MEMORANDUM

TO: Members of Suburban Energy Services Group LLC and Suburban Energy Membership LLC
FROM: Paul Abel
DATE: September 5, 2006
SUBJECT: Voting your Common Units at the 2006 Tri-Annual Meeting

The proxy statement relating to the 2006 Tri-Annual Meeting of Unitholders of Suburban Propane Partners, L.P., at which the proposed conversion of the General Partner interests into Common Units will be voted on, has been finalized and is being mailed to all Common Unitholders of record. The Tri-Annual Meeting is scheduled to be held on October 17, 2006 and if the conversion is approved by the Unitholders at that meeting, you can expect to receive your Common Units as a result of the conversion a short time thereafter.

The agreements between Suburban and the General Partner relating to the conversion provide that the conversion, and the proposed amendments to Suburban's limited partnership agreement, require the approval of BOTH (a) a majority of all issued and outstanding Common Units on the record date, and (b) a majority of all such Common Units NOT owned by General Partner members.

In order to ascertain that both approvals have been achieved, it is necessary for Suburban to separately identify your votes, if you own Common Units as of the record date (August 18, 2006). (If you do not own any Common Units as of the record date, then this communication does not apply to you, and you need take no action at this time.) If you hold such Common Units in your own name, our transfer agent will identify your proxy card when you return it. However, if you hold your Common Units in the name of a bank or broker, then you must take an extra step in order for Suburban to correctly identify your votes. This extra step entails you obtaining a “legal proxy,” and the attachment to this memo explains how you obtain a legal proxy and use it to submit your votes.

If you own Common Units as of the record date, Suburban urges you to return your proxy card and vote your units on the proposals to be voted on at the 2006 Tri-Annual Meeting. And if you hold your Common Units in the name of a bank or broker, then Suburban urges you to comply with the attached legal proxy instructions so that your votes can be correctly identified. So that we may monitor compliance with this request, please send a copy of your legal proxy to Mark Alexander at the same time you send the legal proxy to our proxy solicitor.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR OBTAINING A LEGAL PROXY

Unitholders who hold their Units in the name of a bank or broker, usually referred to as street holders, can not ordinarily vote their Units directly. Rather, their bank or broker must cast their votes on their behalf.

In order to vote Units directly, street holders must request a legal proxy from their bank or broker. The legal proxy transfers the ability to vote Units from the bank or broker to the street holder. Exhibit A is a form of legal proxy.

HOW TO OBTAIN A LEGAL PROXY

1. If your Units are held at a full service bank or broker:

Contact the person responsible for your account at your bank or broker and ask them to request a legal proxy from ADP for your Units. ADP serves as a clearinghouse for almost all of the bank and brokers in the United States with respect to proxy voting matters. You should be named on the legal proxy as the person authorized to vote the number of Units you held as of the record date for the Tri-Annual Meeting (August 18, 2006).

2. If your Units are held at a discount broker:

When you receive the voting form for the Tri-Annual Meeting from your broker, date it, sign it and mark the box labeled “PLACE ‘X’ HERE IF YOU PLAN TO ATTEND AND VOTE YOUR SHARES AT THE MEETING.” Exhibit B is a sample of the voting form on which the box described above has been circled.

After receipt of the voting form, ADP will issue a legal proxy in your name and will mail it to the address at which you received the voting form.

WHAT TO DO WITH THE LEGAL PROXY

Once you receive the legal proxy, you should attach it to a proxy card, mark your vote on the proxy card, and sign, date and return it to our proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, 501 Madison Avenue, 19th Floor, New York, NY 10019, Attention Carol Corticchia, who will also have blank proxy cards.

QUESTIONS

If you have any questions about obtaining a legal proxy or need any assistance in obtaining one, please call Carol Corticchia or Arthur Crozier at our proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, 212 750 5833.
