ITEM 1. BUSINESS

General

Cotton States Life Insurance Company (the "Company") was organized under the laws of the State of Georgia in 1955. The Company is currently licensed to transact business in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. The Company currently markets only individual life insurance, payroll deduction life insurance, guaranteed issue and simplified issue life insurance and individual annuities.

On February 21, 2002, the Company filed notice of its intent to withdraw its multi-line exclusive agents from Kentucky primarily due to losses incurred by the Company's affiliate, Cotton States Mutual Insurance Company. Without objection from the Kentucky Department of Insurance, the Company's withdrawal plan was accepted pursuant to Kentucky insurance regulations.

In July of 1989, the Company formed CSI Brokerage Services, Inc. ("CSI"). CSI brokers insurance products for the Company's exclusive agents not offered by the Company's affiliated property and casualty companies.

In November of 1989, the Company acquired 60% of the outstanding common stock of Cotton States Marketing Resources, Inc. ("CSMR"). During 1992, the Company acquired the remaining 40% of CSMR's stock. CSMR brokers through the Company's exclusive agents other insurance companies' life and accident and health products not underwritten by the Company.

Financial Information About Industry Segments

The Company's operations can be grouped into three major segments: (i) individual life insurance, (ii) guaranteed issue and simplified issue life insurance, and (iii) brokerage operations. These segments are differentiated primarily by their respective methods of distribution and the nature of related products, as the Company's operations in each segment are concentrated within its southeastern states geographic market. Individual life insurance products are distributed through the Company's multi-line exclusive agents, guaranteed issue and simplified issue products are distributed through independent agents as well as exclusive agents, and brokerage operations involve third party products distributed through the Company's exclusive and independent agents. The Company does not group items on the consolidated balance sheet into segments, nor does it analyze those items by segment when making management decisions. The Company allocates net investment income and net realized gains to its individual life insurance and guaranteed issue and simplified issue life insurance segments based on the ratio of each segment's reserves to total reserves. Net investment income and net realized gains for the Company's brokerage segment is based on actual amounts earned by its brokerage subsidiaries.

Narrative Description of Business Segments(i) Individual Life

The major forms of individual life insurance offered by the Company include universal life, graded premium whole life, participating whole life, term insurance, various supplemental riders including, but not limited to, accidental death, disability waiver and guaranteed insurability, and disability income riders. These products are sold by the Company's 272 multi-line exclusive agents in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, and Tennessee.

Table of Contents

The Company offers its insurance through multi-line exclusive agents who also write all lines of property and casualty insurance offered by Cotton States Mutual Insurance Company (Mutual) and its subsidiary, Shield Insurance Company (Shield) (collectively, the Cotton States Group). See Item 13 of this report for an explanation of the relationship between the Company, Mutual, and Shield. Multi-line exclusive agents are under contract to the Company, Mutual, and Shield, and are paid on a commission basis. The Company's multi-line exclusive agents are located in the following states:

Number of Agents
December 31,
2002	2001	State
52	54	Alabama
24	24	Florida
169	163	Georgia
27	25	Tennessee
Total	272	266

Unless the need for a medical examination is indicated by the application or an investigation, the Company writes individual life insurance based on age without requiring blood and specimen in the following maximum amounts:

Age Group	Maximum Insurance
0-17	$ 100,000
18-40	74,999
41-50	50,000
51 and over	25,000

As of December 31, 2002, less than 2.4% of the Company's individual life premiums were represented by what the Company believes to be substandard risks. Substandard life insurance risks are accepted by the Company at increased rates. The Company has no fixed maximum on the size of substandard policies and will entertain any application on which it can obtain reinsurance which it believes to be adequate.

The Company, as do others in the insurance industry, reinsures with other companies portions of the individual life insurance policies it underwrites. Reinsurance enables an insurance company to write a policy in an amount larger than the risk it desires to assume. A contingent liability exists on insurance ceded to the reinsurer which might become a liability of the Company in the event that the reinsurer fails to meet its obligations under the reinsurance treaty.

The Company presently retains, with respect to individual life policies, generally no more than $100,000 of insurance on any one life, which may be reduced, depending upon the age and the physical classification of the insured. All accidental death riders are 100% reinsured.

(ii) Guaranteed Issue and Simplified Issue Whole Life Insurance

The Company offers Guaranteed Issue and Simplified Issue whole life insurance through its multi-line agency force and approximately 4,300 independent agents. The independent agents sell these products in all states in which the Company is licensed to conduct business.

Both plans are level-premium, cash value permanent life insurance products issued from $2,500 to $35,000 face amounts. Both plans are frequently used by individuals to cover final expenses. They are designed to be sold as companion plans using a simple application and no medical exams or tests. If all health questions asked of the applicant by the Company can be answered NO, the Simplified Issue policy may be issued. Otherwise, the Guaranteed Issue policy will be issued.

Table of Contents

Guaranteed Issue whole life is available for issue ages 46-80. The death benefit in policy years one through three is limited to a return of premium plus 10%. However, the full death benefit is payable in all years in case of accidental death. After three years, the full death benefit is payable for any cause of death.

Simplified Issue whole life is available for issue ages 0-80. The full death benefit is payable from the issue date.

(iii) Brokerage

The Company owns two brokerage subsidiaries, CSI and CSMR. CSI provides the Company with commission income from brokerage agreements with other property and casualty insurance carriers. These carriers supply the Company's multi-line agents with property and casualty products that the Company's affiliated property and casualty companies do not underwrite, such as non-standard auto insurance, crop hail insurance, multi-peril crop insurance, mobile home insurance, poultry house insurance and flood insurance.

Approximately 74% of CSI's brokerage revenues come from the sale of non-standard auto insurance through two carriers. Approximately 8% of CSI's revenue comes from the sale of crop hail and multi-peril crop insurance through one carrier.

CSMR provides the Company with commission income from brokerage agreements with other life and health insurance companies. These companies supply the Company's multi-line agents with life and health products that the Company does not choose to underwrite, such as individual major-medical policies, impaired risk life insurance, first to die life insurance, and group life and health insurance. CSMR has contracted with approximately 4,300 independent agents to write the Company's Guaranteed Issue and Simplified Issue whole life insurance. Approximately 56% of CSMR's brokerage revenues come from the sale of life and health insurance through four carriers.

Regulation

The Company, like other insurance companies, is subject to regulation and supervision by the states in which it transacts business. The insurance laws of these states confer upon supervisory authorities broad administrative powers relating to (i) the regulation and revocation of licenses to transact business, (ii) the regulation of trade practices, (iii) the licensing of agents, (iv) the approval of the form and content of policies and advertising, (v) the depositing of securities for the benefit of policyholders, (vi) the type and amount of investments permitted, and (vii) the maintenance of specified reserves and capital for the protection of policyholders. In general, insurance laws and regulations are designed primarily to protect policyholders rather than shareholders.

The Company is also required under these laws to file detailed annual reports with the supervisory agencies in each of the states in which it does business. Under the rules of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC), the Company's records are examined periodically by one or more of the state supervisory agencies.

Employees

In addition to its principal officers, the Company shares 124 salaried employees with Shield and Mutual. The Company pays an allocated portion of the shared employees' salaries, either based upon the Company's premium income in relation to the premium income of Mutual and Shield or the actual time expended on each company's affairs. The Company and its subsidiaries also have 33 salaried employees who work on a full-time basis in its home office, where all administrative functions, such as underwriting, billing and collection of premiums, are centralized and from which all sales activities are directed. None of the Company's employees is subject to a collective bargaining agreement. The Company believes its employee relations are good.

Competition

The Company operates in a highly competitive industry. It competes with a large number of stock and mutual insurance companies. Larger stock and mutual insurance companies may have a competitive advantage in that they have greater financial and human resources that enable them to offer more diversified lines of coverage and develop new products faster. Mutual companies may also have an additional advantage compared to stock insurers because all profits of mutual companies accrue to the policyholders. In order to keep pace with trends in the industry, the Company introduces new products with premium rates and benefits that it believes are competitive with the industry.

The Company has certain advantages that it believes better enables it to keep its premium rates competitive with similar policies offered by competing companies, including the following:

1. The Company offers most of its insurance through the same agents who write property and casualty insurance for Mutual and Shield. The sale of insurance through the same agents who sell property and casualty insurance enables the Company to incur less agency development and sales expense than is customary in the industry;
2. Because the Company's agents can provide customers with coverage for all major lines of individual insurance they may utilize account selling. Account selling enables insureds to contact one agent regarding their total insurance needs; and
3. The Company shares certain facilities, equipment and personnel with Mutual and Shield. The Company believes that sharing these expenses has a favorable impact on the ratio of expenses to premium income and enables the Company to enjoy economies of scale.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES

The Company, Mutual, and Shield occupy offices located at 244 Perimeter Center Parkway, Atlanta, Georgia. The building is owned by a general partnership composed of Mutual and Gold Kist Inc. (Gold Kist). The Company has no ownership interest in the partnership. The facility consists of a three-story office building containing approximately 260,000 square feet of space of which the Company, Mutual and Shield share approximately 90,000 square feet. The Company believes that the facility is suitable to its business. Rental expense is allocated to the Company based on its proportionate share of square footage occupied.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company is a defendant in various actions incidental to the conduct of its business. While the ultimate outcome of these matters cannot be estimated with certainty, management does not believe the actions are reasonably likely to result in a material loss to the Company.

The Company has reached partial settlement regarding $900,000 in reinsurance coverage. A lawsuit was initiated by the Company in the third quarter of 2001. To date the Company has received $475,000 and continues to seek additional recoveries against the reinsurance brokers through already existing legal channels. The remaining amount outstanding is included in Reinsurance receivable on the consolidated balance sheet.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

Not applicable.

Table of ContentsITEM 7 MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS*Forward-Looking Statements

Statements made in the following discussion that state the Company's or management's intentions, hopes, beliefs, expectations or predictions of the future are forward-looking statements. Without limiting the foregoing, forward-looking statements include statements which represent the Company's beliefs concerning future levels of sales and redemption of the Company's products, investment spreads and yields, or the earnings and profitability of the Company's activities, and the sufficiency of the Company's cash flows for liquidity purposes.

Forward-looking statements are necessarily based on estimates and assumptions that are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the Company's control and many of which are subject to change. These uncertainties and contingencies could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements made by, or on behalf of, the Company. Whether or not actual results differ materially from forward-looking statements may depend on numerous foreseeable and unforeseeable developments. Some may be national in scope, such as general economic conditions, the possibility of war, changes in tax law and changes in interest rates. Some may be related to the insurance industry generally, such as pricing competition, regulatory developments and industry consolidation. Others may relate to the Company specifically, such as credit, volatility and other risks associated with the Company's investment portfolio. Investors are also directed to consider other risks and uncertainties discussed in documents filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission. If the Company's assumptions and estimates are incorrect or do not come to fruition, or if the Company does not achieve all of these key factors, then the Company's actual performance could vary materially from the forward-looking statements made herein. The Company disclaims any obligation to update any forward-looking information.

Total premiums	$33,092	30,221	10%	26,817	13%

Guaranteed issue and simplified issue life insurance premiums continued to show significant growth for the three year period from 2000 to 2002, primarily as a result of sustained production by the Company's independent agency force which had approximately 4,300 agents under contract at December 31, 2002 compared to approximately 4,400 in 2001 and approximately 3,900 in 2000. This product is also distributed by the Company's multi-line exclusive agents and is available for purchase over the Internet at the Company's home page (www.cottonstatesinsurance.com).

Individual life insurance products are principally sold by the Company's exclusive agent producers. Growth in individual life premiums largely reflects an increase in production of the Company's participating whole life product.

Table of Contents

The exclusive agency force of 272 as of December 31, 2002 compares to 266 as of the same date in 2001 and 252 in 2000. Other premiums consist of the Company's participation in a Federally sponsored group life pool and income from a closed block of individual accident and health business.

Investment Income and Realized Gains and Losses

The Company uses its positive cash flow primarily to purchase debt and equity securities. Net investment income decreased 4% in 2002 compared to 2001, increased 2% in 2001 compared to 2000, and increased 9% in 2000 compared to 1999. The decrease in 2002 is primarily a result of a decrease in the annualized average yield to 5.9% compared to 6.7% for 2001 and 7.2% for 2000, which occurred as a result of lower interest rates. The decreases in average yields are partially offset by growth in the average investment portfolio.

Due to favorable market conditions caused by lower interest rates, the Company realized net gains of approximately $2,900,000, $28,000, and $406,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively, from the sale of fixed maturity and equity securities.

During 2002 the Company sold a security out of its held-to-maturity portfolio due to evidence of a significant deterioration in the issuer's creditworthiness. At the time of sale the security had an amortized cost of $499,768. The Company realized a loss of $49,768 on the transaction.

During the second quarter of 2002 the Company realized a pre-tax investment loss of $850,000 from the write-down of the carrying value of a WorldCom, Inc. debt security. This write-down was the result of the Company determining that an other-than-temporary impairment had occurred. This debt security was subsequently disposed of in the third quarter of 2002 at an additional loss of $41,000.

During the third quarter of 2002 the Company realized a pre-tax investment loss of $120,000 from the write-down of the carrying value of Intel common stock. This write-down was the result of the Company determining that an other-than-temporary impairment had occurred.

During the fourth quarter of 2002 the Company realized a pre-tax investment loss of $460,000 from the write-down of the carrying value of ten equity securities and a pre-tax investment loss of $418,000 from the write-down of the Company's investment in a limited partnership. These write-downs were the result of the Company determining that an other-than-temporary impairment had occurred.

Brokerage Commissions

Exclusive agents sell products that the Cotton States Group does not underwrite (both life and property and casualty) but are provided through the Company's brokerage operations, and for which the Company receives override commission. Brokerage commissions for 2002 were flat as compared to 2001 due to decreased override commissions on the sale of multi-peril crop and crop hail products. This decrease in brokerage commissions was partially offset by an 11% increase in commissions on the sale of non-standard automobile policies. Brokerage commissions were flat in 2001 as compared to 2000 due to decreased override commissions on the sale of life products. Brokerage commissions increased 10% in 2000 compared to 1999 due primarily to increased sales of non-standard automobile policies.

Table of ContentsBenefits and Claims

Life benefits and claims, including reserve increases on traditional life and guaranteed issue and simplified issue products are as follows (dollars in thousands):

Benefits and Claims	2002		2001		2000
	Benefits and Claims	% of Premium	Benefits and Claims	% of Premium	Benefits and Claims	% of Premium
Guaranteed issue and simplified issue	$ 9,332	75%	$ 7,656	73%	$ 5,729	71%
Individual life insurance:
Traditional life	4,772	70%	4,622	73%	4,261	70%
Universal life	4,706	37%	4,201	34%	3,878	33%
Total individual life insurance	9,478	49%	8,823	47%	8,139	46%
Other benefits and claims	1,307	100%	1,073	104%	932	104%
Total Benefits and Claims	$20,117	61%	$17,552	58%	$14,800	55%

Benefits and claims, as a percentage of premium, fluctuate within a normal range reflecting volatility in mortality, changes in mix of business, and age of policyholders. Guaranteed issue and simplified issue experience for the three year period is consistent with the Company's future expectations for those products as the block of business matures. Individual life benefits increased in 2002 compared to 2001 due to higher traditional life reserve increases, which were the result of an overall improvement in persistency. Death benefits for 2002 were consistent with management's expectations. Death benefits in 2001 compared to 2000 slightly exceeded management's expectations due to an unusual increase in mortality during the first quarter of 2001.

Due to the Company's small size, quarterly fluctuations, even when they remain within the normal range, will affect the total benefits and claims for the fiscal year. In addition, the Company's general policy is to retain, with respect to individual life policies, generally no more than $100,000 of insurance on any one life and has also routinely purchased annual aggregate stop loss reinsurance coverage in excess of 120% of expected mortality. The Company did not experience any material impact on reinsurance costs as a result of the events of September 11, 2001.

The Company has reached partial settlement regarding $900,000 in reinsurance coverage. A lawsuit was initiated in the third quarter of 2001. To date, the Company has received $475,000 and continues to seek additional recoveries against reinsurance brokers through already existing legal channels. The remaining amount outstanding is included in reinsurance receivable on the consolidated balance sheet.

Other benefits and claims consist of participation in a Federally sponsored group life pool and benefits on a closed block of individual accident and health business.

Interest Credited to Policyholders

Interest credited to universal life contracts increased 7% in 2002 as compared to 2001 and 6% in 2001 as compared to 2000 reflecting growth in universal life policy accumulations. The annual interest rate credited to policyholders of universal life contracts was 6.25% for the first nine months of 2002 and for the years 2001 and 2000. Effective October 1, 2002 the annual rate credited to policyholders changed to 5.75%.

Table of ContentsAmortization of Policy Acquisition Costs and Operating Expenses

The amortization of policy acquisition costs as a percentage of premium was 11% in 2002 compared to 15% in 2001 and 12% in 2000. Amortization for 2002 is slightly better than the Company's expected range of 12-14% and reflects better than expected mortality in the universal life line of business and a decrease in the annual interest rate credited to policyholders. The amortization of policy acquisition costs for 2002 and 2000 reflect a favorable adjustment from updating actuarial assumptions. This adjustment represented a slow down of amortization as a result of higher estimated future profits from the improvement in mortality levels on universal life products. The after tax effect on net income for 2002 was $186,000 or $.03 per share and for 2000 was $429,000 or $.07 per share. Amortization in 2001 reflects higher lapses in the traditional lines of business which reflects increased term rate competition in the market place.

Operating expenses as a percentage of premiums were 25% for 2002 compared to 28% in 2001 and 2000. The Company experienced some expense savings in 2002 primarily due to the reduction of certain performance based compensation costs.

Income Tax Expense

The effective tax rate for 2002 was 29% compared to 27% in 2001 and 30% in 2000. The two percentage point increase from 2001 to 2002 is the result of a decrease in the allowable small company deduction. The three percentage point decrease from 2000 to 2001 is the result of an increase in the allowable small company deduction.

Net Income			Percentage
(dollars in thousands)	2002	2001	Increase (Decrease)	2000	Increase (Decrease)
Guaranteed issue and simplified issue	$ 355	$ 397	(11)%	$ 413	(4)%
Individual life insurance:
Traditional	1,477	763	94%	1,107	(31)%
Universal life	3,329	3,276	2%	3,875	(16)%
Total individual life insurance	4,806	4,039	19%	4,982	(19)%
Brokerage operations	2,174	2,067	5%	2,260	(9)%
Other lines	(26)	(57)	54%	(49)	(16)%
Net Income	$7,309	$6,446	13%	$7,606	(15)%

Continued growth in premiums, mortality that was consistent with management's expectations, and lower operating expenses accounted primarily for the improved results in 2002 compared to 2001. In addition, 2002 and 2000 results reflect a favorable adjustment to the amortization of policy acquisition costs resulting from updating actuarial assumptions. 2001 results reflect higher mortality experienced in the first quarter in comparison to the prior year, resulting in a decrease in the Company's net income.

Critical Accounting Policies

The accounting policies described below are those the Company considers critical in preparing its consolidated financial statements. These policies include significant estimates made by management using information available at the time the estimates are made. However, as described below, these estimates could change materially if different information or assumptions were used.

Table of Contents

Insurance Related Assets and Liabilities

The Company establishes an insurance related asset for deferred policy acquisition costs, and insurance related liabilities for future policy benefits and claims relating to its insurance policies under contract. Such asset and liabilities are developed using actuarial principles and assumptions which consider a number of factors, including: investment yields, withdrawal rates, mortality and morbidity which are described in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements (Notes). As described in the Notes, the Company accounts for its traditional individual life insurance policies using a net level premium method and assumptions as to the factors enumerated above and as disclosed in Note 5. Generally, the Company's earnings in any given calendar year will not be impacted by differences in emerging experience on its traditional individual business unless such differences are severe enough to call into question the profitability of the entire block of traditional life business. The Company does, however, experience fluctuations in its earnings as a result of current mortality experience differing from that expected in any given year. During 2002, 2001, and 2000, the Company experienced emerged mortality of 88%, 89%, and 84% of expected, respectively, related to its traditional individual life insurance business. The Company routinely purchases annual aggregate stop loss reinsurance coverage which limits experience to 120% of expected mortality in any one year.

Further, as described in the Notes, the Company accounts for its interest-sensitive and universal life insurance policies and annuities under the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 97, Accounting and Reporting by Insurance Enterprises for Certain Long-Duration Contracts and for Realized Gains and Losses from the Sale of Investments. SFAS No. 97 requires the remeasurement of the Company's deferred acquisition costs each period in a manner that amortizes such deferred costs as a level percentage of actual emerged profit over the expected gross profits. Expected gross profits are primarily influenced by estimated future mortality, investment gains, and expense margins.

Each period, the Company estimates the relevant factors, based primarily on its emerging experience and uses this information to determine the assumptions underlying its asset and liability calculations. An extensive degree of judgment is used in this estimation process.

Any adjustments to prior period claim liabilities are included in the benefit expense of the period in which the need for the adjustment becomes known.

Fixed Income and Equity Securities

The Company has procedures in place to monitor all debt and equity securities for possible other-than-temporary impairments. Securities are tracked comparing both unrealized losses as a percentage of original cost and the length of time the security has been below a predetermined percentage of cost. Monthly discussions are held with Company's investment managers to gather information and documentation as to their outlook for future recovery of the securities making the Company's watch list. As of December 31, 2002 there were no debt or equity securities whose unrealized losses would be deemed by management to be other-than-temporary impairments that have not been recorded.

Accounting for Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method prescribed by SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. Under the asset and liability method of SFAS No. 109, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities, and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which these temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under SFAS No. 109, the effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Table of Contents

Income tax expense recognized by the Company in any one year is impacted by the extent to which the Company qualifies for the small life company deduction. The small life company deduction is 60% of life insurance company taxable income up to a maximum taxable income of $3 million. This deduction is phased out on taxable income above $3 million up to and including a maximum of $15 million. To the extent, if any, that the Company's taxable income exceeds $3 million, its effective Federal income tax rate will increase.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash Flow

The Company's insurance operations generated positive cash flows in excess of its immediate needs during 2002. Cash flows provided by operations were $17.0 million in 2002, $15.5 million in 2001, and $11.5 million in 2000. Operating cash flow is primarily used to purchase debt securities. The Company received proceeds of $14.3 million from investment maturities and repayments in 2002, adding to available cash flows. Such proceeds were $10.5 million in 2001 and $7.2 million in 2000. When market opportunities arise, the Company disposes of selected debt securities available for sale in an attempt to improve future investment yields and/or improve duration matching of our assets and liabilities. Therefore, dispositions before maturity can vary significantly from year to year. Proceeds from sales prior to maturity were $108.6 million in 2002, $50.4 million in 2001 and $3.5 million in 2000.

The Company's principal financing activity is payment of dividends to the Company's shareholders. Dividends are normally declared quarterly and must be approved by the Board of Directors. Under regulatory requirements, the amount of dividends that may be paid in 2003 by the Company to its shareholders without prior regulatory approval is approximately $3.0 million.

Other than noted above, the Company does not have any debt, lease obligations, purchase obligations, lines of credit, guarantees, off-balance sheet arrangements, trading activities involving non-exchange traded contracts accounted for at fair value or relationships with persons or entities that derive benefits from a non-independent relationship with the Company or the Company's related parties.

Liquidity

Liquidity pertains to a company's ability to meet the demand for cash requirements of its business operations and financial obligations. The Company's two sources of short-term liquidity include its positive cash flow from operations and its portfolio of marketable securities as described above. The Company believes that these sources are sufficient to meet its liquidity needs in 2003.

Investments

Since December 31, 2002, there has not been a material change in mix or credit quality of the Company's investment portfolio. All bond purchases have been available for sale and over 91% of the holdings at December 31, 2002 and 86% in 2001 are rated A or better by Standard & Poor's Corporation. For all fixed maturities, 9% in 2002 and 14% in 2001 are rated BBB. Ratings of BBB and higher are considered investment grade by the rating services. Due to the improvement in bond market conditions, the Company experienced an increase in the fair value of bonds of approximately $4,487,000 in 2002.

The amortized cost and estimated fair value of debt securities at December 31, 2002, by contractual maturity, are shown on the following page. Expected maturities will differ from contractual maturities because borrowers may have the right to call or prepay obligations with or without call or prepayment penalties.

Mortgage Loans

The Company's mortgage loan policy limits the amounts of loans to no more than 80% of the collateral value on residential loans and no more than 75% of the collateral value on commercial loans. The Company grants loans only to employees (excluding officers and directors) and agents.

The geographic distribution of the loan portfolio is:

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 141 Business Combinations. SFAS No. 141 requires that the purchase method of accounting be used for all business combinations with a closing date after June 30, 2001. This statement eliminates the pooling-of-interest method of accounting for business combinations. SFAS No. 141 also includes guidance on the initial recognition and measurement of goodwill and other intangible assets in a business combination. The Financial Accounting Standards Board has also issued SFAS No. 142 Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets which supersedes Opinion 17 Intangible Assets, and is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. SFAS No. 142 addresses how goodwill and other intangible assets should be accounted for in financial statements upon acquisition and how these items should be accounted for subsequent to acquisition. The Company's adoption of SFAS Nos. 141 and 142 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

The Financial Accounting Standards Board also issued SFAS No. 143 Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations, which is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002, with early adoption encouraged. SFAS No. 143 applies to legal obligations associated with the retirement of long-lived assets that result from the acquisition, construction, development and (or) the normal operation of a long-lived asset, except for certain obligations of lessees. The adoption of SFAS No. 143 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

The Financial Accounting Standards Board also issued SFAS No. 144 Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets which supersedes SFAS No. 121 Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of, and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB Opinion No. 30 Reporting the Results of Operations-Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions, and is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. SFAS No. 144 establishes a single accounting model for the disposal of long-lived assets. The adoption of SFAS No. 144 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

The Financial Accounting Standards Board also issued SFAS No. 145 Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44 and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections, which is effective for financial statements issued after May 15, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 145 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

In July 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 146 Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities, which is to be applied prospectively to exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 146 is not expected to affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

In October 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 147 Acquisitions of Certain Financial Institutions, which is effective October 1, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 147 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

In November 2002 the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others, for which accounting requirements are effective for guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002 and disclosure requirements are effective for financial statements issued after December 15, 2002. The adoption of Interpretation No. 45 did not, and is not expected to, affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

In December 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 148 Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, which is effective for financial statements issued after December 15, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 148 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

Effective January 1, 2001, the State of Georgia adopted the National Association of Insurance Commissioner's Codification of Statutory Accounting Practices. The impact on the Company's statutory surplus upon adoption of the codification standards was not material.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that issuers of securities owned by the Company will default, or other parties, including reinsurers, which owe the Company money, will not pay. The Company attempts to minimize these risks by following a conservative investment strategy and by contracting with reinsuring companies that meet high standards for rating criteria and other qualifications. The Company invests principally in government, governmental agency and high quality corporate bonds having an A rating or better. The fixed maturity portfolio had an average rating of AA- as rated by Standard & Poor's Corporation at December 31, 2002.

Table of ContentsInterest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that interest rates will change and cause a decrease in the value of an insurer's investments. The Company's fixed maturity investments are subject to interest rate risk. The Company seeks to manage the impact of interest rate fluctuation through cash flow modeling, which attempts to match the maturity schedule of its assets with expected payout of its liabilities. Liabilities for interest sensitive products are carried at full account value. The fixed maturity portfolio at December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001 had an effective duration of 4.1 years and 4.2 years, respectively.

The table below summarizes the Company's interest rate risk and shows the effect of a hypothetical 100 and 200 basis point increase/decrease in interest rates on the fair values of the fixed investment portfolio. The selection of 100 and 200 basis point increases/decreases in interest rates should not be construed as a prediction by the Company's management of future market events, but rather, to illustrate the potential impact of such events. These calculations may not fully capture the impact of the changes in the ratio of long-term rates to short-term rates.

COTTON STATES LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2002

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cotton States Life Insurance Company (the Company) was organized under the laws of the State of Georgia in 1955. The Company is currently licensed to transact business in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. The Company currently markets only individual life insurance, payroll deduction life insurance, guaranteed issue and simplified issue life insurance and individual annuities.

On February 21, 2002, the Company filed notice of its intent to withdraw its multi-line exclusive agents from Kentucky primarily due to losses incurred by the Company's affiliate, Cotton States Mutual Insurance Company. Without objection from the Kentucky Department of Insurance, the Company's withdrawal plan was accepted pursuant to Kentucky insurance regulations.

In July of 1989, the Company formed CSI Brokerage Services, Inc. (CSI). CSI brokers insurance products for the Company's exclusive agents not offered by the Company's affiliated property and casualty companies.

In November of 1989, the Company acquired 60% of the outstanding common stock of Cotton States Marketing Resources, Inc. (CSMR). During 1992, the Company acquired the remaining 40% of CSMR's stock. CSMR brokers through the Company's exclusive agents other insurance companies' life and accident and health products not underwritten by the Company.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP), which vary in certain respects from reporting practices prescribed or permitted by the Insurance Department of the State of Georgia. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Amounts that the Company deems to be most sensitive to changes in estimates include deferred policy acquisition costs, future policy benefits, income taxes, and impairments as they relate to investments. In addition, the Company must determine requirements for disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements based upon estimates. In all instances, actual results could differ from estimates.

The significant accounting policies are as follows:

Consolidation Policy

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, and its wholly owned subsidiaries, CSI and CSMR. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Reclassifications

Certain amounts in the accompanying financial statements have been reclassified to conform with the current period's presentation.

Recognition of Premiums and Brokerage Income

Premiums on life and accident and health insurance policies are recognized as income when due. Premiums on universal life policies are recognized as income when deducted from the policy's account value.

COTTON STATES LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2002

CSI and CSMR receive commissions on insurance policies written by the Company's agents on behalf of unaffiliated insurance companies. This income is recognized when the related insurance policies are written as reported by the insurance companies with which the business is placed.

Future Policy Benefits

Future policy benefits on life insurance policies are computed using a net level premium method based upon various assumptions as to investment yields, withdrawals, morbidity, and mortality. Future policy benefits on universal life insurance policies and annuities represent the contract's accumulated account value.

Reinsurance

Reinsurance premiums and benefits paid or provided are accounted for on a basis consistent with those used in accounting for the original policies issued and the terms of the reinsurance contracts.

Deferred Policy Acquisition Costs

The costs of acquiring most new life business are deferred and amortized with interest over the premium-paying period of the related policies. For individual life policies, such amounts are amortized in proportion to the ratio of the annual premium income to the total anticipated premium income. Such anticipated premium income is estimated using the same assumptions used for computing future policy benefits. For universal life policies, deferrable costs are amortized in proportion to the ratio of the contract's annual gross profits to total anticipated gross profits. First-year excess expense charges are also deferred and accreted to income in the same manner as deferrable costs are amortized. Total anticipated gross profits are based on assumptions for investment margins, surrender charges, mortality charges, and level expense loads. The principal expenses deferred are commissions and certain expenses of the product development, policy issue, underwriting, and agency departments, all of which vary with and are primarily related to the production of new business. Policy acquisition costs deferred were approximately $10,215,000 in 2002, $9,831,000 in 2001, and $9,313,000 in 2000.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of presenting its statements of cash flows, the Company considers all short-term investments to be cash equivalents. Short-term investments have original maturity dates of less than three months.

Investments

The Company accounts for investments under the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities.

Fixed maturities held for investment are stated at amortized cost. Fixed maturities available for sale are stated at fair value. The cost of securities sold is determined by the specific identification method. First mortgage loans are stated at their aggregate unpaid balance. Policy loans are stated at their aggregate unpaid balance and short-term investments are stated at cost.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2002

Investments deemed to have a loss in value which is other than temporary are written down to their fair value. Unrealized gains and losses on fixed maturities available for sale are excluded from earnings and are reported within shareholders' equity as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income, net of deferred taxes and amounts attributable to the Company's universal life and annuity products.

Income Taxes

The Company, CSI, and CSMR file a consolidated Federal income tax return.

Deferred taxes are recognized for the tax consequences of temporary differences by applying enacted statutory rates applicable to future years to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of existing assets and liabilities. The effect on deferred taxes of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Stock Based Compensation

The Company applies the intrinsic value-based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations in accounting for its stock based compensation. As such, compensation expense would generally only be recorded if the current market price of the underlying stock on the date of grant exceeded the exercise price.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 141 Business Combinations. SFAS No. 141 requires that the purchase method of accounting be used for all business combinations with a closing date after June 30, 2001. This statement eliminates the pooling-of-interest method of accounting for business combinations. SFAS No. 141 also includes guidance on the initial recognition and measurement of goodwill and other intangible assets in a business combination. The Financial Accounting Standards Board has also issued SFAS No. 142 Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets which supersedes Opinion 17 Intangible Assets, and is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. SFAS No. 142 addresses how goodwill and other intangible assets should be accounted for in financial statements upon acquisition and how these items should be accounted for subsequent to acquisition. The Company's adoption of SFAS Nos. 141 and 142 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2002

The Financial Accounting Standards Board also issued SFAS No. 143 Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations, which is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002, with early adoption encouraged. SFAS No. 143 applies to legal obligations associated with the retirement of long-lived assets that result from the acquisition, construction, development and (or) the normal operation of a long-lived asset, except for certain obligations of lessees. The adoption of SFAS No. 143 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

The Financial Accounting Standards Board also issued SFAS No. 144 Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets which supersedes SFAS No. 121 Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of, and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB Opinion No. 30 Reporting the Results of Operations-Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions, and is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. SFAS No. 144 establishes a single accounting model for the disposal of long-lived assets. The adoption of SFAS No. 144 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

The Financial Accounting Standards Board also issued SFAS No. 145 Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44 and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections, which is effective for financial statements issued after May 15, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 145 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

In July 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 146 Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities, which is to be applied prospectively to exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 146 is not expected to affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

In October 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 147 Acquisitions of Certain Financial Institutions, which is effective October 1, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 147 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

In November 2002 the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others, for which accounting requirements are effective for guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002 and disclosure requirements are effective for financial statements issued after December 15, 2002. The adoption of Interpretation No. 45 did not, and is not expected to, affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

In December 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 148 Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, which is effective for financial statements issued after December 15, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 148 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position.

Effective January 1, 2001, the State of Georgia adopted the National Association of Insurance Commissioner's Codification of Statutory Accounting Practices. The impact on the Company's statutory surplus upon adoption of the codification standards was not material.

(2) Restatement of Previously Issued Financial Statements

During 2003, the Company became aware that the obligations under its employee and directors' stock-based compensation programs, which may be settled only with shares of the Company's common stock, were incorrectly classified as liabilities instead of shareholders' equity. Accordingly, the Company has restated the affected balances for all prior periods in these consolidated financial statements. Such restatements do not impact net income as reported in the accompanying consolidated statements of earnings or retained earnings for any periods presented. The effects of the restatements were as follows:

	As Previously Reported	As Restated

Common stock	$ 6,754,504	6,830,073
Additional paid-in capital	$ 1,528,178	2,615,899

During 2003, the Company became aware that the pension plan disclosures in 2001 had been based on the actuarial report issued as of January 1, 2001 rather than the actuarial report issued as of December 31, 2001, which had been used in the computation of the pension expense and accrued pension liability. These corrections do not impact the accompanying consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of earnings or retained earnings for any period presented. The revised disclosures are included in Note 7 and consist of the benefit obligation at end of year which changed from $1,215,750 to $2,169,044, the fair value of plan assets at end of year which changed from $1,670,770 to $1,425,129, the accrued liabilities which changed from $(394,150) to $(487,497), the discount rate which changed from 6.21% to 7.25%, and the expected long-term rate of return which changed from 8.25% to 9.00%.

Also during 2003, the Company became aware that it reported stock issued under its employee stock-based compensation program in 2000 and proceeds from the sale of investments in 2001 and 2000 incorrectly in the consolidated statements of cash flows. Accordingly, the Company restated the affected components of the consolidated statements of cash flows for all periods presented in these consolidated financial statements. Such restatements do not impact net income as reported in the accompanying consolidated statements of earnings or retained earnings for any period presented. The effects of the restatements were as follows:

(4) Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments:

Cash and Short-Term Investments

The carrying amount of cash and short-term investments is a reasonable estimate of fair value.

Investment Securities

For investment securities (which include fixed maturities held for investment, fixed maturities available for sale, and equity securities), fair values are based on quoted market prices or dealer quotes. If a quoted market price is not available, fair value is estimated using quoted market prices for similar securities.

Mortgage Loans

The fair value of mortgage loans is estimated using the quoted market prices for securities backed by similar loans, adjusted for differences in loan characteristics.

Policy Loans

The carrying amount of policy loans is a reasonable estimate of fair value.

Universal Life and Annuity Benefits

The carrying amount of universal life and annuity benefits is a reasonable estimate of fair value since credited interest approximates current market rates.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2002

The Company utilizes reinsurance agreements to reduce its exposure to large losses in all aspects of its insurance business. Such reinsurance permits recovery of a portion of large losses from reinsurers, although it does not discharge the primary liability of the Company as direct insurer of the risks insured. The Company evaluates the financial strength of potential reinsurers and continually monitors the financial condition of reinsurers. Only those reinsurance recoverable balances deemed probable of recovery are reflected as assets on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. Amounts ceded under reinsurance agreements become liabilities of the Company should the reinsurers be unable to meet their obligations under the reinsurance agreements.

The effect of reinsurance assumed and ceded on certain financial statement accounts is as follows:

(6) Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and Federal income tax purposes. The net deferred tax liability at December 31, 2002 and 2001 is composed of the tax-effected temporary differences related to the following amounts:

	2002	2001
Deferred tax assets:
Equity securities	$ 355,424	68,659

SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, specifically identifies certain temporary differences for which deferred tax liabilities are not recognized unless it becomes apparent that those temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future. The Company has not recorded a deferred tax liability for one such item entitled policyholders surplus created by Federal income tax regulations in effect prior to 1984. Certain untaxed income accumulated in this special memorandum tax account will become taxable if distributions, other than stock dividends, are made in excess of certain amounts accumulated in another special memorandum tax account entitled shareholders surplus. The balance in the policyholders surplus account at December 31, 2002 was $59,088,000. The balance in the shareholders surplus account at December 31, 2002 was $4,203,000. The Company does not anticipate any of the policyholders surplus account becoming taxable in the foreseeable future.

In assessing the deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Management has concluded that it is more likely than not that all of its deferred tax assets are realizable. Therefore, no valuation allowance was established at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

Federal income tax expense is less than amounts determined by multiplying earnings before Federal income taxes by the Federal tax rate of 35%. The reasons for such difference and the tax effect of each are as follows:

Federal income tax expense at statutory rate	$ 3,594,411	3,102,595	3,798,645

(7) Retirement Plans, Other Postretirement Benefit Plans and Deferred Compensation Plans

The Company, in conjunction with Cotton States Mutual (Mutual) and Shield Insurance Company (Shield), affiliates, sponsors a non-contributory defined benefit pension plan covering all eligible employees. Plan benefits are based on the age of the employee, the employee's average salary for the highest five consecutive years of compensation and the employee's years of service. The Company's funding policy is to make annual contributions sufficient to fund the plan's normal cost (current service cost) plus amortization of the unfunded prior service cost. The Company and its affiliates are charged the allocable share of such contributions based on their proportionate share of payroll.

In addition to pension benefits, the Company has a plan which provides for postretirement health care and life insurance benefits for certain employees. These benefits include major medical insurance with deductible and coinsurance provisions. The Company accrues benefits on a current basis and the plan is not funded.

Rate of compensation increase	5.00	5.00
Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets	9.00	9.00
Projected increase in health care costs			5.25	5.00

Significant actuarial assumptions:

A 1% annual increase in assumed health care cost would increase the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation at December 31, 2002 by approximately $7,500 and the service and interest cost components of the net periodic postretirement benefit cost for 2002 by $500. A 1% annual decrease in the assumed health care costs would decrease the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation at December 31, 2002 by approximately $6,900 and the service and interest components of the net periodic postretirement benefit cost by $475.

The Company also sponsors a defined contribution plan for the benefit of the Company's employees and the employees of affiliated companies. Matching contributions by the Company vary and are determined by the Company's prior year profitability measured by return on equity. The Company's matching contributions were $26,664 in 2002, $38,000 in 2001 and $43,838 in 2000.

(8) Transactions with Affiliates

Mutual, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Shield, controls approximately 33% of the Company's outstanding common stock. Most officers and directors of the Company hold similar positions with these affiliates.

Certain general expenses are allocated to the Company from its affiliates. These expenses, such as salaries, advertising, rents, etc., represent the Company's share of expenses initially paid by Mutual and are allocated based on specific identification or, if undeterminable, generally on the basis of each company's premium. Expenses allocated to the Company may not be the same as expenses incurred if the Company operated as a stand-alone entity. Expenditures allocated to the Company amounted to $3,471,048 in 2002, $3,992,556 in 2001, and $3,386,739 in 2000. At December 31, 2002 the Company was owed $42,469 from Mutual and at December 31, 2001 the Company owed Mutual $186,482.

The Company expensed pension costs of $116,174 in 2002, $93,347 in 2001, and $61,645 in 2000.

Rent for use of software of $106,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, has been charged to the affiliated companies.

(9) Stock-Based Compensation

The Company has various stock option plans for the Company's officers and key employees, as well as directors.

The Company accounts for its various stock-based compensation as expense, recorded on the grant date only to the extent that the current market price of the underlying stock exceeds the exercise price on the grant date.

Under the employee plan, options may be granted to purchase up to 937,500 shares of the Company's common stock at a per share price of not less than 100% of fair market value at date of grant. Under the directors' plan, options are granted based on the level of directors' fees at a per share price of 50% of fair market value at date of grant. The employee and directors' options have a term of 10 years and are not subject to any vesting requirements. The weighted-average remaining contractual life on options outstanding at December 31, 2002 is 7.0 years. The weighted-average grant date fair value of options granted during 2002, 2001, and 2000 was $9.61, $7.69, and $5.42, respectively. Stock option transactions are summarized below:

	Years Ended December 31,

In addition to the stock options described above, the Company has awarded nontransferable, restricted shares of Company common stock to various key executives under key executive restricted stock bonus plans. The market value of the common stock at the date of issuance is recorded as compensation expense using the straight-line method over the vesting period of the awards. The Company awarded 67,329, 47,439, and 63,225 shares of restricted stock under such plans during 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. The weighted-average grant date fair value of such shares was $9.09, $9.83, and $7.04 respectively. Aggregate compensation expense with respect to the foregoing restricted stock awards was $51,553, $424,726, and $59,146 in 2002, 2001, and 2000 respectively.

In accordance with APB Opinion No. 25, $135,000, $519,000, and $125,000 in compensation expense has been recorded in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively, for the various stock option and restricted stock awards granted in 2002, 2001, and 2000. Had the Company determined compensation cost based on the fair value at the grant date for its stock options and restricted stock awards under SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, the Company's net income, basic net income per share, and diluted net income per share would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

	Years ended December 31,

years for options and seven years for restricted stock awarded in 2000, and three years for restricted stock awarded in 2002 and 2001; expected dividend yield of 1.67% for 2002 grants, 1.60% for 2001 grants, and 2.10% for 2000 grants; risk-free interest rate of 3.5% for 2002, 4.5% for 2001, and 5.0% for 2000; and an expected volatility of 66% for 2002 grants, 65% for 2001 grants, and 58% for 2000 grants.

(10) Statutory Financial Statements

Accounting practices used to prepare statutory financial statements for regulatory filings of stock life insurance companies differ from GAAP. Material differences resulting from these accounting practices include: deferred policy acquisition costs which are not recognized for statutory purposes; statutory non-admitted assets are recognized under GAAP accounting; statutory investment valuation reserves are not recognized under GAAP accounting; premiums for universal life and investment-type products are recognized as revenues for statutory purposes and as deposits to policyholders' accounts under GAAP; different assumptions are used in calculating future policyholders' benefits; and different methods are used for calculating valuation allowances and deferred Federal income taxes for statutory and GAAP purposes.

Net income and shareholders' equity, as reported to regulatory authorities in conformity with statutory accounting practices for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2002 are as follows:

	2002	2001	2000
Statutory net (loss) income	$ (111,135)	2,258,801	8,109,372
Statutory shareholders' equity	$34,840,911	34,431,844	33,330,254

The Georgia Insurance Code limits dividends in any one year to the greater of statutory earnings, excluding realized capital gains, or 10% of statutory surplus, unless the express permission of the Georgia Insurance Department is obtained. Dividend payments to shareholders are further limited by the Georgia Insurance Code to unassigned statutory surplus, which at December 31, 2002 was approximately $29,000,000. The excess of retained earnings determined in accordance with GAAP over unassigned statutory surplus is not available for payment of dividends. The Company may pay a dividend amounting to approximately $2,900,000 in 2003 without prior regulatory approval.

(11) Litigation

The Company is a defendant in various actions incidental to the conduct of its business. While the ultimate outcome of these matters cannot be estimated with certainty, management does not believe the actions will result in any material loss to the Company.

(12) Business Segments

The Company's operations can be grouped into three major segments: (i) individual life insurance, (ii) guaranteed issue and simplified issue life insurance, and (iii) brokerage operations. These segments are differentiated primarily by their respective methods of distribution and the nature of related products, as the Company's operations in each segment are concentrated within its southeastern states geographic market. Individual life insurance products are distributed through the Company's multi-line exclusive agents, guaranteed issue and simplified issue products are distributed through independent agents as well as exclusive agents, and brokerage operations involve third party products distributed through the Company's exclusive and independent agents. The Company does not group items on the consolidated balance sheet into segments, nor does it analyze those items by segment when making management decisions. The Company allocates net investment income and net realized gains to its individual life insurance and guaranteed issue and simplified issue life insurance segments based on the ratio of each segment's reserves to total reserves. Net investment income and net realized gains for the Company's brokerage segment is based on actual amounts earned by its brokerage subsidiaries.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Cotton States Life Insurance Company:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Cotton States Life Insurance Company and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2002, and the related consolidated statements of earnings, shareholders' equity, cash flows, and comprehensive income for the year then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the 2002 consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Cotton States Life Insurance Company and subsidiaries at December 31, 2002, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Compensation Pursuant to Plans

Pension Plan

The Company is a participating employer in the Cotton States Employee Retirement Income Plan (the Plan), which is a qualified pension plan sponsored jointly with Mutual. The Plan covers all of the Company's salaried employees.

The Plan provides a retirement income benefit at age 65 which is based on the employee's number of years of service (maximum 35 years) and average earnings during the five consecutive years (in the last ten years of employment) in which the earnings are highest. Age 65 retirement benefit is derived as the sum of (i) the product of the number of years of service times 85% of average earnings and (ii) the product of the number of years of service times 55% of excess average earnings. Excess average earnings is the amount, if any, by which the average earnings for a participant exceeds the 35 year average maximum social security taxable wage base for all persons born in the same year as the participant. The Plan also provides an early retirement benefit after age 55, with no reduction in benefit entitlement due to age, when the sum of the employee's age and years of credited service equals or exceeds 80. If the employee has not obtained 80 points at retirement, the benefits are reduced 5% for each year the retiree's age is less than 65. The Plan also contains a death benefit for the surviving spouse of an employee (who had at least five years of credited service) which is equal to 50% of the deceased employee's accrued benefit. If the death occurs after termination from employment and prior to an early retirement date, the spouse's benefit is reduced as for early retirement income benefits. Accrued benefits under the Plan vest after the employee accrues five years of service.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

The Company adopted the Cotton States Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (SERP) effective January 1, 1992 in order to provide for a supplemental pension plan to replace pension benefits which were affected as a result of amendments to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (IRC).

The SERP is an agreement between the Company and employees meeting the qualification provisions of the SERP in which the Company provides benefits in excess of the limitations on benefits imposed by the IRC regarding highly compensated employees. The SERP also replaces the pension accruals set forth under the Plan as a result of the new benefit formulas mandated by the IRC which resulted in amendments to the Plan. The SERP incorporates all of the terms and conditions of the Plan and future amendments to the Plan. Mr. Howard is not a participant in the SERP plan.

The following table sets forth the estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement at age 65 under the plans.

The benefits reflected in the preceding table are in addition to an employee's social security benefits. The Company has allocated its proportionate share of retirement costs for the officers it shares with Mutual and Shield.

Officers named in the summary Compensation Table have been credited with the following years of service: J. Ridley Howard, 21 years; Harry V. Scott, 14 years; and Norma Y. Christopher, 15 years.

The estimated annual retirement benefits under the plans for all executive officers of the Company as a group from the participating companies aggregate $242,439. This estimate assumes no change from 2002 salaries, retirement at age 65, and continuous employment with the Company. Estimated annual retirement benefits under the plans attributable solely to service with the Company cannot be stated due to the allocation of service and compensation among the Company and its affiliates.

Incentive Savings Plan

The Company participates in the Cotton States Incentive Savings and Investment 401(k) Plan (the "401(k) Plan"). The 401(k) Plan is a qualified savings incentive plan sponsored by the same companies that sponsor the Company's Plan. The 401(k) Plan is open to all employees who have completed one year of service and have reached their twenty-first birthday. Eligible employees may contribute from 2% to 10% of their compensation to the 401(k) Plan. The Company makes its matching contribution based only on the first 6% of an employee's compensation, which is not to exceed a maximum contribution of $12,000 per employee. The match is based on the return on equity of the sponsoring companies. The Company's contribution will not be less than 20% nor more than 60% of the employee's contribution eligible for matching. Employees are fully vested in the Company's contribution after five years of service. Employees are not permitted to withdraw their account before age 59-1/2 except in the event of death, disability, termination of employment, or financial hardship.

Incentive Stock Options

The Company has a qualified incentive stock option plan for its officers and key employees and those of its subsidiaries, CSI and CSMR (the "ISO Plan"). During 2002, no options were granted under the ISO Plan.

At December 31, 2002, there were no options outstanding. During 2002, there were no shares acquired through the exercise of options pursuant to the ISO Plan.

Directors' Discounted Stock Option Plan

The Company has a Directors' Discounted Stock Option Plan (the "DSOP"). The DSOP is designed to assist the Company in attracting, retaining and compensating highly qualified individuals who are not employees of the Company for service as members of the Board and to provide them with a proprietary interest in the common stock of the Company. The Board believes the DSOP will be beneficial to the Company and its shareholders by encouraging and enabling non-employee directors to have a personal financial stake in the Company, in addition to emphasizing their common interest with the shareholders in increasing the value of the common stock of the Company in the long term.

The DSOP provides for automatic yearly grants of options to purchase shares of common stock of the Company to each director who elects to participate in the DSOP. Each director who is not an employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates may participate by filing with the Company an irrevocable election to receive the grant of a stock option in lieu of part or all of the fees which the director would have been entitled to receive for the immediately preceding year for his or her service on the Board. Options will be granted automatically on the date of the annual meeting of the Board as to any director who, prior to the date of such annual meeting, has filed with the Company an irrevocable election to participate in the DSOP.

The number of shares of common stock of the Company subject to each option granted to a director shall be determined by dividing (i) the director's fee due to a director, by (ii) the fair market value of the common stock of the Company on the date of grant, minus the option exercise price. The fair market value of the common stock of the Company under the DSOP shall be the closing price as reported on the Nasdaq National Market and the option exercise price for each option granted shall be 50% of the fair market value, to be paid in cash by the director upon exercise. All options granted under the DSOP will expire ten years after the date of grant, subject to DSOP provisions relating to the retirement of the director because of death, disability, or age. That portion of an option granted under the DSOP which is attributable to any portion of the director's fees which is not earned due to termination as a director, shall automatically abate and be canceled. In the event of the death of the holder of any unexercised option, all of the holder's outstanding options will become immediately exercisable upon the date of death by his or her legal representative.

No option may be exercised under the DSOP before the 12 month anniversary of the date of grant.

As of December 31, 2002 a total of 281,250 shares of Company common stock is reserved for issuance under the DSOP (subject to adjustment for subsequent stock splits, stock dividends and certain other changes in the common stock of the Company). Excluding 14,414 options held by retired directors as of December 31, 2002, options to acquire 90,118 shares were outstanding under the DSOP, including 17,398 options to be granted automatically at the 2003 Annual Meeting. Upon the exercise of an option, the Company will issue authorized but previously unissued shares. The exercise prices regarding the options outstanding under the DSOP range from $1.92 to $7.63 per share.

If an option issued under the DSOP is terminated or canceled without having been exercised, the shares which were not purchased thereunder will again become available for issuance under the DSOP.

Adjustments will be made in the number of shares subject to the DSOP and in the purchase price of outstanding options in the event of any change in the number of shares of common stock of the Company outstanding as a result of a stock split or stock dividend, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, or other similar corporate change.

Performance Share Awards Plan

The Company has a Performance Share Awards Plan (the "PAR Plan"). The PAR Plan is designed to reward employees of the Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates for services performed on behalf of the Company, to stimulate employees' efforts on behalf of the Company, to encourage such employees to remain with the Company, and to provide them with an ownership interest in the common stock of the Company. The Board believes the PAR Plan will be beneficial to the Company and its shareholders by encouraging and enabling employees to have a personal financial stake in the Company.

The PAR Plan authorizes the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors to grant awards of shares of common stock of the Company to employees of the Company designated by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee may grant performance share awards in shares of the common stock if the performance of the Company, or any subsidiary, division or affiliate of the Company selected by the Compensation Committee, meets certain goals established by the Compensation Committee during an award period. The Compensation Committee would determine the goals, the maximum payment value of an award, and the length of an award. In order to receive payment, a recipient of a performance share award must remain in the employ of the Company until the completion of the award period.

An aggregate of 281,250 shares of common stock of the Company are subject to the PAR Plan. Adjustments will be made in the number of shares subject to an award in the event of any change in the number of shares of common stock outstanding as a result of a stock split or stock dividend, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, or other similar corporate change. The Company has granted 279,314 shares under the PAR Plan of which 0 vested in 2002. In the event of a change of control of the Company, as defined in the PAR Plan, all awards granted prior to the change of control shall immediately vest and the shares subject to the award shall be issued to the recipient of the award.

Awards granted under the PAR Plan provide the recipients with the right to acquire shares of Common Stock as follows:

Year	Number of Shares	Date Granted	Earliest Vesting	Latest Vesting
2000	63,225	2/22/00	2/21/03	2/21/07
2001	47,439	2/21/01	2/20/04	2/20/08
2002	52,455	2/26/02	2/25/05	2/25/09

Table of Contents

As of December 31, 2002, the following executive officers had been granted awards to receive shares pursuant to the PAR Plan:

Name	Number of Shares Vested Including Dividends	Number of Shares Unvested
J. Ridley Howard	0	115,152
Harry V. Scott	0	31,002
Norma Y. Christopher	0	10,421

Other Compensation

Each executive officer is provided the use of one automobile by the Company, Mutual and Shield, but is required to reimburse the Company, Mutual and Shield for the personal use of the automobile. Officers are reimbursed for club dues. The Company, Mutual and Shield are allocated these expenses under the same formula on which salaries are prorated. The total cost of these expenses does not exceed 10% of any executive officer's salary and bonus compensation.

Compensation of Directors

During 2002, no director of the Company received any remuneration from the Company in his or her capacity as a director except for fees, options to receive common stock in lieu of fees pursuant to the DSOP, and reimbursement for expenses incurred in connection with attending directors' and committee meetings. No director received cash compensation in excess of $19,750 for his or her services as a director during 2002. Each director, other than J. Ridley Howard, is paid an annual stipend of $7,000. Mr. Howard did not receive an annual stipend in 2002. In addition, each director was paid $850 plus travel expenses for each meeting of directors and $700 for each committee meeting of directors attended. Each committee member, other than J. Ridley Howard, received an additional $1,400 as an annual stipend and each committee chairperson received $2,000 as an annual stipend. The aggregate directors' fees and reimbursable expenses for 2002 totaled $168,301. There were no retirement benefits accrued or set aside during 2002 for any director for his or her services as director. Upon reaching the mandatory retirement age of 72, directors of the Company become directors emeritus and receive stipends ranging from $600 to $11,000 annually for periods ranging from 15 years to life after the date of retirement. In February, 2000, the Board of Directors eliminated the retirement stipends for any director retiring after that date.

In addition to the director compensation payable by the Company as disclosed above, directors who are not employees of the Company are eligible to participate in the DSOP which was approved by the shareholders of the Company at the 1996 annual meeting. The DSOP, which is administered by the Compensation Committee, permits the grant of stock options to directors of the Company who are not employees of the Company at an exercise price equal to 50% of the current market value at the date of grant as an alternative to the payment of retainer and meeting fees in cash to the directors. Fractional shares are paid in cash. During 2002, certain directors of the Company deferred fees in exchange for remuneration in the form of stock options in lieu of cash to be granted at the 2003 annual meeting as follows:

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Transactions with Management and Others

Shield, which is wholly owned by Mutual, owns 2,102,385 shares or 33.2% of the outstanding common stock of the Company. See Item 12.

Certain general expenses are allocated to the Company by Mutual. These expenses such as salaries, advertising, rents, and related expenses, represent the Company's share of expenses initially paid by Mutual and are allocated based on specific identification or, if indeterminable, generally on the basis of each company's premium income. Expenditures allocated to the Company amounted to $3,471,048 in 2002. See Item 1.

Gaylord O. Coan, a director of the Company, served as President and CEO of Gold Kist, Inc. through July 2001. Gold Kist, Inc. owns no stock of the Company. The Company shares offices with Mutual and Shield in a building owned by a partnership of Mutual and Gold Kist, Inc. The Company is not a partner in the partnership which owns the building and has no equity interest in the building.

Gaylord O. Coan, a director of the Company, served as a director of SunTrust Bank, Atlanta. E. Jenner Wood, III, a director of the Company, serves as an executive officer of SunTrust Bank, Central Group. SunTrust Banks, Inc. received fees from the Company in 2002 for services rendered as the transfer agent of the Company. SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, a subsidiary of SunTrust Banks, Inc., received fees from the Company in 2002 for investment and custodial services and leases of computer hardware.

ITEM 14. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures. The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Accounting Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-14(c) and 15d-14(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)), as of a date within 90 days prior to the filing date of this annual report (the Evaluation Date). Based on such evaluation, such officers have concluded that as of the Evaluation Date, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in alerting them on a timely basis to material information relating to the Company (including the Company's consolidated subsidiaries) required to be included in the Company's report filed or submitted under the Exchange Act.

(b) Changes in Internal Controls. Since the Evaluation Date, there have not been any significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect such controls.

 - c) presented in this annual report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures based on our evaluation of the Evaluation Date;
5. The registrant's other certifying officers and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of registrant's board of directors:
 - a) all significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data and have identified for the registrant's auditors any material weaknesses in internal controls; and
 - b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal controls; and
6. The registrant's other certifying officers and I have indicated in this annual report whether or not there were significant changes in internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date of our most recent evaluation, including any corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.
