Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The aggregate purchase price for the shares of common stock covered by this Statement is $32,700,000. Stifel Venture funded the purchase price through a contribution of capital to Stifel Venture Corp. by Stifel Financial, which Stifel Financial provided from cash on hand, based on cash generated from general corporate activities.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On December 17, 2013, Stifel Venture entered into an arrangement (the "Arrangement") with CM Finance pursuant to which it agreed to make a capital contribution to CM Finance in an aggregate amount equal to the lesser of $40.0 million and 17.2% of CM Finance's issued and outstanding shares of common stock after giving effect to its initial public offering (the "IPO") at the initial public offering price per share. On February 5, 2014, the registration statement for CM Finance's IPO was declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). In connection therewith, Stifel Venture made a capital contribution of $32.7 million in CM Finance in exchange for 2,181,818 shares of CM Finance's common stock, or approximately 17.2% of CM Finance's shares of common stock outstanding. Pursuant to the Arrangement, Stifel Venture also entered into an agreement with CM Finance giving it the right to nominate for election one member of CM Finance's board of directors, who is considered "interested" (that is, not independent for purposes of the Investment Company Act of 1940).

In connection with the Arrangement with CM Finance, Stifel Venture also has a 20% interest in CM Finance's investment adviser and administrator, CM Investment Partners LLC (the "Adviser"), and has a right to appoint a member to the Adviser's investment committee. Six of the investment professionals employed by the Adviser as part of its investment team are also employees of Stifel Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated ("Stifel Nicolaus"), a full-service retail and institutional brokerage and investment banking firm, and Stifel's principal subsidiary. Although these investment professionals dedicate a majority of their time to the business and activities of the Adviser, they are concurrent employees of both Stifel Nicolaus and the Adviser, and as a result, may continue to engage in investment advisory activities for Stifel Nicolaus.

Under the Arrangement and subject to certain restrictions, Stifel Financial will use its commercially reasonable efforts to present CM Finance the opportunity to review and bid on all Stifel Nicolaus-originated leveraged finance and high yield corporate debt opportunities consistent with CM Finance's investment strategy, subject to the approval of CM Finance's board of directors, as necessary under the 1940 Act, and certain other limitations.

Stifel Venture has entered into a lock-up agreement with the underwriters for CM Finance's initial public offering, pursuant to which, subject to certain exceptions, Stifel Venture agreed not to, without the prior written approval of the representative of the underwriter, offer, sell, offer to sell, contract or agree to sell, hypothecate, hedge, pledge, grant any option to purchase or otherwise dispose of or agree to dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of CM Finance common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for CM Finance's common stock. These restrictions are in effect for a period of 365 days after February 5, 2014, which is the date of the prospectus filed by CM Finance in connection with its initial public offering.

Pursuant to the Arrangement, Stifel Venture entered into a registration rights agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement") with CM Finance pursuant to which CM Finance agreed to prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form N-2 to register the resale of the shares of CM Finance common stock that Stifel Venture was issued in connection with the Arrangement. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, CM Finance agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to file with the SEC promptly after a request by Stifel Venture to file such a registration statement with the SEC. CM Finance agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such a registration statement to be declared effective by the SEC within 90 days of the initial filing thereof with the SEC. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, CM Finance also granted Stifel Venture certain piggyback registration rights, which may only be exercised upon the expiration of the lock-up period described above.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a)-(b) As of the date of this filing, Stifel Venture owns all 2,181,818 shares of CM Finance that are set forth in this filing. Stifel Venture maintains sole voting and investment power over these shares. Since Stifel Financial is the direct parent company of Stifel Venture, Stifel Financial is deemed to beneficially own these shares.

(c) Except as disclosed in Item 4, neither of the Reporting Persons have effected any transactions in shares of CM Finance's common stock during the past 60 days.

(d) Not applicable.
