HARRIS CORPORATION TO ACQUIRE EXIGENT INTERNATIONAL, INC., A SOFTWARE AND SERVICES BUSINESS

MELBOURNE, FL, APRIL 3, 2001 - Harris Corporation (NYSE:HRS) and Exigent International, Inc., (NASDAQ Small Cap:YGNT) today jointly announced the signing of a definitive merger agreement for Harris to acquire Exigent through a cash tender offer and merger. Harris is a worldwide communications equipment company. Exigent provides software and services for satellite command and control, telecommunications, and information technology, primarily for government markets.

The board of directors of each company has approved the transaction. Under the terms of the transaction, Manatee Merger Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Harris Corporation, will commence a cash tender offer for all of Exigent's approximately 6 million outstanding common shares at a price of $3.55 per share in cash. The transaction values the equity of Exigent at $23 million, which includes payments for in-the-money Exigent employee stock options.

Exigent is headquartered in Melbourne, Florida, and employs approximately 260 employees, including 220 engineering and technical personnel. Calendar year 2000 revenues were approximately $38 million. Exigent has primary engineering and service centers in Melbourne and the Washington, D.C. area, with smaller centers located in Colorado and North Carolina. Exigent operates through three subsidiaries: Exigent Software Technology, Inc., Exigent Digital Telecom and Wireless Networks, and Exigent Solutions Group. Exigent International was formed in 1996 as a holding company to build upon the strengths and track record of Software Technology, Inc, which has more than 22 years of experience providing telemetry equipment to the U.S. government.

"Exigent is an excellent fit with our existing government business," commented Phillip W. Farmer, chairman and CEO of Harris. "Exigent performs high-end software and systems work for space operations and has a world class set of commercial software products. Exigent has a stellar reputation and on-site presence with a key group of customers that are among our target channels of opportunity. The acquisition fits well with our core business at Harris, and it is our intent to provide a competitive posture that will allow it to grow and prosper."

B.R. "Bernie" Smedley, CEO and chairman of Exigent International, Inc., stated, "We are confident that the proposed sale to Harris Corporation will strengthen the market distribution and value of our products, continue to utilize the vast experience of our employees, and give all our stakeholders an immediate premium over the current market price."

4

CIBC World Markets Corp. acted as financial advisor to Exigent in connection with the transaction and has rendered to the Board an opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the $3.55 per share cash consideration to be received in the offer and merger by the holders of Exigent common stock (other than Harris and its affiliates).

The tender offer is expected to commence on or about April 17, 2001. The tender offer and merger are subject to customary conditions, including the tender of at least a majority of Exigent's outstanding shares. Following completion of the tender and receipt of Exigent shareholder approval, if required, each share of Exigent stock not tendered in the tender offer will be converted into the right to receive $3.55 in cash.
