fair value of your shares determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and to receive payment based on that valuation in lieu of the merger consideration. The ultimate amount you receive in an appraisal proceeding may be more or less than, or the same as, the amount you would have received under the merger agreement.

To exercise your appraisal rights, you must deliver a written demand for appraisal to UICI before the vote on the merger agreement at the special meeting and you must not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. Your failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under Delaware law will result in the loss of your appraisal rights. For a further description of the procedures required to exercise statutory appraisal rights, see The Merger Appraisal Rights beginning on page 65. A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to this document as Annex E.

Governmental and Regulatory Approvals

We and the other parties to the merger agreement have agreed to use our reasonable best efforts to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as promptly as practicable, including obtaining all necessary actions or non-actions, waivers, consents, clearances and approvals from governmental entities and making all necessary registrations and filings and taking all steps necessary to obtain these approvals. The completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement depends upon receipt of insurance regulatory approvals in Texas, Oklahoma and Turks and Caicos and the expiration or early termination of all waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended. On November 14, 2005, the Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the waiting periods applicable to the merger. The other regulatory approvals are pending and we cannot be certain when or if these required approvals will be obtained or what conditions these approvals might include. For a more complete description of the governmental and regulatory approvals required to complete the merger, see The Merger Governmental and Regulatory Approvals beginning on page 64.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The merger will generally be taxable to you if you receive cash in the merger. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, your receipt of cash in exchange for your shares of our common stock will generally cause you to recognize a gain or loss measured by the difference, if any, between the cash you receive in the merger and your adjusted tax basis in your shares. The receipt of (or reclassification of shares of UICI common stock as) shares of class A-1 or class A-2 common stock of the surviving corporation should not be taxable. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of how the merger will affect your taxes.

For a more complete description of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences beginning on page 68.

Accounting Treatment

For financial reporting purposes, the merger will be accounted for as a leveraged recapitalization, pursuant to which the historical bases of UICI s assets and liabilities will be preserved following the merger.

Comparative Unaudited Per Share Data of Premium Acquisition, Inc., Mulberry Acquisition, Inc. and DLJMB IV First Merger Co Acquisition Inc.

Premium Acquisition, Inc., Mulberry Acquisition, Inc. and DLJMB IV First Merger Co Acquisition Inc. were formed in anticipation of the merger by affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners, respectively. Since these entities have de minimis assets and no operations, we have not included any comparative unaudited per share data for these entities since this information would not be meaningful.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in, or incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. For a description of other risks considered by UICI s board of directors in determining to approve the merger, please refer to The Merger Recommendation of our Board of Directors; Reasons for the Merger on page 40.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

The surviving corporation will be controlled by affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners and their interests may conflict with the interests of other stockholders.

Entities affiliated with The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners may own in excess of 90% of the common stock of the surviving corporation following the merger, will control the surviving corporation s affairs and policies (with the ability to appoint a majority of the board of directors) and will have an interest in pursuing transactions or taking actions that, in their judgment, could enhance their investment in the surviving corporation or another entity in which they invest. These significant stockholders will also enter into a stockholders agreement before the completion of the merger, which is expected to include certain provisions that may have the effect of directly or indirectly restricting the surviving corporation from (i) acquiring control of certain types of businesses (for purposes of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956) and (ii) engaging in new and materially different businesses that could cause any regulatory problems for these significant stockholders. In addition, these significant stockholders will have no obligation to present corporate opportunities to the surviving corporation or to refrain from competition with the surviving corporation. It is also anticipated that the surviving corporation will pay to entities affiliated with the significant stockholders one-time transaction fees not to exceed $27 million in the aggregate and management fees not to exceed in the aggregate for any one year, the greater of $15 million and 3% of the surviving corporation s earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization.

These transactions and restrictions may involve risks to the other holders of our common stock, including members of senior management and independent agents who continue to participate in agent stock accumulation plans or otherwise acquire common stock in the surviving corporation following completion of the merger.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from various governmental entities, which may impose conditions on or reduce the anticipated benefits of the merger.

We must obtain approvals, clearances and consents in a timely manner from several federal and state agencies before the completion of the merger. If we do not receive these approvals, or do not receive them on terms that satisfy the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, then neither the Merger Cos nor UICI will be obligated to complete the merger. Some of the governmental agencies from which we will seek these approvals have broad discretion in administering the governing regulations. As a condition to the approval of the merger, agencies may impose requirements, limitations or costs that could negatively affect the way we conduct business following the merger. These requirements, limitations or costs could jeopardize or delay the completion of the merger.

The Company may not be able to retain its key employees and independent agents.

Our success after the merger will depend in part upon our ability to retain key employees and independent agents. We may be unable to retain key employees and independent agents resulting in loss of important information, expertise and know-how. In addition, key employees and independent agents may depart because of a desire not to remain with us after completion of the merger, notwithstanding any agreements to remain with the Company as described elsewhere in this document. We cannot assure you that we will be able to retain key employees and independent agents to the same extent we have been able to do so in the past.

Risk Factors Relating to Ownership of Class A-1 Common Stock and Class A-2 Common Stock.

The class A-1 and class A-2 common stock of the surviving corporation will not be liquid securities.

The class A-1 and class A-2 common stock of the surviving corporation will be subject to restrictions on transfer set forth, in the case of the class A-1 common stock, in a stockholders agreement, and, in the case of the class A-2 common stock, in the certificate of incorporation of UICI attached to this proxy statement/ prospectus as Annex B. These equity interests will be subject to restrictions on transfer and will not be liquid. There will be no established trading market for the common stock. The surviving corporation is permitted, but not obligated, to repurchase shares of class A-1 and class A-2 common stock in certain circumstances and may be unable or unwilling to do so at the time a holder requests any repurchase of his or her shares. As a result, a holder of our class A-1 or class A-2 common stock may be unable to sell his or her common stock at a time and price that he or she deems appropriate. Future prices of the common stock will depend on many factors, including the market for similar securities, general economic conditions and our financial condition and the performance and prospects of the surviving corporation. As a result, we cannot assure you that you will be able to resell any common stock or, if you are able to resell, the price at which you will be able to do so.

The preferred stock, if issued, may have dividend/liquidation preferences over class A-1 common stock and class A-2 common stock.

In the event of a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the surviving corporation, holders of the preferred stock, if issued, may be entitled to receive in preference to any holder of surviving corporation common stock an amount equal to the liquidation preference per share plus all accumulated and unpaid dividends. Only after payment of creditors and any liquidation preference of preferred stock that may be issued may the remaining net assets of the surviving corporation be distributed pro rata to the holders of the common stock.

Each share of preferred stock, if issued, may be entitled to dividends on the liquidation preference. So long as any preferred stock remains outstanding, unless the full dividends for the latest completed dividend period on all outstanding preferred stock have been declared and paid (or set aside), it is possible that no dividend may be paid or declared on the surviving corporation s common stock. The class A-1 and class A-2 common stock would be deemed junior to the preferred stock, if issued.

Risk Factors Relating to the Business

UICI may lose business to competitors offering competitive products at lower prices.

We compete, and will continue to compete, for customers and distributors with many insurance companies and other financial services companies. We compete not only for business and individual customers, employer and other group customers, but also for agents and distribution relationships. Our competitors may offer a broader array of products than we do, have a greater diversity of distribution resources, have better brand recognition, have more competitive pricing or, have higher financial strength or claims paying ratings. Competitors with sizable market share or provider-owned plans may be able to obtain favorable financial arrangements from health care providers that are not available to us.

Failure to accurately estimate medical claims and health care costs may have a significant impact on the Company s business and results of operation.

If we are unable to accurately estimate medical claims and control health care costs, our results of operations may be materially and adversely affected. We estimate the cost of future medical claims and other expenses using actuarial methods based upon historical data, medical inflation, product mix, seasonality, utilization of health care services and other relevant factors. We establish premiums based on these methods. The premiums we charge our customers generally are fixed for one-year periods, and costs we incur in excess of our medical claim projections generally are not recovered in the contract year through higher premiums.

Table of Contents

Failure of our insurance subsidiaries to maintain their current insurance ratings could materially adversely affect UICI s business and results of operations.

Our principal insurance subsidiaries are currently rated by A.M. Best Company, Fitch and Standard & Poor s. If our insurance subsidiaries are not able to maintain their current rating by A.M. Best Company, Fitch and/or Standard & Poor s, our results of operations could be materially adversely affected. Decreases in operating performance and other financial measures may result in a downward adjustment of the rating of our insurance subsidiaries assigned by A.M. Best Company, Fitch or Standard & Poor s. Also, other factors beyond our control such as general downward economic cycles and changes implemented by the rating agencies, including changes in the criteria for the underwriting or the capital adequacy model, may result in a decrease in the rating. A downward adjustment in rating by A.M. Best Company, Fitch and/or Standard & Poor s of our insurance subsidiaries could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Changes in our relationship with membership associations that make available to their members our health insurance products and/or changes in the laws and regulations governing so-called association group insurance could materially adversely affect UICI s business and results of operations.

As is the case with many of our competitors in the self-employed market, a substantial portion of our health insurance products is issued to members of various independent membership associations that act as the master policyholder for such products. The two principal membership associations in the self-employed market that make available to their members our health insurance products are the National Association for the Self-Employed and the Alliance for Affordable Services. The associations provide their members access to a number of benefits and products, including health insurance underwritten by us. Subject to applicable state law, individuals generally may not obtain insurance under an association s master policy unless they are also members of the association. The agreements with these associations requiring the associations to continue as the master policyholder for our policies and to make our products available to their respective members are terminable by us or the association upon not less than one year s advance notice to the other party.

Our UGA agents and Cornerstone America agents also act as field service representatives (FSRs) for the associations, in which capacity the FSRs enroll new association members and provide membership retention services. For such services, we and the FSRs receive compensation. Specialized Association Services, Inc. (a company controlled by the adult children of the late Ronald L. Jensen (UICI s former Chairman)) provides administrative and benefit procurement services to the associations. One of our subsidiaries (UICI Marketing, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary and our direct marketing group) generates new membership sales prospect leads for both UGA and Cornerstone for use by the FSRs (agents). UICI Marketing also provides video and print services to the associations and to Specialized Association Services, Inc. In addition to health insurance premiums derived from the sale of health insurance, we receive fee income from the associations, including fees associated with enrollment and member retention services, fees for association membership marketing and administrative services and fees for certain association member benefits.

While we believe that we are providing association group coverage in full compliance with applicable law, changes in our relationship with the membership associations and/or changes in the laws and regulations governing so-called association group insurance, particularly changes that would subject the issuance of policies to prior premium rate approval and/or require the issuance of policies on a guaranteed issue basis, could have a material adverse impact on our financial condition, results of operations and/or business.

Our domestic insurance subsidiaries are currently the subject of a multi-state market conduct examination, and an adverse finding or outcome from that examination could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

In March 2005, UICI received notification that the Market Analysis Working Group of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners had chosen the states of Washington and Alaska to lead a multi-state market conduct examination of UICI s principal insurance subsidiaries, The MEGA Life and Health Insurance Company, Mid-West National Life Insurance Company of Tennessee and The Chesapeake Life

Insurance Company. That examination commenced in May 2005 and is ongoing. While we do not currently believe that the multi-state market conduct examination will have a material adverse effect upon our consolidated financial position or results of operations, state insurance regulatory agencies have authority to levy monetary fines and penalties resulting from findings made during the course of such examinations.

Negative publicity regarding our business practices and about the health insurance industry in general may harm our business and adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

The health and life insurance industry and related products and services we provide have attracted and may continue to attract negative publicity from consumer advocate groups and the media. Negative publicity may result in increased regulation and legislative scrutiny of industry practices as well as increased litigation, which may further increase our costs of doing business and adversely affect our profitability by impeding our ability to market our products and services, requiring us to change our products or services or increasing the regulatory burdens under which we operate.

UICI s failure to secure and enhance cost-effective health care provider network contracts may result in a loss of insureds and/or higher medical costs and adversely affect UICI s results of operations.

Our results of operations and competitive position could be adversely affected by our inability to enter into or maintain satisfactory relationships with networks of hospitals, physicians, dentists, pharmacies and other health care providers. The failure to secure cost-effective health care provider network contracts may result in a loss of insureds or higher medical costs. In addition, the inability to contract with provider networks, the inability to terminate contracts with existing provider networks and enter into arrangements with new provider networks to serve the same market, and/or the inability of providers to provide adequate care, could adversely affect our results of operations.

UICI s inability to obtain funds from its insurance subsidiaries may cause it to experience reduced cash flow, which could affect the Company s ability to pay its obligations to creditors as they become due.

We are a holding company, the principal assets of which are our investments in our separate operating subsidiaries, including our regulated insurance subsidiaries. Our ability to fund our cash requirements is largely dependent upon our ability to access cash from our subsidiaries. Our insurance subsidiaries are subject to regulations that limit their ability to transfer funds to us. If we are unable to obtain funds from our insurance subsidiaries, we will experience reduced cash flow, which could affect our ability to pay our obligations to creditors as they become due.

A failure of our information systems to provide timely and accurate information could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Information processing is critical to our business, and a failure of our information systems to provide timely and accurate information could adversely affect our business and results of operations. The failure to maintain an effective and efficient information system or disruptions in our information system could cause disruptions in our business operations, including (a) failure to comply with prompt pay laws; (b) loss of existing insureds; (c) difficulty in attracting new insureds; (d) disputes with insureds, providers and agents; (e) regulatory problems; (f) increases in administrative expenses; and (g) other adverse consequences.

Changes in government regulation could increase the costs of compliance or cause us to discontinue marketing our products in certain states.

We conduct business in a heavily regulated industry, and changes in government regulation could increase the costs of compliance or cause us to discontinue marketing our products in certain states. Some of the new federal and state regulations promulgated under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, or HIPAA, relating to health care reform require us to implement changes in our programs and systems in order to maintain compliance. We have incurred significant expenditures as a result of HIPAA regulations and expect to continue to incur expenditures as various regulations become effective.

The surviving corporation s indebtedness following the completion of the merger will be higher than UICI s existing indebtedness.

In order to complete the merger, UICI anticipates arranging for and funding approximately $500 million of new debt financing. Proceeds from the financing will be used to fund a portion of the cash consideration to be paid to UICI stockholders. As a result of this increase in debt, demands on UICI s cash resources will increase after the completion of the merger. The increased levels of debt could, among other things:

require UICI to dedicate a substantial portion of its cash flow from operations to payments on its debt, thereby reducing funds available for working capital, capital expenditures, dividends, acquisitions and other purposes;

increase UICI s vulnerability to, and limit flexibility in planning for, adverse economic and industry conditions;

adversely affect UICI s credit rating;

limit UICI s ability to obtain additional financing to fund future working capital, capital expenditures, additional acquisitions and other general corporate requirements;

create competitive disadvantages compared to other companies with less indebtedness; and limit UICI s ability to apply proceeds from an offering or asset sale to purposes other than the repayment of debt.

We may not have enough statutory capital and surplus to continue to write business.

Our continued ability to write business is dependent on maintaining adequate levels of statutory capital and surplus to support the policies we write. Our new business writing typically results in net losses on a statutory basis during the early years of a policy. The resulting reduction in statutory surplus, or surplus strain, limits our ability to seek new business due to statutory restrictions on premium to surplus ratios and statutory surplus requirements. If we cannot generate sufficient statutory surplus to maintain minimum statutory requirements through increased statutory profitability, reinsurance or other capital generating alternatives, we will be limited in our ability to realize additional premium revenue from new business writing, which could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations or, in the event that our statutory surplus is not sufficient to meet minimum premium to surplus and risk-based capital ratios in any state, we could be prohibited from writing new policies in such state.

Our reserves for current and future claims may be inadequate and any increase to such reserves could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

We calculate and maintain reserves for current and future claims using assumptions about numerous variables, including our estimate of the probability of a policyholder making a claim, the severity and duration of such claim, the mortality rate of our policyholders, the persistency or renewal of our policies in force and the amount of interest we expect to earn from the investment of premiums. The adequacy of our reserves depends on the accuracy of our assumptions. We cannot assure you that our actual experience will not differ from the assumptions used in the establishment of reserves. Any variance from these assumptions could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Litigation may result in financial losses or harm our reputation and may divert management resources.

Current and future litigation may result in financial losses, harm our reputation and require the dedication of significant management resources. We are regularly involved in litigation. The litigation naming us as a defendant ordinarily involves our activities as an insurer. In recent years, many insurance companies, including us, have been named as defendants in class actions relating to market conduct or sales practices. As described in The Merger Litigation Concerning the Merger beginning on page 67, litigation has also been initiated arising out of the merger.

Table of Contents

For our general claim litigation, we maintain reserves based on experience to satisfy judgments and settlements in the normal course. Management expects that the ultimate liability, if any, with respect to general claim litigation, after consideration of the reserves maintained, will not be material to the consolidated financial condition of the Company. Nevertheless, given the inherent unpredictability of litigation, it is possible that an adverse outcome in certain claim litigation involving punitive damages could, from time to time, have a material adverse effect on our consolidated results of operations in a period, depending on the results of our operations for the particular period.

If we fail to comply with extensive state and federal regulations, we will be subject to penalties, which may include fines and suspension and which may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

We are subject to extensive governmental regulation and supervision. Most insurance regulations are designed to protect the interests of policyholders rather than stockholders and other investors. This regulation, generally administered by a department of insurance in each state in which we do business, relates to, among other things:

- approval of policy forms and premium rates;
- standards of solvency, including risk-based capital measurements, which are a measure developed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and used by state insurance regulators to identify insurance companies that potentially are inadequately capitalized;
- licensing of insurers and their agents;
- restrictions on the nature, quality and concentration of investments;
- restrictions on transactions between insurance companies and their affiliates;
- restrictions on the size of risks insurable under a single policy;
- requiring deposits for the benefit of policyholders;
- requiring certain methods of accounting;
- prescribing the form and content of records of financial condition required to be filed; and
- requiring reserves for losses and other purposes.

State insurance departments also conduct periodic examinations of the affairs of insurance companies and require the filing of annual and other reports relating to the financial condition of insurance companies, holding company issues and other matters. Our business depends on compliance with applicable laws and regulations and our ability to maintain valid licenses and approvals for our operations. Regulatory authorities have broad discretion to grant, renew, or revoke licenses and approvals. Regulatory authorities may deny or revoke licenses for various reasons, including the violation of regulations. In some instances, we follow practices based on our interpretations of regulations, or those that we believe to be generally followed by the industry, which may be different from the requirements or interpretations of regulatory authorities. If we do not have the requisite licenses and approvals and do not comply with applicable regulatory requirements, the insurance regulatory authorities could preclude or temporarily suspend us from carrying on some or all of our activities or otherwise penalize us. That type of action could have a material adverse effect on our business. Our failure to comply with new or existing government regulation could subject us to significant fines and penalties. Our efforts to measure, monitor and adjust our business practices to comply with current laws are ongoing. Failure to comply with enacted regulations could result in significant fines, penalties, or the loss of one or more of our licenses. As governmental regulation changes, the costs of compliance may cause us to change our operations significantly, or adversely impact the health care provider networks with which we do business, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations. Also, changes in the level of regulation of the insurance industry (whether federal, state or foreign), or changes in laws or regulations themselves or interpretations by regulatory authorities, could have a material adverse effect on our business.

Applicable insurance laws may make it difficult to effect a change of control of UICI.

Under the insurance laws of most states, before a person can acquire control of a U.S. insurance company, prior written approval must be obtained from the insurance commissioner of the state where the domestic insurer is domiciled. Generally, state statutes provide that control over a domestic insurer is presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing, 10% or more of the voting securities of the domestic insurer. Before granting approval of an application to acquire control of a domestic insurer, a state insurance commissioner will typically consider such factors as the financial strength of the applicant, the integrity of the applicant s board of directors and executive officers, the applicant s plans for the future operations of the domestic insurer and any anti-competitive results that may arise from the completion of the acquisition of control. This requirement may make it difficult to effect a change of control of the surviving corporation in the future.

THE UICI SPECIAL MEETING

Time, Place and Purpose of the Special Meeting

This document is being delivered to our stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors to be voted at our special meeting, which is to be held at Courtyard by Marriott, DFW Airport West - Bedford, 2201 Airport Freeway, Bedford, Texas 76021 on Wednesday, March 29, 2006 at 10:00 am, Central Time or at any postponement or adjournment thereof. The purpose of the special meeting is for our stockholders to consider and vote upon the adoption of the merger agreement and to approve any motion to adjourn the special meeting to another time or place, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement. Our stockholders must adopt the merger agreement for the merger to occur. If our stockholders fail to adopt the merger agreement, the merger will not occur. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/ prospectus as Annex A. On or about February 28, 2006, we will commence mailing this document and the enclosed form of proxy to our stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Matters to be Considered

At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the merger agreement. If the merger is completed:

- UICI s public stockholders will receive $37.00 in cash per share of UICI common stock and will cease to hold any equity interest in UICI, except for public stockholders who properly exercise and do not withdraw their statutory appraisal rights;

- shares of UICI common stock currently held by certain senior managers of UICI (which comprised less than 1% of UICI s outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting) will remain outstanding and unchanged, other than to be renamed class A-1 common stock; and

- shares of UICI common stock beneficially owned through UICI s agent stock accumulation plans by UICI s independent insurance agents associated with the UGA-Association Field Services or Cornerstone America marketing divisions (which shares comprised approximately 6.9% of UICI s outstanding common stock as of the record date of the special meeting) will be exchanged on a one-for-one basis for shares of a new class of UICI common stock to be known as the class A-2 common stock. The terms of the class A-2 common stock are more fully described elsewhere in this proxy statement/ prospectus. Shares withdrawn from the agent stock accumulation plans prior to the closing of the merger will be treated the same as shares owned by UICI s public stockholders.

If the merger agreement is adopted by the stockholders and the merger is consummated, the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation is expected to be substantially in the form of the certificate of incorporation attached as Annex B to this document, and the bylaws of the surviving corporation are expected to be substantially in the form attached as Exhibit 3.4 to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part.

You may also be asked to consider and vote on a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal. The persons named in the accompanying proxy will also have discretionary authority to vote on other business, if any, that properly comes before the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, including any adjournments or postponements for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to adopt the merger agreement. Neither the board nor management intends to bring before the special meeting any matters other than those referred to in the notice of special meeting and this document.

Record Date; Quorum

The holders of record of UICI s common stock as of the close of business on February 13, 2006, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 46,626,369 shares of common stock outstanding.

A complete list of stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting will be available for examination by any of our stockholders at our headquarters, 9151 Grapevine Highway, North Richland Hills, Texas 76180, for purposes pertaining to the special meeting, during normal business hours for a period of ten days before the special meeting, and at the time and place of the special meeting.

In order to carry on the business of the special meeting, we must have a quorum. A quorum requires the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting. Any shares of common stock held in treasury by UICI or by any of our subsidiaries are not considered to be outstanding for purposes of determining a quorum. Once a share is represented at a special meeting, it will be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum at the special meeting and any postponement or adjournment thereof. However, if a new record date is set for the adjourned special meeting, then a new quorum will have to be established.

Required Vote

Each outstanding share of common stock on the record date entitles the holder to one vote at the special meeting. The affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of the Company s capital stock entitled to vote at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, voting together as a single class, is required to adopt the merger agreement and is required to approve any motion to adjourn the special meeting to another time or place, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

If your shares are held in street name by a broker or other nominee, you should instruct your broker how to vote your shares using the instructions provided by your broker or nominee. Under the rules of the NYSE, brokers who hold shares in street name for customers may not exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of non-routine matters such as the merger proposal and thus, absent specific instructions from the beneficial owner of such shares, brokers are not empowered to vote such shares with respect to the approval of such proposals. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. Failures to vote, abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will have the same effect as votes AGAINST adoption of the merger agreement.

If you are a participant in the UICI Employee Stock Ownership and Savings Plan and hold shares pursuant to the Plan, see Voting by Employees Participating in the Employee Stock Ownership and Savings Plan beginning on page 29.

Voting by Directors and Executive Officers

As of February 13, 2006, the record date, our directors and executive officers owned and were entitled to vote 433,741 shares of common stock. Each of our directors and executive officers has advised us that he intends to vote his shares in favor of the merger proposal.

Voting of Proxies

Giving a proxy means that you authorize the persons named in the enclosed proxy card to vote your shares at the special meeting in the manner you direct. You may vote by proxy or in person at the meeting. To vote by proxy, you may use one of the following methods if you are a registered holder (that is if you hold your stock in your own name):

Telephone voting, by dialing the toll-free number and following the instructions on the proxy card;

Via the Internet, by going to the web address www.proxyvote.com and following the instructions on the proxy card; or

Mail, by completing and returning the proxy card in the enclosed envelope. The envelope requires no additional postage if mailed in the United States.

We request that you complete and sign the accompanying proxy and return it to us as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When the accompanying proxy is returned properly executed, the shares of common stock represented by it will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained on the proxy card.

If any proxy is returned without indication as to how to vote, the common stock represented by the proxy will be considered a vote in favor of all matters for consideration at the special meeting. Unless you check the box on your proxy card to withhold discretionary authority, the proxyholders may use their discretion to vote on other matters relating to the special meeting.

Your vote is important. Accordingly, you should sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, or vote via the Internet or by telephone, whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting.

Revocability of Proxies

A proxy may be revoked at any time before its exercise by taking any of the following actions: (i) by notifying us in writing at 9151 Grapevine Highway, North Richland Hills, Texas 76180, Attention: Corporate Secretary; (ii) by completing a later-dated proxy and returning it to us; (iii) by logging onto the Internet address or calling the telephone number, in each case, set forth on your proxy card, if you are eligible to do so and following the instructions on your proxy or vote instruction card; or (iv) by appearing at the special meeting in person and revoking the proxy orally by notifying the Secretary before the vote takes place.

If you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, the above-described options for revoking your proxy do not apply and instead you must follow the directions provided by your broker to change these instructions.

Solicitation of Proxies

This solicitation is made on behalf of our board of directors. We will pay the cost of this solicitation. Proxies for the merger may be solicited by our officers and employees by mail, telephone, fax, personal interviews or other methods of communication. These persons will not receive additional or special compensation for such solicitation services. We will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks and other nominees for their expenses in sending proxy materials to their customers who are beneficial owners of our common stock.

We have engaged MacKenzie Partners, Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the merger from brokers, banks, other nominees, institutional holders and individual investors for a fee not to exceed $15,000 plus reimbursement of expenses.

Voting by Employees Participating in Employee Stock Ownership and Savings Plan

If you are a participant in the UICI Employee Stock Ownership and Savings Plan (which we refer to as the Plan) and hold shares pursuant to the Plan, you should be aware that your vote directs Comerica Bank (the Plan trustee) to vote the shares allocated to your accounts according to your instructions. In addition, the Plan requires the Plan trustee to vote the shares held by the Plan for which instructions are not received (or not timely received) in proportion to the instructions the Plan trustee timely received from participants. All shares held by the Plan are voted. Your vote not only instructs the Plan trustee how to vote your allocated shares, but also will be used to determine an affirmative/negative ratio that the Plan trustee will use to vote the shares for which voting instructions have not been received and to vote the shares held by the Plan that have not been allocated to participants accounts. Similarly, if you do not vote, your shares in the Plan, as well as the shares of other nonvoting participants in the Plan, and the shares held by the Plan that have not been allocated to participants accounts, will be voted by the Plan trustee in proportion to the affirmative/negative ratio of votes timely received from other participants in the Plan.

To be considered timely received, your vote of your shares held by the Plan must be received by the close of business on March 24, 2006, the third business day before the special meeting.

THE MERGER

The following is a discussion of the merger and the material terms of the merger agreement. You are urged to read carefully the merger agreement in its entirety, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this document and incorporated by reference herein. You are also urged to read the opinions of our financial advisors, which are attached as Annexes C and D to this document and are incorporated by reference herein.

Background of the Merger

In the spring of 2004, the UICI board of directors began to explore possible means to increase shareholder value, in light of trading prices for UICI common stock (both generally and relative to other insurance companies), competitive considerations in the life and health insurance and managed care businesses generally (including ongoing consolidation in the industry) and the concentration of share ownership in the family of the late Ronald L. Jensen (the Company s founder and chairman of the board). At that time, Mr. Jensen informed the board that the Jensen family would be willing to consider a substantial reduction in its equity ownership in the Company to diversify the family s overall investment portfolio and to alleviate the perceived overhang effect on UICI s stock price. However, Mr. Jensen stated that the family was under no timing or other pressure to do so and would not be interested in reducing its ownership position at then-prevailing market prices.

In connection with its consideration of these matters, in the spring of 2004 UICI s board of directors received presentations from representatives of management and outside financial advisors, including New Vernon Capital (a financial advisory firm whose principals had performed financial advisory services for UICI in the past), regarding stock market conditions (generally and in the life and health insurance and managed care businesses), as well as possible options to increase shareholder value. In April 2004, the board established the Company s current dividend policy, approved the payment of the Company s first semi-annual dividend and authorized the repurchase of up to an additional 1.0 million shares of common stock under its previously approved stock repurchase program. The board also directed management to consider capital markets or other transactions to enhance shareholder value.

In July 2004, New Vernon Capital arranged a meeting with Morgan Stanley (an internationally recognized investment banking firm) and representatives of UICI senior management to discuss these matters. New Vernon Capital introduced Morgan Stanley to the Company because Morgan Stanley had been identified as having particular experience in the health insurance/managed care industries. At that meeting, the financial advisors reviewed conditions in the capital markets generally, and for health insurance/managed care companies, as well as possible alternatives to enhance shareholder value, such as a public or private sale of a substantial portion of the Jensen family stock, either by the Jensen family itself or in a merger or other strategic transaction involving the Company. In August 2004, UICI retained Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital to assist in the exploration of possible strategic alternatives. In September 2004, UICI retained Jones Day (an internationally recognized law firm) as the Company s legal advisor in connection with the strategic assessment process.

On September 2, 2004, UICI s board of directors met to review the Company s strategic position generally. Representatives of Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital participated in the meeting. At the meeting, the board reviewed the Company s strategic and competitive position, changes affecting the regulatory environment in which the Company operated and the Company s prospects for enhancing shareholder value through continued operational improvement. Among other things, the board considered the competitive challenges facing the Company, including the resources available to the Company s principal competitors, the Company s lack of sufficient scale relative to its competitors, the ongoing consolidation in the Company s industry, the increasingly regulated nature of the insurance industry, the pressure that increasing costs of compliance with state and federal regulation were expected to have on the Company s financial and competitive position and the potential for substantial changes in healthcare regulation. Representatives of the financial advisors then discussed with the board market and other conditions affecting the Company, including, among other things, the level of consolidation and merger activity in the insurance and managed care businesses, the recent increases in trading prices for the Company s stock and the Jensen family s desire to consider monetization of its investment. Taking into account conditions impacting the Company, representatives of the financial advisors then discussed with the board potential opportunities and factors to be considered in exploring a possible strategic transaction involving the Company. Following such discussion, representatives of the financial advisors then proposed that the Company consider contacting a small number of potential strategic partners to ascertain, on a preliminary basis, whether those potential strategic partners would have an interest in pursuing a strategic transaction with UICI.

At the September 2, 2004 board meeting, management emphasized the need to pursue any strategic assessment process on a disciplined and focussed basis in an effort to guard against premature disclosure of the process. Management and the board recognized that a leak could have a disruptive effect on the Company s independent agent sales force, and thereby negatively affect the Company s prospects. No decision was made to pursue any particular course of action, but the consensus of the board was that management and the financial advisors should contact four potential strategic parties to ascertain, on a preliminary basis, their interest in discussing a strategic transaction. Each of the four potential strategic partners was known or perceived by the board and its financial advisors to be pursuing an external growth strategy and might reasonably be expected to have an interest in, and the financial resources to complete, a strategic transaction. In conducting the exploration of any strategic alternative, the board further directed management, Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital to seek to minimize, to the extent practicable, the risk of premature disclosure of a possible transaction.

At the request of UICI, in early September 2004, representatives of Morgan Stanley contacted the four potential strategic partners to explore their interest in a potential transaction with UICI. Following the execution of confidentiality agreements, each of the four parties was provided with due diligence information about UICI, and representatives of three of the parties met with UICI management. Representatives of Morgan Stanley and/or New Vernon Capital participated in all of these sessions. Acting on behalf of the Company, Morgan Stanley requested that each of the potential strategic bidders submit a preliminary indication of interest by the end of October 2004. In connection with this process, one of the potential strategic bidders requested assistance in assessing the availability of financing for a strategic transaction involving the Company. Following discussion with the Company s legal and financial advisors, management authorized Morgan Stanley to offer to make itself available as a potential financing source to all of the potential bidders in order to, among other things, reduce the risk of premature public disclosure of the sale process that might result if third parties were contacted concerning financing.

While each of the strategic parties contacted in this phase of the process had initially orally expressed preliminary interest in pursuing a possible transaction, none of the parties submitted an indication of interest by the requested deadline (or thereafter). At a UICI board meeting held on October 27, 2004, management and representatives of both Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital reviewed the process that had been undertaken to date. At that meeting, management was instructed to continue to work with the Company s financial advisors to focus on other possible methods to enhance shareholder value.

Over the next several months, management continued to explore UICI s potential strategic alternatives. Among the possible transactions considered were capital markets transactions, including the possibility of issuing debt and utilizing all or a portion of the proceeds in a self-tender for a portion of the Company s outstanding common stock. In anticipation of a possible capital markets transaction, in November 2004 the Company applied for, and in February 2005 the Company received, an investment grade credit rating from Standard & Poor s Rating Services. The Company also explored various alternatives by which the Jensen family ownership block could be transferred or broken up, including sales to one or more financial buyers, secondary offerings and repurchase by the Company. In the course of this process Mr. Jensen consistently expressed a reluctance to have his family s shares treated in a manner that might be viewed as more favorable than the treatment afforded to all other holders of the Company s common stock.

In March 2005, Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital discussed with senior management whether the Company should consider exploring a possible merger or sale transaction with one or more private equity firms, in light of the favorable conditions in the debt markets, the relatively high levels of liquidity of private equity firms and the perceived willingness of major private equity firms to consider investing in service-related businesses. At the request of UICI management, in April 2005 representatives of Morgan Stanley contacted three private equity firms that management believed, based in part on advice received from Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital, might be interested in exploring a sale or investment transaction and had the expertise and financial wherewithal to do so. In addition, at the direction of management, Morgan Stanley again contacted the four potential strategic partners with which UICI had had preliminary discussions in September and October 2004 to determine whether they had an interest at this time in pursuing a possible transaction involving the Company.

Following execution of confidentiality agreements, the Company provided all parties, strategic and financial, extensive due diligence information and the opportunity to meet with management. Management met with representatives of each party interested in pursuing a possible transaction, and representatives of Morgan Stanley and/or New Vernon Capital participated in all of these sessions. The potential parties were requested to submit preliminary indications of interest by May 16, 2005. One of the strategic parties indicated that it might have an interest in pursuing a possible transaction involving the whole company, but it was not able to propose specific terms at that time. (That party did not propose any terms thereafter.) The other strategic parties declined to participate further in the process. Of the three private equity firms contacted, one indicated that it was not interested in pursuing a possible transaction, one preliminarily indicated an interest in acquiring UICI at a price range per share of $31.00-$34.00 and one preliminarily indicated an interest in acquiring UICI at a price range per share of $32.00-$35.00.

UICI s board of directors reviewed the matter on May 18, 2005, at a meeting in which representatives of Morgan Stanley, New Vernon Capital and Jones Day participated. At this meeting, Mr. Jensen reiterated that, while the Jensen family remained willing to consider a sale of a substantial portion of its shares in the context of a strategic transaction for the Company, the family was under no timing or other pressure to monetize its investment in the Company. Mr. Jensen also indicated that he would not expect to have a continuing role with the resulting Company unless required by a third party to obtain an attractive transaction for all Company stockholders. Accordingly, the board proceeded on the assumption that, if any transaction were to be pursued, public stockholders would not be treated less favorably than the Jensen family stockholders.

A representative of Jones Day then reviewed the directors fiduciary duties applicable in these circumstances and the process typically involved in considering a possible strategic transaction. Because the Jensen family was under no particular pressure to monetize its investment in UICI and intended to be treated in the same manner as other stockholders, following extensive discussion, the board determined that Mr. Jensen did not have an interest in a possible transaction that was different from or in conflict with the interests of UICI s public stockholders. The board also determined that, if the process were to be continued, no substantive discussions of the involvement or employment of management in the resulting Company or the terms thereof would occur between potential bidders and senior managers until such time, if ever, that a particular bidder had been selected and material deal terms had been settled.

Management then led a discussion of UICI s five-year financial forecast. Management expected that 2005 net income would be substantially higher than its net income in prior years due to various factors, including primarily a lower medical claims loss ratio associated with its self-employed agency (SEA) business, but management forecasted only modest net income growth thereafter until 2008. The directors and management then discussed the opportunities and risks associated with the forecast, including the competitive challenges facing the Company, the continued increase in insurance regulation and the costs associated with compliance with state and federal insurance laws and regulation. The board also discussed the risks associated with the pending multi-state market examination which are described under Risk Factors Risk Factors Relating to the Business Our domestic insurance subsidiaries are currently the subject of the multi-state market conduct examination, and an adverse finding or outcome from that examination could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition beginning on page 21. The board concluded that the risks associated with competitive pressures and regulatory considerations more likely than not outweighed the possibility that the Company would in fact achieve results that exceeded management s forecast. The board also recognized that the Company s ability to actually realize management s forecasted results could be adversely affected by many factors, including competitive pressures and regulatory considerations.

Mr. Jensen then led a discussion concerning the Company s independent agents sales force and the potential effects of a strategic transaction on the sales force. Mr. Jensen believed that the independent agents were a critical component of the Company s success. Mr. Jensen expressed his view that, in order to maximize the value of the Company in any transaction, the Company or any possible strategic partner would need to maintain in place, or substantially replicate, the Company s agent stock accumulation plans. Under these plans, agents are afforded the opportunity to purchase Company common stock with after-tax commission dollars and the Company in turn matches such contributions with share-equivalent credits that vest over time. The vested shares subject to this arrangement represented approximately 6.9% of the Company s total outstanding shares. This ownership stake was substantially more significant than management s stock ownership (which represented less than 1% of the outstanding shares). Accordingly in any transaction the Company might consider, UICI s legal and financial advisors were instructed to assist the Company in developing a mechanism for the continuation of this arrangement without adverse tax or other effects on the independent agents. In addition, it was also the consensus of the board that extreme caution should continue to be taken to avoid premature public disclosure of any possible transaction the Company might consider, because of the potentially disruptive effect on the independent agents sales force and resulting adverse effect that would have on the Company.

A representative of Jones Day then explained that, in the first round of the process, potential bidders had been asked to submit initial indications of interest based on an assumed financing package no less favorable than a so-called staple financing package structured by an affiliate of Morgan Stanley. In light of the uncertainty that any acceptable transaction would result from the bid process, the purpose of providing potential bidders with the staple financing package was, among other things, to reduce the possibility of leaks, which sometimes occur when potential outside financing sources become involved, and to enhance the comparability of the initial indications of interest. The board was advised that, in any subsequent round of bidding, potential bidders would be permitted to utilize whatever financing the bidders desired. A representative of Morgan Stanley then reviewed the terms of the staple financing package, including the possibility that fees would be payable to the financing sources (including an affiliate of Morgan Stanley).

At the May 18, 2005 board meeting, representatives of Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital then reviewed the process undertaken to date, including the indications of interest received and various financial aspects of the indications of interest, including preliminary valuation information, trading prices for UICI stock and the distribution and composition of the Company s stockholders. At the conclusion of this portion of the meeting, representatives of Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital advised the board that the indications of interest received thus far did not represent what they believed could be the best value reasonably obtainable, based in part on their preliminary valuation analysis and the preliminary stage of price negotiations. Representatives of the Company s financial advisors then suggested that, if the board determined to continue the strategic assessment process, the Company consider approaching a small number of additional private equity firms that might reasonably be expected to have potential interest in, and the financial wherewithal to effect, a transaction.

Representatives of management (including the executive officers who were also directors) and the financial advisors were then excused from the May 18th board meeting. The independent directors then discussed among themselves the Company s prospects as an independent Company, including the risks involved in achieving management s forecasts in light of the Company s competitive position and the risks associated with the regulatory issues it confronted. Following discussion and debate, it was the consensus of the independent directors that:

- none of the preliminary indications of interest was adequate; and
- the strategic assessment process should continue, but should be expanded to include a limited number of additional private equity firms.

Thereafter, confidentiality agreements were executed by, and due diligence information was provided to, three additional private equity firms (including The Blackstone Group), each of which was invited to submit a preliminary indication of interest. In addition, the two private equity firms that had submitted first-round indications of interest were invited into a second, more extensive round of due diligence (which included additional meetings with senior management, access to a data room and due diligence sessions with representatives of the Company s auditors) and were provided additional details regarding management s forecast. Representatives of Morgan Stanley and/or New Vernon Capital participated in all of these sessions other than the due diligence sessions with representatives of the Company s auditors. Of the three additional private equity firms invited to submit preliminary indications of interest, Blackstone submitted an initial indication at $38.00 per share, subject to further discussions with management, review of historical financial results and undertaking operational, regulatory, financial, legal and tax due diligence, one private equity firm submitted a lower indication and the third additional private equity firm declined to continue to participate in the process.

At the May 18th board meeting, a representative of Jones Day reviewed change-in-control-triggered severance and retention bonus arrangements. The board instructed the executive compensation committee to consider, with the assistance of counsel and outside executive compensation advisors, customary arrangements of this type with the intent to retain key employees. The executive compensation committee ultimately determined not to recommend change-in-control-triggered severance agreements, or so-called golden parachutes, but to implement the retention bonus program described in The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger UICI Success Bonus Award Plan beginning on page 61. Counsel and the outside compensation consultants had advised that such arrangements were customary, that the amounts involved were within ranges generally believed to be reasonable in these circumstances, and that arrangements of that type would enhance our ability to retain key employees.

In June 2005, all potential bidders were asked to submit formal proposals, including a mark-up of a definitive transaction agreement prepared by Jones Day. Following additional due diligence (including discussions with the Company s regulatory advisors), in late July, Blackstone submitted a proposal to acquire the Company at $36.00 per share in cash. Blackstone s proposal was conditioned on the development of an acceptable mechanism by which the independent agents stock accumulation plans would be continued, face-to-face informational meetings with insurance regulators from a number of states, confirmation that the financial strength ratings of the Company s insurance subsidiaries would not be adversely affected by the transaction and satisfaction that key managers and substantially all of the independent sales agents would stay with the Company. One other bidder indicated a $32.00 per share price, subject to various conditions, and a third bidder continued to express an interest in a potential transaction but did not submit a specific bid.

The indications of interest were reviewed at a meeting of the non-management directors of the UICI board held on July 26, 2005. Representatives of Morgan Stanley, New Vernon Capital and Jones Day also participated in the meeting. Representatives of Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital reviewed the process conducted to date and discussed certain financial and valuation matters, including UICI s stock trading history relative to various indices, the Company s operating results relative to other insurance and managed care companies, securities analysts views of the Company, management s forecasts and financial metrics in various other transactions believed to be comparable. Representatives of the financial advisors also informed the board that the other potential bidders had indicated that they would not be willing to increase their indicated prices.

A thorough discussion and debate among the directors followed. It was the general consensus of the directors, based in part on input from the Company s legal and financial advisors, that the strategic assessment process undertaken since mid-2004 was reasonably designed and that, at $36.00 per share, or a higher amount that might be achieved through negotiation, the Blackstone proposal represented a very attractive immediate value for the Company s stockholders, and represented the highest value reasonably likely to be attainable. Balanced against this consideration was the question whether the Company s recent level of performance could be sustained and even further accelerated so as to create greater shareholder value. The board engaged in extensive discussion of the Company s financial and competitive position and the potential impact that the increasingly changing regulatory environment could have on the Company s financial condition and results of operations. Management s financial forecasts contemplated positive growth only after a few stable years without substantial growth, which the board determined might not be sustainable in light of the Company s competitive position and the changing regulatory environment. Recognizing that this was necessarily a matter of judgment, it was the consensus of the board that it was in the best interests of shareholders to see if an acceptable arrangement could be worked out with Blackstone. Accordingly, the board concluded that:

- the process should continue, but that Blackstone should be pressed to increase its proposed per share price and modify its conditions to an acceptable level of risk to the Company; and

- given the terms of Blackstone s current proposal, the other bidders should have an equal opportunity to increase and modify their bids.

At the direction of the non-management directors, Morgan Stanley communicated the board s conclusions to all parties that had submitted proposals. The bidders other than Blackstone declined to enhance their proposals.

Blackstone was informed of the board s concerns with the conditions Blackstone had proposed and the board s request that Blackstone increase its proposed price. In response, Blackstone posed two alternatives. Blackstone indicated that it would increase its proposed price to $37.00 per share, but only if UICI immediately signed and announced a letter of intent that provided Blackstone with a break-up fee and expense reimbursement if the parties negotiated a transaction and Blackstone was prepared to proceed but UICI ultimately determined not to pursue a transaction with it. Alternatively, Blackstone indicated that it would be willing to increase its proposal to $36.50 per share if the parties continued to work on a possible transaction in a customary manner to reach a definitive agreement. Following discussions with representatives of senior management, and UICI s advisors, representatives of Morgan Stanley on behalf of the Company informed Blackstone that management would recommend a $37.00 per share deal to the board if all other terms were satisfactorily resolved. Following negotiations, Blackstone responded that it was willing to proceed on this basis, subject to an understanding that UICI would work with Blackstone to determine whether a definitive transaction could be structured and would reimburse Blackstone for up to $500,000 of its out-of-pocket costs if Blackstone was prepared to proceed but UICI ultimately determined not to pursue a merger or other strategic transaction. UICI indicated it was willing to proceed on that basis.

In late August 2005, Mr. Jensen met with a representative of Blackstone to assess how UICI s agents would react to a possible transaction with that firm. Mr. Jensen had raised with the board and the Company s advisors his concern that, if the independent insurance agents were to react negatively to a possible transaction, there would be increased risk that the transaction would fail to close in light of the substantial period of time between signing and closing required to obtain regulatory approvals. Following the meeting, Mr. Jensen reported to Dennis McCuistion (the Company s lead director) and Mr. Gedwed (the Company s president and chief executive officer) that, based on his discussion with the Blackstone representative, he was satisfied and Blackstone appeared satisfied that there was not a substantial risk of an adverse reaction on the part of the independent agents to the Blackstone proposal.

During the week of August 21, 2005, representatives of the Company, Blackstone and Morgan Stanley met with representatives of Standard & Poors Rating Service, A.M. Best Co. and Fitch to present various financing scenarios for a possible transaction, all in an effort to obtain assurance that any transaction would not adversely affect the Company s credit ratings or the financial strength ratings of the Company s regulated insurance companies.

On September 2, 2005, Ron Jensen was killed in an automobile accident. On September 5th, the board met to receive an update on the strategic assessment process and to determine whether Mr. Jensen s death affected what the Company should do or the timing for proceeding. It was the consensus of the board that management should continue the process, recognizing that Mr. Jensen s death could impact timing because of probate and other legal considerations. Mr. Gedwed reported at the meeting that he had been advised by Jeffrey Jensen (Mr. Jensen s eldest son) that the Jensen family supported pursuit of a possible transaction despite Ron Jensen s death. Mr. McCuistion also reported at the meeting that Mr. Jensen had informed him prior to his death that Mr. Jensen believed that the proposed transaction was in the best interest of UICI s stockholders generally and would be well received by the Company s independent insurance agents.

From late August through mid-September, representatives of UICI and Blackstone focused on satisfaction of the regulatory and rating agency conditions to signing a definitive agreement that Blackstone had required, developed an approach under which the stock ownership program for the independent sales agents could be continued and negotiated the terms of the definitive merger agreement and other documentation. Blackstone s counsel also negotiated the terms of the Jensen family stockholder support and noncompetition agreements described under The Merger Voting and Non-Compete Agreements beginning on page 63 with members of the Jensen family and representatives of Gardere Wynne Sewell LLP, separate counsel for the Jensen family interests.

During this period, Blackstone also finalized the debt and equity commitments necessary for signing a definitive merger agreement. As part of this process, Blackstone committed to make a majority equity investment in the merged Company, and private equity groups within Goldman, Sachs & Co. and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners were invited to make minority equity investments in the merged Company. At this time, Blackstone determined not to utilize the staple financing developed by an affiliate of Morgan Stanley in connection with the bidding process. Instead, the Blackstone-led consortium agreed to engage JP Morgan Chase to arrange the financing. See The Merger Agreement Financing beginning on page 75. JP Morgan Chase subsequently invited both Morgan Stanley and Goldman Sachs Credit Partners to participate in the lending transaction syndicate.

The UICI board again met to review the process on September 7, 2005. Representatives of management reviewed the progress of discussions with Blackstone since the August 5th meeting. A representative of Jones Day reviewed the terms of the transaction, including the increase in the amount of the break-up fee Blackstone had requested in exchange for tightening the closing conditions as requested by UICI. He then reviewed the parties respective positions on this issue and other unresolved issues and the parties respective points of view and he indicated that he believed that these issues would be satisfactorily resolved. The representative of Jones Day then explained that, as was typical in these circumstances and as Blackstone had reflected in its indication of interest, Blackstone was requiring that, prior to signing final agreements, certain key members of management sign term sheets specifying the terms of their post-closing employment, including equity participation. He then reviewed the draft term sheet circulated by Blackstone s counsel in late August 2005 and explained that the term sheets would have to be finalized before Blackstone would sign definitive agreements. See The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 59 for a discussion of these arrangements.

Over the next several days, representatives of Jones Day and representatives of Wachtell, Lipton Rosen & Katz (outside legal counsel for Blackstone) continued to negotiate the definitive transaction documentation. At meetings held during the period September 12-14, representatives of the Company and Blackstone advised representatives of the departments of insurance of five states of a possible transaction.

The UICI board of directors met on September 14, 2005, to consider the merger agreement and related matters. Messrs. Gedwed and Reed (the Company s general counsel) updated the directors on the course of discussions to date, presentations to and reactions of the rating agencies and the discussions with key regulators that had taken place over the last several days. They also explained the provisions worked out to permit the continuation of the stock accumulation plans for UICI s independent insurance agents and the rollover of agent equity in the current stock accumulation plans into the merged company.

A representative of Jones Day then reviewed the directors fiduciary duties in this context. He also described the few remaining open items in the definitive merger documentation, including the size of the break-up fee and the circumstances that would trigger payment of the break-up fee. The representative of Jones Day then reviewed the terms of each aspect of the transaction in which it could be said that management or the directors had interests that were in addition to or different from the interests of shareholders generally. They included the provisions for continued employment reflected in term sheets that Blackstone was requiring be signed by senior executives (including Mr. Gedwed) before it would sign a definitive agreement. The term sheets had been provided to senior managers on September 13th and 14th. The representative of Jones Day then reviewed the limitations on the Company s right to consider an alternative transaction after a merger agreement was signed, the voting and non-competition agreements that the Jensen family stockholders were being required by Blackstone to sign and the conditions to the closing.

Representatives of Morgan Stanley then reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger. At the conclusion of Morgan Stanley s presentation, a representative of Morgan Stanley orally delivered Morgan Stanley s opinion (which opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing) that as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in their opinion, the $37.00 per share cash merger consideration to be received by UICI stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares). During this presentation, representatives of Morgan Stanley reviewed with the board that an affiliate of Morgan Stanley expected to participate in the financing arranged by J.P. Morgan, and would receive compensation in connection with such participation. The Morgan Stanley representatives indicated that the affiliate expected at that time to provide approximately 30% of the total amount of the debt financing arranged by J.P. Morgan for which it would receive customary fees.

A representative of New Vernon Capital then summarized that firm s financial analysis of the possible transaction. At the conclusion of New Vernon Capital s presentation, the representative orally delivered New Vernon Capital s opinion (which opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing) that as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in their opinion, the $37.00 per share cash merger consideration to be received by UICI stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares).

The full text of the written opinions of each of Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital, each dated September 15, 2005, which set forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital, respectively, are attached as Annexes C and D to this document.

Representatives of management, including the executive officers who were also directors, were then excused from the September 14th 2005 meeting so that the independent directors could deliberate among themselves. It was the consensus of the non-management directors that the Company should proceed with the transaction. Following this discussion, the management directors were invited back into the meeting and the board, by unanimous vote of all of its members, determined to authorize the Company to enter into the merger agreement and resolved to recommend that UICI s stockholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and vote FOR the approval of the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger proposal.

Thereafter, representatives of Blackstone and UICI met to finalize the transaction documentation, throughout the night of September 14th. The transaction was publicly announced on September 15th.

Recommendation of our Board of Directors; Reasons for the Merger

The UICI board of directors determined, by unanimous vote of all of its members, that the merger is fair to and in the best interests of UICI and its stockholders. The board unanimously approved and declared advisable the merger agreement and recommends that stockholders vote or give instructions to vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, the UICI board of directors consulted with legal counsel regarding the directors legal duties, the terms of the merger agreement and related issues; with its financial advisors regarding the financial aspects of the transaction; and with senior management of UICI regarding, among other things, the industry, management s plans and UICI s prospects. In addition, the executive compensation committee, comprised solely of independent directors, consulted with an independent executive consulting firm and counsel with regard to change-in-control arrangements for management. The determination by the UICI board to approve the merger was the result of consideration of numerous factors, including:

the specific factors described in The Merger Background of the Merger beginning on page 33.

its understanding of, and management s presentations regarding, the business, operations, financial condition, earnings and future prospects of UICI;

its understanding of, and management s presentations regarding, the health/life insurance and managed care businesses, including the increasingly competitive landscape resulting from consolidation in the business and the need for increased scale in order to achieve its business plan and remain competitive, the potential effect of consolidation on UICI in the absence of the proposed transaction and the impact a failure to meet management projections could have on the Company s prospects;

the process undertaken by the Company in pursuing a transaction aimed at enhancing shareholder value;

the generally favorable environment for private equity investment, the lack of substantial interest in the Company by strategic buyers and the possibility that the Company could not obtain as favorable terms as those proposed by Blackstone if it delayed or terminated the process;

the fact that the merger consideration represented a premium of 19% over the closing price of UICI common stock on September 14, 2005 (the last trading day prior to the announcement of the merger), a premium ranging from 3% to 69% over the high and low trading prices of UICI common stock for the preceding 12 months and exceeded the all-time high trading price of UICI common stock;

the presentations and opinions of Morgan Stanley and New Vernon Capital that, as of the date of those opinions and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in those opinions, the $37.00 per share cash merger consideration to be received by holders of shares of UICI common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares);

the desire of the Jensen family to consider monetization of a substantial portion of its holdings of UICI stock;

the support for the transaction by the Jensen family stockholders, whose UICI stock ownership represented approximately 28% of the Company s outstanding common stock on the date the merger was announced, evidenced by the execution by those stockholders of a voting agreement in favor of the transaction;

the provisions of the merger agreement designed to permit the continuation of the stock accumulation plans for UICI s independent insurance agents;

the provisions of the merger agreement which give the UICI board the ability, in the event that UICI receives an unsolicited superior proposal, to furnish information to and conduct negotiations with a third party, and to enter into an agreement for a superior proposal after complying with certain requirements, including payment of either a termination fee or the reimbursement of certain expenses;

the stockholder voting and non-competition agreements required by Blackstone of members of the Jensen family and the termination provisions applicable to their undertaking to support the merger;

the debt and equity commitment letters available to affiliates of Blackstone, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners and the guarantees provided by the private equity firms of the payment obligations of the Merger Cos under the merger agreement demonstrating a commitment to complete the merger; and the likelihood of the merger being approved by appropriate regulatory authorities without burdensome conditions, and the satisfaction of the other conditions to the completion of the merger.

The UICI board of directors also considered and balanced against the potential benefits of the proposed merger the potential risks associated with the merger, including:

- the improvement in the Company s results of operations during 2005 and the general increase in trading prices for its common stock since 2004;
- the general potential for growth and increased shareholder value if UICI were to remain independent and achieve management s forecast of accelerated future growth beginning in 2008;
- the fact that the receipt of cash in the merger would be a taxable event to stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- the risk that the financing contemplated by the debt commitment letters may not be available on the terms of those commitment letters; and
- the possibility that the merger might not be completed and the resulting potential adverse consequences to the Company.

The UICI board of directors determined that the potential negative factors were substantially outweighed by the potential benefits of the merger.

The factors described above are not intended to be exhaustive but include the material factors considered by the UICI board of directors. In view of its many considerations, the board considered these factors as a whole and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered. In reaching its decision to approve the merger and recommend adoption of the merger agreement, the UICI board viewed its recommendation as being based on the totality of the information presented to it and considered by it. Individual directors may have given different weights to different factors.

In considering the recommendation of the UICI board of directors to vote for the adoption of the merger agreement, you should be aware that certain members of the board and executive officers of UICI may have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as UICI stockholders. The board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger. See The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 59.

Opinion of Morgan Stanley

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated August 16, 2004, UICI retained Morgan Stanley to provide it with financial advisory services in connection with the Company s planning and execution of potential strategic transactions. At the meeting of the UICI board of directors on September 14, 2005, Morgan Stanley rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the $37.00 per share cash consideration to be received by the holders of shares of UICI common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares).

The full text of Morgan Stanley s written opinion, dated September 15, 2005, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Morgan Stanley in rendering its opinion is attached as Annex C to this document. The summary of Morgan Stanley s opinion set forth in this document is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. We urge you to read the entire opinion carefully.

Morgan Stanley s opinion was directed to the board of directors of UICI, addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by holders of UICI common stock pursuant to the merger agreement (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares) as of the date of the opinion, and does not address any other aspect of the merger, including the relative merits of the merger as compared to other business strategies potentially available to UICI, nor does it address UICI s underlying business decision to enter into the merger agreement. Morgan Stanley s opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of UICI common stock as to how such stockholder should vote at the special meeting. In addition, Morgan Stanley s opinion does not constitute any opinion or recommendation as to whether any participant in any agent stock accumulation plan should refrain from withdrawing shares of UICI common stock from such plan or as to whether any member of senior management or key employee who holds management shares should take action to cause such shares not to be converted into the merger consideration and, in any such case, should not be relied upon by any such participant or holder, respectively, as such.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Morgan Stanley, among other things:

- reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information of UICI;
- reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning UICI prepared by the management of UICI;
- analyzed certain financial projections prepared by the management of UICI;
- discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of UICI with senior executives of UICI;
- reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for the UICI common stock;
- compared the financial performance of UICI and the prices and trading activity of UICI common stock with that of certain other comparable publicly-traded companies and their securities;
- reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain comparable acquisition transactions;
- participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of UICI, the Merger Cos and their financial and legal advisors;
- reviewed a copy of the merger agreement and certain related documents;
- reviewed a copy of the voting agreement;
- reviewed copies of the equity commitment letters from each of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners, DLJ Merchant Banking Partners or their affiliates, each dated September 15, 2005;
- reviewed copies of the limited guarantees from each of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners, DLJ Merchant Banking Partners or their affiliates, each dated as of September 15, 2005;
- reviewed a copy of the forward underwriting commitment letter from J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., dated September 15, 2005;
- reviewed a copy of the debt financing commitment letter from JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P., Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., dated September 15, 2005; and
- performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as Morgan Stanley deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information supplied or otherwise made available to it for the purposes of its opinion. With respect to the financial projections, Morgan Stanley assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of UICI. In addition, Morgan Stanley assumed that the merger would be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement and the voting agreement, and that the equity and debt financing for the merger would be consummated on terms no less favorable than those set forth in the equity and debt financing commitment letters described above. Morgan Stanley is not a legal, regulatory or tax expert and relied on UICI with respect to the legal, regulatory and tax advice it received. Morgan Stanley assumed that in connection with the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals for the proposed merger no restrictions would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the consummation of the merger as contemplated in the merger agreement. Morgan Stanley was not requested to make, and did not make, any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of UICI, nor was Morgan Stanley furnished with any such appraisals. Morgan Stanley s opinion did not address the solvency or fair value of UICI, any of the MergerCos or SibCos or any other entity under any U.S. state, U.S. federal or any other applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Morgan Stanley s opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed, and the information made available to it, as of the date of the opinion.

The following is a brief summary of the material analyses performed by Morgan Stanley in connection with its oral opinion and the preparation of its written opinion, dated September 15, 2005. Although each analysis was provided to the UICI board of directors, in connection with arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered all of its analysis as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis described below. Some of these summaries include information presented in tabular format. In order to understand fully the financial analyses used by Morgan Stanley, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analyses.

Historical Stock Trading Analysis. Morgan Stanley performed a trading range analysis to provide background and perspective with respect to the premium of the $37.00 per share cash consideration to the closing share price of UICI common stock on September 13, 2005, the last trading day prior to the meeting of the UICI board of directors to approve the merger, the volume weighted average trading prices of UICI common stock for the 3-month and 6-month periods ending September 13, 2005, and the 52-week high and low trading prices for the UICI common stock for the period ended September 13, 2005.

Morgan Stanley observed the following:

Stock Price		$37.00 As Premium
Closing Price on September 13, 2005	$ 31.67	16.8%
Period Ending September 13, 2005
1 Month Volume Weighted Average	$ 31.44	17.7%
3 Month Volume Weighted Average	$ 30.64	20.8%
6 Month Volume Weighted Average	$ 27.75	33.3%
12 Month Volume Weighted Average	$ 29.68	24.7%
52-week High	$ 36.40	1.6%
52-week Low	$ 21.31	73.6%

Transaction Multiple Analysis. In addition, Morgan Stanley calculated the multiple of the aggregate transaction value to 2005 estimated earnings, next twelve months estimated earnings and 2006 estimated earnings, in each case based upon both median earnings per share, or EPS, estimates obtained from Institutional Brokers Estimate System, or IBES, and upon UICI management estimates. IBES is a database owned and operated by Thomson Financial, which contains estimated and actual earnings, cash flows, dividends, sales and pre-tax income data for companies in the U.S., Europe, Asia and emerging markets. For purposes of this analysis, Morgan Stanley calculated an aggregate transaction value of approximately $1.73 billion by adding UICI s approximately $15 million in outstanding debt to an aggregate equity purchase price of approximately $1.715 billion based upon the $37.00 per share cash consideration multiplied by approximately 46.4 million shares of UICI common stock on a fully diluted basis using the treasury method.

Morgan Stanley observed the following:

Multiple of Aggregate Equity Purchase Price to	Wall Street Estimates	Management Estimates

2005 estimated earnings	9.3x	8.9x
Next twelve months estimated earnings	10.2x	8.8x
2006 estimated earnings	11.2x	8.7x

Morgan Stanley also calculated the multiple of aggregate transaction value to latest twelve months (LTM) earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA, and book value as of June 30, 2005 as set forth below:

Multiple of Aggregate Value to LTM EBITDA	5.6x
Multiple of $37.00 Price to Book Value Per Share	2.12x

Historical Share Price Analysis. Morgan Stanley reviewed the historical trading prices for the UICI common stock over the five-year period ended September 13, 2005 and the period January 1, 2004 through September 13, 2005. Morgan Stanley noted that UICI s share price had remained below $20.00 for much of the 5-year period ended September 13, 2005, primarily due to legal and regulatory issues, as well as issues related to divested businesses. Morgan Stanley noted that the five-year high and low prices for the UICI common stock were $36.40 and $5.13, respectively, and that the UICI common stock hit an all-time high of $36.75 on January 6, 1998. Morgan Stanley also noted that the price of the UICI common stock had risen 45% since the announcement of earnings for the first quarter of 2005 on April 28, 2005 and 138% since January 1, 2004.

Relative Share Price Analysis. Morgan Stanley also compared the historical trading performance of the UICI common stock over the period January 1, 2004 through September 13, 2005 with that of (i) an index of publicly traded managed care companies set forth in the following table, (ii) an index of publicly traded supplemental health and disability companies set forth in the following table, and (iii) the S&P 500 index.

Managed Care Companies	Equity Value as of 9/13/05 ($ in billions)		Supplemental Health and Disability Companies	Equity Value as of 9/13/05 ($ in billions)
UnitedHealth Group Incorporated	$	68.37	AFLAC Incorporated	$	22.51
WellPoint, Inc.	$	44.98	Torchmark Corporation	$	5.51
Aetna Inc.	$	23.80	UNUMProvident Corporation	$	5.72
CIGNA Corporation	$	14.87	Assurant, Inc.	$	5.12
Coventry Health Care, Inc.	$	8.87	StanCorp Financial Group, Inc.	$	2.26
Humana Inc.	$	7.9	Delphi Financial Group, Inc.	$	1.54
WellChoice, Inc.	$	5.93	Universal American Financial Corp.	$	1.33
Health Net, Inc.	$	5.17	Conseco, Inc.	$	3.16
Sierra Health Services, Inc.	$	2.26

Morgan Stanley selected these managed care companies and supplemental health and disability companies because they participate in similar markets to UICI and maintain certain financial and operating characteristics similar to those of UICI. However, none of these companies is identical to, or directly comparable with, UICI. In particular, Morgan Stanley noted that the managed care companies are the closest trading comparables to UICI but that they operate on substantially different scale and business models than UICI. Morgan Stanley also noted that the companies that provide supplemental health and disability insurance are also relevant, but less so from a business perspective.

Review of Analyst Estimates. Morgan Stanley reviewed recent earnings per share estimates for UICI for 2005 and 2006 prepared by Wall Street analysts and compared them with estimates prepared by UICI management. Those estimates were as follows:

	EPS Estimate
Firm	2005	2006	Recommendation
Sandler O Neill	$3.98	$3.47	Hold
Cochran, Caronia Securities	$4.18	$3.30	Market Perform
Dowling & Partners	$2.95	$3.16	Neutral
Median Analyst Estimate	$3.98	$3.30
UICI Management Estimate	$4.14	$4.26

Morgan Stanley also reviewed historical quarterly earnings per share results for UICI and compared these results to publicly available consensus equity research estimates in effect as of the date immediately preceding the release of actual quarterly results. Morgan Stanley observed the following:

				Stock Price Reaction
Fiscal Quarter	Actual EPS	Consensus Estimate	Actual Vs. Estimate	1 Day	1 Week
Q1 2004	$ 0.68	$ 0.58	17.2%	+6.2%	+14.0%

Q2 2005	$ 1.11	$ 0.80	38.8%	+2.8%	+8.0%

Comparable Company Analysis. Morgan Stanley performed a comparable company analysis, which attempts to provide an implied value of a company by comparing it to similar companies. Morgan Stanley reviewed and analyzed certain public market trading multiples and financial information for the managed care companies and supplemental health and disability companies described under Relative Share Price Analysis above.

For purposes of this analysis, Morgan Stanley analyzed the following statistics of each of these companies for comparison purposes:

- the ratio of stock price as of September 13, 2005 to estimated earnings per share (EPS) for calendar 2005, estimated EPS for the next twelve months (NTM) and estimated EPS for calendar 2006;

Table of Contents

the ratio of price to NTM estimated EPS, as a multiple of estimated IBES long term earnings growth estimates and the ratio of price to calendar 2006 estimated earnings per share, as a multiple of estimated long term earnings growth; in the case of the managed care companies, the multiple of aggregate value (defined as public equity market value plus total book value of debt, total book value of preferred stock and minority interest) to 2005 estimated revenue and 2005 estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA); and in the case of the supplemental health and disability companies, the ratio of stock price as of September 13, 2005 to book value per share (as of June 30, 2005).

Morgan Stanley calculated these financial metrics and ratios based upon median EPS estimates obtained from IBES and, in the case of UICI, also upon management EPS estimates.

A summary of the reference ranges, mean and median of multiples and ratios derived by Morgan Stanley is set forth below:

	Managed Care Companies			UICI

Morgan Stanley noted that none of the companies in the Managed Care Index or the Supplemental Health and Disability Index is identical to, or directly comparable with, UICI. In particular, Morgan Stanley noted that, while the managed care companies are the closest trading comparables to UICI, they operate on substantially different scale and business models than UICI. Morgan Stanley also noted that the insurance companies that provide supplemental health and disability insurance are also relevant, but less so from a business perspective.

Table of Contents

Morgan Stanley also observed that the UICI common stock has consistently traded at a discount, on a price-to-earnings per share basis, to the comparable companies when averaged over various periods prior to September 13, 2005 as set forth below:

	Discount of UICI P/ E Ratio to
Period Ending September 13, 2005	Managed Care Index	Supplemental Health and Disability Index
2 year average	35.7%	24.0%
1 year average	38.9%	21.7%
6 month average	47.9%	25.6%
30 day average	49.4%	25.2%
Current, as of September 13, 2005	50.0%	27.2%

In addition, Morgan Stanley observed that Wall Street estimates projected a 17% decline in earnings per share for UICI in 2006 and that management s estimates, which assumed current market and competitive conditions, forecast 9.9% growth in earnings per share over the next five years.

Based on this analysis, Morgan Stanley applied a discount range of 40%-50% to the median price-to-earnings per share (P/ E) multiple for the companies in the Managed Care Index and applied a discount range of 20%-30% to the median price-to-earnings per share multiple for the companies in the Supplemental Health and Disability Index. Applying the discount, Morgan Stanley derived a multiple range of 8.7x-10.4x price-to-estimated NTM earnings per share relative to the companies in the Managed Care Index and a multiple range of 8.1x-9.2x price-to-estimated NTM earnings per share relative to the companies in the Supplemental Health and Disability Index.

Using its selected multiple ranges, Morgan Stanley calculated implied valuation ranges for UICI by applying the ranges of multiples to the applicable UICI statistic based on median earnings per share, or EPS, estimates obtained from IBES and upon UICI management estimates, as set forth below:

Managed Care Companies	UICI NTM EPS	Median P/E Ratio	Discount Range	P/E Range	Implied Valuation Range
Wall Street Estimates	$ 3.64	17.3x	40% -50%	8.7x - 10.4x	$31.49 - $37.78
Management Estimates	$ 4.20	17.3x	40% -50%	8.7x - 10.4x	$36.33 - $43.60

Supplemental Health and Disability Companies	UICI NTM EPS	Median P/E Ratio	Discount Range	P/E Range	Implied Valuation Range
Wall Street Estimates	$ 3.64	11.5x	20% - 30%	8.1x - 9.2x	$29.30 - $33.49
Management Estimates	$ 4.20	11.5x	20% - 30%	8.1x - 9.2x	$33.81 - $38.64

In addition, using assumed long-term earnings growth rates of 7.5% to 10.0%, Morgan Stanley derived implied valuation ranges for the UICI common stock as set forth below:

	UICI NTM EPS	Long-Term Growth Estimate	PE/G Range	P/E Range	Implied Valuation Range
Wall Street Estimates	$ 3.64	7.5% - 10.0%	1.00x - 1.20x	7.5x - 12.0x	$27.30 - $43.68
Management Estimates	$ 4.20	7.5% - 10.0%	1.00x - 1.20x	7.5x - 12.0x	$31.50 - $50.40

Morgan Stanley noted that, there were no published Wall Street research estimates for UICI long-term earnings per share growth, UICI management projections assumed a 9.9% earnings per share compound annual growth rate from 2005 through 2009.

Morgan Stanley noted that the merger consideration per share of UICI common stock was $37.00.

Morgan Stanley noted that no company utilized in this analysis is identical to UICI because of differences between the business mix, operations and other characteristics of UICI and the comparable companies. In evaluating the comparable companies, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of UICI, such as the impact of competition on the business of UICI and the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition and prospects of UICI or the industry or in the markets in general. Mathematical analysis (such as determining the average or median) is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable company data.

Precedent Transactions Analysis. Morgan Stanley performed a precedent transactions analysis, which is designed to imply a value of a company based on publicly available terms and premiums of selected transactions that share some of the characteristics with the merger. In connection with this analysis, Morgan Stanley compared publicly available statistics for selected transactions in the managed care sector announced during the period commencing on March 9, 1998 and ending on July 6, 2005 in which the transaction values were greater than $500 million. The following is a chart of these transactions identifying the target and acquirer, the date the transaction was announced, the nature of the consideration paid and the equity value of the transaction (calculated as described below):

			($ in millions)

For each transaction noted above, Morgan Stanley reviewed the following financial statistics, where available: (1) implied premium to stock price one-day and 30-days prior to announcement, (2) the ratio of implied equity value to last twelve months (LTM) and next twelve months (NTM) net income and (3) the ratio of implied aggregate value (defined as implied equity value plus total book value of debt, total book value of preferred stock and minority interest) to last twelve months earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA). For transactions involving consideration consisting of stock or a mix of cash and stock, Morgan Stanley calculated the value of the equity portion of the consideration to be received by the holders of target company stock based upon the price of the acquiring company s stock on the day prior to announcement of the transaction. Based on the publicly available statistics for these precedent transactions,

For each of the target companies in the transactions noted above, Morgan Stanley also reviewed (1) the median IBES long-term earnings per share growth estimates and (2) the ratio of the transaction price to estimated NTM earnings per share based on IBES estimates, as a multiple of IBES median estimated earnings per share growth (PE/G). Morgan Stanley observed that this information was not available for three of the transactions noted above. Morgan Stanley observed the following:

The following tables summarize Morgan Stanley s analysis, based on the closing price per share of UICI common stock on September 13, 2005 and 12-month volume weighted average trading price for the UICI common stock:

Stock Price Premium	Price	Median Premium	Selected Premium Range	Implied Valuation Range
Current Price	$ 31.67	16.0%	10.0% - 20.0%	$34.84 - $38.00

Morgan Stanley noted that, while there were no published Wall Street research estimates for UICI long-term earnings per share growth, UICI management projections assumed a 9.9% earnings per share compound annual growth rate from 2005 through 2009.

Morgan Stanley noted that the merger consideration per share of UICI common stock was $37.00.

Morgan Stanley noted that the merger and acquisition transaction environment varies over time because of macroeconomic factors (such as interest rate and equity market fluctuations) and microeconomic factors (such as industry results and growth expectations). Morgan Stanley noted that no company or transaction reviewed or utilized in the precedent transaction analysis was identical to UICI or the proposed merger and that, accordingly, these analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of UICI and other factors that would affect the acquisition values in the comparable transactions, including the size and demographic and economic characteristics of the markets of each company and the competitive environment in which it operates. In evaluating the precedent transactions, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to the general business, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of UICI, such as the impact of competition on the business of UICI or the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition of UICI or the industry or in the financial markets in general, which could affect the public trading value of the companies and the aggregate value of the transactions to which they are being compared. Mathematical analysis (such as determining the average or median) are not themselves meaningful methods of using comparable transaction data.

Review of Projected Financial Performance. Morgan Stanley reviewed UICI s historical revenue, pre-tax margin, net income from continuing operations and EPS for the years 2002 through 2004 and UICI management estimates of the same financial statistics for the years 2005 through 2009. Morgan Stanley noted that UICI management projected a compound annual growth rate of 9.9% per year for each of revenue, net income from continuing operations and earnings per share over the period 2005 through 2009.

Morgan Stanley compared management s estimates to a Sensitivity Case developed in September 2005 to assess the potential adverse impact of certain business, competitive and regulatory factors. Morgan Stanley utilized the Sensitivity Case to compare a potential alternative outcome to the assumptions utilized in the Management Case that might have occurred as a result of the changing regulatory environment, including the increasing costs of regulatory compliance and potential changes in the Company s competitive position based on the significant resources available to its primary competitors and the recent consolidation in the health and life insurance industries. The Sensitivity Case assumptions, which were reviewed and discussed with the management of UICI, assumed lower growth rates and margins. The net effect of the Sensitivity Case assumptions was to produce Sensitivity Case earnings per share estimates for UICI that were in line with Wall Street estimates. The following table compares UICI management s earnings per share estimates with earnings per share estimates developed under the Sensitivity Case and, in the case of years 2005 and 2006, median wall street analyst earnings per share estimates:

EPS Estimates	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009

Sensitivity Case	$ 4.14	$ 3.49	$ 3.69	$ 3.88	$ 4.10
Median Wall Street Estimates	$ 3.98	$ 3.30

In addition, Morgan Stanley reviewed UICI management s earnings estimates with the Sensitivity Case on a segment-by-segment basis, together with the implied compound annual growth rate (CAGR) for the period 2005 through 2009 (other than with respect to the Student segment, for which CAGR is provided for the period 2006 though 2009), as set forth below:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Morgan Stanley calculated ranges of implied equity values per share for UICI as of December 31, 2005 based on a discounted cash flow analysis utilizing UICI management projections for the years 2005 through 2009, extrapolations of such projections for 2010 and the sensitivity case described above. In arriving at the estimated equity values per share of UICI common stock, Morgan Stanley calculated a terminal value as of December 31, 2010 by applying a range of next twelve months earnings multiples ranging from 8.0x to 10.0x. The unlevered free cash flows from calendar years 2006 through 2010 and the terminal value were then discounted to present values using a range of discount rates from 10.0% to 15.0%. Morgan Stanley incorporated a risk premium to UICI s predicted weighted average cost of capital to take into account unique risks for UICI and the health insurance industry. Cash flows were calculated based on net cash flow at the holding company level, taking into account maximum allowable insurance company dividends and a 350% minimum risk based capital ratio.

Morgan Stanley noted that the merger consideration per share of UICI common stock was $37.00.

In connection with review of the transaction by our board of directors, Morgan Stanley performed a variety of financial and comparable analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered. Morgan Stanley believes that selecting any portion of its analyses, without considering all analyses as a whole, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis or combination of analyses described above should not be taken to be the view of Morgan Stanley with respect to the actual value of UICI or the UICI common stock. In performing its analyses, Morgan Stanley made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters. Many of these assumptions are beyond the control of UICI. Any estimates contained in Morgan Stanley s analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates.

Morgan Stanley conducted the analyses described above solely as part of its analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by holders of shares of UICI common stock (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares), pursuant to the merger agreement, and in connection with the delivery by Morgan Stanley of its opinion, dated September 15, 2005, to our board of directors. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which shares of UICI common stock might actually trade.

The merger consideration was determined through arms-length negotiations between UICI and Blackstone and was approved by UICI s board of directors. Morgan Stanley provided advice to UICI s board of directors during these negotiations but did not recommend any specific merger consideration to UICI and did not advise UICI that any specific merger consideration constituted the only appropriate merger consideration for the merger. In addition, Morgan Stanley s opinion and its presentation to UICI s board of directors was only one of the many factors taken into consideration by UICI s board of directors in deciding to approve the merger.

The foregoing summary describes the material analyses performed by Morgan Stanley but does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Morgan Stanley.

UICI s board of directors retained Morgan Stanley because it is an internationally recognized investment banking and advisory firm with a reputation for experience in the health insurance and managed care industries. Morgan Stanley, as part of its investment banking and financial advisory business, is continuously engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate, state and other purposes.

In the ordinary course of Morgan Stanley s trading and brokerage activities, Morgan Stanley or its affiliates may at any time hold long or short positions, may trade or otherwise effect transactions, for its own account or for the account of customers in the equity and other securities of UICI or any of the other parties involved in the merger or their respective affiliates, commodities or currencies.

Under the terms of its engagement letter, Morgan Stanley provided UICI financial advisory services and a fairness opinion in connection with the merger. UICI agreed to pay Morgan Stanley an advisory fee of $150,000. In addition, UICI has agreed to pay Morgan Stanley a fee of approximately $13 million for its services, less the foregoing advisory fee, one-third of which was paid upon the filing of a Form A with Oklahoma and Texas regulatory authorities, and the balance of which will become payable upon completion of the merger.

We have also agreed to reimburse Morgan Stanley for its fees and expenses incurred in performing its services and to indemnify Morgan Stanley and related persons against various liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, related to, arising out of or in connection with Morgan Stanley s engagement.

In addition, pursuant to a letter dated August 24, 2005, we consented to the participation by Morgan Stanley or any of its affiliates, effective as of September 2004, in providing or arranging, or seeking to provide or arrange, financing, including, among other things, bank or bridge loans or debt or equity financing for one or more potential bidders, which would be available to all qualified bidders, in connection with a strategic transaction of the type contemplated by Morgan Stanley s engagement letter. We further consented to Morgan Stanley s becoming a principal holder of debt or equity securities of UICI if it was acting as an underwriter in connection with such financing. Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc., an affiliate of Morgan Stanley, is a party to the commitment letter dated September 15, 2005 with respect to the senior debt financing for the merger and has agreed to act as joint lead arranger, joint bookrunner and syndication agent for the senior unsecured debt facilities contemplated thereby. If such financing is consummated, Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc. will receive fees for its services. The amount of such fees has not been determined as of the date of this document but is not expected to exceed $1.8 million. In addition, The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners, DLJ Merchant Banking Partners or their affiliates will reimburse Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc. for certain costs and expenses incurred in connection with the financing and have agreed to indemnify Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc. and its officers, directors, employees, affiliates, agents and controlling persons from and against certain liabilities and expenses. As of the date of this document, the financing anticipated to be provided by Morgan Stanley comprises approximately 30% of the total amount of the debt financing to be provided in connection with the transaction. See The Merger Agreement Financing beginning on page 75.

In the past, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have, in the ordinary course of business, provided financial advisory and financing services for The Blackstone Group, Goldman, Sachs & Co., DLJ Merchant Banking Partners and their respective affiliates and have received fees for such services.

Morgan Stanley and its affiliates may also provide financial advisory and financing services to UICI, The Blackstone Group, Goldman, Sachs & Co., DLJ Merchant Banking Partners and their respective affiliates in the future for which they may receive compensation. Morgan Stanley, its affiliates, directors or officers, including individuals working with UICI in connection with the merger, have invested in, may have committed to invest in and may commit in the future to invest in private equity funds involved in the merger or other private equity funds managed or advised by private investment firms affiliated with The Blackstone Group, Goldman, Sachs & Co. and/or DLJ Merchant Banking Partners.

Opinion of New Vernon Capital

Pursuant to an engagement letter, dated August 16, 2004, UICI retained New Vernon Capital to provide financial advisory services in connection with the Company s planning and execution of potential strategic transactions. At the meeting of the UICI board of directors on September 14, 2005, New Vernon Capital rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the $37.00 per share cash consideration to be received by the holders of shares of UICI common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares).

The full text of New Vernon Capital s written opinion, dated September 15, 2005, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by New Vernon Capital in rendering its opinion is attached as Annex D to this document. The summary of New Vernon Capital s opinion set forth in this document is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. We urge you to read the entire opinion carefully.

New Vernon Capital s opinion was directed to the board of directors of UICI, addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by holders of UICI common stock pursuant to the merger agreement (other than holders of retained shares as to such retained shares) as of the date of the opinion, and does not address any other aspect of the merger, including the relative merits of the merger as compared to other business strategies potentially available to UICI, nor does it address UICI s underlying business decision to enter into the merger agreement. New Vernon Capital s opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of UICI common stock as to how such stockholder should vote at the special meeting. In addition, New Vernon Capital s opinion does not constitute any opinion or recommendation as to whether any participant in any agent stock accumulation plan should withdraw or refrain from withdrawing shares of UICI common stock from such plan or as to whether any member of UICI senior management who was given the opportunity to receive common stock in the surviving corporation should or should not take action to cause such shares not to be converted into the merger consideration and, in any such case, should not be relied upon by any such participant or holder, respectively, as such.

In connection with rendering its opinion, New Vernon Capital, among other things:

- reviewed public financial statements of the Company for the past ten years as filed with the SEC;
- reviewed certain non-public financial information prepared by Company management, including management projections;
- participated in discussions with senior management of the Company regarding past and current operations and financial condition and the future prospects of the Company;
- participated in discussions with Company management and representatives of a select list of potential strategic merger partners;
- participated in discussions with UICI management and representatives of potential private equity partners;
- reviewed values accorded certain comparable publicly traded companies relative to the value accorded the Company s shares;

- reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain comparable acquisition transactions;
- reviewed copies of the merger agreement and the voting agreement;
- reviewed copies of the equity commitment letters from each of the equity investors, each dated September 15, 2005;
- reviewed copies of the limited guarantees from each of the equity investors, each dated September 15, 2005;
- reviewed the debt commitment letter (as defined in the merger agreement), dated September 15, 2005; and
- performed such other analyses and considered such other factors it deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, New Vernon Capital assumed and relied without independent verification on the accuracy and completeness of the information supplied or otherwise made available to it for purposes of its opinion. With respect to financial projections, New Vernon Capital assumed that the management projections were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by UICI management of the future financial performance of UICI. New Vernon Capital also assumed that, in connection with the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals for the proposed merger, no restrictions will be imposed that would have a material adverse affect on the consummation of the merger as contemplated in the merger agreement. New Vernon Capital did not make any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of UICI, nor was New Vernon Capital furnished with any such appraisals.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by New Vernon Capital in connection with its opinion.

Historical Financial Review. New Vernon Capital reviewed the financial statements of UICI for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 through December 31, 2004 and the six months ended June 30, 2004 and 2005. In order to put these results in historical perspective, New Vernon Capital also reviewed UICI s financial results for the fiscal years ended December 31, 1995 through December 31, 1999. On the basis of this review, New Vernon Capital noted that, while the last 18 months had shown significant improvement, UICI s results of operations have historically been volatile, with net income fluctuating significantly over the past five years and even more so when viewed over a ten-year period.

New Vernon noted that, from a valuation perspective, UICI s financial results provided two data points important to its analysis:

- UICI has shown significant improvement in operating results over the last 18 months. This improvement has been reflected in generally higher market prices for its common shares.
- The historic volatility of UICI s results has constrained the stock prices at which any given level of earnings has been valued in the securities markets.

Review of Financial Projections. New Vernon Capital reviewed certain non-public information prepared by UICI management, including management projections. New Vernon Capital noted that management anticipated more stable results over the next five years than the Company had experienced in prior periods. New Vernon Capital observed that this improved earnings stability, if achieved, could support a higher valuation for any given level of earnings. In this regard, however, New Vernon Capital also noted that management expected growth to slow significantly over the next two years and did not expect double digit growth levels before 2008. New Vernon Capital observed that this anticipated slower growth rate, if realized, could place downward pressure on trading prices for UICI s common shares.

Discussions with Management. New Vernon Capital engaged in extensive discussions with members of UICI senior management. These discussions focused on the past and current business operations, financial condition and prospects of UICI, as well as the strategic assessment processes the Company had undertaken. In connection with its analysis, New Vernon Capital considered:

The unique distribution capability of UICI;

The revenue opportunities afforded to UICI by its recent expansion into the small group business;

The financial risks faced by UICI resulting from its recent expansion into the small group business;

Increasing competition that UICI faced from major health insurance companies;

Increasing competitive pressures on UICI to find ways to reduce the prices UICI s insureds pay for medical services; and

The implications of the ongoing multi-state review of UICI s marketing practices being conducted by various state insurance regulatory authorities.

Based on these discussions, New Vernon Capital noted that, on balance, management was generally optimistic about the Company s ability to compete and grow profitably. However, New Vernon Capital also noted that there were substantial risks presented to the achievement of these objectives, including an acceptable resolution of the multi-state review, the profitable execution of UICI s small group strategy, the effects of competitive conditions and continued regulatory and legislative pressures on the health insurance business generally.

Comparable Company Analysis. New Vernon Capital noted that, while not directly comparable, managed care companies could be considered relevant valuation benchmarks. While New Vernon Capital considered UICI in light of other managed care companies and supplemental health and disability companies using a variety of financial metrics, New Vernon Capital did not specifically develop any implied value ranges based on these analyses because it determined that, for the reasons noted below, these companies were not truly comparable to the Company. New Vernon Capital reviewed and analyzed certain public market financial information for UICI and each of United Health Care Incorporated, WellPoint, Inc. Aetna, Inc., CIGNA Corporation, Coventry Healthcare, Inc., Humana Inc., WellChoice, Inc., Health Net, Inc. and Sierra Health Services, Inc.

In conducting this analysis, New Vernon Capital noted that, on balance, UICI s business model produced an inherently less stable book of business than most of the managed care companies it reviewed. The turnover in UICI s insureds appeared to be a result of the turnover in the self-employed market niche served. In addition, while UICI operates in many states, it is significantly smaller than other managed care companies, which places it at a disadvantage in negotiating the prices insureds pay for medical services.

In mid-September 2005, virtually all of the managed care companies were trading near their 52-week highs. While UICI s share price had more than doubled over the previous 18 months, the Company s stock had continued to trade at a significant discount to the managed care industry as measured by price-to-earnings ratios (or P/ E ratios), which New Vernon Capital believed to be an appropriately utilized valuation metric. Generally, New Vernon Capital concluded that this discount likely reflected the historical volatility of UICI s results of operations, as well as its different scale and business model when compared to companies in the managed care industry.

New Vernon Capital concluded that UICI s relative P/ E ratio at September 13, 2005 was consistent with historical P/ E ratio patterns, which New Vernon Capital determined show that the Company s common stock has typically traded at a 30% to 50% discount to the managed care industry. New Vernon Capital observed that the discount at September 13, 2005 was at the high end of the historical range, which New Vernon Capital attributed primarily to the market price increases (relative to earnings growth) enjoyed by most managed care companies over the preceding 12 months.

On an overall basis, New Vernon Capital concluded that the review of UICI s stock market trading history generally, when viewed against that of comparable companies, indicated that the stock market s consistent application of a discount multiple to UICI s stock placed significant downward pressure on the price at which the entire company could be sold.

Precedent Transaction Analysis. New Vernon Capital analyzed publicly available terms of selected transactions it determined were generally comparable to the proposed merger. New Vernon Capital reviewed the following acquisition transactions in the managed care industry for the period March 1998 through July 2005:

PacifiCare Health Systems, Inc./ UnitedHealth Group Incorporated

American Medical Security Group, Inc./ PacifiCare Health Systems, Inc.

Oxford Health Plans, Inc. / UnitedHealth Group Incorporated

Mid Atlantic Medical Services, Inc./ UnitedHealth Group Incorporated

Golden Rule Financial Corporation/ UnitedHealth Group Incorporated

WellPoint Health Networks Inc./ Anthem, Inc.

Cobalt Corporation/ WellPoint Health Networks Inc.

Trigon Healthcare, Inc./ Anthem, Inc.

RightCHOICE Managed Care, Inc./ WellPoint Health Networks Inc.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Georgia, Inc./ WellPoint Health Networks Inc.

John Alden Financial Corporation/ Fortis, Inc.

While New Vernon Capital selected these transactions as representing the most relevant transactional comparisons and reviewed relevant valuation metrics for these transactions, including prices paid relative to current earnings, projected earnings and projected growth rates and reviewed premiums paid over pre-announcement stock prices, New Vernon Capital determined that this review provided limited useful information in evaluating the proposed merger for the following reasons:

All of the comparable transactions involved a strategic buyer, rather than a financial buyer. Consequently, New Vernon Capital believed that the prices paid reflected not only the value of the earning power purchased, but also some consideration for expected synergies. New Vernon Capital believed that no synergies are available in the proposed merger;

New Vernon Capital determined that in seven of the 11 transactions reviewed over 50% of the consideration paid was stock. Given the relatively high and recently improved multiples accorded the stocks of the acquiring entities, New Vernon Capital observed that the acquirors could therefore justify a relatively high multiple for the acquired earnings; and

Even in the case of the all-cash transactions, New Vernon Capital determined that a strategic buyer would relate the price it was willing to pay to its own cost of capital, which is typically lower than the cost of capital of a financial buyer.

Merger Process. New Vernon Capital participated with UICI and Morgan Stanley in what New Vernon Capital believed was an extensive and coordinated process over an extended period that was designed to assess UICI s strategic alternatives, including the price that UICI stockholders could obtain in a strategic or financial merger.

New Vernon Capital concluded and advised the UICI board that an untargeted, publicly announced auction was not advisable because of UICI s highly specialized business, and the potentially adverse, disruptive impact that premature public disclosure of a possible transaction could have on its agency force. New Vernon Capital believed that the strategic assessment process undertaken was designed to produce a transaction that would maximize the value paid for UICI. In this regard, New Vernon Capital observed and advised the UICI board that it believed that the strategic assessment process created the dynamics necessary to maximize the value received for UICI in a sale of the Company or other strategic transaction. New Vernon Capital based this determination on the following key observations:

Given UICI s highly specialized business, New Vernon Capital noted that there were only a limited number of potential strategic partners with both the business fit and financial ability to acquire the Company. Beginning in 2004, four potential strategic partners were contacted. New Vernon Capital believed that these were the companies with the most likely strategic interest in UICI and the financial capability to execute the transaction. Each of these potential partners received extensive business and financial information regarding UICI and met with management. Indications of interest were requested by October 25, 2004. While each of the parties expressed initial interest, none of the contacted parties ultimately pursued the opportunity.

Beginning in April 2005, at the direction of management, a new process of contacting potential partners was undertaken, with an emphasis on private equity investors. Initially, three large private equity firms were contacted. Eventually, the process was expanded to include three additional large private equity firms, including The Blackstone Group.

In addition, the four strategic buyers originally contacted in the fall of 2004 were again invited to review UICI as a potential partner. Extensive discussions were held throughout the months of June and July with each of these parties. New Vernon Capital noted that no strategic buyers expressed interest in exploring a transaction with UICI. New Vernon Capital believed the lack of interest on the part of a strategic partner created a significant constraint on the ultimate price received.

From a valuation perspective, New Vernon Capital considered that virtually all potential buyers with sufficient business interest and financial capability were contacted as part of the strategic assessment process. Each of the potential partners was provided access to the information necessary to determine whether to pursue a transaction with UICI.

Consequently, New Vernon Capital concluded that the strategic assessment process created the dynamics necessary to maximize the value received for UICI in a sale of the Company or other strategic transaction.

Scope of Advice and Compensation for New Vernon Capital. The foregoing summary described the material analyses undertaken and performed by New Vernon Capital but does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, New Vernon Capital considered the results of its analyses as a whole including analyses it performed that are similar to those described on pages 44 to 52 and did not seek to assign particular weights to any particular analysis or factor considered. In performing its review and analyses, New Vernon Capital made numerous assumptions, many of which are beyond the control of UICI, related to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters.

The merger consideration was determined through arms-length negotiations between UICI and Blackstone and was approved by UICI s board of directors. New Vernon Capital provided advice to UICI s board of directors during the course of these negotiations but did not recommend any specific merger consideration to UICI and did not advise UICI that any specific merger consideration constituted the only appropriate merger consideration for the merger. New Vernon Capital s opinion and its presentation to the UICI board of directors was only one of many factors taken into consideration by UICI s board of directors in determining to approve the merger.

UICI selected New Vernon Capital as its financial advisor in connection with the proposed transaction based on the reputation of its principals and their historical relationship and familiarity with UICI and its business. New Vernon Capital is a financial services boutique that provides financial and investment advisory services to small and mid-size corporations, family investment offices and high net worth individuals. The two senior principals of New Vernon Capital have a combined 50 years of experience in the investment banking and securities brokerage business. Prior to forming New Vernon Capital, they were both executive officers of a large U.S. investment bank. New Vernon currently manages a number of equity-oriented hedge funds with total assets in excess of $800 million.

Under the terms of its engagement letter, New Vernon Capital provided UICI financial advisory services and a fairness opinion in connection with the merger. UICI agreed to pay New Vernon Capital an advisory fee of $100,000. In addition, UICI has agreed to pay New Vernon Capital a fee of approximately $8.6 million for its services, less the foregoing advisory fee, one-third of which was paid upon the filing of a Form A with Oklahoma and Texas regulatory authorities, and the balance of which will become payable upon completion of the merger.

UICI has also agreed to reimburse New Vernon Capital for its fees and expenses incurred in performing its services and to indemnify New Vernon Capital and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, related to, arising out of or in connection with New Vernon Capital s engagement.

In the ordinary course of its business, an insurance subsidiary of UICI has invested $10 million as a limited partner in an $800 million investment fund, of which an affiliate of New Vernon Capital is the general partner and serves as investment manager. New Vernon Capital and its affiliates may in the future provide financial advisory services to UICI, The Blackstone Group, Goldman, Sachs & Co., DLJ Merchant Banking Partners and their respective affiliates, for which it may receive compensation.

Financial Projections

We do not as a matter of course make public projections as to our future performance or earnings. However, in connection with the discussions concerning the merger, we furnished to Blackstone certain financial forecasts prepared by our management that were based upon our expected performance through 2009. The forecasts included (1) revenue projections for fiscal years 2005 through 2009 of $2,187 million, $2,286 million, $2,506 million $2,813 million and $3,191 million, respectively and (2) projections of operating income from continuing operations of $196 million, $202 million, $216 million, $249 million and $285 million, respectively, over the same periods.

Important Information about the Projections. The projections referred to above were not prepared with a view to public disclosure and are included in this document only because this information was made available to Blackstone. The projections were not prepared with a view to compliance with published guidelines of the SEC or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants regarding projections or forecasts. Neither our independent auditor, nor any other independent accountant has compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the projections. The projections represented our management s best estimates as of July 5, 2005, and do not reflect events after that date. While presented with numeric specificity, the projections reflect numerous assumptions made by our management with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions, including assumed effective interest rates and effective tax rates consistent with historical levels for us, all of which are difficult to predict, many of which are beyond our control and none of which was subject to approval by Blackstone. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the assumptions made in preparing the projections will prove accurate. Except to the extent required under applicable laws, we do not intend to make publicly available any update or other revisions to the projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date of the preparation of the projections. See Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 26.

Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors to vote for the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, you should be aware that members of our board of directors and certain of our executive officers have agreements or arrangements that provide them with interests in the merger that are different from or in addition to the interests of our stockholders. Our board of directors specifically reviewed these interests during deliberations with respect to the merger and in deciding to recommend that you vote for the adoption of the merger agreement.

For a discussion of the ownership of our capital stock and options by our directors and executive officers, see Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management of the Company beginning on page 84.

Employment Agreements

Under the terms of employment commitment agreements requested by and negotiated with The Blackstone Group after the key terms of the merger were agreed upon, if the merger is completed, Timothy L. Cook, William J. Gedwed, Mark D. Hauptman, Troy A. McQuagge, Phillip Myhra, James N. Plato and William Truxal (which we refer to as the continuing executives) will continue to serve in each of their respective positions and will receive an annual base salary in an amount not less than their respective base salary immediately before the merger. Each of the continuing executives will be eligible for an annual bonus ranging from a target of 50% to 100% of annual base salary and a maximum of 75% to 200% of annual base salary, as the case may be. Each of the continuing executives will also be entitled to new equity award grants and participation in employee benefit plans and (other than Mr. Cook) has agreed to retain all or a portion of his respective UICI equity and equity-based awards.

In addition, under the terms of their employment commitment agreements, the continuing executives are entitled to severance payments in the event of their termination of employment in certain specified circumstances. The continuing executives would be entitled to receive severance equal to two times the executive s base salary plus target bonus payable in monthly installments, continuation of welfare benefits for two years, as well as a pro-rata bonus, based on the executive s target bonus, if such termination occurs after the last day of the first quarter of the applicable fiscal year. The parties are finalizing employment agreements providing for the foregoing, as well as full change-of-control parachute excise tax gross up protection on all payments and benefits due to the executive, including such payments and benefits due to the executive in connection with the merger; provided, however, that following a change of control of UICI (other than the merger), the surviving corporation will be entitled to reduce the executive s payments (but not by more than 10%) if the reduction would allow the avoidance of the imposition of any excise tax associated with the change of control. In addition, each of the executive officers has agreed to two-year post-termination non-competition and non-solicitation covenants.

Glenn W. Reed, our Executive Vice President and General Counsel, is in discussions with the Company with respect to his employment with the surviving corporation following completion of the merger. Based on these discussions, Mr. Reed may invest all or a portion of the cash payment (subject to any applicable withholding taxes) he receives in connection with the vesting and cancellation of his outstanding options to purchase shares of UICI granted under our benefit plans.

Certain Other Employees

Under the terms of their employment commitment agreements, if the merger is completed, certain UICI employees other than Messrs. Cook, Gedwed, Hauptman, McQuagge, Myhra, Plato and Truxal, including members of our senior management team, will continue to serve in their respective positions and will receive an annual base salary, which will not be less than the employee s base salary immediately before the merger. These employees will be eligible for an annual bonus ranging from a target of 35% to 50% of annual base salary and a maximum of 65% to 100% of annual base salary, as the case may be. Furthermore, these employees will also be entitled to receive new equity award grants and participate in employee benefit plans.

Upon termination of employment in certain specified circumstances, these employees are entitled to receive severance payments equal to one or two times the employee s base salary plus target bonus payable in monthly installments, depending upon the employee s particular position with the surviving corporation; continuation of welfare benefits for one or two years, depending upon the employee s particular position with the surviving corporation; as well as a pro-rata bonus, based on his or her target bonus, if such termination occurs after the last day of the first quarter of the applicable fiscal year. The parties are finalizing employment agreements providing for the foregoing, as well as full change of control parachute excise tax gross up protection on all payments and benefits due to the employee, including such payments and benefits due to the employee in connection with the merger; provided, however, that following a change of control of UICI (other than the merger), the surviving corporation will be entitled to reduce the executive s payments (but not by more than 10%) if the reduction would allow the avoidance of the imposition of any excise tax associated with the change of control. Further, each of these employees has agreed to one or two-year post-termination non-competition and non-solicitation covenants, the duration of which coincides with the term during which they will be entitled to receive severance payments.

UICI Success Bonus Award Plan

On September 14, 2005, our board of directors adopted the UICI Success Bonus Award Plan as an employee incentive and retention program to help retain and provide an incentive to employees (including executive officers) who are key to a successful completion of the merger.

Under the terms of the UICI Success Bonus Award Plan, a participant will be entitled to receive his or her award if the participant continues to be employed by us or any of our subsidiaries through the date of completion of any transaction resulting in a change of control of UICI (including the merger). If a participant ceases to be employed before that date, he or she will not be entitled to an award, unless the Compensation Committee determines otherwise. If the merger (or another transaction that would qualify as a change of control under the plan) is not completed before June 30, 2006, participants will not be entitled to receive awards under the plan.

Awards under the UICI Success Bonus Award Plan will be payable 60% on the date of completion of any transaction resulting in a change of control of UICI (including the merger) and the remaining 40% will be payable on a date that is not later than 180 days following completion of any transaction resulting in a change of control of UICI (including the merger). If a participant s employment is terminated as a result of his or her death or disability, the participant or his or her designated beneficiary will be entitled to receive 75% of the amounts to which the participant otherwise would have been entitled. The continuing executives collectively are eligible to receive 73% of the bonus pool, or approximately $14.7 million, of which approximately $12.4 million has been allocated as described below.

The total pool available for award to participants under the plan is estimated to be $20.3 million. In accordance with the terms of the plan, on November 1, 2005 the Committee designated participants in the plan and awarded success bonuses to be paid to such participants at the times and in the manner as prescribed by the plan. Designated participants under the plan included William J. Gedwed, Glenn W. Reed, Phillip J. Myhra, Troy A. McQuagge and William J. Truxal, who were allocated success bonuses in the amounts of $2,026,490, $2,533,113, $3,378,160, $3,378,160 and $1,126,728, respectively. The remaining portion of the pool (approximately $7.8 million) was allocated among seven additional designated participants. Certain of these plan participants have advised us that they intend to invest all or a portion of their success bonus award in the surviving corporation in exchange for class A-1 common stock.

UICI Director and Employee Stock Options and Restricted Shares

Immediately before the completion of the merger, each outstanding option to purchase shares of UICI common stock granted under our benefit plans will become fully vested, and except with respect to those options that will be retained by certain continuing executives, each option will be cancelled and converted into a right to receive a payment from the surviving corporation (subject to any applicable withholding taxes) equal to the difference between $37.00 and the exercise price for the option multiplied by the number of shares subject to such option, to the extent the difference is a positive number. As of the record date for the special meeting, the aggregate number of shares of stock subject to unvested stock options held by the continuing executives as a group and our non-employee directors as a group is approximately 447,030 and 5,351, respectively, and the number of such shares of stock subject to unvested stock options that will be in-the-money (i.e., the merger consideration will exceed the applicable exercise price per share of the stock option) is approximately 447,030 and 5,351. The weighted average exercise prices of these 447,030 and 5,351 options are approximately $26.43 and $14.05, respectively.

Immediately before the completion of the merger, the forfeiture provisions of each then outstanding restricted share issued under our employee benefit plans will lapse. At the completion of the merger, each holder of restricted shares will be treated as a holder of the corresponding number of shares of common stock and in the same manner as other outstanding common shares issued and outstanding immediately before the merger was completed, except with respect to those shares that will be retained by certain members of senior management described above. As of the record date for the special meeting, the aggregate number of restricted shares held by our continuing executives and our non-employee directors as a group is approximately 12,000 and -0-, respectively.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification of the directors, officers, employees, fiduciaries and agents of us and our subsidiaries than those set forth in our current bylaws. For a period of six years following the effective time of the merger, the indemnification provisions in the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not be amended or repealed in any manner adverse to persons entitled to rights under those provisions on or before the effective time of the merger.

The surviving corporation has also agreed to indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and to the extent required by our certificate of incorporation and bylaws and any contract in effect as of the date of the merger agreement, each present and former director and officer of UICI and each of our subsidiaries, against all expenses, losses and liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, proceeding or investigation arising out of any action or failure to take action by such person in their capacity as a director or officer of UICI or any of our subsidiaries occurring at or before the effective time of the merger.

The merger agreement also requires the surviving corporation to either:

obtain tail directors and officers indemnification insurance policies in an amount and a scope at least as favorable as our existing policies and with a claims period of at least six years from the effective time of the merger for claims arising from facts or events that occurred at or before the effective time of the merger; or maintain in effect, for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, our current directors and officers liability insurance policies with respect to matters occurring before the effective time of the merger or substitute policies of at least the same coverage and amount and containing terms and conditions no less advantageous to the officers and directors than our existing policies, subject to a maximum annual premium of 200% of our current premium. If the annual premium of insurance coverage exceeds 200% of our current annual premium, the surviving corporation is required to obtain a directors and officers indemnification policy with the greatest coverage available at an annual premium equal to 200% of our current annual premium.

The director and officer indemnification and insurance obligations described above must be assumed by a successor entity to the surviving corporation as result of any consolidation, merger or transfer of 50% or more of its properties or assets.

Composition of the Board of Directors and Executive Management of the Surviving Corporation

Board of Directors

We expect that the board of directors of the surviving corporation immediately after completion of the merger will consist of the individuals set forth below. In addition, we expect that up to three additional directors may be elected to the board of directors to the extent we deem them necessary or advisable. Delaware law permits the certificate of incorporation to confer voting powers on some directors that are greater than or less than voting powers of other directors. Pursuant to the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation (the form of which is attached as Annex B to this document) and the stockholders agreement (the form of which is attached as Exhibit 4.1 to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/ prospectus is a part), immediately following the merger, Messrs. Chu and Kabaker (the designees of The Blackstone Group), are expected to hold a majority of the total number of votes conferred upon all directors.

Mr. Chu received a BS in Finance from the University of Buffalo, where he graduated summa cum laude. Mr. Salame received a JD from Columbia Law School, an MBA from Columbia Business School and a BS from Georgetown University.

Executive Officers

The merger agreement provides that the officers of UICI immediately before the effective time will be the officers of the surviving corporation immediately after the effective time. We expect that UICI s current executive officers generally will continue to hold such offices in the surviving corporation immediately before the effective time and will be the executive officers of the surviving corporation immediately following the merger. See Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger Employment Agreements beginning on page 60. You can find information about our current executive officers in UICI s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 and UICI s proxy statement for its 2005 annual meeting of stockholders. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 109.

Voting and Non-Compete Agreements

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, certain stockholders who are members of the family of the late Ronald L. Jensen (our founder and former Chairman of the Board) entered into a voting agreement, dated as of September 15, 2005, with the Merger Cos. Pursuant to the voting agreement, those persons and their permitted transferees have agreed, among other things, to vote their UICI common shares in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, against a competing proposal and against any action intended to result in any condition to the closing of the merger not being fulfilled. The stockholders who are parties to the voting agreement and their permitted transferees who agreed to be bound by the terms of the voting agreement beneficially own approximately 28% of our outstanding common shares. The voting agreement terminates upon the occurrence of certain events, including if the merger agreement is terminated.

These stockholders also executed agreements with UICI, dated September 15, 2005 and effective upon completion of the merger, which provide that each stockholder will not compete with UICI in North America or solicit any employee or exclusive consultant or independent contractor of UICI for a period of three years from the effective time of the merger, subject to the terms thereof. The voting agreement and the non-compete agreements are filed as Exhibits 99.1 and 10.1 through 10.6, respectively, to the Form 8-K filed by UICI on September 20, 2005 and are incorporated by reference into this document.

Governmental and Regulatory Approvals

We and the other parties to the merger agreement have agreed to use our reasonable best efforts to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as promptly as practicable, including obtaining all necessary actions or non-actions, waivers, consents, clearances and approvals from governmental entities and making all necessary registrations and filings and taking all steps as may be necessary to obtain these approvals. The completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement depends upon the receipt of insurance regulatory approvals in the states of Texas and Oklahoma and in Turks and Caicos, and upon the expiration or early termination of all waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (which we refer to as the HSR Act).

The merger cannot proceed in the absence of the requisite regulatory approvals. We cannot assure you whether or when the requisite regulatory approvals will be obtained, and, if obtained, we cannot assure you of the date of receipt of any of these approvals, the absence of any litigation challenging them or the conditions that such approvals might include. There can likewise be no assurance that U.S. federal or state or foreign regulatory authorities will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds or for other reasons, or, if such a challenge is made, as to the result thereof. We are not aware of any other material governmental approvals or actions that are required before the parties completion of the merger other than those described above. The filing of these applications and notices has been, or will promptly be, completed. While we believe that the requisite regulatory approvals for the merger will be received, there can be no assurances when or if they will be obtained, whether the regulatory approvals will contain satisfactory terms or whether there will be litigation challenging these approvals.

Insurance Regulatory Authorities

The insurance laws and regulations of all 50 U.S. states and the District of Columbia generally require that, before the acquisition of an insurance company, either through the acquisition of or merger with the insurance company or a holding company of that insurance company, domiciled in that jurisdiction, the acquiring company must obtain the approval of the insurance commissioner of that jurisdiction. In connection with this state approval process, the necessary applications have been made with the insurance commissioners of Oklahoma and Texas, the domiciliary states of UICI s U.S. insurance company subsidiaries.

In addition, the insurance laws and regulations of certain U.S. states require that, before an acquisition of an insurance company doing business in that state or licensed by that state (or the acquisition of its holding company), a notice filing disclosing certain market share data in the applicable jurisdiction must be made and an applicable waiting period must expire or be terminated. These filings have been or will be made as necessary. Furthermore, applications or notifications have been or will be filed with one or more foreign regulatory authorities in connection with the changes in control that may be deemed to occur as a result of the merger.

Although we do not expect these regulatory authorities to raise any significant concerns in connection with their review of the merger, there is no assurance that we will obtain all required regulatory approvals, or that those approvals will not include terms, conditions or restrictions that may have an adverse effect on UICI.

Other than the filings described above, we are not aware of any regulatory approvals to be obtained, or waiting periods to expire, to complete the merger. If the parties discover that other approvals or waiting periods are necessary, they will seek to obtain or comply with them. If any approval or action is needed, however, we may not be able to obtain it or any of the other necessary approvals. Even if we could obtain all necessary approvals, and the merger agreement is approved by the UICI stockholders, conditions may be placed on the merger that could cause us to abandon it.

U.S. Antitrust Authorities

The transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to the requirements of the HSR Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, which provide that certain acquisition transactions may not be completed until specified information has been furnished to the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (Antitrust Division) and the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC), and until certain waiting periods have been terminated or expired. The HSR Act provides for an initial 30 calendar day waiting period following the necessary filings by the parties to the merger. The Notification and Report Forms were filed with the FTC and the Antitrust Division on November 2, 2005. On November 14, 2005 the FTC granted early termination of the waiting periods applicable to the merger.

At any time before or after the merger is completed, the FTC, the DOJ or others, including state attorneys general and state insurance regulatory authorities could take action under the antitrust laws with respect to the merger as deemed necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the completion of the merger, to rescind the merger or to approve the merger conditionally upon the divestiture of certain assets or business. Private parties also may seek to take legal action under the antitrust laws under certain circumstances. As in any transaction, we cannot assure you that an antitrust challenge to the merger will not be made and, if such a challenge is made, we cannot predict the result.

Appraisal Rights

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, record holders of shares of our common stock are entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger and to receive, in lieu of the merger consideration, payment in cash for the fair value of their common stock of the Company as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery. The appraised value of the shares will not include any value arising from the merger.

The following summary of the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL is not a complete statement of the provisions of that section and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 262 of the DGCL, a copy of which is attached to this document as Annex E and is incorporated into this summary by reference.

Under Section 262, we are required to notify each of our stockholders entitled to appraisal rights that appraisal rights are available at least 20 days before the meeting of stockholders. This document constitutes our notice to holders of our common stock of their right to exercise appraisal rights. Failure to comply with the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL in a timely and proper manner will result in the loss of appraisal rights.

A vote against the adoption of the merger agreement or an abstention will not constitute a demand for appraisal. Holders of our common stock wishing to exercise the right to dissent from the merger and seek an appraisal of their shares must take the following actions:

- not vote in favor of the merger agreement, or vote against the merger agreement proposal or abstain if voting by proxy;

- file written notice with us of an intention to exercise rights of appraisal of their shares before the special meeting; and

- follow the procedures set forth in Section 262.

Voting for the adoption of the merger agreement will constitute a waiver of your appraisal rights. A stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights under Section 262 should mail or deliver a written demand to: UICI, Attention: Corporate Secretary, 9151 Grapevine Highway, North Richland Hills, Texas 76180-5605.

The shares of our common stock with respect to which holders have perfected their appraisal rights in accordance with Section 262 and have not effectively withdrawn or lost their appraisal rights are referred to in this document as the dissenting shares.

Table of Contents

Within ten days after the effective date of the merger, the surviving corporation must mail a notice to all stockholders who filed a written notice of their intention to exercise appraisal rights in compliance with Section 262 notifying those stockholders of the effective date of the merger. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, holders of dissenting shares may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery for the appraisal of their shares, although they may, within 60 days after the effective date, withdraw their demand for appraisal. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, the holders of dissenting shares may also, upon written request, receive from the surviving corporation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received.

Appraisal rights are available only to the record holders of shares. If you wish to exercise appraisal rights but have a beneficial interest in shares held of record by or in the name of another person, such as a broker, bank or nominee, you should act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 to perfect your appraisal rights.

Dissenting shares lose their status as dissenting shares if:

- the merger is abandoned;
- the stockholder fails to make a timely written demand for appraisal;
- neither the Company nor the stockholder files a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock within 120 days after the effective date of merger; or
- the stockholder delivers to us, within 60 days after the effective date of the merger, or thereafter with our approval, a written withdrawal of the stockholder s demand for appraisal of the dissenting shares, although no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery may be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the court.

Failure to follow the procedures required by Section 262 of the DGCL for perfecting appraisal rights is likely to result in the loss of appraisal rights. If a holder of dissenting shares withdraws its demand for appraisal or has its appraisal rights terminated as described above, such holder will only be entitled to receive the merger consideration for those shares pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

If you hold your shares of the Company s common stock in a brokerage account or in other nominee form and you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you should consult with your broker or the other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by the nominee.

Accounting Treatment

For financial reporting purposes, the merger will be accounted for as a leveraged recapitalization, pursuant to which the historical bases of UICI s assets and liabilities will be preserved following the merger.

Litigation Concerning the Merger

Beginning on September 15, 2005, the Company and individual members of its board of directors were named as defendants in a number of purported class action suits filed in state court in Dallas County, Texas, Tarrant County, Texas and Oklahoma County, Oklahoma alleging breach of fiduciary duty in connection with the proposed acquisition of the Company by affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners. Plaintiffs in certain of the actions have also named The Blackstone Group as a defendant, alleging that it aided and abetted the UICI directors purported breach of fiduciary duty. The petitions generally challenge the price to be paid in the proposed transaction, the expected participation of current UICI management, employees and agents in the proposed transaction and the process leading up to the transaction. The petitions generally seek unspecified compensatory monetary damages and injunctive relief to enjoin the transaction as well as attorney s fees.

All of the cases initially filed in Dallas County, Texas have been consolidated for all purposes in the matter In re: UICI Shareholders Litigation, pending in the District Court of Dallas County, Texas, 101st Judicial District, as Case No. 05-09693. One case initially filed in Tarrant County, Texas (Bauer v. William J. Gedwed, filed in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, 236th Judicial District, Case No. 236-21443-05) was voluntarily dismissed in Tarrant Count, Texas, re-filed in Dallas County, Texas, and consolidated with the In re: UICI Shareholders Litigation matter pending in Dallas County, Texas. The cases filed in Oklahoma County, Oklahoma have been consolidated for all purposes in the matter Scott v. UICI, et. al., pending in the District Court of Oklahoma County, State of Oklahoma, Case No. CJ-2005-7731. This Oklahoma consolidated action has been stayed by agreement of the parties. Plaintiffs in a pending shareholder derivative action (In re: UICI Derivative Litigation, in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, 352nd Judicial District, Lead Cause No. 352-206106-04) filed an amended petition asserting similar claims to those asserted in In re: UICI Shareholders Litigation. Those claims have been severed from the derivative claims and are stayed.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a general discussion of certain material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of our common stock. We base this summary on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to herein as the Code, applicable current and proposed Treasury Regulations, judicial authority, and administrative rulings and practice, all of which are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis.

General

For purposes of this discussion, we use the term U.S. holder to mean a beneficial owner of our common stock who or that is:

- a citizen or resident of the United States for federal income tax purposes;
- a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation for federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States or any state or the District of Columbia;
- a trust if it (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable United States Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person; or
- an estate, the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source.

If a partnership holds shares of our common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will depend on the status of the partners and the activities of the partnership. If a U.S. holder is a partner in a partnership holding our common stock, the U.S. holder should consult its tax advisors.

This discussion assumes that you hold the shares of our common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This discussion does not address all aspects of United States federal income tax laws that may be relevant to you in light of your personal investment circumstances, nor does it address your tax consequences if you are subject to special treatment under United States federal income tax law (including, for example, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, mutual funds or stockholders who acquired their shares of our common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or other compensation arrangements or through our employee stock purchase plan) or stockholders who receive cash in the merger and also will actually or constructively own shares of class A-1 or class A-2 common stock after the merger. In addition, this discussion does not address any tax considerations under state, local or foreign laws or United States federal laws other than those pertaining to United States federal income taxes that may apply to you. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor to determine the tax consequences to you, including the impact of any state, local or foreign income or other tax laws, of the receipt of cash in exchange for our common stock pursuant to the merger or of the receipt of shares of class A-1 common stock of the surviving corporation (if you are a member of senior management who has elected to retain equity in the surviving corporation) or shares of class A-2 common stock (if you are an independent insurance agent who holds shares through the agent stock accumulation plans).

The receipt of cash in the merger by U.S. holders of our common stock will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. Generally, for United States federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder of our common stock who receives cash merger consideration will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between:

- the amount of cash received in exchange for such common stock; and
- the U.S. holder s adjusted tax basis in such common stock.

If the holding period in our common stock surrendered in the merger is greater than one year as of the date of the merger, the gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss. The deductibility of a capital loss recognized in the merger is subject to limitations under the Code. Certain U.S. holders, including individuals, are eligible for preferential rates of United States federal income tax in respect of long-term capital gains. If you acquired different blocks of our common stock at different times and different prices, you must determine your adjusted tax basis and holding period separately with respect to each block of common stock.

Under the Code, you may be subject to information reporting on the cash received in the merger. Backup withholding will also apply with respect to the amount of cash received in the merger unless you provide proof of an applicable exemption or a correct taxpayer identification number, and otherwise comply with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or credited against your United States federal income tax liability, if any, provided that you furnish the required information to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner.

Tax Impact on Holders of our Common Stock Through Stock Accumulation Plans and Members of Senior Management Electing to Retain Equity Ownership into the Surviving Corporation

The receipt of (or reclassification of shares of UICI common stock as) shares of class A-1 or class A-2 common stock of the surviving corporation should not be a taxable transaction. In general, for United States federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder of our common stock whose shares are converted or reclassified will not recognize gain or loss and will retain the same basis and holding period in the class A-1 or class A-2 shares as they had in their shares of our common stock.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following discussion summarizes material provisions of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this document and is incorporated herein by reference. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms and conditions of the merger agreement and not by this summary or any other information contained in this document. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as well as this document, before making any decisions regarding the merger.

On September 15, 2005, UICI entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, which we refer to herein as the merger agreement, with Premium Finance LLC, which we refer to herein as SibCo 1, Mulberry Finance Co., Inc., DLJMB IV First Merger LLC, Premium Acquisition, Inc., Mulberry Acquisition, Inc. and DLJMB IV First Merger Co Acquisition Inc.

Form and Effective Time of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, at the effective time of the merger, Premium Acquisition, Inc., Mulberry Acquisition, Inc. and DLJMB IV First Merger Co Acquisition Inc., which we refer to collectively herein as the Merger Cos, will merge with and into UICI. At the effective time of the merger, the separate corporate existence of each Merger Co will cease and UICI will continue its corporate existence under Delaware law as the surviving corporation in the merger.

The merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as may be agreed upon by SibCo 1 and UICI and as specified in the certificate of merger.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

Each share of our common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time of the merger (other than shares of our common stock held by certain members of our senior management, insurance agents pursuant to agent stock accumulation plans and dissenting stockholders) will be converted into the right to receive $37.00 in cash, without interest. If the merger is completed, certain shares of our common stock held by the members of our senior management who have executed employment commitment agreements (which shares comprised less than 1% of our outstanding shares as of the record date of the special meeting) will be retained by those members of our senior management and will remain outstanding, but will be renamed class A-1 common stock of the surviving corporation. Shares of UICI common stock held pursuant to UICI agent stock accumulation plans at the time of the merger by independent insurance agents associated with the UGA-Association Field Services or Cornerstone America marketing divisions of UICI will be exchanged on a share-for-share basis for shares of class A-2 common stock of the surviving corporation. Shares held in these agent stock accumulation plans comprised approximately 6.9% of our outstanding shares as of the record date of the special meeting. See Description of Capital Stock of the Surviving Corporation beginning on page 98.

You have the right to dissent from the merger and seek appraisal of your shares. In order to assert appraisal rights, you must comply with the requirements of Delaware law as described under The Merger Appraisal Rights beginning on page 65.

Procedure for Exchange of Certificates

At the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation in the merger will deposit with a bank or trust company appointed by SibCo 1 and reasonably acceptable to UICI (which we refer to herein as the paying agent) cash in an amount sufficient to pay the aggregate cash consideration and certificates representing the shares of the new class A-1 common stock and class A-2 common stock issuable at the effective time of the merger, in each case in exchange for the surrender of certificates formerly representing UICI common stock.

As soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation will instruct the paying agent to mail to each UICI stockholder of record a letter of transmittal specifying, among other things, instructions for effecting the surrender of stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. Upon the proper surrender of UICI stock certificates, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, the holder of such stock certificate will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor either (i) with respect to UICI common stock other than management and agent shares to be rolled over, the cash consideration in the amount (after giving effect to any required tax withholdings) that such holder has the right to receive or (ii) with respect to the agent shares to be rolled over, a book-entry account statement reflecting ownership of (or, if requested, a stock certificate representing) that number of shares of new common stock into which their shares of UICI common stock are converted in accordance with terms of the merger agreement. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash amount payable upon due surrender of stock certificates.

Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Shares and Share Credits

Each outstanding option to purchase UICI common stock pursuant to Company employee benefit plans will become fully vested and exercisable and, except for options rolled over by certain members of our senior management who have executed employment commitment agreements, the holder of such option will receive an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the difference between $37.00 and the exercise price per share, to the extent such difference is a positive number (with the aggregate amount rounded up to the nearest whole cent). Each outstanding and unexercised UICI stock option that is not retained by senior management will be canceled or cashed out and the holders thereof will have no further rights.

Immediately before the effective time, all forfeiture provisions applicable to restricted shares issued pursuant to UICI s employee benefit plans (or under any individual agreement with an employee or current or former director) will lapse to the extent such forfeiture provisions have not previously lapsed in accordance with the terms of the plans (or the terms of any individual agreement). Each holder of restricted shares will be treated as a holder of the corresponding number of shares of common stock at the effective time in the same manner as other outstanding common shares issued and outstanding immediately before the effective time.

Each holder of each awarded and allocated share equivalent credit outstanding as of the effective time pursuant to the terms of UICI s phantom share plans will receive at such time as such award would have become fully vested and nonforfeitable pursuant to the terms of the applicable phantom share plans as in effect as of the date of the merger agreement, an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the number of shares subject to such awards held by such holder multiplied by $37.00 per share. To the extent we have not previously done so, as applicable, immediately before the effective time, we will reallocate all forfeiture credits to participants who remain in the phantom share plans on a pro rata basis, as provided for under the terms of such phantom share plans.

Directors and Executive Officers of UICI Post-Closing

The directors of the Merger Cos at the effective time of the merger will be the directors of the surviving corporation until their successors have been duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal. The officers of the surviving corporation at the effective time of the merger will be the officers of the surviving corporation until their successors have been duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal.

Dropdown and Assignment of Rights under Debt Financing

Before the effective time of the merger, we will form a wholly-owned limited liability company, which will concurrently with or immediately after the effective time of the merger assume all of our assets and liabilities that may be transferred by us without obtaining consents or authorizations from any third party or governmental entity. At the effective time of the merger, each SibCo will assign to this new limited liability company any and all of their rights and obligations pursuant to the debt financing described under Financing below.

Reasonable Best Efforts; Other Covenants

Each of UICI, the SibCos and the Merger Cos will use its reasonable best efforts to:

take all actions necessary, proper or advisable to ensure that the conditions set forth in the merger agreement are satisfied and to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby as promptly as practicable;

obtain all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents and approvals from governmental entities and make all necessary registrations and filings and take all steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any governmental entity, including making, as promptly as practicable, an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act and not extending any waiting period thereunder or entering into any agreement with the Antitrust Division or the FTC not to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, except with the prior written consent of the other parties to the merger agreement (which consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); obtain all consents, approvals or waivers from, or taking other actions with respect to, third parties necessary or advisable to be obtained or taken in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; provided that without the prior written consent of SibCo 1 (which consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), neither UICI nor any of our subsidiaries may pay or commit to pay any amount of cash or other consideration, or incur or commit to incur any liability or obligation, in connection with obtaining such consent, approval or waiver;

subject to first having used reasonable best efforts to negotiate a resolution of any objections underlying such lawsuits or other legal proceedings, defend and contest any lawsuits or other legal proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging the merger agreement or the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including seeking to have any stay or temporary restraining order entered by any governmental entity vacated or reversed; and execute and deliver any additional instruments necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by, and to fully carry out the purposes of, the merger agreement.

The SibCos, the Merger Cos and the Company will cooperate and consult with each other in connection with the making of all such filings, notifications and any other material actions described above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no party will be required to, and we may not, without the prior written consent of SibCo 1, become subject, consent or agree to, or otherwise take any action with respect to, any requirement, condition, understanding, agreement or order to sell, to hold separate or otherwise dispose of, or to conduct, restrict, operate, invest or otherwise change our assets or business or the assets or business of any of our affiliates in any manner which, individually or in the aggregate with all other such requirements, conditions, understandings, agreements and orders, is materially adverse to us and our affiliates, taken as a whole, whether before or after giving effect to the merger, or requires any change in the conduct of the business of us and our affiliates, in any material respect, as presently conducted, which we refer to herein as a Burdensome Condition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we will, upon request of SibCo 1, become subject, consent or agree to or otherwise take any action with respect to, any requirement, condition, understanding, agreement or order to sell, to hold separate or otherwise dispose of, or to conduct, restrict, operate, invest or otherwise change the assets or business of us or any of our affiliates, so long as such requirement, condition, understanding, agreement or order is binding on us only in the event that the merger is consummated.

Financing

In connection with the merger, up to approximately $1.76 billion in cash will be paid to our stockholders and holders of stock options. These payments are expected to be funded by a combination of (i) equity contributions to the surviving corporation of up to $785 million, $250 million and $125 million by affiliates of The Blackstone Group, affiliates of Goldman Sachs Capital Partners, and affiliates of DLJ Merchant Banking Partners, respectively, (ii) debt financing in the amount of up to $600 million, and (iii) preferred stock financing in an amount up to $100 million, provided that the total debt and preferred stock financing will not exceed an aggregate of $600 million.

In connection with the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners obtained a commitment letter from JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P. and Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc. providing for up to $600 million in debt financing.

The lenders commitment is conditioned upon the following:

- the merger being consummated no later than June 15, 2006 in accordance with the merger agreement;

- the absence of certain events which are substantially similar to the events constituting a Company Material Adverse Effect that are described in Conditions to Completion of the Merger below;

- after giving effect to the merger and related transactions, UICI and our subsidiaries shall not have outstanding material indebtedness or preferred stock other than (i) the debt financing pursuant to the commitment letter, (ii) the preferred stock of the surviving corporation (as described below), (iii) up to $150.0 million of indebtedness outstanding under certain secured student loan credit facilities, (iv) up to $15.5 million aggregate insurance amount of floating rate trust preferred securities with an aggregate liquidation value of up to $15.0 million issued by a Delaware statutory business trust (and the notes issued by UICI that are related thereto), and (v) other limited indebtedness in an amount up to $5.0 million or such larger amount as may be agreed by the agent of the debt financing;

- the receipt by the lenders of a solvency certificate from an officer of the borrower under the debt financing;

- the continued financial strength ratings of UICI subsidiaries, The MEGA Life and Health Insurance Company, the Mid-West National Life Insurance Company of Tennessee and The Chesapeake Life Insurance Company; and

- other customary conditions.

The lenders have the right to terminate the commitment if the merger agreement may be terminated as a result of a breach of certain representations and warranties made by UICI.

The commitment letter provides that the commitment parties will participate in the financing in the following percentages:

JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.	60%
Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc.	30%
Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P.	10%

In addition, affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners may elect to have the Company finance a portion of the merger consideration with the proceeds of a preferred stock offering(s) by UICI of up to $100 million in aggregate liquidation value, including preferred stock offered pursuant to an underwriting commitment letter from J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. This commitment is subject to certain conditions that are substantially similar to the conditions to the debt financing commitment described above and certain other conditions, which include the following:

- the surviving corporation having furnished such information as requested by J.P. Morgan, and having otherwise cooperated with J.P. Morgan, to facilitate the preparation of an offering memorandum or a registration statement with respect to the preferred stock;

- maintaining the financial strength rating of BB+ or higher with a stable outlook for the surviving corporation s senior unsecured debt by Standard & Poor s;

76

- maintaining the financial strength rating of A- from A.M. Best for each of The MEGA Life and Health Insurance Company, Mid-West National Life Insurance Company of Tennessee and The Chesapeake Life Insurance Company; and

- other customary conditions.

The merger is conditioned on the availability of financing on the terms described above. See Conditions to Completion of the Merger below.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The obligations of UICI, the Merger Cos and the SibCos to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following mutual conditions:

- the adoption of the merger agreement by the requisite vote of our stockholders;

- the waiting period under the HSR Act having been terminated or expired; and

- no law or order having been enacted or entered by a U.S. or state governmental authority that prohibits, restrains or enjoins the completion of the merger.

The obligations of each SibCo and each Merger Co to complete the merger are also subject to the satisfaction or waiver by SibCo 1 of the following conditions:

- the representations and warranties we made regarding financial strength ratings (unless related primarily to the debt financing or to other changes or proposed changes to our capital structure made in connection with the merger agreement or at the request of any Merger Co), capitalization, accuracy of our SEC reports, brokers and finders, and certain other regulatory matters, including with respect to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, shall be true and correct in all material respects on the date of the merger agreement and on the closing date of the merger, with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the closing date (except to the extent that any such representation or warranty expressly speaks as of an earlier date, in which case the representation and warranty shall be true and correct as of such earlier date), and
- our other representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement (in each case without any materiality, material or Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined below) qualifications), shall be true and correct on the date of the merger agreement and on the closing date of the merger, with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent such representation and warranty expressly speaks as of an earlier date, in which case the representation and warranty shall be true and correct as of such earlier date), other than failures to be true and correct that would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect;

- we have performed in all material respects all covenants required to be performed by us under the merger agreement at or before the closing date of the merger;

- since June 30, 2005, there will have been no Company Material Adverse Effect, as defined below;

- all consents, approvals, non-disapprovals and other authorizations of all required governmental entities will have been obtained, free of any Burdensome Condition and any other condition or limitation that would have a Company Material Adverse Effect;

- the proceeds of the debt financing will be available to the Company on equivalent or more favorable terms and conditions as are set forth in the commitment letter (as determined in the reasonable judgment of SibCo 1);

- since September 12, 2005:

  (i) less than 25% of certain active independent insurance agents shall have withdrawn from the agent stock accumulation plans, and

(ii) less than 12.5% of certain senior independent insurance agents shall have withdrawn from any agent stock accumulation plan; and no governmental entity will have taken, or informed a party or publicly disclosed that it intends to take, any action against us or any of our subsidiaries, or enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered, or is reasonably likely to enact, issue, promulgate, enforce or enter, any laws or orders (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent), that would reasonably be expected to (i) lead to a limitation (including by revocation or suspension of a license, or the issuance of a cease and desist order, injunction or similar action) on the ability of the Company and our subsidiaries to conduct their respective businesses in any material respect as such businesses are conducted as of the date of the merger agreement or (ii) amount to a Burdensome Condition.

A Company Material Adverse Effect is any event, circumstance, development, change or effect that, individually or in the aggregate with all other events, circumstances, developments, changes and effects, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, properties, condition (financial or otherwise) or results of our operations and those of our subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially impair or materially delay our ability to perform our obligations under the merger agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby. However, none of the following events, circumstances, changes or effects, alone or in combination, will be deemed to constitute, nor taken into account in determining whether there has been, or would reasonably be expected to be, a Company Material Adverse Effect, except to the extent the event, circumstance, change or effect has had a disproportionate effect on the Company and our subsidiaries as compared to other persons in the health and life insurance industry:

changes in general political, economic or financial market conditions; changes affecting the health and life insurance industry;

seasonal fluctuations in the business of the Company and our subsidiaries consistent with past fluctuations; and the death of Ronald C. Jensen on September 2, 2005.

Our obligations to complete the merger are also subject to the satisfaction or our waiver of the following conditions:

the representations and warranties of the SibCos and the Merger Cos set forth in the merger agreement (in each case without any materiality, material or Acquiror Material Adverse Effect (as defined below) qualifications), will be true and correct on the date of the merger agreement and on the closing date of the merger, with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the closing date (except to the extent such representation and warranty expressly speaks as of an earlier date, in which case such representation and warranty shall be true and correct as of such earlier date), other than failures to be true and correct that would not have an Acquiror Material Adverse Effect; and each SibCo and each Merger Co will have performed in all material respects all covenants required to be performed by it under the merger agreement at or before the closing date of the merger.

An Acquiror Material Adverse Effect is any event, circumstance, development, change or effect that, individually or in the aggregate with all other events, circumstances, developments, changes and effects, would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially impair or materially delay the ability of any or all of the SibCos and the Merger Cos to perform their respective obligations under the merger agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby.

No Solicitation

Until the effective time of the merger, except as described below, we will not, and will cause each of our subsidiaries and representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

- initiate, solicit, facilitate or knowingly encourage any inquiries or proposals relating to a Takeover Proposal (as defined below);
- engage in discussions or negotiations with, or furnish or disclose any non-public information relating to UICI or any of our subsidiaries to, any person regarding a Takeover Proposal;
- withdraw, modify or amend the recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the merger in any manner adverse to the SibCos or the Merger Cos;
- approve, endorse or recommend any Takeover Proposal;
- enter into any agreement in principle or contract relating to a Takeover Proposal; or
- resolve, propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

We will notify SibCo 1 promptly upon receipt by us or our subsidiaries of a Takeover Proposal, indication by a person of an intention to make a Takeover Proposal, request for non-public information (not in the ordinary course of business) or any request for discussions or negotiations regarding a Takeover Proposal. We will provide SibCo 1 with the terms of such Takeover Proposal and the identity of the person making it.

A Takeover Proposal is any proposal or offer relating to (i) a merger, consolidation, share exchange or business combination involving UICI or any of its subsidiaries representing 20% or more of the assets of UICI and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (ii) a purchase, sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, transfer or other disposition, in a single transaction or series of related transactions, of 20% or more of the assets of UICI and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iii) a purchase or sale of shares of capital stock or other securities, in a single transaction or series of related transactions, representing 20% or more of the voting power of the capital stock of UICI or any of its subsidiaries, including by way of a tender offer or exchange offer, (iv) a reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation or dissolution of UICI or (v) any other transaction having a similar effect to those described in clauses (i) - (iv), in each case other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

However, we will be permitted, but only before the receipt of the stockholder vote adopting the merger agreement, to:

- engage in discussions or negotiations with a person who has made a written Takeover Proposal not solicited in violation of the merger agreement if, before taking such action, (A) we enter into a confidentiality agreement with such person on terms and conditions not less stringent than those contained in the confidentiality agreements that we entered into with affiliates of each SibCo and MergerCo and (B) our board of directors determines in good faith (1) after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such Takeover Proposal constitutes, or is reasonably likely to result in, a Superior Proposal (as defined below) and (2) after consultation with outside legal counsel, that such action is necessary to comply with its fiduciary obligations to our stockholders under applicable laws;
- furnish or disclose any non-public information relating to us or any of our subsidiaries to a person who has made a written Takeover Proposal not solicited in violation of the merger agreement if, before taking such action, our board of directors determines in good faith (A) after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such Takeover Proposal constitutes, or is reasonably likely to result in, a Superior Proposal and (B) after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that such action is necessary to comply with its fiduciary obligations to our stockholders under applicable laws, but only so long as we (x) have caused such person to enter into a confidentiality agreement with us on terms and conditions not less stringent than those contained in the confidentiality agreement that we entered into with affiliates of each SibCo and Merger Co and (y) concurrently disclose the same such non-public information to SibCo 1 if such non-public information has not previously been disclosed to SibCo 1; and withdraw, modify or amend our board of directors recommendation in favor of the merger in a manner adverse to the SibCos or the Merger Cos, if our board of directors has determined in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that such action is required to comply with its fiduciary obligations to our stockholders under applicable laws; provided that before any such withdrawal, modification or amendment to the recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the merger, (A) we have given SibCo 1 prompt written notice advising SibCo 1 of (x) the decision of our board of directors to take such action and (y) in the event the decision relates to a Takeover Proposal, the material terms and conditions of the Takeover Proposal, (B) we have given SibCo 1 three business days after delivery of each such notice to propose revisions to the terms of the merger agreement (or make another proposal) and have negotiated in good faith with SibCo 1 with respect to such proposed revisions or other proposal, if any, and (C) our board of directors has determined, after considering the results of such negotiations and giving effect to the proposals made by SibCo 1, if any, and after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, to withdraw, modify or amend its recommendation of in favor of the merger.

A Superior Proposal is a written Takeover Proposal that relates to more than 50% of the voting power of our capital stock or of the assets of UICI and our subsidiaries taken as a whole, (i) which our board of directors determines, in its good faith judgment, after receiving the advice of its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, and after taking into account all aspects of the Takeover Proposal (including its terms and conditions, the person making the Takeover Proposal, any regulatory concerns and other considerations), is on terms and conditions more favorable from a financial point of view to our stockholders (in their capacity as stockholders) than those contemplated by the merger agreement (after giving effect to any adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement proposed by the SibCos and the Merger Cos in response thereto), (ii) the conditions to the consummation of which are all, in the good faith judgment of our board of directors, reasonably capable of being satisfied without undue delay, and (iii) for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or, in the good faith judgment of our board of directors after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, is reasonably likely to be available.

Employee Matters

For a period of one year following the closing date of the merger, the surviving corporation will provide employees of UICI and its subsidiaries with compensation and benefits that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those provided under our compensation and benefit plans, programs, policies, practices and arrangements (other than equity incentives) in effect at the effective time of the merger. The surviving corporation may, however, terminate the employment of any employee for any reason for which we could have terminated such employee before the merger.

The surviving corporation and its affiliates will honor all Company employee benefit plans (including any severance, retention, change of control and similar plans, agreements and written arrangements) in accordance with their terms as in effect immediately before the effective time, subject to any amendment or termination thereof that may be permitted by such plans, agreements or written arrangements.

For all purposes under the employee benefit plans of the surviving corporation and its affiliates providing benefits to any employees after the effective time, each employee will be credited with his or her years of service with the Company and its affiliates before the effective time (including predecessor or acquired entities or any other entities for which the Company and its affiliates have given credit for prior service), to the same extent as such employee was entitled, before the effective time, to credit for such service under any similar or comparable company employee benefit plans.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time before the effective time of the merger, as follows:

- by mutual written consent of SibCo 1 and UICI;
- by SibCo 1 or UICI at any time before the effective time of the merger if:
  - the merger has not been consummated by June 15, 2006, except that the right to terminate under this clause will not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any of its obligations has been a principal cause of, or resulted in, the failure to consummate the merger by such date;
  - the merger agreement has been submitted to our stockholders for adoption at a stockholders meeting and the requisite stockholder vote is not obtained upon a vote taken thereon; or
  - any law prohibits completion of the merger or any order restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits completion of the merger, and such order has become final and nonappealable;
- by SibCo 1 at any time before the effective time of the merger if:
  - (i) our board of directors withdraws, modifies or amends its recommendation in favor of the merger in any manner adverse to SibCo 1 or the Merger Cos, (ii) our board of directors approves, endorses or recommends a Takeover Proposal, or (iii) we or our board of directors resolves or announces our intention to do any of the foregoing;
  - we (i) materially breach our no-solicitation obligations or our obligations to hold a stockholders meeting or our board of directors or any committee thereof resolves to do any of the foregoing or (ii) materially breach our obligations to prepare this document and the breach is not cured within five business days after our receipt of written notice asserting the breach from SibCo 1;
  - we breach any of our representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach (i) would give rise to the failure of the related conditions set forth in the merger agreement and (ii) has not been cured by us within 20 business days after our receipt of written notice of the breach from SibCo 1; or
  - a Company Material Adverse Effect occurs and continues to occur and has not been cured by us within 20 business days after receipt of written notice of the occurrence of the event from SibCo 1; and
- by UICI if any SibCo or any Merger Co breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach (a) would give rise to the failure of a related condition in the merger agreement and (b) has not been cured by such SibCo or such Merger Co within 20 business days after such SibCo s or such Merger Co s receipt of written notice of such breach from us.

Termination Fees

The merger agreement provides that, upon termination of the merger agreement under specified circumstances involving an alternative transaction, we may be required to pay SibCo 1 a termination fee of $65 million in the following circumstances:

- If the merger agreement is terminated by SibCo 1 pursuant to the first two scenarios described under the third bullet point in Termination of the Merger Agreement above, we will pay, or cause to be paid, the termination fee to SibCo 1 within two business days after such termination.
- If (A) a Takeover Proposal has been made or proposed to us or otherwise publicly announced (which has not been withdrawn (x) at least 20 business days before June 15, 2006 with respect to a termination pursuant to the first scenario under the second bullet point in Termination of the Merger Agreement above or before the breach that gave rise to the termination with respect to a termination pursuant to the third scenario under the third bullet point in Termination of the Merger Agreement above, or (y) at least three business days before the stockholders meeting with respect to a termination pursuant to the second scenario under the second bullet point above), (B) the merger agreement is terminated by SibCo 1 or us pursuant to the first two scenarios described under the second bullet point above or by SibCo 1 pursuant to the third scenario under the third bullet point Termination of the Merger Agreement above, and (C) within 12 months following the date of such termination, we enter into a contract providing for the implementation of a Takeover Proposal or consummate any Takeover Proposal (whether or not such Takeover Proposal was the same Takeover Proposal referred to in the foregoing clause (A)), we will pay, or cause to be paid, the termination fee to SibCo 1 within two business days after the date on which we enter into such contract or consummate such Takeover Proposal, as applicable.

For purposes of the foregoing clause (C) only, references in the definition of the term Takeover Proposal to the figure 20% will be deemed to be replaced by the figure 50% . If we fail to pay the termination fee when due, we will reimburse SibCo 1 for all reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred or accrued by SibCo 1, the Merger Cos and their affiliates (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with the collection under and enforcement of the foregoing provision relating to the termination fee and will also pay interest on such unpaid amounts at the prime lending rate from the date such amounts were due until the date received by SibCo 1 or the Merger Cos.

Remedies

We will not be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent any breach of the merger agreement by any SibCo or any Merger Co or to enforce specifically any term or provision of the merger agreement, except that we will be entitled to specific performance against the SibCos or the Merger Cos to prevent any breach of their confidentiality obligations. To the extent we have incurred any losses or damages or damages in connection with the merger agreement, the maximum aggregate liability of the SibCos and the Merger Cos will be limited to $65 million.

Expenses

Whether or not the merger is consummated, all expenses (including those payable to representatives) incurred by any party to the merger agreement or on its behalf in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring those expenses (with certain exceptions), except (i) as described above in Termination Fees and (ii) in the event that the merger agreement is terminated (other than by SibCo 1 in any of the scenarios described under the third bullet point in Termination of the Merger Agreement above), SibCo 1 will promptly reimburse us for reasonable out-of-pocket costs, not exceeding $500,000 in the aggregate, incurred by us or our subsidiaries in connection with our cooperation with the SibCos to obtain the requisite financing.

Amendments and Waivers

The merger agreement may be amended by UICI and SibCo 1 (on behalf of itself, each other SibCo and the Merger Cos) at any time before the effective time of the merger, whether before or after stockholder approval hereof, so long as (a) no amendment that requires further stockholder approval under applicable laws after stockholder approval hereof will be made without such required further approval and (b) such amendment has been duly authorized or approved by the board of directors of each of SibCo 1 and us.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Stockholders Agreement

We have been advised by affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners that, upon the completion of the merger, they expect that the surviving corporation will become a party to a stockholders agreement with their affiliates who will hold class A-1 common stock after the merger, which affiliates we refer to as the private equity investors, and certain members of management who will hold class A-1 common stock after the merger, whom we refer to as the management stockholders. We refer to affiliates of the individual private equity investors as the Blackstone stockholders, the Goldman Sachs stockholders, and the DLJ stockholders, respectively, and collectively as private equity investor groups. The following is a summary of the expected material terms of the stockholders agreement. There can be no assurance that the stockholders agreement will be entered into on the terms described below.

Board Composition

The stockholders agreement is expected to provide that the board of directors of the surviving corporation will consist of:

- up to 8 directors nominated or designated by the Blackstone stockholders;
- up to 2 directors nominated or designated by the Goldman Sachs stockholders;
- up to 1 director nominated or designated by the DLJ stockholders;
- 1 member of management, which we refer to as the management director, to be nominated by private equity investors holding a majority of the class A-1 common stock held by private equity investors; and
- additional directors, including directors who may be considered independent under various SEC and stock exchange definitions to the extent deemed necessary or advisable. We refer to the management directors and the independent directors collectively as the non-investor directors.

The allocation of board representation to the private equity investor groups is expected to be reduced as the ownership interest of class A-1 common stock of such private equity investor group is reduced. It is expected that the Blackstone stockholders will have the ability to designate a majority of the directors for so long as they hold a majority of the shares of class A-1 common stock issued to the private equity investors in the merger. Each private equity investor group will lose its right to designate directors entirely when its ownership of shares of class A-1 common stock is less than the greater of (i) five percent of the shares of class A-1 common stock issued to the private equity investors in the merger and (ii) three percent of the then-outstanding shares of class A-1 common stock.

Generally, each director will have one vote. However, if the Blackstone stockholders nominate or designate fewer than the maximum number of directors to which they are entitled, then the Blackstone stockholders directors will have aggregate voting power on board matters equal to the maximum number of directors that the Blackstone stockholders are entitled to nominate or designate divided by the number of directors they have actually nominated or designated. For example, immediately after the merger, the Blackstone stockholders are expected to be entitled to nominate or designate up to eight directors, but expect to only nominate or designate two (Messrs. Chu and Kabaker). In this case, Messrs. Chu and Kabaker would have four votes each on all board matters.

The initial composition of the board of directors is expected to be as set forth in The Merger Composition of the Board of Directors and Executive Management of the Surviving Corporation Board of Directors beginning on page 62.

Approval Rights

The stockholders agreement is expected to provide that without the approval of directors designated by at least two private equity investor groups, in addition to any customary board approval, the surviving corporation will not, and will cause its subsidiaries not to, take certain actions, including:

- certain mergers, consolidations, business combinations, reorganizations or liquidations;
- certain acquisitions or dispositions of business or assets valued in excess of 20% of the fair market value of the total assets of the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries;
- certain debt and preferred stock issuances that would increase the aggregate debt and preferred stock level by an amount in excess of 20% of the fair market value of the total assets of the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries;
- transactions with affiliates, other than de minimis transactions on arm s length terms; or
- amendments to the certificate of incorporation or bylaws with the purpose or effect of the transactions described above or that would conflict with other terms of the stockholders agreement.

The stockholders agreement is also expected to provide that, without the approval of the affected private equity investor group, if the affected party is a private equity investor, or the approval of a majority (by ownership of shares of A-1 common stock) of the management stockholders, if the affected party is a management stockholder, neither the stockholders agreement nor the certificate of incorporation or bylaws may be amended in a manner that imposes additional transfer restrictions, limits any private equity investor group s right to designate directors or further limits tag-along rights or the rights of a stockholder to participate in public offerings. The stockholders agreement also is expected to provide that the stockholders agreement, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws may not be amended without the approval of each affected private equity investor group, if such amendment would subject any private equity investor group to materially adverse differential treatment as compared to the other private equity investor groups.

In addition, the stockholders agreement is expected to provide that, as long as any Goldman Sachs stockholder remains party to the stockholders agreement, the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries are not permitted to directly or indirectly acquire or otherwise control equity securities of any bank holding company, depositary institution or certain other bank entities without the approval of the Goldman Sachs private equity investor group and at least one other private equity investor group.

Corporate Opportunities

The stockholders agreement is expected to provide that the private equity investors and the directors designated by them will have no duty to provide the surviving corporation with any business or other opportunities, and will have the right to engage in corporate opportunities for their own account, in each case to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Transfer Restrictions

Transfers of shares of class A-1 common stock are expected to be generally prohibited except:

- pursuant to tag-along sales and drag-along sales, as described below in Tag-Along Rights Drag-Along Rights
- after an initial public offering of the surviving corporation (and subject to the provisions of the registration rights and coordination committee agreement described below):
  - in a registered public offering;
  - pursuant to Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act; or
  - in a distribution of shares of class A-1 common stock by a private equity investor to its general or limited partners, members, managers or shareholders; or with the approval of the private equity investors holding a majority of the shares held by the private equity investors.

In addition, the private equity investors are expected to be permitted to transfer their shares of class A-1 common stock to investment funds that are directly or indirectly managed or advised by the manager or advisor of such private equity investors.

Finally, management stockholders are expected to be permitted to transfer their shares of class A-1 common stock:

- to the surviving corporation;
- upon the death of the holder, pursuant to applicable laws of descent and distribution; or
- for estate planning purposes, pursuant to a transfer to the holder s immediate family, whether directly or indirectly by means of a trust or partnership or other bona fide estate-planning vehicle the only beneficiaries of which are the holder s immediate family.

Tag-Along Rights

If any private equity investor proposes to transfer shares of class A-1 common stock in a tag-along sale (as described below), then these private equity investors are expected to be required to offer to each other private equity investor the right to sell a pro rata portion of its shares on the same terms and conditions as the proposed transfer. This right to tag-along is also expected to be provided to management stockholders if the shares proposed to be transferred by the private equity investors initiating the sale represent more than 50% of the outstanding shares of class A-1 common stock.

A tag-along sale is expected to mean:

- before an initial public offering of the common stock of the surviving corporation, a transfer (1) of at least 1% of the outstanding shares of class A-1 common stock by the private equity investors holding a majority of the outstanding shares of class A-1 common stock held by the private equity investors in the aggregate or (2) of at least 5% of the outstanding shares of class A-1 common stock by any private equity investor, and
- after an initial public offering of the common stock of the surviving corporation, a transfer by a private equity investor of at least 10% of the total amount of shares of class A-1 common stock outstanding.

Drag-Along Rights

It is expected that the stockholders agreement will provide that if the private equity investors collectively own at least fifty percent (50%) of the surviving corporation s outstanding class A-1 common stock, and private equity investors owning at least thirty-five percent (35%) of the surviving corporation s class A-1 common stock propose to sell shares of the surviving corporation s common stock to any third party which, taking into account all shares to be transferred in this or similar transactions, would result in the transfer of greater than 50% of the outstanding common stock of the surviving corporation, then the selling private equity investors will have the option to obligate each holder of class A-1 common stock to sell the same proportion of the holder s shares as is sold by the selling private equity holders. Upon the exercise of this drag-along option, it is expected that each holder of class A-1 common stock that is party to the stockholders agreement will be subject to many of the same terms as those applicable to shares held by the selling private equity investors.

Information Rights

The stockholders agreement is expected to require the surviving corporation to prepare and furnish to each stockholder annual and quarterly financial statements, operating and capital expenditure budgets, and to the extent otherwise prepared, other periodic information relating to the operations and cash flows of the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries.

Preemptive Rights

The stockholders agreement is expected to provide that each private equity investor and management stockholder will have preemptive rights to acquire securities to be issued by the surviving corporation in order to maintain their then-current proportionate ownership of common stock, with certain permitted exceptions.

Line of Business Covenant

The stockholders agreement is expected to require the surviving corporation to advise each private equity investor before the surviving corporation directly or indirectly enters into any line of business materially different from its existing lines of business and will discuss in good faith and reasonably cooperate with the private equity investors efforts toward resolving any regulatory problem that such actions may cause them.

Company Repurchase Right

Prior to an initial public offering of the surviving corporation, in the event the employment of a management stockholder is terminated for cause, as such term is defined in the manager s employment agreement, the surviving corporation is expected to have the right to purchase such holder s class A-1 common stock at a price equal to the lesser of: (x) the weighted average price paid by the management stockholder or (y) the fair market value of the shares to be redeemed (as determined in good faith by the board of directors). In the event the employment of a management stockholder is terminated other than for cause or if the management stockholder terminates his or her employment, the surviving corporation is expected to have the right to purchase the holder s class A-1 common stock at the fair market value of the shares. In these circumstances, at the discretion of the board of directors, in light of the availability under or limitations imposed by any credit agreement or other debt agreement and the capital and liquidity position of the surviving corporation, it may pay the repurchase price in the form of a note.

Registration Rights and Coordination Committee Agreement

The private equity investor groups have advised us that, upon the completion of the merger, it is expected that the surviving corporation will become party to a registration rights and coordination committee agreement with the private equity investors and management stockholders providing for demand and piggyback registration rights. Following an initial public offering, the Blackstone stockholders expect to have the right to demand registration of their shares for public sale on up to five occasions; the Goldman Sachs stockholders expect to have the right to demand registration on up to two occasions, and the DLJ stockholders expect to have the right to demand registration on one occasion. No more than one such demand is expected to be permitted to be made in any 180-day period without the consent of the board of directors. In addition, both the private equity investors and management stockholders are expected to have so-called piggy-back rights, which are rights to request that their shares be included in registrations initiated by the surviving corporation or by a private equity investor.

There can be no assurance that the registration rights and coordination committee agreement will be entered into on the terms described above.

Management Agreement and Transaction Fee Agreement

The private equity investor groups have advised us that, upon the completion of the merger, it is expected that the surviving corporation will become party to a management agreement with certain management companies affiliated with The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners pursuant to which they, which we refer to as the advising parties, will provide the surviving corporation with management and monitoring services. Under this agreement, the surviving corporation is expected to pay to the advising parties annual management fees not to exceed in the aggregate for any one year the greater of $15 million or 3% of its earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, sometimes referred to as EBITDA . Management fees for 2006 are expected to be payable on the closing date of the merger. Management fees for each succeeding year are expected to be payable on the first business day of such year. The advising parties are expected to terminate the management agreement in connection with an initial public offering or change of control and, in such cases, the management companies are expected to receive a multiple of their annual management fee to be agreed upon.

In addition, the private equity investor groups have advised us that it is expected that, upon the completion of the merger, the surviving corporation will become party to a transaction fee agreement with the private equity investors pursuant to which the surviving corporation will pay the advisory parties one-time transaction fees not to exceed $27 million.

Both the management agreement and transaction fee agreement are expected to contain customary indemnification provisions in favor of the private equity investors and their affiliates, as well as expense reimbursement provisions with respect to expenses they incurred in connection with performance of their services thereunder. The indemnity rights are expected to survive termination of these agreements.

There can be no assurance that the management agreement or the transaction fee agreement will be entered into on the terms described above.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK OF THE SURVIVING CORPORATION

The private equity investors have advised us that, upon completion of the merger, the surviving corporation s certificate of incorporation is expected to provide for class A-1 common stock (90,000,000 shares authorized), class A-2 common stock (20,000,000 shares authorized) and preferred stock (10,000,000 shares authorized). Because the surviving corporation s certificate of incorporation that will create and authorize these classes of capital stock will not become effective until the merger has been completed, no shares of class A-2 common stock or preferred stock were outstanding as of the record date of the special meeting. Currently outstanding common stock not held in agent stock accumulation plans and not exchanged for cash will be renamed class A-1 common stock. There were 46,626,369 shares of UICI common stock outstanding as of the record date of the special meeting.

The statements below are summaries of certain provisions the private equity investors have advised us are expected to be included in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation, as well as the relevant provisions of the DGCL. These summaries are not complete. The form of the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation is attached as Annex B to this document and the form of bylaws is attached as Exhibit 3.4 to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, and each is incorporated by reference herein. There can be no assurance that the terms described below will not be modified following completion of the merger. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 109.

Surviving Corporation Common Stock: Class A-1 and Class A-2 Common Stock

The class A-1 and class A-2 common stock will be subject to the following terms:

Dividend Rights

The board of the surviving corporation may, but is not obligated to, declare dividends at its discretion. Before any dividends are paid on the surviving corporation common stock, the holders of any preferred stock that may be issued will be entitled to receive their dividends at the rates provided for the shares of their series. Any dividends that may be declared on the common stock will be paid in an equal amount for each share of common stock. Restrictions on the payment of cash dividends may be imposed in connection with future issuances of preferred stock and indebtedness by the surviving corporation. Any decisions as to the payment of cash dividends will be made by the board in light of then current conditions, including earnings, operations, capital requirements, liquidity, financial condition, restrictions in financing arrangements and any other relevant factors as determined by the board.

Voting Rights

Each outstanding share of class A-1 common stock and class A-2 common stock is entitled to one vote per share on each matter submitted to a vote of the stockholders, voting together as a single class. The affirmative vote of a majority of the common stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, voting as a single class, is required to approve any act or action requiring a vote of the common stockholders.

Pursuant to Delaware law, any amendment to the charter will also require approval by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the voting power of each affected class voting separately as a class, in addition to the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the voting power of all classes of common stock, voting together as a single class.

Liquidation Rights

Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the surviving corporation, after payment of creditors and any liquidation preference of preferred stock that may be issued, the remaining net assets of the surviving corporation will be distributed pro rata to the holders of the common stock.

Issuance Restrictions

The surviving corporation may only issue shares of class A-2 common stock to independent agents through stock accumulation plans of the surviving corporation. There are no such restrictions with respect to issuances of shares of class A-1 common stock.

Transfer Restrictions

The certificate of incorporation provides that shares of class A-2 common stock may only be transferred, and the holder may only agree to transfer shares of class A-2 common stock, to:

the surviving corporation;

upon the death of the holder, pursuant to applicable laws of descent and distribution;

for estate planning purposes, pursuant to a transfer to the holder s immediate family, whether directly or indirectly by means of a trust or partnership or other bona fide estate-planning vehicle the only beneficiaries of which the holder s immediate family; and pursuant to the provisions in Required Sale of Shares set forth below.

The surviving corporation s certificate of incorporation and bylaws will contain no such restrictions on the transferability of class A-1 common stock. However, it is expected that, prior to the closing, holders of class A-1 common stock will enter into stockholders agreements that will contain similar transfer restrictions. See Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions Stockholders Agreement beginning on page 85.

Required Sale of Shares

If affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs Capital Partners and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners collectively own at least fifty percent (50%) of the surviving corporation s outstanding class A-1 common stock, and affiliates of these private equity firms owning at least thirty-five percent (35%) of the surviving corporation s class A-1 common stock enter into a definitive written agreement to sell shares of the surviving corporation s common stock to any third party which, taking into account all shares to be transferred in this and all related transactions, would result in the transfer of greater than 50% of the outstanding common stock of the surviving corporation, then the selling affiliates will have the option to obligate each holder of class A-2 common stock to sell the same proportion of the holder s shares as is sold by the selling affiliates. Upon the exercise of this required sale option, each holder of class A-2 common stock will be subject to the same terms as those applicable to shares held by the selling affiliates, including, but not limited to, the obligation to have a portion of the purchase price held back or held in escrow pending the satisfaction of any indemnity obligations.

Upon the failure of any holder of class A-2 common stock to complete a required sale in accordance with the applicable provisions of the surviving corporation s certificate of incorporation (including, but not limited to, the surrender of shares and the foregoing obligations), the shares held by the holder will be automatically redeemed for $1.00 per share by the surviving corporation on the closing date of the transaction.

The surviving corporation s certificate of incorporation and bylaws will contain no such requirement to sell class A-1 common stock. However, it is expected that before the closing, certain members of management who are expected to hold class A-1 common stock after the merger will enter into stockholders agreements that will contain similar provisions. See Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions Stockholders Agreement beginning on page 85.

Redemption

In the event of a termination of the agent contract of any independent agent who owns class A-2 common stock for cause, the surviving corporation will have the right for 12 months following the termination to purchase such holder s class A-2 common stock at the lesser of (x) the holder s cost or (y) the fair market value of the shares to be redeemed as determined in good faith by the board of directors of the surviving corporation considering all factors the board deems appropriate, including, without limitation, any valuation prepared by Blackstone in the ordinary course of business for reporting to its advisory board and investors. In the event of a termination of the agent contract of an independent agent other than for cause or termination by the independent agent, the surviving corporation will have the right for 12 months following such termination to purchase the holder s class A-2 common stock at the fair market value of the shares.

The surviving corporation will also have the right to redeem class A-2 common stock immediately before a change of control at a price equal to the fair market value of the shares being redeemed (which will include any control or other premium reflected in the anticipated change in control event).

These rights of redemption will terminate upon an initial public offering or change of control of the surviving corporation. In addition, the board of directors of the surviving corporation may extend the redemption period beyond twelve months if, in its sole discretion the Board makes a good faith determination that it would be advisable and in the best interests of the surviving corporation to extend the redemption period or to pay the redemption price in the form of a note in light of the availability under or limitations imposed by any credit agreement or other debt agreement of the surviving corporation and the surviving corporation s capital and liquidity position.

The certificate of incorporation will not provide for redemption rights with respect to class A-1 common stock.

Exchange Act Reports

The Company is currently required to make periodic public filings with the SEC, including annual reports on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and interim reports on Form 8-K. After the merger, the Company generally would continue to be subject to similar public reporting requirements even though our stock will not be publicly traded on any securities exchange. However, the Company has requested an order from the SEC exempting the Company from these requirements, or a no action letter from the Division of Corporation Finance of the SEC stating that the SEC staff will not recommend that the SEC take any enforcement action if the Company does not file these reports. If this order is granted or this no action letter is issued, the Company will not file these periodic reports with the SEC. However, in connection with its request to the SEC, the Company has undertaken to provide holders of class A-1 common stock and class A-2 common stock with other information on a regular basis instead, including annual audited consolidated financial statements, quarterly reports containing summary financial information, and information about the matters to be voted on at stockholders meetings.

Transfer Agent

The transfer agent for the surviving corporation common stock will be Mellon Investor Services LLC.

Stock Exchange Listing

If the merger is completed, UICI common stock will be delisted from the NYSE. The surviving corporation s common stock will not be listed on any stock exchange.

Surviving Corporation Preferred Stock

The preferred stock may be issued from time to time in such series and with such designations, dividend rates and times of payment, redemption prices, and liquidation prices or preferences as to assets in voluntary liquidation as the board of directors deems appropriate. Cumulative dividends, redemption provisions and sinking fund requirements, to the extent that some or all of these features are or may be present when the preferred stock is issued, could have an adverse effect on the availability of earnings for distribution to the holders of surviving corporation common stock or for other corporate purposes.

In connection with the merger, the surviving corporation may issue preferred stock with an aggregate liquidation value of up to $100 million. The preferred stock may have dividend and liquidation preferences over the class A-1 and class A-2 common stock. In the event of a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the surviving corporation, holders of the preferred stock, if issued, may be entitled to receive in preference to any holder of surviving corporation common stock an amount equal to the liquidation preference per share plus all accumulated and unpaid dividends. Only after payment of creditors and any liquidation preference of preferred stock that may be issued may the remaining net assets of the surviving corporation be distributed pro rata to the holders of the common stock. In addition, each share of preferred stock, if issued, may be entitled to dividends on the liquidation preference. So long as any preferred stock remains outstanding, unless the full dividends for the latest completed dividend period on all outstanding preferred stock have been declared and paid (or set aside), it is possible that no dividend may be paid or declared on the surviving corporation s common stock. The class A-1 and class A-2 common stock would be deemed junior to the preferred stock, if issued. The preferred stock, if issued, is not expected to have a transfer agent.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF COMMON STOCKHOLDERS

UICI is, and following the merger the surviving corporation will be, incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. If we complete the merger, independent agent stockholders who hold our common stock through agent stock accumulation plans at the time the merger is completed, whose rights are currently governed by the DGCL, the certificate of incorporation of UICI and the amended and restated bylaws of UICI, will become holders of class A-2 common stock and their rights as such will be governed by the DGCL, and the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation that will be adopted pursuant to the merger agreement. UICI common stock will be renamed class A-1 common stock.

Based on information provided to us by the private equity investors who will own a majority of the class A-1 common stock of the surviving corporation following completion of the merger, we summarize below the material differences between the rights of holders of UICI common stock, the rights of holders of class A-1 common stock of the surviving corporation and the rights of holders of class A-2 common stock of the surviving corporation. These differences primarily result from the differences in their respective governing documents.

The following summary does not purport to be a complete statement of the rights of holders of UICI common stock or the surviving corporation under applicable Delaware law or under their respective certificates of incorporation or bylaws, nor does the summary purport to be a complete description of the specific provisions referred to in the summary. This summary contains a list of the material differences but is not meant to be relied upon as an exhaustive list or a detailed description of the provisions discussed and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the DGCL, the governing corporate instruments of UICI, the form of certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation attached as Annex B to this document and the forms of bylaws and stockholders agreement of the surviving corporation attached as Exhibits 3.4 and 4.1, respectively, to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part. We urge you to read those documents carefully in their entirety. There can be no assurance that the forms of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the surviving corporation that are summarized below will not be modified following completion of the merger. For more information on how you can obtain copies of these documents, see Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 109.

DELIVERY OF PROXY MATERIALS TO HOUSEHOLDS

The SEC has implemented rules regarding the delivery of annual reports and proxy statements to households. This method of delivery, often referred to as householding, permits us to mail a single set of proxy materials to any household in which two or more different stockholders reside and are members of the same household or in which one stockholder has multiple accounts. We do household proxy materials, so that only one copy of our proxy materials will be sent to multiple stockholders of the Company who share the same address and last name, unless we have received contrary instructions from one or more of those stockholders. For voting purposes, a separate proxy card will be included for each account at the shared address. We will deliver promptly, upon oral or written request, a separate copy of the proxy materials to any stockholder at the same address. If you wish to receive a separate copy of the proxy materials, then you may contact our Investor Relations Department by telephone, 817-255-5471, by email, on our website (www.uici.net) under the heading Contact or by mail at 9151 Grapevine Highway, North Richland Hills, Texas 76180-5605, Attn: Corporate Secretary.

(i) Each share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (each, a Common Share and collectively, the Common Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, including Common Shares owned by any SibCo, any Merger Co or the Company or any wholly owned Subsidiary of any SibCo, any Merger Co or the Company or any of its wholly owned Subsidiaries, but excluding (A) Dissenting Shares, (B) Agent Shares and (C) Management Shares (the Common Shares referred to in (A)-(C), the Excluded Common Shares and the Common Shares referred to in (B)-(C), Retained Shares)), will be converted into the right to receive $37.00 in cash, without interest (the Cash Consideration).

(ii) Management Shares shall not be converted into the Cash Consideration but shall instead remain outstanding, but renamed, as shares of Class A-1 common stock of the Surviving Corporation (Class A-1 Common Stock). Each Agent Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted automatically into the right to receive one share of Class A-2 common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation (Class A-2 Common Stock, such shares of Class A-2 Common Stock, together with the Class A-1 Common Stock remaining outstanding pursuant to this Article II, the Stock Consideration, and the Stock Consideration, together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration).

(iii) Any Dissenting Shares will thereafter represent only the right to receive the applicable payments set forth in Section 2.3 upon compliance with the procedures set forth herein.

(b) Cancellation of Common Shares. At the Effective Time, all Common Shares will no longer be outstanding and all Common Shares will be cancelled and retired and will cease to exist, and, subject to Section 2.3, each Certificate formerly representing any such Common Shares will thereafter represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration, in accordance with Section 2.2.

(c) Cancellation of Treasury Stock. Each Common Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and owned by any SibCo, any Merger Co or the Company, except for any such shares held on behalf of third parties, will cease to be outstanding, will be cancelled and retired without payment of any consideration therefor and will cease to exist.

(d) Conversion of Merger Cos Capital Stock. Each share of common stock of each of Merger Co 1, Merger Co 2 and Merger Co 3 issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted into one share of Class A-1 Common Stock; it being understood that the capitalization (including number of outstanding shares) of the Merger Cos will be adjusted prior to the Effective Time as necessary to give effect to Section 2.1(e).

(e) Agent Share Ownership. Giving effect to this Section 2.1, the ratio (x) of the number of shares of Class A-2 Common Stock issued in respect of Agent Shares in the Merger over (y) the aggregate number of shares of Class A-1 Common Stock issued in the Merger in respect of the cancellation of the capital stock of the Merger Cos shall be equal to the ratio of (1) the product of $37 and the number of Agent Shares at the Effective Time over (2) the aggregate equity capital of the Merger Cos at the Effective Time.

2.2 Surrender of Certificates. (a) Paying Agent. At the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will deposit, or will cause to be deposited, with a bank or trust company appointed by SibCo 1 and reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Paying Agent), (i) for the benefit of the holders of Common Shares (other than Excluded Common Shares), cash sufficient to pay the aggregate Cash Consideration and (ii) for the benefit of the holders of Agent Shares, certificates representing the shares of Class A-2 Common Stock issuable at the Effective Time in the Merger pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(iii), in each case in exchange for the due surrender of the certificates formerly representing any such Common Shares (the Certificates) (or effective affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.2 (the cash deposited with the Paying Agent pursuant to this Section 2.2 being herein referred to as the Payment Fund). The Paying Agent will invest the Payment Fund as directed by SibCo 1, provided that no such investment or losses will affect the cash amounts payable to holders of Common Shares. Any interest and other income resulting from such investment will be paid to the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Payment Procedures. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will instruct the Paying Agent to mail to each holder of record of Common Shares a letter of transmittal in customary form as reasonably agreed by the parties specifying that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to Certificates will pass, only upon proper delivery of Certificates (or effective affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) to the Paying Agent and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates (or effective affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Upon the proper surrender of a Certificate (or effective affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) to the Paying Agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be requested by the Paying Agent, the holder of such Certificate will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor either (i) with respect to Common Shares other than Retained Shares, cash in the amount (after giving effect to any required tax withholdings) that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Article II or (ii) with respect to Agent Shares, a book-entry account statement reflecting ownership of (or, if requested, a stock certificate representing) that number of shares of Class A-2 Common Stock into which the shares of Common Stock previously represented by such Certificate are converted in accordance with Section 2.1(a)(ii), and, in each case, the Certificate so surrendered will forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash amount payable upon due surrender of the Certificates. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Common Shares that is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, cash to be paid upon due surrender of the Certificate may be paid to such a transferee if the Certificate formerly representing such Common Shares is presented to the Paying Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

(c) Withholding Taxes. SibCo 1, the Surviving Corporation and the Paying Agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Common Shares any amounts that it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to such payments under the Code and the rules and Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law. Any amounts so deducted and withheld will be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Common Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

(d) No Further Transfers. After the Effective Time, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of the Company of Common Shares that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time other than to settle transfers of Common Shares that occurred prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Paying Agent, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration as provided in this Article II.

(e) Termination of Payment Fund. Any portion of the Payment Fund that remains unclaimed by the former stockholders of the Company six months after the Effective Time will be delivered to the Surviving Corporation. Any certificates representing shares of Class A-2 Common Stock deposited with the Paying Agent pursuant to Section 2.2(a) and not exchanged within six months after the Effective Time pursuant to this Section 2.2(e) will be delivered to the Surviving Corporation, which will thereafter act as exchange agent. Any former holder of Common Shares (other than Excluded Common Shares) who has not theretofore complied with this Article II will thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation for payment of the Merger Consideration upon due surrender of their Certificates (or effective affidavits of loss in lieu thereof), without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the SibCos, the Merger Cos, the Company, the Surviving Corporation, the Paying Agent or any other Person will be liable to any former holder of Common Shares for any amount delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws.

(f) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such Person of a bond in customary amount and upon such terms the Surviving Corporation may determine is necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Agreement.

2.3 Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary and to the extent available under the DGCL, any Common Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are held by a stockholder (a Dissenting Stockholder) who has neither voted in favor of the adoption of this Agreement nor consented thereto in writing and who has demanded properly in writing appraisal for such shares and otherwise properly perfected and not withdrawn or lost their rights (the Dissenting Shares) in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL will not be converted into, or represent the right to receive, the Cash Consideration. Such Dissenting Stockholders will be entitled to receive payment of the appraised value of Dissenting Shares held by them in accordance with the provisions of such Section 262, except that all Dissenting Shares held by stockholders who have failed to perfect or who effectively have withdrawn or lost their rights to appraisal of such Dissenting Shares under such Section 262 will thereupon be deemed to have been converted into, and represent the right to receive, the Cash Consideration in the manner provided in Article II and shall no longer be Excluded Common Shares. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2.3, if the Merger is rescinded or abandoned, then the right of any stockholder to be paid the fair value of such stockholder s Dissenting Shares pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL will cease. The Company will give SibCo 1 prompt notice of any written demands for appraisal, attempted withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments served pursuant to applicable Law received by the Company relating to stockholders rights of appraisal. The Company shall give SibCo 1 the opportunity to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal. The Company will not, except with the prior written consent of SibCo 1, make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisals of Dissenting Shares, offer to settle or settle any such demands or approve any withdrawal or other treatment of any such demands.

2.4 Adjustments to Prevent Dilution. In the event that the Company changes the number of Common Shares, or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for Common Shares, issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time as a result of a reclassification, stock split (including a reverse stock split), stock dividend or distribution, recapitalization, merger, subdivision, issuer tender or exchange offer, or other similar transaction, the Merger Consideration will be equitably adjusted to reflect such change.

2.5 Treatment of Company Stock Options and Other Equity Based Awards. (a) Each option to purchase Common Shares (collectively, the Company Stock Options) outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the Company Benefit Plans will become fully vested and exercisable and, except as provided in Exhibit 2.1(f), the holder of such Company Stock Option will, in settlement of such Company Stock Option and in exchange for the surrender to the Company of the certificate or other document evidencing such Company Stock Option, receive from the Company for each Common Share subject to such Company Stock Option, an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the difference between the Cash Consideration and the exercise price per Common Share, to the extent such difference is a positive number (with the aggregate amount of such payment rounded up to the nearest whole cent). At the Effective Time, each outstanding and unexercised Company Stock Option will be canceled and the holders of Company Stock Options will have no further rights in respect of any Company Stock Options.

(b) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, all forfeiture provisions applicable to restricted shares (collectively, the Company Restricted Shares) issued pursuant to the Company Benefit Plans (or under any individual agreement with a Company employee or current or former director of the Company) will lapse to the extent such forfeiture provisions have not previously lapsed in accordance with the terms of the Company Benefit Plans (or the terms of any individual agreement). Each holder of Restricted Shares will be treated as a holder of the corresponding number of Common Shares as of the Effective Time in accordance with Section 2.1(a) in the same manner as other outstanding Company Common Shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(c) Each holder of each awarded and allocated share equivalent credit (collectively, the Company Share Credit Awards) outstanding as of the Effective Time pursuant to the terms of the Phantom Share Credit Plans will, in settlement of such Company Share Credit Awards and in exchange for the surrender to the Company of any document evidencing such Company Share Credit Awards, receive from the Company for each Company Share Credit Award, at such time as such Company Share Credit Award would have become fully vested and nonforfeitable (after taking into account any accelerated vesting in the UGA Employee Long Term Bonus Program) pursuant to the terms of the applicable Phantom Share Credit Plans as in effect as of the date hereof, an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the number of shares subject to such Company Share Credit Awards held by such holder multiplied by the Cash Consideration. To the extent the Company has not previously done so, immediately prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall reallocate all forfeiture credits in accordance with the terms of the Phantom Share Credit Plans.

(d) The Company will take all actions necessary to ensure that all adjustments, allocations and amendments to or all such determinations required with respect to the Company Stock Options, Company Restricted Shares and Company Share Credit Awards required to implement the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.5 are taken or made.

III. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as set forth in the letter delivered to the SibCos and the Merger Cos by the Company concurrently with the execution of this Agreement (the Company Disclosure Letter) (which Company Disclosure Letter sets forth items of disclosure with specific reference to the particular Section or subsection of this Agreement to which the information in the Company Disclosure Letter relates; provided, however, that any information set forth in one Section of the Company Disclosure Letter will be deemed to apply to each other Section or subsection of this Agreement to which its relevance is reasonably apparent from the face of the disclosure), the Company hereby represents and warrants to the SibCos and each Merger Co that:

Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries is duly qualified or licensed to do business as a foreign corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where the character of the assets and properties owned, leased or operated by it or the nature of its business makes such qualification or license necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified or licensed or in good standing would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Each of the Domestic Insurance Subsidiaries is (i) duly licensed or authorized as an insurance company in its jurisdiction of incorporation, (ii) duly licensed or authorized to carry on an insurance business in each other jurisdiction where it is required to be so licensed or authorized, and (iii) duly authorized in its jurisdiction of incorporation and each other applicable jurisdiction to write its lines of business as required by applicable Law, except, in each case, where the failure to be so licensed or authorized would not result in a material settlement or fine or a material change in the conduct of business by such Domestic Insurance Subsidiary as presently conducted. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries have made all material filings required under applicable insurance Laws.

3.2 Corporate Authorization; Enforceability. (a) The Company has the requisite corporate power and authority to enter into and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and, subject to adoption of this Agreement by the Requisite Company Vote, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Since the Measurement Date, there have been no issuances of any securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that would have been in breach of Section 5.2 if made after the date hereof. (f) in such other circumstances where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings or notifications, would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

3.7 Non-Contravention. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Company and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement do not and will not:

(a) contravene or conflict with, or result in any violation or breach of, any provision of the Company Organizational Documents;

The Company has disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation of such disclosure controls and procedures prior to the date of this Agreement, to the Company s auditors and the audit committee of the Company Board (1) any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal controls over financial reporting that are reasonably likely to adversely affect in any material respect the Company s ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information and (2) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company s internal controls over financial reporting.

(b) The audited financial statements and unaudited interim financial statements of each of the Company s Domestic Insurance Subsidiaries, in the form included in or filed with any filing required to be submitted to the Insurance Regulatory Authority applicable to such Domestic Insurance Subsidiary since January 1, 2002, (i) were prepared in accordance with SAP applied on a consistent basis (except as may be indicated in the notes to those financial statements) and (ii) fairly present in all material respects the financial position of such Domestic Insurance Subsidiary as of the dates thereof and its results of operations and cash flows for the periods then ended (subject, in the case of any unaudited interim financial statements, to normal year-end adjustments, which were not and are not expected to be material in amount).

No such treaty or agreement contains any provision providing that the other party thereto may terminate or amend such treaty or agreement by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except where the presence of such provision would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect. The Company and each Subsidiary of the Company are entitled to take full credit in their respective financial statements pursuant to applicable Laws for all reinsurance ceded pursuant to any reinsurance treaty or agreement to which the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company is a party, except where the failure to take such full credit would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(f) The Company will not take any action to exempt any Person from the restrictions on business combinations contained in Section 203 of the DGCL (or any similar provisions) or otherwise cause such restrictions not to apply unless such actions are taken simultaneously with a termination of this Agreement.

5.5 Notices of Certain Events. (a) The Company will notify SibCo 1 promptly of (i) any communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person (or another Person) is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (and the response thereto from the Company, its Subsidiaries or its Representatives), (ii) any communication from any Governmental Entity in connection with (A) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (and the response thereto from the Company, its Subsidiaries or its Representatives) or (B) the ongoing NAIC multi-state market conduct examination of the Company s Domestic Insurance Subsidiaries or any other material examination or material regulatory issue involving the Company or its business, (iii) any material Legal Actions threatened or commenced against or otherwise affecting the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that are related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (and the response thereto from the Company, its Subsidiaries or its Representatives), (iv) any material changes or material developments relating to pending material Legal Actions and (v) any event, change, occurrence, circumstance or development between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time which causes or is reasonably likely to cause the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(a) or 6.2(b) of this Agreement not to be satisfied or result in such satisfaction being materially delayed.

(a) The SibCos or the Merger Cos will notify the Company promptly of (i) any communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person (or other Person) is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (and the response thereto from the SibCos, the Merger Cos or their respective Representatives), (ii) any communication from any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (and the response thereto from the SibCos, the Merger Cos or their respective Representatives), and (iii) any event, change, occurrence, circumstance or development between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time which causes or is reasonably likely to cause the conditions set forth in Section 6.3(a) or 6.3(b) of this Agreement not to be satisfied or result in such satisfaction being materially delayed.

5.6 Company Disclosure Documents. (a) As promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement, the Company will prepare a draft of the Company Proxy Statement. As promptly as practicable after the date on which (i) the Company receives notification from the SEC that no-action relief shall not be granted or (ii) SibCo 1 informs the Company that it has reasonably concluded based on advice from its outside counsel that registration of the shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation is required (such date, the Notification Date), the Company will prepare a draft of the Company Registration Statement, in which the Company Proxy Statement will be included as a prospectus. The Company will provide SibCo 1 with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any such draft, and once such draft is in a form reasonably acceptable to SibCo 1 and the Company, the Company will promptly file the Company Proxy Statement (or, if applicable, the Company Registration Statement) with the SEC, with respect to each such action as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement (or, in the case of the Company Registration Statement, as promptly as practicable following the Notification Date). Each of the Company, the SibCos and the Merger Cos shall furnish all information concerning itself and its Affiliates that is required to be included in the Company Proxy Statement or the Company Registration Statement or that is customarily included in proxy statements and/or registration statements prepared in connection with transactions of the type contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) The Company will use its reasonable best efforts to (i) respond to and resolve any comments on the Company Proxy Statement (or, if applicable, the Company Registration Statement) or requests for additional information from the SEC as soon as practicable after receipt of any such comments or requests and (ii) cause the Company Proxy Statement to be mailed to the stockholders of the Company as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement (or, if SibCo 1 reasonably concludes based on advice from its outside counsel that registration of the shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation is required, as promptly as practicable following the Notification Date). The Company will promptly (A) notify SibCo 1 upon the receipt of any such comments or requests and (B) provide SibCo 1 with copies of all correspondence between the Company and its Representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC and its staff, on the other hand. If at any time prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting, any information relating to the Company, the SibCos or the Merger Cos should be discovered by the Company, the SibCos or the Merger Cos which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Company Proxy Statement (or, if applicable, the Company Registration Statement), so that the Company Proxy Statement (or, if applicable, the Company Registration Statement) will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information will promptly notify the other parties, and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be filed with the SEC as promptly as practicable and, to the extent required by applicable Law, disseminated to the stockholders of the Company as promptly as practicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated above, prior to responding to any such comments or requests or the filing or mailing of the Company Proxy Statement (or, if applicable, the Company Registration Statement) (or, in either case, any amendment or supplement thereto), the Company (x) will provide SibCo 1 and the Merger Cos with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any drafts of the Company Proxy Statement (or, if applicable the Company Registration Statement) and related correspondence and filings and (y) will include in such drafts, correspondence and filings all comments reasonably proposed by SibCo 1.

(c) The Company Proxy Statement (or, if applicable, the Company Registration Statement) will include the Company Board Recommendation unless the Company Board has withdrawn, modified or amended the Company Board Recommendation in accordance with Section 5.4(d).

5.7 Company Stockholders Meeting. The Company will call and hold the Company Stockholders Meeting as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement for the purpose of voting on the adoption of this Agreement. The written consent of SibCo 1, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, will be required to adjourn or postpone the Company Stockholder Meeting; provided, that, in the event that there is present at such meeting, in person or by proxy, sufficient favorable voting power to secure the Requisite Company Vote, the Company will not adjourn or postpone the Company Stockholders Meeting unless the Company is advised by counsel that failure to do so would result in a breach of the U.S. federal securities laws. The Company will (a) use its reasonable best efforts to solicit or cause to be solicited from its stockholders proxies in favor of adoption of this Agreement and (b) subject to Section 5.4(d), take all other reasonable action necessary to secure the Requisite Company Vote. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, unless this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Sections 7.1, 7.2, 7.3 or 7.4, the Company will take all of the actions contemplated by this Section 5.7 regardless of whether the Company Board has approved, endorsed or recommended another Takeover Proposal or has withdrawn, modified or amended the Company Board Recommendation, and will submit this Agreement for adoption by the stockholders of the Company at such meeting.

5.8 Employees; Benefit Plans. (a) For a period of one year following the Closing Date (the Continuation Period), the Surviving Corporation will provide employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries (other than those employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement, if any) as of the Effective Time (Employees) with compensation and benefits that are no less favorable in the aggregate as those provided under the Company s compensation and benefit plans, programs, policies, practices and arrangements (other than equity incentives) in effect at the Effective Time; provided, however, that nothing herein will prevent the amendment or termination of any specific plan, program or arrangement, require that the Surviving Corporation provide or permit investment in the securities of the Surviving Corporation or interfere with the Surviving Corporation s right or obligation to make such changes as are necessary to comply with applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, nothing herein precludes the Surviving Corporation from terminating the employment of any Employee for any reason for which the Company could have terminated such Employee prior to the Effective Time.

(b) The Surviving Corporation and its Affiliates will honor all Company Benefit Plans (including any severance, retention, change of control and similar plans, agreements and written arrangements) in accordance with their terms as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, subject to any amendment or termination thereof that may be permitted by such plans, agreements or written arrangements. During the Continuation Period, the Surviving Corporation will provide all Employees (other than those covered by an individual agreement providing severance benefits outside the Company s severance policies who will receive the severance benefit provided for in such agreement) who suffer a termination of employment with severance benefits no less favorable than those that would have been provided to such Employees under the Company s severance policies as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(c) For all purposes under the employee benefit plans of the Surviving Corporation and its Affiliates providing benefits to any Employees after the Effective Time (the New Plans), each Employee will be credited with his or her years of service with the Company and its Affiliates before the Effective Time (including predecessor or acquired entities or any other entities for which the Company and its Affiliates have given credit for prior service), to the same extent as such Employee was entitled, before the Effective Time, to credit for such service under any similar or comparable Company Benefit Plans (except to the extent such credit would result in a duplication of accrual of benefits). In addition, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing (i) each Employee immediately will be eligible to participate, without any waiting time, in any and all New Plans to the extent coverage under such New Plan replaces coverage under a similar or comparable Company Benefit Plan in which such Employee participated immediately before the Effective Time (such plans, collectively, the Old Plans) and (ii) for purposes of each New Plan providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical and/or vision benefits to any Employee, the Surviving Corporation will cause all pre-existing condition exclusions and actively-at-work requirements of such New Plan to be waived for such Employee and his or her covered dependents, to the extent any such exclusions or requirements were waived or were inapplicable under any similar or comparable Company Benefit Plan, and the Surviving Corporation will cause any eligible expenses incurred by such Employee and his or her covered dependents during the portion of the plan year of the Old Plan ending on the date such Employee s participation in the corresponding New Plan begins to be taken into account under such New Plan for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such Employee and his or her covered dependents for the applicable plan year as if such amounts had been paid in accordance with such New Plan.

(d) The applicable party will take all actions contemplated to be taken by it pursuant to Schedule 5.8(d).

(e) Prior to the Effective Time the Company will amend the Agent Stock Accumulation Plans as set forth in Schedule 5.8(e), provided that the final form of such amendment or amended plan shall be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to SibCo 1.

(f) No provision of this Section 5.8 shall create any third party beneficiary rights in any current or former employee, director or consultant of the Company or its Subsidiaries in respect of continued employment (or resumed employment) or any other matter.

5.9 Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance. (a) In the event of any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, including any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation in which any present or former director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (together, the Indemnified Parties) is, or is threatened to be, made a party based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining in whole or in part to, any action or failure to take action by any such Person in such capacity taken prior to the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation (the Indemnifying Party) will, from and after the Effective Time, indemnify, defend and hold harmless, as and to the fullest extent permitted or required by applicable Law and required by the Company Organizational Documents (or any similar organizational document) of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, when applicable, and any indemnity agreements applicable to any such Indemnified Party or any Contract between an Indemnified Party and the Company or one of its Subsidiaries, in each case, in effect on the date of this Agreement, against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, legal and other expenses (including reimbursement for legal and other fees and expenses incurred in advance of the final disposition of any claim, suit, proceeding or investigation to each Indemnified Party), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, subject to the Surviving Corporation s receipt of an undertaking by such Indemnified Party to repay such legal and other fees and expenses paid in advance if it is ultimately determined that such Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified under applicable Law; provided, however, that the Surviving Corporation will not be liable for any settlement effected without the Surviving Corporation s prior written consent and will not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel (selected by a plurality of the applicable Indemnified Parties) for all Indemnified Parties in any jurisdiction with respect to any single such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, except to the extent that two or more of such Indemnified Parties shall have conflicting interests in the outcome of such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation.

(b) The Surviving Corporation will (i) maintain in effect for a period of six years after the Effective Time, if available, the current policies of directors and officers liability insurance maintained by the Company (provided that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are not less advantageous to the directors and officers of the Company) or (ii) obtain as of the Effective Time tail insurance policies with a claims period of six years from the Effective Time with at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the directors and officers of the Company, in each case, with respect to claims arising out of or relating to events which occurred before or at the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event will the Surviving Corporation be required to expend an annual premium for such coverage in excess of 200% of the last annual premium paid by the Company for such insurance prior to the date of this Agreement (the Maximum Premium). If such insurance coverage cannot be obtained at all, or can only be obtained at an annual premium in excess of the Maximum Premium, the Surviving Corporation will obtain that amount of directors and officers insurance (or tail coverage) obtainable for an annual premium equal to the Maximum Premium.

(c) The provisions of this Section 5.9 will survive the Closing and are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and its successors and representatives after the Effective Time and their rights under this Section 5.9 are in addition to, and will not be deemed to be exclusive of, any other rights to which an Indemnified Party is entitled, whether pursuant to Law, Contract, the Company Organizational Documents (or similar organizational document) of the Surviving Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise.

(d) The Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification than are set forth in Section 8.08 of the Bylaws of the Company, as amended to the date hereof, which provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the Effective Time in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to the Effective Time, were directors, officers, employees, fiduciaries or agents of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries.

(e) The obligations under this Section 5.9 may not be terminated or modified by the Surviving Corporation in a manner as to adversely affect any Indemnified Party to whom this Section 5.9 applies without the consent of the affected Indemnified Party. In the event that the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Persons or (ii) transfers 50% or more of its properties or assets to any Person, then and in each case, proper provision will be made so that the applicable successors, assigns or transferees assume the obligations set forth in this Section 5.9.

5.10 Reasonable Best Efforts. (a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and in accordance with applicable Laws, each of the parties to this Agreement will use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to ensure that the conditions set forth in Article VI are satisfied and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as practicable, including (i) obtaining all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents and approvals from Governmental Entities and making all necessary registrations and filings and taking all steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any Governmental Entity, (ii) making, as promptly as practicable, an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and not extending any waiting period under the HSR Act or entering into any agreement with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) or the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (the Antitrust Division) not to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except with the prior written consent of the other parties hereto (which consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), (iii) obtaining all consents, approvals or waivers from, or taking other actions with respect to, third parties necessary or advisable to be obtained or taken in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the placement of legends as contemplated by the Voting Agreement if applicable); provided, however, that without the prior written consent of SibCo 1 (which consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) the Company and its Subsidiaries may not pay or commit to pay any amount of cash or other consideration, or incur or commit to incur any liability or obligation, in connection with obtaining such consent, approval or waiver, (iv) subject to first having used reasonable best efforts to negotiate a resolution of any objections underlying such lawsuits or other legal proceedings, defending and contesting any lawsuits or other legal proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including seeking to have any stay or temporary restraining order entered by any Governmental Entity vacated or reversed, and (v) executing and delivering any additional instruments necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by, and to fully carry out the purposes of, this Agreement.

(b) The SibCos, the Merger Cos and the Company will cooperate and consult with each other in connection with the making of all such filings, notifications and any other material actions pursuant to this Section 5.10, subject to applicable Law, by permitting counsel for the other party to review in advance, and consider in good faith the views of the other party in connection with, any proposed material written communication to any Governmental Entity and by providing counsel for the other party with copies of all filings and submissions made by such party and all correspondence between such party (and its advisors) with any Governmental Entity and any other information supplied by such party and such party s Affiliates to a Governmental Entity or received from such a Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, provided, however, that material may be redacted (x) to remove references concerning the valuation of the businesses of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (y) as necessary to comply with contractual arrangements, and (z) as necessary to address good faith privilege or confidentiality concerns. None of the SibCos, the Merger Cos or the Company may file any such document or take such action if the other party has reasonably objected (and not withdrawn its objection) to the filing of such document or the taking of such action on the grounds that such filing or action would reasonably be expected to either (i) prevent, materially delay or materially impede the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or (ii) cause a condition set forth in Article VI to not be satisfied in a timely manner. None of the SibCos, the Merger Cos nor the Company will consent to any voluntary extension of any statutory deadline or waiting period or to any voluntary delay of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement at the behest of any Governmental Entity without the consent of the other party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(c) The SibCos, the Merger Cos and the Company will promptly inform the other party upon receipt of any material communication from the FTC, the Antitrust Division or any other Governmental Entity regarding any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. If any SibCo, any Merger Co or the Company (or any of their respective Affiliates) receives a request for additional information or documentary material from any such Governmental Entity that is related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, then such party will endeavor in good faith to make, or cause to be made, as soon as reasonably practicable and after consultation with the other party, an appropriate response in compliance with such request. The parties agree not to participate, or to permit their Affiliates to participate, in any substantive meeting or discussion, either in person or by telephone, with any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement unless it so consults with the other party in advance and, to the extent not prohibited by such Governmental Entity, gives the other party the opportunity to attend and participate. Each party will advise the other parties promptly of any understandings, undertakings or agreements (oral or written) which the first party proposes to make or enter into with the FTC, the Antitrust Division or any other Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each party will use reasonable best efforts to resolve any objections that may be asserted with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement under any antitrust, competition or trade or insurance regulatory Laws, including (subject to first having used reasonable best efforts to negotiate a resolution to any such objections) contesting and resisting any action or proceeding and to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that is in effect and that prohibits, prevents or restricts consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and to have such statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, injunction or administrative order repealed, rescinded or made inapplicable so as to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no party is required to, and the Company may not, without the prior written consent of SibCo 1, become subject, consent or agree to, or otherwise take any action with respect to, any requirement, condition, understanding, agreement or Order to sell, to hold separate or otherwise dispose of, or to conduct, restrict, operate, invest or otherwise change the assets or business of the Company or any of its Affiliates in any manner which, individually or in the aggregate with all other such requirements, conditions, understandings, agreements and Orders, is materially adverse to the Company and its Affiliates, taken as a whole, whether before or after giving effect to the Merger, or requires any change in the conduct of the business of the Company and its Affiliates, in any material respect, as presently conducted (a Burdensome Condition). Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company will, upon request of SibCo 1, become subject, consent or agree to or otherwise take any action with respect to, any requirement, condition, understanding, agreement or Order to sell, to hold separate or otherwise dispose of, or to conduct, restrict, operate, invest or otherwise change the assets or business of the Company or any of its Affiliates, so long as such requirement, condition, understanding, agreement or Order is binding on the Company only in the event that the Closing occurs.

5.11 Public Announcements. The SibCos, the Merger Cos and the Company will consult with each other before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statements about this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. None of the SibCos, the Merger Cos and the Company will issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except to the extent that the disclosing party determines in good faith it is required to do so by applicable Laws or the NYSE requirements, in which case that party will use its reasonable best efforts to consult with the other party before issuing any such release or making any such public statement.

5.12 Stock Exchange Listing. At the request of SibCo 1, promptly after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will cause the Common Shares to be delisted from the NYSE and deregistered under the Exchange Act.

5.13 Fees, Expenses and Conveyance Taxes. Whether or not the Merger is consummated, all expenses (including those payable to Representatives) incurred by any party to this Agreement or on its behalf in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (Expenses) will be paid by the party incurring those Expenses, except as otherwise provided in Sections 5.15 and 7.6.

5.14 Takeover Statutes. If any takeover statute is or becomes applicable to this Agreement, the Voting Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Voting

A-37

Agreement, each of the SibCos, each of the Merger Cos and the Company and their respective boards of directors will (a) take all necessary action to ensure that such transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and (b) otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of such takeover statute.

5.15 Financing; Funding.

(a) Each of the SibCos will comply with its obligations under the Commitment Letter and will use its reasonable best efforts to arrange the Debt Financing on the terms and conditions described in the Commitment Letter, including using reasonable best efforts to (i) negotiate definitive agreements with respect thereto on terms and conditions contained therein and (ii) to satisfy all conditions applicable to such SibCo 1 in such definitive agreements that are within its control. In the event any portion of the Debt Financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the Commitment Letter, SibCo 1 will seek in good faith to arrange to obtain any such portion from alternative sources on equivalent or more favorable terms to the SibCos (as determined in the reasonable judgment of SibCo 1) as promptly as practicable following the occurrence of such event. SibCo 1 will give the Company prompt notice of any material breach by any party of the Commitment Letter or any termination of the Commitment Letter. SibCo 1 will keep the Company informed on a reasonably current basis in reasonable detail of the status of its efforts to arrange the Financing as may be reasonably requested by the Company and will not permit any material amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any material provision or remedy under, the Commitment Letter without first consulting with the Company or, if such amendment would or would be reasonably expected to materially and adversely affect, or delay in any material respect, the SibCos or the Merger Cos ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, without first obtaining the Company s prior written consent (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, none of the SibCos or the Merger Cos will be required to incur greater economic costs (including with respect to rates or fees) than is required under the Commitment Letter.

(b) The Company will reasonably cooperate, and will cause its Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives to reasonably cooperate, with each of the SibCos, each of the Merger Cos and each of their respective financing sources in connection with the arrangement of the Debt Financing as may be reasonably requested by SibCo 1 or such Merger Co (provided that such requested cooperation does not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries), including (i) participation in meetings, drafting sessions and due diligence sessions, (ii) furnishing such SibCo or Merger Co and its financing sources with financial and other pertinent information regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries as may be reasonably requested by such SibCo or Merger Co, (iii) assisting SibCo 1 and their respective financing sources in the preparation of (A) an offering document for any debt raised to consummate the Debt Financing and (B) materials for rating agency presentations, (iv) reasonably cooperating with the marketing efforts of SibCo 1 and its financing sources for any debt arranged by the SibCos to consummate the Debt Financing, (v) forming new direct or indirect Subsidiaries, (vi) satisfying the conditions of the Commitment Letter that explicitly require action by the Company, and (vii) providing and executing documents as may be reasonably requested by SibCo 1 and any Merger Co (including any pledge and security documents, other definitive financing documents, and other certificates (including solvency certificates), or documents as may be reasonably or customarily requested by the banks and lenders); provided, however, that none of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof will be required to pay any commitment or other similar fee or incur any other liability in connection with the Debt Financing prior to the Effective Time. In the event that this Agreement is terminated other than by SibCo 1 under Section 7.3, SibCo 1 will promptly reimburse the Company for reasonable out-of-pocket costs, not exceeding $500,000 in the aggregate, incurred by the Company or its Subsidiaries in connection with the Company s cooperation with the SibCos and the Merger Cos pursuant to this Section 5.15.

(c) The Merger Cos agree that, in the event that (i) all of the conditions set forth in Section 6.1, Section 6.2 (except for the condition set forth in Section 6.2(f)), and Section 6.3 (except for the condition set forth in Section 6.3(b) as it relates to this Section 5.15(c)) are satisfied (or waived in accordance with to this Agreement) and (ii) the condition set forth in Section 6.2(f) would be satisfied but for the satisfaction of any condition to the Debt Financing requiring funding of the Equity Commitment, then, immediately prior to the Effective Time the Merger Cos shall, individually or collectively, have an aggregate amount in cash or available funds equal to $1,160 million, or such lesser amount that, together with the proceeds of the Debt Financing and any cash on hand at the Company and the LLC, is sufficient to allow the Surviving Corporation to pay the Cash Consideration payable (other than with respect to any Dissenting Shares or Retained Shares) in accordance with Article II.

5.16 No-Action Letter. As promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement, the Company will prepare and file with the SEC a request for the issuance by the SEC of a no action letter in a form reasonably acceptable to SibCo 1 with respect to certain securities matters previously discussed between representatives of the parties relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.17 Rule 16b-3. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company may take such steps as may be reasonably requested by any party hereto to cause dispositions of Company equity securities (including derivative securities) pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by each individual who is a director or officer of the Company to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act in accordance with that certain No-Action Letter dated January 12, 1999 issued by the SEC regarding such matters.

5.18 Resignations. The Company will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain and deliver to SibCo 1 at the Closing evidence reasonably satisfactory to SibCo 1 of the resignation effective as of the Effective Time, of those directors of the Company or any Subsidiary designated by SibCo 1 to the Company in writing at least five calendar days prior to the Closing.

5.19 Affiliate Termination Agreements. Between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, the Company will, and will cause its Subsidiaries to, use their respective reasonable best efforts to terminate the sale of assets agreement, as amended, in effect as of the date of this Agreement, between the Company and Special Investment Risks, Ltd., on terms and conditions reasonably acceptable to SibCo 1; provided that the termination of such agreement in a transaction in which the total financial obligation incurred by the Company is $47.5 million or less will be deemed to be reasonably acceptable to SibCo 1 without further action.

5.20 BHC Act. The Company will not engage, either directly or through any entity that the Company would be deemed to control for the purposes of the BHC Act and Regulation Y, in any activity that is not permissible for a financial holding company under, and as defined in, the BHC Act and Regulation Y.

VI. CONDITIONS

6.1 Conditions to Each Party s Obligation to Effect the Merger. The respective obligation of each party to this Agreement to effect the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver on or prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions:

(b) Antitrust. The waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Merger under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated.

(c) No Injunctions or Restraints. Table of Contents

6.2 Conditions to Obligations of the SibCos and the Merger Cos. (a) Representations and Warranties. (i) The representations and warranties of the Company set forth in (x) Section 3.11(b) of this Agreement shall be true and correct in all respects (unless the failure to be so true and correct is due primarily to the Debt Financing or to other changes or proposed changes to the capital structure of the Company made in connection with this Agreement or at the request of any Merger Co) and (y) Sections 3.4(a), 3.9(a), 3.28 and 3.29 of this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects, in each of clauses (x) and (y): (A) on the date of this Agreement and (B) on the Closing Date, with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent that any such representation or warranty expressly speaks as of an earlier date, in which case such representation and warranty shall be true and correct as of such earlier date) and (ii) the other representations and warranties of the Company set forth in this Agreement (in each case read for purposes of this Section 6.2(a)(ii) without any materiality, material or Company Material Adverse Effect qualifications), shall be true and correct: (A) on the date of this Agreement and (B) on the Closing Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representation and warranty expressly speaks as of an earlier date, in which case such representation and warranty shall be true and correct as of such earlier date), other than failures to be true and correct that would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Performance of Covenants. The Company shall have performed in all material respects all covenants required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Company Material Adverse Effect. Since June 30, 2005, there shall have been no Company Material Adverse Effect.

(f) Financing. The proceeds of the Debt Financing shall be available to the Company on equivalent or more favorable terms and conditions as are set forth in the Commitment Letter (as determined in the reasonable judgment of SibCo 1).

(g) Agent Status. Since the Measurement Date:

(i) less than 25% of the Active Agents listed on the Active Agents List shall have effected a Qualifying Withdrawal (as defined below) from any Agent Stock Accumulation Plan; and

(ii) less than:

(B) 12.5% of the Senior Hierarchy Agents listed on the Senior Hierarchy Agents List shall have effected a Qualifying Withdrawal from any Agent Stock Accumulation Plan.

(h) Insurance Regulatory Action. No Governmental Entity shall have taken, or informed a party or publicly disclosed that it intends to take any action (including in respect of any action or matter disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter) against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered, or is reasonably likely to enact, issue, promulgate, enforce or enter, any Laws or Orders (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent), that would reasonably be expected to (i) lead to a limitation (including by revocation or suspension of a license, or the issuance of a cease and desist order, injunction or similar action) on the ability of the Company and its Subsidiaries to conduct their respective businesses in any material respect as such businesses are conducted as of the date of this Agreement or (ii) amount to a Burdensome Condition.

6.3 Conditions to Obligation of the Company. The obligation of the Company to effect the Merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver by the Company on or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of the SibCos and the Merger Cos set forth in this Agreement (in each case read for purposes of this Section 6.3(a) without any materiality, material or Acquiror Material Adverse Effect qualifications), shall be true and correct (A) on the date of this Agreement and (B) on the Closing Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representation and warranty expressly speaks as of an earlier date, in which case such representation and warranty shall be true and correct as of such earlier date), other than failures to be true and correct that would not have a Acquiror Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Performance of Covenants. Each SibCo and each Merger Co shall have performed in all material respects all covenants required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Officers Certificate. The Company shall have received a certificate, signed by the chief executive officer or the chief financial officer of each SibCo and each Merger Co, certifying as to the matters set forth in Section 6.3(a) and Section 6.3(b).

VII. TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

7.1 Termination by Mutual Consent. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time by mutual written consent of SibCo 1 (on behalf of itself, each other SibCo and the Merger Cos) and the Company.

7.2 Termination by SibCo 1 or the Company. This Agreement may be terminated by SibCo 1 or the Company at any time prior to the Effective Time:

(a) if the Merger has not been consummated by June 15, 2006 (the Outside Date), except that the right to terminate this Agreement under this clause will not be available to any party to this Agreement whose failure to fulfill any of its obligations has been a principal cause of, or resulted in, the failure to consummate the Merger by such date;

(b) if this Agreement has been submitted to the stockholders of the Company for adoption at a duly convened Company Stockholders Meeting (or adjournment or postponement thereof in accordance with Section 5.7) and the Requisite Company Vote is not obtained upon a vote taken thereon;

(c) if any Law prohibits consummation of the Merger; or

(d) if any Order restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits consummation of the Merger, and such Order has become final and nonappealable.

7.3 Termination by SibCo 1. This Agreement may be terminated by SibCo 1 at any time prior to the Effective Time:

(a) if (i) the Company Board withdraws, modifies or amends the Company Board Recommendation in any manner adverse to SibCo 1 or the Merger Cos, (ii) the Company Board approves, endorses or recommends a Takeover Proposal, or (iii) the Company or the Company Board resolves or announces its intention to do any of the foregoing, in any case whether or not permitted by Section 5.4;

(b) the Company (i) materially breaches its obligations under Sections 5.4, 5.6(c) or 5.7, or the Company Board or any committee thereof shall resolve to do any of the foregoing or (ii) (A) materially breaches its obligations under Section 5.6(a) or 5.6(b) and (B) such breach is not cured within five Business Days after the Company s receipt of written notice asserting such breach from SibCo 1;

(c) if the Company breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, which breach (i) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 6.2(a) or Section 6.2(b) and (ii) has not been cured by the Company within 20 Business Days after the Company s receipt of written notice of such breach from SibCo 1; or

(d) if a Company Material Adverse Effect shall occur and be continuing and has not been cured by the Company within 20 Business Days after the Company s receipt of written notice of the occurrence of such event from SibCo 1.

7.4 Termination by the Company. This Agreement may be terminated by the Company at any time prior to the Effective Time if any SibCo or any Merger Co breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, which breach (a) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 6.3(a) or Section 6.3(b) and (b) has not been cured by such SibCo or such Merger Co within 20 Business Days after such SibCo s or such Merger Co s receipt of written notice of such breach from the Company.

7.5 Effect of Termination. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Article VII, it will become void and of no further force and effect, with no liability on the part of any party to this Agreement (or any stockholder, director, officer, employee, agent or Representative of such party), except that if there shall be any willful (a) failure of any party to perform its covenants or (b) breach by any party of its representations or warranties contained in this Agreement, then such party will be fully liable for any Liabilities incurred or suffered by the other parties as a result of such failure or breach. The provisions of Section 5.3(b), Section 5.13, the reimbursement obligations of the SibCos and the Merger Cos in Section 5.15(b), Section 7.5, Section 7.6 and Article VIII will survive any termination of this Agreement.

7.6 Expenses, Etc. Following Termination. (a) Except as set forth in this Section 7.6, all Expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby will be paid in accordance with the provisions of Sections 5.13 and 5.15.

(b) The Company will pay, or cause to be paid, to SibCo 1 by wire transfer of immediately available funds an amount equal to $65 million (the Termination Fee):

(i) if this Agreement is terminated by SibCo 1 pursuant to Section 7.3(a) or Section 7.3(b), in which event payment will be made within two Business Days after such termination; or

(ii) if (A) a Takeover Proposal has been made or proposed to the Company or otherwise publicly announced (which has not been withdrawn (x) at least 20 Business Days prior to the Outside Date with respect to a termination pursuant to Section 7.2(a) or prior to the breach that gave rise to the termination with respect to a termination pursuant to Section 7.3(c), or (y) at least three Business Days prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting with respect to a termination pursuant to Section 7.2(b)), (B) this Agreement is terminated by SibCo 1 or the Company pursuant to Section 7.2(a) or Section 7.2(b) or by SibCo 1 pursuant to Section 7.3(c), and (C) within 12 months following the date of such termination, the Company enters into a Contract providing for the implementation of a Takeover Proposal or consummates any Takeover Proposal (whether or not such Takeover Proposal was the same Takeover Proposal referred to in the foregoing clause (A)), in which event payment will be made within two Business Days after the date on which the Company enters into such Contract or consummates such Takeover Proposal, as applicable. For purposes of the foregoing clause (C) only, references in the definition of the term Takeover Proposal to the figure 20% will be deemed to be replaced by the figure 50% .

(c) Each of the Company, the SibCos and the Merger Cos acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 7.6 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event that the Company fails to pay the Termination Fee when due, the Company will (i) reimburse SibCo 1 for all reasonable costs and

and its Affiliates (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with the collection under and enforcement of this Section 7.6 and (ii) pay interest on such unpaid amounts at the prime lending rate prevailing at such time, as published in the Wall Street Journal, from the date such amounts were due until the date received by SibCo 1 or the Merger Cos.

7.7 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the Company and SibCo 1 (on behalf of itself, each other SibCo and the Merger Cos) at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after stockholder approval hereof, so long as (a) no amendment that requires further stockholder approval under applicable Laws after stockholder approval hereof will be made without such required further approval and (b) such amendment has been duly authorized or approved by the board of directors of each of SibCo 1 and the Company. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties to this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in the event that certain aspects of the structure for the transactions provided in this Agreement have not received appropriate clearance or approval by applicable securities regulators in the reasonable judgment of SibCo 1 based on advice from its outside counsel, the parties will amend this Agreement to provide for an alternate structure as reasonably proposed by SibCo 1 and reasonably acceptable to the Company that does not raise such structural considerations (including an appropriate extension of the time periods provided herein, for up to 60 days) to more effectively facilitate the consummation of the underlying transactions without otherwise adversely affecting the rights and obligations of the Company hereunder.

7.8 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, SibCo 1 and the Merger Cos, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations of the other party, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered under this Agreement, or (c) unless prohibited by applicable Laws, waive compliance with any of the covenants or conditions contained in this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any extension or waiver will be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by such party. The failure of any party to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise will not constitute a waiver of such rights.

7.9 Procedure for Termination, Amendment, Extension or Waiver. In order to be effective, (a) any termination or amendment of this Agreement will require the prior approval of that action by the board of directors of each party seeking to terminate or amend this Agreement and (b) any extension or waiver of any obligation under this Agreement or condition to the consummation of this Agreement will require the prior approval of a duly authorized officer or the board of directors of the party or parties entitled to extend or waive that obligation or condition.

8.2 Interpretation. (a) The headings in this Agreement are for reference only and do not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Definitions will apply equally to both the singular and plural forms of the terms defined. Whenever the context may require, any pronoun will include the corresponding masculine, feminine and neuter forms. All references in this Agreement, the Company Disclosure Letter and the Acquiror Disclosure Letter to Articles, Sections and Exhibits refer to Articles and Sections of, and Exhibits to, this Agreement unless the context requires otherwise. The words include, includes and including are not limiting and will be deemed to be followed by the phrase without limitation. The phrases herein, hereof, hereunder and words of similar import will be deemed to refer to this Agreement as a whole, including the Exhibits and Schedules hereto, and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The word or will be inclusive and not exclusive unless the context requires otherwise. Unless the context requires otherwise, any agreements, documents, instruments or Laws defined or referred to in this Agreement will be deemed to mean or refer to such agreements, documents, instruments or Laws as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including (a) in the case of agreements, documents or instruments, by waiver or consent and (b) in the case of Laws, by succession of comparable successor statutes. All references in this Agreement to any particular Law will be deemed to refer also to any rules and regulations promulgated under that Law. References to a Person also refer to its predecessors and successors and permitted assigns.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the inclusion of an item in the Company Disclosure Letter or the Acquiror Disclosure Letter as an exception to a representation or warranty will not be deemed an admission that such item is material or has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect or Acquiror Material Adverse Effect, as the case may be.

8.3 Survival. None of the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered under this Agreement will survive the Effective Time. This Section 8.3 does not limit any covenant of the parties to this Agreement which, by its terms, contemplates performance after the Effective

Time. The Confidentiality Agreement will (i) survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms and (ii) terminate as of the Effective Time.

8.4 Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to any applicable principles of conflict of laws that would cause the Laws of another State to otherwise govern this Agreement.

8.5 Submission to Jurisdiction. The parties to this Agreement (a) irrevocably submit to the personal jurisdiction of the federal courts of the United States of America located in the State of Delaware and the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and (b) waive any claim of improper venue or any claim that those courts are an inconvenient forum. The parties to this Agreement agree that mailing of process or other papers in connection with any such action or proceeding in the manner provided in Section 8.7 or in such other manner as may be permitted by applicable Laws, will be valid and sufficient service thereof.

8.6 Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party acknowledges and agrees that any controversy which may arise under this Agreement is likely to involve complicated and difficult issues and, therefore, each such party irrevocably and unconditionally waives any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any Legal Action arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each party to this Agreement certifies and acknowledges that (a) no Representative of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not seek to enforce the foregoing waiver in the event of a Legal Action, (b) such party has considered the implications of this waiver, (c) such party makes this waiver voluntarily, and (d) such party has been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 8.6.

8.8 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the Exhibits to this Agreement), the Company Disclosure Letter, the Acquiror Disclosure Letter, and the Confidentiality Agreement constitute the entire agreement and supersede all other prior agreements, understandings, representations and warranties, both written and oral, among the parties to this Agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. No representation, warranty, inducement, promise, understanding or condition not set forth in this Agreement has been made or relied upon by any of the parties to this Agreement.

8.9 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as provided in Section 5.9, this Agreement is not intended to confer any rights or remedies upon any Person other than the parties to this Agreement.

8.10 Severability. The provisions of this Agreement are severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision will not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application of that provision to any Person or any circumstance, is invalid or unenforceable, (a) a suitable and equitable provision will be substituted for that provision in order to carry out, so far as may be valid and enforceable, the intent and purpose of the invalid or unenforceable provision and (b) the remainder of this Agreement and the application of that provision to other Persons or circumstances will not be affected by such invalidity or unenforceability, nor will such invalidity or unenforceability affect the validity or enforceability of that provision, or the application of that provision, in any other jurisdiction.

8.11 Rules of Construction. The parties to this Agreement have been represented by counsel during the negotiation and execution of this Agreement and waive the application of any Laws or rule of construction providing that ambiguities in any agreement or other document will be construed against the party drafting such agreement or other document.

8.12 Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned by operation of Law or otherwise, except that (a) any Merger Co may designate, by written notice to the Company, a Subsidiary that is wholly-owned by such Merger Co to be merged with and into the Company in lieu of such Merger Co, in which event this Agreement will be amended such that all references in this Agreement to such Merger Co will be deemed references to such Subsidiary, and in that case, and pursuant to such amendment, all representations and warranties made in this Agreement with respect to such Merger Co will be deemed representations and warranties made with respect to such Subsidiary as of the date of such designation and (b) SibCo 1 may assign to one or more Affiliates all or a portion of its rights to receive any Termination Fee payable to SibCo 1 pursuant to Section 7.6(b). Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Any purported assignment not permitted under this Section will be null and void.

8.13 Remedies. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any and all remedies expressly conferred upon a party to this Agreement will be cumulative with, and not exclusive of, any other remedy contained in this Agreement, at law or in equity. The exercise by a party to this Agreement of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise by it of any other remedy.

8.14 Specific Performance; Maximum Recovery; No Liability of SibCos. (a) The parties to this Agreement agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed by the Company in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that prior to the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article VII, the SibCos and the Merger Cos will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. The parties agree that the Company shall not be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent any breach of this Agreement by any SibCo or any Merger Co or to enforce specifically any term or any provision of this Agreement and that the Company s sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any such breach shall be the remedy set forth in this Section 8.14; provided, however, the Company shall be entitled to specific performance against the SibCos or the Merger Cos to prevent any breach by the SibCos or the Merger Cos of their confidentiality obligations under Section 5.3.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company agrees that (i) to the extent the Company has incurred any losses or damages in connection with this Agreement, (A) the maximum aggregate liability of the SibCos and the Merger Cos for such losses or damages, if liable therefor, will be limited to the amount of the Termination Fee, in the aggregate, and (B) in no event will the Company or any of its Affiliates seek to recover any money damages in excess of such amount from any SibCo, any Merger Co or any of their respective Representatives and Affiliates in connection therewith and (ii) in the event the Effective Time occurs, (A) no SibCo shall have any liability or obligation to the Surviving Corporation under any theory of law, whether contract, tort or otherwise and (B) from and after the Effective Time, no SibCo shall have any obligation to any party hereunder, other than the obligation to assign to the LLC such SibCo s rights and obligations pursuant to the Debt Financing.

8.15 Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which will be one and the same agreement. This Agreement will become effective when each party to this Agreement will have received counterparts signed by all of the other parties.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. The Corporation shall be authorized to issue 120,000,000 shares of capital stock, of which 90,000,000 shares shall be shares of Class A-1 Common Stock, $0.01 par value (Class A-1 Common Stock), 20,000,000 shares shall be shares of Class A-2 Common Stock, $0.01 par value (Class A-2 Common Stock and, together with the Class A-1 Common Stock, the Common Stock) and 10,000,000 shares shall be shares of Preferred Stock, $0.01 par value (Preferred Stock).

Section 2. Common Stock. Except as otherwise provided by law or by or pursuant to this Certificate of Incorporation (including any certificate of designation relating to the rights, powers and preferences of any series of Preferred Stock), the Common Stock shall have the exclusive right to vote for the election of directors of the Corporation (Directors) and for all other purposes. Except as otherwise provided by or pursuant to this Certificate of Incorporation, each share of Common Stock shall have one vote, and the Common Stock shall vote together on all matters subject to a vote of holders of Common Stock.

Section 3. Class A-1 Common Stock. (a) The holders of the Class A-1 Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, share for share with the holders of shares of Class A-2 Common Stock, such dividends if, as and when declared from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Corporation (the Board).

(b) In the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, distribution of assets or winding-up of the Corporation, the holders of the Class A-1 Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, share for share with the holders of shares of Class A-2 Common Stock, all the assets of the Corporation of whatever kind available for distribution to stockholders, after the rights of the holders of the Preferred Stock have been satisfied.

(c) Except as otherwise provided by or pursuant to this Certificate of Incorporation, each holder of Class A-1 Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share of Class A-1 Common Stock held as of the applicable date on any matter that is submitted to a vote or to the consent of the stockholders of the Corporation.

Section 4. Class A-2 Common Stock. (a) The holders of the Class A-2 Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, share for share with the holders of shares of Class A-1 Common Stock, such dividends if, as and when declared from time to time by the Board.

ARTICLE V

Section 1. Except as otherwise provided herein, the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be governed by or under the direction of the Board, the members of which shall be elected by the stockholders. Unless and except to the extent that the Bylaws of the Corporation shall so require, the election of Directors need not be by written ballot. The exact number and, subject to Sections 2(b) and 2(c) below, the qualifications of Directors, and the qualifications of stockholders entitled to nominate Directors, shall each be fixed from time to time by the stockholders, in accordance with the Stockholders Agreement if in effect at such time (and if no such Stockholders Agreement is in effect, by the Board), provided that the number of Directors shall not be less than one. At any meeting at which Directors are to be elected (or in any action by written consent in lieu of a meeting), and in connection with the filling of any vacancy, the Board shall nominate any person or persons as they may be directed to nominate by the stockholders acting in accordance with the Stockholders Agreement, or, if none is in effect, by holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding Common Stock.

Section 2. (a) Each Director shall serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders or until his or her successor shall be elected and qualified or his or her earlier resignation or removal or until his or her term ceases pursuant to the last sentence of Section 2(c), if applicable. Any Director or Directors may be removed either for or without cause at any time by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares constituting a majority of the voting power entitled to vote for the election of directors, at an annual meeting or a special meeting called for the purpose, and the vacancy thus created may be filled at such meeting by the affirmative vote of holders of shares constituting a majority of the voting power entitled to vote in the election of Directors.

(b) The Board shall include any number of Additional Directors (or none) as may be determined by the Board from time to time; provided that, at any time during which the Corporation is required by applicable law to have one or more independent directors (as such term may be defined in any applicable law) (Independence Requirements), the Board shall include not fewer than the minimum number of Independent Directors as may be required by the Independence Requirements, such Independent Directors to be considered Additional Directors for all purposes hereunder. To the extent the Board has determined to include Additional Directors pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, the Board shall have the authority to, and responsibility of, nominating qualified Persons for election as Additional Directors at each annual meeting or special meeting of stockholders at which any such Directors of the Corporation are to be elected (or in connection with any applicable written consent of stockholders). The Board shall promptly act to fill any vacancies among the Additional Directors resulting from the death, resignation or removal of any Additional Director.

(c) The Board shall also include the Company s Chief Executive Officer, or such other executive officer as may be selected by the Sponsor Stockholders holding a majority of the shares of Class A-1 Common Stock held by Sponsor Stockholders (the Management Director) in accordance with the Stockholders Agreement. At each annual meeting or special meeting of stockholders at which any Directors of the Corporation are to be elected (or in connection with any applicable written consent of stockholders), the Board shall nominate such Person for election as the Management Director. The Board shall promptly act to fill any vacancy resulting from the death, resignation or removal of the Management Director. The term of office of the Management Director shall forthwith and without further action terminate immediately upon the Management Director ceasing to be employed by the Corporation or a wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Corporation.

(d) Each Director shall be entitled to one vote, except in the event that the number of Blackstone Directors is less than the Blackstone Investor Group s Director Designee Number, then each Blackstone Director shall be entitled to a number of votes equal to the Blackstone Investor Group s Director Designee Number divided by the number of Blackstone Directors at such time.

Section 3. (a) In addition to any other approval required, the Corporation shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, take any of the following actions or facilitate any of the following actions without an approval of the Board that includes, for so long as there are at least two Investor Groups that are not Non-Qualifying Investor Groups, the approval of Investor Directors nominated or designated by at least two of the Investor Groups:

(i) in the case of the Corporation entering into any merger, consolidation or other business combination, reorganization, or liquidation or consummation of a similar transaction (other than any such transaction between or among the Corporation and one or more wholly-owned (directly or indirectly) Subsidiaries of the Corporation, which transactions would not adversely affect the rights of any Investor Group);

(ii) acquiring or disposing of (in each case, including by merger, business combination, reorganization or other similar transaction), in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, any business or assets for consideration having a value (valuing any non-cash consideration at fair market value as determined by the Board in good faith) in excess of 20% of the fair market value of the total assets of the Corporation and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as of immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions (as determined by the Board in good faith);

(iii) (A) incurring any indebtedness for borrowed money or issuing any debt securities (other than indebtedness or debt securities owed between or among the Corporation and/or one or more wholly-owned Subsidiaries) or (B) issuing to any third party any preferred stock (1) that the Corporation is required on a date certain, or can be required by the holder at the option of the holder, to redeem or repurchase, or with respect to which the Corporation is required to pay cash dividends or (2) of a type other than the types of preferred stock set forth in clause (1), to the extent that the aggregate liquidation value of all such preferred stock described in this clause (2) exceeds $50 million in the aggregate, if, in the cases of either of clause (A) or (B) and in the aggregate for all transactions described in clauses (A) and (B), the amount of such new indebtedness or the liquidation value of such preferred stock exceeds 20% of the fair market value of the total assets of the Corporation and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as of immediately prior to such incurrence or issuance (as determined by the Board in good faith);

(iv) entering into or effecting any agreement or transaction between or among the Corporation and/or any of its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and any Affiliates of either the Corporation or any Stockholder, on the other hand, other than de minimis transactions on arm s length terms; and

(v) effecting any amendment to this Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws with the purpose or effect of facilitating any actions referred to in clauses (i)-(iv) or that otherwise would directly conflict with the terms of the Stockholders Agreement.

ARTICLE VI

Section 1. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by law, the Board is expressly authorized and empowered to make, alter and repeal the ByLaws of the Corporation by a majority vote at any regular or special meeting of the Board or by written consent, subject to Section 3 of Article V and to the power of the stockholders of the Corporation to alter or repeal any ByLaws made by the Board.

Section 2. Subject to Section 3 of Article V, the Corporation reserves the right at any time from time to time to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, and any other provisions authorized by the laws of the State of Delaware at the time in force may be added or inserted, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law; and all rights, preferences and privileges of whatsoever nature conferred upon stockholders, Directors or any other persons whomsoever by and pursuant to this Certificate of Incorporation in its present form or as hereafter amended are granted subject to the right reserved in this Article.

ARTICLE VII

Section 1. Except as otherwise agreed in writing, to the fullest extent permitted by law, (i) no Sponsor Stockholder or Investor Director shall have any duty (fiduciary or otherwise) or obligation, if any, to refrain from (A) engaging in the same or similar activities or lines of business as the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries, (B) doing business with any client, customer or vendor of the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries or (C) entering into and performing one or more agreements (or modifications or supplements to pre-existing agreements) with the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries, including, in the cases of clauses (A), (B) or (C), any such matters as may be corporate opportunities; and (ii) no Investor Director or Sponsor Stockholder nor any officer, director or employee thereof shall be deemed to have breached any duties (fiduciary or otherwise), if any, to the Corporation, any of its Subsidiaries or its securityholders solely by reason of any Investor Director or Sponsor Stockholder engaging in any such activity or entering into such transactions, including any corporate opportunities.

Section 2. The Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall have no interest or expectation in nor right be informed of, any corporate opportunity, and in the event that any Investor Director, Sponsor Stockholder or Section 2 Person acquires knowledge of a potential transaction or matter which may be a corporate opportunity, such Investor Director, Sponsor Stockholder or Section 2 Person shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, have no duty (fiduciary or otherwise) or obligation to communicate or offer such corporate opportunity to the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries or to any other Investor Directors or stockholders and shall not, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be liable to the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries or stockholders for breach of any fiduciary duty as a Director, officer or stockholder of the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries by reason of the fact that any Investor Director, Sponsor Stockholder or Section 2 Person acquires or seeks such corporate opportunity for itself, directs such corporate opportunity to another person or entity, or otherwise does not communicate information regarding such corporate opportunity to the Corporation or its Subsidiaries or stockholders and the Corporation and its Subsidiaries, to the fullest extent permitted by law, waive and renunciate any claim that such business opportunity constituted a corporate opportunity that should have been presented to the Corporation or any of its Affiliates; provided that if an opportunity is expressly communicated to a Section 2 Person in his or her capacity as a director or officer of the Corporation or such Subsidiary for the expressed purpose of causing such opportunity to be communicated to the Corporation or such Subsidiary, then such Section 2 Person shall satisfy his or her fiduciary obligation, if any, by communicating the opportunity, or, in lieu thereof, the identity of the party initiating the communication, to the Board. For the purposes of this Certificate of Incorporation, (1) corporate opportunity shall include, without limitation, any potential transaction, investment or business opportunity or prospective economic or competitive advantage in which the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries could have any expectancy or interest; and (2) Section 2 Person shall mean any director or officer of the Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries who is also a director, officer or employee of any Sponsor Stockholder or any of its Affiliates.

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1. Transfers of Shares of Class A-2 Common Stock. Except as otherwise provided in Section 2(a) of this Article VIII, a holder of shares of Class A-2 Common Stock may not (a) directly or indirectly sell, transfer, pledge or otherwise dispose of any economic, voting or other rights in or to (Transfer) shares of Class A-2 Common Stock to any Person, whether voluntary or involuntary and whether beneficially or of record, other than to or with a Permitted Transferee. Any purported attempt by a holder of Class A-2 Common Stock to Transfer any shares of Class A-2 Common Stock in violation of this Section 1 shall be null and void ab initio, such holder shall continue to be regarded by the Corporation as the owner, and the Corporation shall not recognize any such Transfer or accord to any such purported transferee any rights as a holder of shares of Class A-2 Common Stock of the Corporation.

Section 2. Required Sale. (a) If (x) the Sponsor Stockholders collectively own at least 50% of the outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock and (y) a Sponsor Stockholder (or group of Sponsor Stockholders) owning at least 35% of the outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock (the Selling Group) enter into a definitive written agreement (a Contract) to Transfer shares of Common Stock of the Corporation to any third party (the Purchaser) in a Requiring Sale, then, upon the election of the Selling Group, each holder of Class A-2 Common Stock (each, a Transferring Holder) shall be mandatorily obligated to sell to the Purchaser such proportion of such holder s shares of Class A-2 Common Stock (the Transferred Shares) as equals the proportion of the Selling Group s shares of Common Stock being sold to the Purchaser on the terms and conditions accepted by the Selling Group in the Contract (a Required Sale), including, but not limited to, the following obligations: (i) each Transferring Holder shall be responsible for such holder s proportionate share of any escrow arrangements in connection with the Contract and (ii) each Transferring Holder shall make the same representations, warranties, covenants, indemnities and agreements as the Selling Group makes in connection with the Contract (except that in the case of representations, warranties, covenants, indemnities and agreements pertaining specifically to the Selling Group, the Transferring Holder shall make the comparable representations, warranties, covenants, indemnities and agreements pertaining specifically to herself or himself, and not to any other party); provided that the liability of such Transferring Holder shall be limited to such Transferring Holder s proportionate share of any withdrawals from such escrow arrangements (except that in the case of representations, warranties, covenants, indemnities and agreements pertaining specifically to the Transferring Holder, such liability shall be limited to the Transferring Holder s share of the aggregate proceeds deposited with respect to such escrow arrangements).

(b) The Selling Group will give written notice (the Required Sale Notice) to each Transferring Holder of a Required Sale not less than twenty (20) days prior to the closing date (the Closing Date) for such Contract. Each Required Sale Notice will set forth the number of shares of Class A-2 Common Stock of such Transferring Holder that are required to be sold to the Purchaser in the Required Sale, the name of the Purchaser, the proposed amount and form of consideration to be paid to such holder for the Transferred Shares and a copy of the Contract.

(c) At the closing of the Contract, each Transferring Holder shall surrender the Transferred Shares to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser shall remit to each Transferring Holder the total consideration due in respect of such holder s Transferred Shares pursuant to the Required Sale.

(d) Upon the failure of any Transferring Holder to surrender Transferred Shares to the Purchaser on a timely basis in accordance with this Section 2, the Transferred Shares held by such holder shall, on the tenth business day following the Closing Date, automatically be redeemed, with effect as of the Closing Date, for the applicable Redemption Price by the Corporation, provided that if the Board determines in its sole discretion that the failure of such Transferring Holder to complete the Required Sale in accordance with this Section 2 was inadvertent and/or that the Transferring Holder made reasonable efforts to comply once he or she received the Required Sale Notice, the Board, by majority vote of Directors not affiliated with the Purchaser (or, if there are none, by majority vote of the Persons who were Directors immediately prior to the Closing Date) may require the Purchaser to accept such Transferring Holder s shares on the terms of the Required Sale. On the Closing Date all Transferred Shares so redeemed shall be cancelled and all rights with respect to such shares shall forthwith cease and terminate, except for the right of the holders thereof to receive the Redemption Price without interest upon surrender of the Transferred Shares.

Section 3. Legends. The Corporation shall, to the extent required by law, legend the stock certificates evidencing shares of Class A-2 Common Stock to indicate that the shares represented by such certificates are subject to the restrictions set forth in this Article VIII.

ARTICLE IX

Section 1. Redemption of Class A-2 Common Stock. (a) Subject to Section 2 of this Article IX, until a Qualified IPO or a Change of Control, if (i) the agent contract of any Qualified Holder is terminated for Cause, or (ii) a Qualified Holder voluntarily terminates his or her agent contract with the Corporation or any Affiliate of the Corporation or the agent contract of a Qualified Holder is terminated other than for Cause (in case of either of clause (i) or (ii), a Termination Event), then the Corporation shall have the option to redeem any or all shares of Class A-2 Common Stock at the Redemption Price at any time within twelve (12) months from the Termination Event (the Redemption Period). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may extend the Redemption Period in its sole and absolute discretion if the Board makes a good faith determination that it would be advisable and in the best interests of the Corporation to extend the Redemption Period in light of the availability under or limitations imposed by any credit agreement or other debt agreement of the Corporation and the Corporation s capital and liquidity position.

(b) Subject to Section 2 of this Article IX, until a Qualified IPO or a Change of Control, if a Potential Change of Control has occurred, and the Board has determined in good faith that an actual Change of Control will occur within twenty (20) business days of the date of such determination by the Board (a Change of Control Event), then the Corporation shall have the option to redeem any or all shares of Class A-2 Common Stock from any or all Qualified Holders at the Redemption Price.

Section 2. Redemption Notice. If the Corporation chooses to exercise its option to redeem shares of Class A-2 Common Stock in connection with a Termination Event or a Change of Control Event, then it shall do so on the date specified, which shall not be less than ten (10) business days from the date of such Redemption Notice (the Redemption Date) in a notice that shall be sent to the Qualified Holder(s) whose shares of Class A-2 Common Stock are being redeemed by the Corporation pursuant to Section 1 of this Article IX (the Redemption Notice). The Redemption Notice shall be mailed, postage prepaid, or sent by overnight courier to each Qualified Holder whose shares are being redeemed by the Corporation pursuant to Section 1 of this Article IX, at such holder s post office address last shown on the records of the Corporation not less than ten (10) business days prior to the Redemption Date. Each Redemption Notice shall state: (i) the number of shares of Class A-2 Common Stock to be redeemed by the Corporation on the Redemption Date; (ii) the Redemption Date and the Redemption Price; and (iii) that the Qualified Holder is to surrender to the Corporation, in the manner and at the place designated in the Redemption Notice, his or her certificate or certificates representing the shares of Class A-2 Common Stock to be redeemed.

Section 3. Surrender of Certificates; Payment. (a) Subject to Section 3(b) of this Article IX, on or before the Redemption Date, each Qualified Holder of shares of Class A-2 Common Stock, with respect to which the Corporation is exercising its rights set forth in Section 1 of this Article IX, shall surrender the certificate or certificates representing such shares to the Corporation in the manner and at the place designated in the Redemption Notice, and thereupon the Redemption Price for such shares shall be payable in cash to the order of the Person whose name appears on such certificate or certificates as the owner thereof. In the event that less than all of the shares of Class A-2 Common Stock represented by a certificate are redeemed, a new certificate representing the unredeemed shares of Class A-2 Common Stock shall promptly be issued to the holder of such a certificate.

(b) The Redemption Price shall be payable in cash out of lawfully available funds therefor, provided, the Board may determine to pay the Redemption Price out of lawfully available funds in the form of a Note if in the good faith determination of the Board, it would be advisable and in the best interests of the Corporation to do so in light of the availability under or limitations imposed by any credit agreement or other debt agreement of the Corporation and the Corporation s capital and liquidity position.

(c) If on or before the Redemption Date, all funds necessary for the redemption have been set aside by the Corporation, separate and apart from its other funds, in trust for the benefit of the Qualified Holders whose shares of Class A-2 Common Stock have been called for redemption, so as to be and continue to be available therefore, then, notwithstanding that any certificate for any share so called for redemption has not been surrendered for cancellation, on the Redemption Date all shares so called for redemption shall be cancelled and all rights with respect to such shares shall forthwith on such Redemption Date cease and terminate, except for the right of the holders thereof to receive the Redemption Price without interest.

The failure of any holder of Class A-2 Common Stock to comply with any of clauses (i), (ii), or (iii) above shall result in the automatic transfer to the Corporation of such holder s shares of Class A-2 Common Stock, unless the Board determines in its sole discretion that such failure was inadvertent, had no effect on any stockholder vote and no adverse effect on the Corporation, and was remedied promptly upon notification to the relevant Person.

ARTICLE XI

Section 1. Elimination of Certain Liability of Directors. A Director shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except to the extent such exemption from liability or limitation thereof is not permitted under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware as the same exists or may hereafter be amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director existing hereunder with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

Section 2. Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a proceeding), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a Director or officer of the Corporation or, while a Director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans maintained or sponsored by the Corporation, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, to the fullest extent permitted by law, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys fees, judgments, fines, amounts paid or to be paid in settlement, and excise taxes or penalties arising under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, except as provided in Section 2(b) hereof, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board. The right to indemnification conferred in this Certificate of Incorporation shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, such advances to be paid by the Corporation within 20 days after the receipt by the Corporation of a statement or statements from the claimant requesting such advance or advances from time to time; provided, however, that, if the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware requires, the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer in his or her capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such person while a director or officer, including, without limitation, service to a benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Section or otherwise. The Corporation may, by action of the Board, provide indemnification to employees and agents of the Corporation with the same scope and effect as the foregoing indemnification of directors and officers.

(b) Right of Claimant to Bring Suit. If a claim under Section 2(a) hereof is not paid in full by the Corporation within thirty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any is required, has been tendered to the Corporation) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(c) Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The right to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

(d) Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

UICI

Members of the Board:

We understand that UICI (the Company), Premium Finance LLC (SibCo 1), Mulberry Finance Co., Inc. (SibCo 2), DLJMB IV First Merger LLC (SibCo 3 and, together with SibCo 1 and SibCo 2, the SibCos), Premium Acquisition, Inc. (Merger Co 1), Mulberry Acquisition, Inc. (Merger Co 2) and DLJMB IV First Merger Co Acquisition Inc. (Merger Co 3 and, together with Merger Co 1 and Merger Co 2, the Merger Cos) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated September 15, 2005 (the Merger Agreement), which provides, among other things, for the merger (the Merger) of each of the Merger Cos with and into the Company. We further understand that SibCo 1 and Merger Co 1 are newly created entities wholly owned by Blackstone Capital Partners IV L.P. or affiliated funds (Blackstone), SibCo 2 and Merger Co 2 are newly created entities wholly owned by GS Capital Partners V Fund, L.P. or affiliated funds (GS Capital Partners) and Sib Co 3 and Merger Co 3 are newly created entities wholly owned by DLJ Merchant Banking Partners IV, L.P. or affiliated funds (DLJ Merchant Banking Partners and, together with Blackstone and GS Capital Partners, the Sponsors). Pursuant to the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the UICI Common Stock), other than (i) shares held in treasury and (ii) Retained Shares (as defined in the Merger Agreement), will be converted into the right to receive $37.00 per share in cash (the Cash Consideration). The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement. We also understand that, in connection with the Merger, the Merger Cos entered into a Voting Agreement, dated as of September 15, 2005 (the Voting Agreement), with certain holders of UICI Common Stock who own approximately 30% of the outstanding shares of UICI Common Stock (the Principal Stockholders). Pursuant to the Voting Agreement, the Principal Stockholders agreed, among other things, to take specific actions to facilitate the Merger.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the Cash Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of UICI Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of Retained Shares as to such Retained Shares).

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

i) reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information of UICI;

ii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning UICI prepared by the management of UICI;

iii) analyzed certain financial projections prepared by the management of UICI;

iv) discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of UICI with senior executives of the Company;

v) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for UICI Common Stock;

vi) compared the financial performance of UICI and the prices and trading activity of UICI Common Stock with that of certain other comparable publicly-traded companies and their securities;

vii) reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain comparable acquisition transactions;

viii) participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of UICI, the Merger Cos and their financial and legal advisors;

ix) reviewed a copy of the Merger Agreement and certain related documents;

x) reviewed a copy of the Voting Agreement;

xi) reviewed copies of equity commitment letters from each of the Sponsors or their affiliates, each dated September 15, 2005 (collectively, the Equity Commitment Letters);

xii) reviewed copies of limited guarantees from each of the Sponsors or their affiliates, each dated as of September 15, 2005 (collectively, the Guarantees); xiii) reviewed a copy of the forward underwriting commitment letter from J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. dated September 15, 2005 (the Forward Underwriting Commitment Letter); and xiv) reviewed a copy of the debt financing commitment letter from JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P., Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. dated September 15, 2005 (the Debt Commitment and, together with the Equity Commitment Letters and the Forward Underwriting Commitment Letter, collectively, the Financing Letters); and

xv) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We have assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information supplied or otherwise made available to us for the purposes of this opinion. With respect to the financial projections, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of UICI. In addition, we have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement, and the financing of the Merger will be consummated on terms no less favorable than those set forth in the Financing Letters. We are not legal, regulatory or tax experts and have relied on the Company with respect to the legal, regulatory and tax advice it has received. We have assumed that in connection with the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals for the proposed Merger, no restrictions will be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the consummation of the Merger as contemplated in the Merger Agreement. We have not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of UICI, nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals. This opinion does not address the solvency or fair value of UICI, the SibCos, the Merger Cos or any other entity under any U.S. state, U.S. federal, or any other applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. In addition, our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger as compared to other business strategies that may be available to UICI or UICI s underlying business decision to enter into the Merger Agreement.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of UICI in connection with this transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the closing of the Merger. In addition, at the Company s request and as has been previously discussed with you, Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., an affiliate of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated (Morgan Stanley), offered to provide debt financing to the Sponsors or their affiliates in connection with the Merger and is a party to the Commitment Letter in respect of a portion of the financing necessary to complete the Merger and may otherwise assist the Sponsors in obtaining all or a portion of the financing necessary to complete the Merger, in which case Morgan Stanley and its affiliate may receive fees in connection with such financing. Morgan Stanley and its affiliates also may from time to time act as a counterparty to UICI and may receive compensation for such activities.

In the past, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have provided financial advisory and financing services for the Sponsors and certain of their affiliates and have received fees for the rendering of these services. Morgan Stanley may also seek to provide such parties services in the future and may receive fees in connection with such services. In addition, Morgan Stanley is a full service securities firm engaged in securities trading, investment management and brokerage services. In the ordinary course of its trading, brokerage, investment management and financing activities, Morgan Stanley or its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of the Company for its own accounts or for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities. In addition, Morgan Stanley, its affiliates, directors or officers, including individuals working with the Company in connection with this transaction, have invested in, may have committed to invest in and may commit in the future to invest in private equity funds involved in this transaction or other private equity funds managed or advised by private investment firms affiliated with the Sponsors.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of UICI only and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent, except that this opinion may be included in its entirety in any filing, if required, made by UICI in respect of the Merger with the Securities Exchange Commission. In addition, this opinion does not in any manner address the prices at which UICI Common Stock will trade at any time following announcement of the Merger and Morgan Stanley expresses no opinion or recommendation as to how shareholders of UICI should vote at the shareholders meeting to be held in connection with the Merger, as to whether any participant in any Agent Stock Accumulation Plan (as defined in the Merger Agreement) should refrain from withdrawing shares of UICI Common Stock therefrom or as to whether any holder of Management Shares (as defined in the Merger Agreement) should take action to cause such shares not to be converted into Cash Consideration.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion on the date hereof that the Cash Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of UICI Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of Retained Shares as to such Retained Shares).

Very truly yours,

We understand that UICI (the Company) has entered into an agreement and plan of merger dated September 15, 2005 (the Merger Agreement) with six new entities (the Merger Companies) formed, two each, by affiliates of The Blackstone Group, Goldman Sachs & Co. and DLJ Merchant Banking Partners IV, L.P. respectively (the Equity Investors).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Common Stock), other than (i) shares held in treasury and (ii) Retained Shares (as defined in the Merger Agreement) will be converted into the right to receive $37.00 per share of the Company Common Stock in cash. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement. We also understand that, in connection with the Merger, the Merger Companies formed by the Equity Investors have entered into a Voting Agreement (the Voting Agreement) with certain holders of the Company Common Stock who own approximately 30% of the outstanding shares of the Company Common Stock (the Principal Shareholders). Pursuant to the Voting Agreement the Principal Stockholders have agreed, among other things, to take specific actions to facilitate the Merger.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of the Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of Retained Shares with respect to such Retained Shares).

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

(i) reviewed public financial statements of the Company for the past 5 years as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission;

(ii) reviewed certain non-public financial information prepared by Company management, including management projections;

(iii) participated in extensive discussions with senior management of the Company regarding past and current operations and financial condition and the future prospects of the Company;

(vi) reviewed values accorded certain other comparable publicly traded companies relative to the value accorded the Company s shares;

(vii) reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain comparable acquisition transactions;

(viii) reviewed copies of the Merger Agreement and, the Voting Agreement;

(ix) reviewed copies of the equity commitment letters from each of the Equity Investors, each dated September 15, 2005 (collectively, the Equity Commitment Letters);

(x) reviewed copies of the limited guarantees from each of the Equity Investors, each dated September 15, 2005 (collectively, the Guarantees);

(xi) reviewed the debt Commitment Letter (as defined in the Merger Agreement) dated September 15, 2005 (together with the Equity Commitment Letters, collectively, the Financing Letters); and

(xii) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors we have deemed appropriate.

We have assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information supplied or otherwise made available to us for the purposes of this opinion. With respect to the financial projections, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of the Company.

We have assumed that in connection with the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals for the proposed Merger, no restrictions will be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the consummation of the Merger as contemplated in the Merger Agreement. We have not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of the Company, nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with this transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the closing of the Merger. It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company only and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent, except that this opinion may be included in its entirety in any filing, if required, made by the Company in respect of the Merger with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion on the date hereof that the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of the Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than holders of Retained Shares with respect to such Retained Shares).

Very truly yours,

TITLE 8
Corporations
CHAPTER 1. GENERAL CORPORATION LAW
Subchapter IX. Merger, Consolidation or Merger

§ 262. Appraisal rights.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder s shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word stockholder means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words stock and share mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words depository receipt mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder s shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder s shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder s shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder s shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder s shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder s shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder s demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder s written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder s certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court s decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney s fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder s demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145(a) of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth above, against expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Further subsections of Delaware General Corporation Law Section 145 provide that:

to the extent a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145 or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith;

the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for pursuant to Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise; and the corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person s status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under Section 145.

Article VIII of UICI s amended and restated bylaws and Article IX of the form of the surviving corporation s certificate of incorporation (i) authorize the indemnification of directors and officers (the Indemnitees) under specified circumstances to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, (ii) provide for the advancement of expenses to the Indemnitees for defending any proceedings related to the specified circumstances, (iii) give the Indemnitees the right to bring suit against UICI to enforce the foregoing rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, and (iv) authorize UICI to maintain certain policies of insurance to protect itself and any of its directors, officers or employees.

Item 22. Undertakings

(A) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial, bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(B) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant s annual report pursuant to Sections 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan s annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(C) (1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that before any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(D) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(E) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(F) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
