PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

General

Royal Appliance Mfg. Co. ("Royal" or the "Company"), an Ohio corporation with its corporate offices in the Cleveland, Ohio metropolitan area, develops, assembles or sources and markets a full line of cleaning products for home and some for commercial use, primarily in North America under the Dirt Devil(R) and Royal(R) brand names. In 1984, the Company introduced the first in a line of Dirt Devil floorcare products, which the Company believes has become one of the largest selling lines of vacuum cleaners in the United States. The Company has used the Dirt Devil brand name recognition to gain acceptance for other Dirt Devil floorcare products. The Company continues to market certain metal vacuum cleaners for home and commercial use under the Royal brand name.

On December 16, 2002, the Company entered into a definitive agreement ("agreement") for its acquisition by Techtronic Industries ("TTI"). The agreement provides for Royal shareholders to receive $7.37 per share in cash, for a total price of $105 million. Under the terms of the agreement, Royal will be merged with a subsidiary of TTI which, following the completion of the merger, will operate as a wholly owned, indirect subsidiary of TTI. The transaction is expected to close on April 23, 2003. It is subject to, among other things, the approval by the shareholders of both TTI and Royal. The parties have received early termination of the Hart-Scot-Rodino waiting period.

During 2001, the Company's subsidiary, Privacy Technologies, Inc. ("Privacy Technologies(TM)") introduced the TeleZapper(TM) - a telephone attachment that helps block unwanted telemarketing calls and removes consumers' phone numbers from the telemarketers' computerized dialing lists.

In July 2002, the Company acquired the North American rights to the home, health and beauty line of products from Medisana AG, along with certain other assets for approximately $800,000. Medisana home, health and beauty products were offered in North America for the past three years through their North American wholly-owned subsidiary Medisana USA.

The Company's business strategy is primarily focused on leveraging its distribution channels and its well-known Dirt Devil brand, where applicable, to new and innovative products both inside and outside the floorcare industry, primarily in North America. The Company's product offering consists of name brand consumer products in two business segments: Consumer Products - Floorcare and Consumer Products - Other. The Company's goal is to expand the number, visibility and volume of its products sold by retailers, as well as to increase the number of major retailers carrying its products. The Company also seeks to increase the sale of its products through independent floorcare dealers by offering dealer-exclusive product lines and cooperative promotional programs.

The Company's marketing strategy is essential to its success. The Company uses television, print, cooperative advertising and its Dirt Devil and Privacy Technologies websites to build and maintain brand awareness and consumer demand, as well as to gain shelf space for its product lines from major retailers.

Business Segments

Consumer Products - Floorcare: The Company's Consumer Products - Floorcare business segment designs, assembles or sources, markets and distributes a full line of plastic and metal vacuum cleaners. The Company's Dirt Devil vacuum cleaners are intended for home use. The Company's metal vacuum cleaners are intended for home and commercial use.

This business segment's primary retail product lines are sold under the Dirt Devil name. The first Dirt Devil product, the Hand Vac, was introduced in 1984. The Dirt Devil line has since been expanded to include a full line of upright vacuum cleaners at various price points, both with bags and bagless, upright and hand held carpet and upholstery extractors, canister vacuum cleaners, and a full line of corded and cordless hand held vacuum cleaners.

The Company has produced durable metal vacuum cleaners since the early 1900's. Currently, the Company markets a full line of metal upright and plastic upright and canister vacuum cleaners under the Royal brand name for home and commercial use exclusively through its network of independent dealers. The Company also sells accessories, carpet and upholstery cleaning solutions, attachments, refurbished cleaners and replacement parts for each of its product lines.

In order to provide the retailers with distinct product alternatives, the Company offers different Dirt Devil products in a variety of styles and colors and with various features. Major retailers currently carrying some portion of the Dirt Devil product line include Best Buy, Canadian Tire, Home Depot, Kmart, Lowe's, Sam's Club, Sears, Target, and WalMart. The Company also sells its Dirt Devil products through independent dealers, who primarily sell the metal line of Royal vacuum cleaners.

CONSUMER PRODUCTS - OTHER: The Company's Consumer Products - Other segment primarily represents business conducted by Privacy Technologies, Inc., Product Launch Partners, Inc. and Medisana, Inc. This business segment designs, sources and distributes consumer products outside of the Company's traditional floorcare business. Currently, this segment is substantially comprised of the TeleZapper, which was introduced in the second half 2001 by Privacy Technologies, Inc. The TeleZapper is a telephone attachment that helps block unwanted telemarketing calls and removes consumers' phone numbers from telemarketers' computerized dialing lists. Major retailers currently offering the TeleZapper include Best Buy, CVS, Kmart, RadioShack, Target, Walgreens and WalMart.

NEW PRODUCTS

The Company introduces new products and enhances its existing products on a regular basis for both the retail and dealer markets. In order to support its product development efforts, the Company engages in research and development activities, particularly with respect to new product engineering. The Company's engineering and product development expenditures were approximately $6.8 million, $7.9 million, and $6.8 million in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

The Company has license and R&D agreements with third parties. Additionally, the Company has licensing agreements with third parties, which license the Dirt Devil brand name for certain other cleaning products in North America and for use of the Dirt Devil brand name in other countries.

The Company has also created Product Launch Partners, Inc. in 2002. Product Launch Partners, Inc. was established as a vehicle for inventors and start-up consumer product companies to joint venture with the Company on new product launch opportunities. As of the date of this report, no new products have been commercialized through Product Launch Partners, Inc.

In addition to internally developing products, the Company may purchase product tooling, license product designs and patents, and outsource product assembly for products to be marketed under the Dirt Devil and Royal brand names or through Privacy Technologies.

MARKETING AND CUSTOMERS

The Company markets its Dirt Devil and TeleZapper products primarily through major retailers, including mass market retailers (e.g. WalMart, Target and Kmart), electronic chains (e.g. Best Buy and RadioShack), warehouse clubs

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

(e.g. Sam's Club and B.J.'s Wholesale Club), home improvement centers (e.g. Home Depot and Lowe's), and drug store chains (e.g. CVS and Walgreens). During 2002, WalMart (including Sam's Club), Kmart and Target accounted for approximately 27.5%, 15.1%, and 15.0%, respectively, of the Company's net sales, compared to approximately 31.1%, 14.3%, and 14.1%, respectively, of the Company's net sales in 2001. These were the only customers who accounted for 10% or more of the Company's net sales during such periods. During 2002 and 2001, the Company's net sales in the aggregate to its five largest customers were 67.6% and 68.1%, respectively, of total net sales. The loss of any of these customers or loss of their shelf space could have a significant impact on the Company's operations. The Company anticipates that the significant percentage of the Company's net sales attributable to a limited number of major retail customers will continue. The Company believes that its relations with its customers are good. The Company sells most of its products to retailers through its internal sales staff. Recently, several major retailers have experienced significant financial difficulties and some, including Kmart, have filed for protection from creditors under applicable bankruptcy laws. As of December 31, 2002, the net exposure related to Kmart's pre-bankruptcy balance as well as other customer balances for which management believes collection is doubtful was included in the calculation of allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company sells its products to certain customers that are in bankruptcy proceedings.

Since Dirt Devil and TeleZapper products are targeted to sell to the mass market, the Company believes that brand name recognition is critical to the success of these products. The Company provides advertising and promotional support for its Dirt Devil and TeleZapper products through television and cooperative advertising with retailers and believes that these promotional activities, as well as those of its major customers, affect brand name awareness and sales. The Company's cooperative advertising program is established based upon planning ads and promotions with its mass market retail customers. Some of the Company's advertising and promotional activities are tied to holidays and also to specific promotional activities of retailers, and historically have been higher during the Christmas shopping season. The Company's advertising and promotional expenditures are not proportional to anticipated sales. In addition, the Company has generated a small portion of its sales from consumer direct orders, primarily for accessories and new product launches, through the Company's toll-free number, websites and from direct response television infomercials.

The Company devotes considerable attention to the design and appearance of its products and their packaging in order to enhance their appeal to consumers and to stand out among other brands on retailers' shelves. In order to increase the presence of its Dirt Devil products in major retail outlets, the Company provides retailers with distinct product alternatives by offering its Dirt Devil product lines in a variety of styles and colors and with various features.

The Company also strives to meet the logistic and product merchandising needs of its retailers. The Company endeavors to have sufficient quantities of products in stock in order to process and fill orders in a timely manner. Since orders are typically shipped within 10 days of the receipt of a purchase order, the Company does not have a significant order backlog. The Company permits cancellation of orders up to 72 hours prior to shipment.

The Company's line of metal vacuum cleaners is currently sold exclusively through a network of independent vacuum cleaner dealers. As part of its effort to support its independent dealer network, the Company has attempted to meet independent dealers' needs for distinctive product offerings not available to mass merchants. The Company's metal product lines are targeted at consumers and commercial customers who are interested in purchasing more durable and higher quality vacuum cleaners. The Company focuses its promotional activities with its independent dealers on cooperative advertising.

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

Many of the Company's independent dealers also provide warranty service for Royal and Dirt Devil products. This allows the consumer to have prompt access to local service outlets and is an important component of the Company's efforts to be responsive to consumers. The Company's products are generally sold with a one to six-year limited warranty.

The Company has generally accepted over-the-counter product returns from its retail customers reflecting the retailers' customer return policies.

Each of the Company's products has a toll-free number printed on it that consumers may use to contact a Company customer service representative. Through its customer service computer system, the Company can provide a prompt response to consumer inquiries concerning the availability of its products and service dealers in the consumer's vicinity.

COMPETITION

The Company's Consumer Products - Floorcare business segment's most significant competitors are Hoover, Eureka and Bissell in the upright vacuum and carpet shampooer markets and Black & Decker and Euro Pro in the hand-held market. Many of these competitors and several others are subsidiaries or divisions of companies that are more diversified and have greater financial resources than the Company. The Company believes that the domestic vacuum cleaner industry is a mature industry with modest annual growth in many of its products but with a decline in certain other products. Competition is dependent upon price, quality, extension of product lines, and advertising and promotion expenditures. Additionally, competition is influenced by innovation in the design of replacement models and by marketing and approaches to distribution. The Company experiences extensive competition, including price pressure and increased advertising by its competitors, in all product lines within the Consumer Products - Floorcare segment. These trends are expected to continue into 2003.

TRADEMARKS AND PATENTS

The Company holds numerous trademarks registered in the United States and foreign countries for various products. The Company has registered trademarks in the United States and a number of foreign countries for the Dirt Devil, Royal, TeleZapper, and other names and logos, which are used in connection with the sale of its vacuum cleaners, consumer electronics and other products and accessory parts. The Company considers both the Dirt Devil and TeleZapper trademarks to be of considerable value and critical to its business. No challenges to its rights to the Dirt Devil trademark have arisen and the Company has no reason to believe that any such challenges will arise in the future. Recently, a lawsuit was filed against the Company asserting trademark infringement by the Company through the use of the TeleZapper trademark. See Item 3: Legal Proceedings for further details.

On December 11, 2002, the Company announced that it had entered into a cross license agreement with Matsushita Home Appliances ("Panasonic") with respect to certain patents and related intellectual property rights. Panasonic has received a license to continue to manufacture and market bagless upright vacuum cleaner products under the Royal bagless upright patent portfolio. Royal received a license to continue to manufacture and market vacuum cleansers under patents for certain Panasonic technology. The agreement will result in ongoing positive cash payments to Royal beginning in the fourth quarter of 2002. The Company has also entered into a license agreement with The Hoover Company. See Item 3 - Legal Proceedings for further details.

The Company holds or licenses the use of numerous domestic and international patents, including design patents and processes. The Company may also license its trademarks and patents. The Company believes that its product lines in the Consumer Products - Floorcare segment are generally not dependent upon any single patent or group of patents. Within the Consumer Products - Other segment, the primary product line, the TeleZapper, is dependent upon a limited number of patents for that product.

SEASONALITY

The Company believes that a significant percentage of certain of its products are given as gifts and therefore, sell in larger volumes during the Christmas and other holiday shopping seasons. Because of the Company's continued dependency on its major customers, the timing of purchases by these major customers and the timing of new product introductions cause quarterly fluctuations in the Company's net sales. As a consequence, results in prior quarters are not necessarily indicative of future results of operations.

PRODUCTION

The production of the majority of the Company's products has been outsourced to global third party contract manufacturers. The company continues to assemble certain products in the Cleveland, Ohio metropolitan area. Unlike many of its competitors, the Company does not manufacture component parts for its products. Component parts for the Company's products are manufactured by suppliers, frequently using molds and tooling owned by the Company and built to its specifications. Since the Company's production operations are currently limited to final assembly, it believes that its fixed costs are lower than many of its competitors. The Company also believes that this approach and the use of third party contract manufacturers has provided increased flexibility in the introduction and modification of products.

The Company's engineering department is primarily responsible for the design and testing of its products. The Company has computer-aided design systems to assist its engineers in developing new products and modifying existing products. The Company also retains outside design firms to assist its engineers in designing new products. In addition to internally developing products, the Company may purchase tooling, license intellectual property, or otherwise sell products produced by others to the Company's specifications which may be marketed under the Dirt Devil and Royal brand names or through Privacy Technologies.

A majority of the raw materials purchased by the Company are component parts, such as motors, bags, cords, and plastic parts, which are available from multiple suppliers. The amount of time required by suppliers to fill orders released by the Company varies from 1 to 3 months for sourced finished goods, and days to several weeks for component parts. The Company does not believe that it is dependent on any single source for any significant portion of its raw material or component purchases. The Company believes that it has good relationships with its suppliers and contract manufacturers and has not experienced any significant raw material or component shortages.

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

EMPLOYEES

As of December 31, 2002, the Company employed approximately 550 full-time employees, a reduction of approximately 120 from December 31, 2001. In addition, the Company generally utilizes temporary personnel during the period when the Company is responding to its peak selling season. During 2002, the peak temporary personnel level reached approximately 300. The Company's employees are not represented by any labor union. The Company considers its relations with its employees to be good.

The Company has in effect a severance compensation plan that provides for a severance payment to full-time employees, based on years of employment, if within thirty-six months after a change-in-control of the Company (as is anticipated to occur if the Techtronic Industries merger is approved by shareholders) their employment is terminated for any reason other than death, permanent disability, voluntary retirement or for cause. Executives who receive payments pursuant to change-in-control and other employment arrangements will not receive duplicative severance payments under the severance compensation plan.

GOVERNMENTAL REGULATION

The Company's facilities are subject to numerous federal, state and local laws and regulations designed to protect the environment from waste, emissions, and from hazardous substances. The Company is also subject to the Federal Occupational Safety and Health Act and other laws and regulations affecting the safety and health of employees in its facilities. The Company is not a party to any investigation or litigation by the Environmental Protection Agency or any state environment agency. The Company believes that it is in compliance, in all material respects, with applicable environmental and occupational safety regulations.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Hoover Company (Hoover) filed a lawsuit in federal court, in the Northern District of Ohio (case #1:00cv 0347), against the Company on February 4, 2000, under the patent, trademark, and unfair competition laws of the United States. The Complaint asserted that the Company's Dirt Devil Easy Steamer infringed three utility patents and two design patents held by Hoover, and also that the Easy Steamer design infringed the trade dress of Hoover's carpet extractor products. The Court had dismissed charges of infringement against Royal regarding one of the three utility patents, and found that the Dirt Devil Easy Steamer infringed one claim of a second utility patent. The Company filed a lawsuit in federal court, in the Northern District of Ohio (case #1:01cv 2775), against The Hoover Company (Hoover) on December 10, 2001, under the patent, trademark, and unfair competition laws of the United States. The Complaint asserted that Hoover infringed certain patents relating to bagless technology held by the Company. On October 17, 2002, the Company and Hoover reached a settlement of all patent-related litigation described above. Hoover has granted rights to the Company with regard to its existing carpet extractor patents. The Company has granted rights to Hoover with regard to its existing bagless upright vacuum cleaner patents. The settlement includes net cash payments to the Company and resulted in a gain of $3,371,000 which was included in the caption "Litigation Settlement" on the Consolidated Statement of Operations.

The Company filed a lawsuit in federal court, in the Northern District of Ohio (case #1:02cv 0338), against Bissell Homecare, Inc. (Bissell) on February 22, 2002, under the patent, trademark, and unfair competition laws of the United States. The Complaint asserts that Bissell infringes certain patents relating to bagless technology held by the Company. The Company seeks damages, injunction on future production, and legal fees.

Bissell Homecare, Inc. (Bissell) filed a lawsuit in federal court, in Michigan (case #02cv71079), against the Company on March 20, 2002, under the patent, trademark, and unfair competition laws of the United States. The Complaint asserts that the Company's Dirt Devil Easy Steamer and Platinum Force Extractor products infringe certain design and utility patents held by Bissell. Bissell seeks damages, injunction on future production, and legal fees. On June 19, 2002, the Court transferred the case (now #1:02cv 1358) to the Northern District of Ohio. The Company is vigorously defending the suit and believes it is without merit. If Bissell were to prevail on all its claims, it could have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

The Company filed a lawsuit in federal court, in the Northern District of Ohio (case #1:02cv 1127), against White Consolidated, Ltd. (Eureka) on June 14, 2002, under the patent, trademark and unfair competition laws of the United States. The Complaint asserts that Eureka infringes certain patents relating to bagless technology held by the Company. The Company seeks damages, injunction on future production, and legal fees.

The Company filed a lawsuit in federal court, in the Northern District of

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

Ohio against Euro-Pro Corporation and Sanyo North America Corporation (together referred to as "Defendants") on November 15, 2002, under the patent, trademark and unfair competition laws of the United States. The complaint asserts that Defendants infringe certain patents relating to bagless technology held by the Company. The Company seeks damages, injunction on future production and legal fees.

Phone Zap, LLC ("Phone Zap") filed a lawsuit in United States District Court, District of Columbia, against the Company and its subsidiary, Privacy Technologies, Inc. on January 6, 2003, under the patent, trademark and unfair competition laws of the United States. The complaint asserts trademark infringement by the Company through the use of the Company's TeleZapper(R) trademark. The Company is vigorously defending the suit and believes it is without merit. If Phone Zap were to prevail on all its claims, it could have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

The Company is involved in various other claims and litigation arising in the normal course of business. The Company has product liability and general liability insurance policies in amounts management believes to be reasonable. There can be no assurance, however, that such insurance will be adequate to cover all potential product or other liability claims against the Company. In the opinion of management, the ultimate resolution of these actions will not materially affect the consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

Management's discussion and analysis of its financial position and results of operations are based upon the Company's consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Management believes that the critical accounting policies and areas that require the most significant judgments and estimates to be used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are revenue recognition including customer based programs and incentives, allowance for doubtful accounts, useful lives of tooling and other long lived assets and accrued warranty and customer returns.

Revenue Recognition - The Company's revenue recognition policy is to record sales upon shipment from the Company's distribution centers. Although a majority of customers are shipped "FOB shipping point", the Company has a select number of customers who use EDI for invoicing and are shipped "FOB destination". Customers that have "FOB destination" terms are primarily the Company's large retail customers. The Company's three distribution centers are strategically located within a relatively close proximity to these large retail customers' distribution centers. As a result, and in response to definitive just-in-time delivery parameters mandated by the retailers' product placement programs, shipments from the Company in transit and not received by the customer at year-end are de minimis.

All sales are final upon shipment of product to the customer. The Company records estimated reductions to net sales for customer programs and incentive offerings including pricing arrangements, promotions and other volume based incentives. If market conditions were to soften, the Company may take actions to increase customer incentives, possibly resulting in a reduction of net sales and gross margins at the time the incentive is offered.

The Company includes royalty income from various license agreements in net sales. For the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, royalty income totaled $3,687,000, $340,000 and $497,000, respectively.

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts - The Company maintains an allowance for trade accounts receivable for which collection on specific customer accounts is doubtful. In determining collectibility, management reviews available customer financial statement information, credit rating reports as well as other external documents and public filings. When it is deemed probable that a specific customer account is uncollectible, that balance is included in the reserve calculation. Actual results could differ from these estimates under different assumptions.

Useful Lives of Tooling - The Company capitalizes the cost of tooling used in the production of its products by third party suppliers and global contract manufacturers. The tooling is depreciated on a straight-line basis over 2-3 years, based on the nature of the product and the estimated product life cycle. The useful lives are reviewed on a quarterly basis by management and useful lives may be shortened if needed. In determining whether or not shortening of useful lives is required, management reviews sell-through data at retail, forecast demands and the timeframe of new product introductions.

Accrued Warranty and Customer Returns - The Company's return policy is to replace, repair or issue credit for product under warranty. Returns received during the current period are expensed as received and a reserve is maintained for future returns from current shipments. Management calculates the reserve utilizing historical return rates by product family. These rates are reviewed and adjusted periodically. Management utilizes judgment for estimating return rates of new products and adjusts those estimates as actual results become available.

Net sales for 2002 were $389,726, a decrease of 7.5% from 2001. The decrease in sales for 2002 was primarily attributable to lower selling prices on the Company's floor care products, including but not limited to its upright and hand held vacuums and its upright and hand-held extractors, partially offset by increased sales of the TeleZapper, royalty income related to license agreements for the TeleZapper and bagless technology of approximately $3,100, and an increase in unit sales of lower priced uprights. Overall, sales to the top 5 customers for 2002 (all of which are major retailers) accounted for approximately 67.6% of net sales as compared to approximately 68.1% in 2001. The Company believes that its dependence on sales to its largest customers will continue. Recently, several major retailers have experienced significant financial difficulties and some, including Kmart, have filed for protection from creditors under applicable bankruptcy laws. As of December 31, 2002, the net exposure related to Kmart's pre-bankruptcy balance as well as other customer balances for which management believes collection is doubtful was included in the calculation of allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company sells its products to certain customers that are in bankruptcy proceedings.

Gross margin, as a percent of sales, decreased from 22.7% in 2001 to 22.6% in 2002. The gross margin percentage was negatively affected in 2002 by the continued competitive pressure resulting in lower selling prices and margins on the Company's floor care products. The decrease in gross margins was offset by the increase in margins related to the TeleZapper, lower product costs, an adjustment to net sales of $1,400 for certain sales programs, as well as lower returns on the Company's floor care products.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2002 were $74,684, a decrease of $2,903 or 3.7%. As a percentage of sales, selling, general and administrative expenses increased from 18.4% to 19.2%. The dollar decrease is primarily attributable to a decrease in advertising and promotion costs of approximately $3,250, reduction of the allowance for doubtful accounts of $1,250 and a reduction in engineering and product development expenditures of $1,075, partially offset by increases in professional fees of approximately $1,425 due to litigation, an increase of approximately $500 in depreciation expense on the Company's information technology systems and an increase of approximately $550 in compensation expense associated with phantom stock plans.

Interest expense for 2002 was $1,545, a decrease of 42.5% from 2001. The decrease in interest expense resulted from a lower effective borrowing rate combined with lower levels of variable rate borrowings.

During 2002, the Company settled litigation with a competitor resulting in a one-time gain of $3,371. See Note 5 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for further details.

Receivable securitization expense was $547, a decrease of 44.9% from 2001. This expense reflects the cost of the Company's trade accounts receivable securitization program. The decrease is a result of lower discount rates, which is based on commercial paper rates plus program fees. See Note 3 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for further details.

Other (income) expense, net principally reflects the income statement impact of changes in foreign currency rates on the Company's Canadian dollar transactions and early pay discounts on accounts payable transactions.

Due to the factors discussed above, the Company had income before income taxes for 2002 of $14,909 as compared to $14,382 in 2001. The components of the Company's effective income tax rate of 35.8% and 35.2% for 2002 and 2001, respectively, are described in Note 6 of the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

2001 VS. 2000

Net sales for 2001 were $421,311, an increase of 4.9% from 2000. The increase in sales for 2001 was attributable to the shipments of the TeleZapper, which was introduced during the third quarter of 2001. These sales increases were partially offset by lower sales of certain product lines within the Consumer Products - Floorcare segment including Dirt Devil canisters and stick vacuums. Overall sales to the top 5 customers for 2001 (all of which are major retailers) accounted for approximately 68.1% of net sales as compared with approximately 66.1% in 2000.

Gross margin, as a percent of net sales, increased from 21.3% for 2000 to 22.7% in 2001. The gross margin percentage was positively affected in 2001 primarily by shipments of the TeleZapper. The increase was partially offset by competitive pressure resulting in lower selling prices and margins on various floorcare products.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2001 were $77,587, an increase of 6.3% from 2000. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased as a percentage of net sales from 18.2% in 2000 to 18.4% in 2001. The dollar increase is primarily attributable to employee compensation and related benefits of approximately $2,600, higher professional fees associated with litigation of approximately $300 (see Note 5 of the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements), bad debt expense of approximately $1,900 primarily associated with the bankruptcy filing by Kmart, and expenses associated with upgrades to the Company's information technology systems such as training, equipment lease expense, software maintenance and depreciation expense of approximately $1,600. These increases were partially offset by a reduction of advertising expenses of approximately $3,100.

Interest expense for 2001 was $2,688, a decrease of 29.4% from 2000. The decrease in interest expense resulted from a lower effective borrowing rate combined with lower levels of variable rate borrowings to finance working capital, share repurchases, and capital expenditures.

Receivable securitization expense was $993, a decrease of 36.3% from 2000. The decrease during 2001 was a result of lower discount rates.

Due to the factors discussed above, the Company had income before income taxes for 2001 of $14,382 as compared to income before income taxes for 2000 of $7,464. The components of the Company's effective income tax expense rate of

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

35.2% and 20.4% for 2001 and 2000, respectively, are described in Note 6 of the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company has used cash generated from operations to fund its working capital needs, repay bank debt, fund capital expenditures and share repurchases. Working capital was $43,238 at December 31, 2002, an increase of 32.8% over the December 31, 2001 level. Current assets, exclusive of cash increased by $2,634 reflecting in part a $4,729 increase of accounts receivable, partially offset by a $2,499 decrease of inventories. The increase in accounts receivable was primarily due to the timing of sales to its largest customers. Current liabilities decreased by $1,182 reflecting a $2,760 decrease in trade accounts payable, which was consistent with the planned decrease in inventories, a $1,340 decrease of accrued salaries, benefits, and payroll taxes, a $802 decrease in accrued other, partially offset by a $3,152 increase of accrued income taxes attributable to the timing of tax payments on fourth quarter earnings, and a $1,204 increase in accrued advertising and promotion.

In 2002, the Company utilized $6,400 of cash for capital expenditures, including approximately $4,700 for tooling related to various products in the Consumer Products - Floorcare segment, and approximately $800 for computer equipment and software.

At December 31, 2002, the Company had a collateralized revolving credit facility with availability of up to $70,000, including letters of credit, and a maturity date of April 1, 2005. Under the agreement, pricing options of the bank's base lending rate and LIBOR rate are based on a defined formula. In addition, the Company pays a commitment fee based on a defined formula on the unused portion of the facility. The revolving credit facility contains covenants which require, among other things, the achievement of minimum net worth levels and the maintenance of certain financial ratios. The Company was in compliance with all applicable covenants as of December 31, 2002. The revolving credit facility is collateralized by the assets of the Company. As long as the Company remains in compliance with all covenants, the revolving credit facility permits share repurchases and dividends based on a defined formula up to $18,369 as of December 31, 2002. The Company's effective interest rate was 4.99%, 7.34% and 9.28% for 2002, 2001 and 2000 respectively. Letters of credit and standby letters of credit outstanding at December 31, 2002 total $812.

The Company utilizes a $35,000 revolving trade accounts receivable securitization program to sell without recourse, through a wholly-owned subsidiary, certain trade accounts receivable. Pursuant to the terms of the securitization program, the Company transfers certain trade accounts receivable, on a revolving basis, to a wholly owned, bankruptcy-remote subsidiary of the Company, Royal Appliance Receivables, Inc. ("RAR"), which is consolidated for financial reporting purposes. In turn, RAR sells an undivided interest on a revolving basis, of up to $35,000 in its accounts receivable to a special purpose bank sponsored commercial paper conduit. The Company retains an interest in the pool of trade receivables transferred to RAR which are not sold to the commercial paper conduit. These receivables represent ineligible receivables, which include but are not limited to receivables that are past due, concentrations over limits with specific customers and certain reserve amounts.

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

The Company believes that the risk of loss associated with the unsold trade accounts receivable is minimal because of the high credit quality of the receivables that are included in the pool. During 2002 and 2001, the Company sold approximately $142,000 and $153,000, respectively, in total new securitization transactions. The loss recorded on these sales was $547, $993 and $1,559 in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and has been classified as receivable securitization expense in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company accounts for the portion of the receivables not sold as trade receivables on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The Company continues to service the accounts receivable without being compensated by the bank sponsored commercial paper conduit. The Company has recorded a servicing liability, based on its estimate of adequate compensation for the services that are being performed, of $56 and $62 as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The servicing liability is included within accrued liabilities - other on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

As of December 31, 2002, RAR sold $22,600 of undivided interests in accounts receivable. The proceeds from those sales were reflected as a reduction of accounts receivable on the Consolidated Balance Sheets and as operating cash flows in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. The sale proceeds were used to pay down the Company's revolving credit facility. Additionally, the securitization program contains covenants that the Company was in compliance with as of December 31, 2002.

In February 2000, the Company's Board of Directors authorized a common share repurchase program that enabled the Company to purchase, in the open market and through negotiated transactions, up to an additional 4,250 of its outstanding common shares. The Company completed the program repurchasing 3,289 shares for an aggregate purchase price of $20,065 in February 2001. In April 2001, the Company's Board of Directors authorized another common share repurchase program that enabled the Company to purchase, in the open market and through negotiated transactions, up to an additional 3,400 of its outstanding common shares. The Company repurchased approximately 1,322 shares for an aggregate purchase price of $6,900 under the program that expired in December 2002.

On December 16, 2002, the Company entered into a definitive agreement ("agreement") for its acquisition by Techtronic Industries ("TTI"). The agreement provides for Royal shareholders to receive $7.37 per share in cash, for a total price of $105 million. Under the terms of the agreement, Royal will be merged with a subsidiary of TTI which, following the completion of the merger, will operate as a wholly owned, indirect subsidiary of TTI. The transaction is expected to close on April 23, 2003. It is subject to, among other things, the approval by the shareholders of both TTI and Royal. The parties have received early termination of the Hart-Scot-Rodino waiting period.

SEASONALITY

The Company believes that a significant percentage of certain of its products are given as gifts and therefore sell in larger volumes during the Christmas and other holiday shopping seasons. Because of the Company's continued dependency on its major customers, the timing of purchases by these major customers and the timing of new product introductions causes quarterly fluctuations in the Company's net sales. As a consequence, results in prior quarters are not necessarily indicative of future results of operations.

COMPETITION

The Company's Consumer Products - Floorcare business segment's most significant competitors are Hoover, Eureka and Bissell in the upright vacuum and carpet shampooer markets and, Black & Decker and Euro Pro in the hand-held market. Many of these competitors and several others are subsidiaries or divisions of companies that are more diversified and have greater financial resources than the Company. The Company believes that the domestic vacuum cleaner industry is a mature industry with modest annual growth in many of its products but with a decline in certain other products. Competition is dependent upon price, quality, extension of product lines, and advertising and promotion expenditures. Additionally, competition is influenced by innovation in the design of replacement models and by marketing and approaches to distribution. The Company experiences extensive competition, including price pressure and increased advertising by its competitors, in all product lines within the Consumer Products - Floorcare segment. These trends are expected to continue into 2003.

INFLATION

The Company does not believe that inflation by itself has had a material effect on the Company's results of operations. However, as the Company experiences price increases from its suppliers, which may include increases due to inflation, retail pressures may prevent the Company from increasing its prices.

ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

In June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 142, "Goodwill and

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

Other Intangible Assets", effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. Under the new rules, goodwill and intangible assets deemed to have indefinite lives are no longer amortized but are subject to annual impairment tests. Other intangibles continue to be amortized over their useful lives and will be assessed for impairment under SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". The adoption of SFAS No. 142 did not impact the, results of operations, financial position or liquidity of the Company.

In June 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations". SFAS No. 143 requires companies to record the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation in the period in which it was incurred. The amount recorded as a liability will be capitalized by increasing the carrying amount of the related long-lived asset, which is then depreciated over its useful life. SFAS No. 143 became effective for the Company on January 1, 2003. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS No. 143 to have a material impact on its results of operations, financial position or liquidity.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." This statement addresses financial accounting and reporting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets. This Statement superseded FASB Statement No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to Be Disposed Of", and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations". The Company adopted the provisions of this statement effective January 1, 2002, at which time it had no affect on its results of operations, financial position or liquidity.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities", effective for exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. This Statement nullifies EITF Issue No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring)." This Statement requires that a liability for a cost associated with an exit or disposal activity be recognized when the liability is incurred. Under Issue No. 94-3, a liability for exit costs was recognized at the date of the entity's commitment to an exit plan. This Statement also establishes that fair value is the objective for initial measurement of the liability. The Company does not expect the adoption of this Statement to have a material impact on its results of operations, financial position or liquidity.

In November 2002, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 45, "Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others" (FIN 45). FIN 45 requires certain guarantees to be recorded at fair value. The initial recognition and measurement provisions of FIN 45 are applicable, on a prospective basis, to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. FIN 45 also requires a guarantor to make new disclosures regarding guarantees. The disclosure requirements are effective for financial statements ending after December 15, 2002. The Company does not expect the disclosure to have a significant impact on its financials.

In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure - an amendment of FAS 123, Accounting For Stock-Based Compensation", effective for financial statements for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002. This Statement amends FAS No. 123, and provides alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. This Statement also amends FAS No. 123 and requires disclosure about the effects on reported net income with respect to the stock-based employee compensation. Lastly, this Statement amends APB Opinion No. 28, and requires disclosure about the effects of stock-based employee compensation in interim financial information. See Note 8 in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for further details

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Forward-looking statements in this report are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements which speak only as of the date hereof. Potential risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of both Techtronic Industries and the Company, the financial strength of the retail industry particularly in the major mass retail channel; the impact of Kmart's recent bankruptcy filing on Royal's future sales and earnings; the competitive pricing and aggressive product development environment within the floor care industry; the impact of private-label programs by mass retailers; the cost and effectiveness of planned advertising, marketing and promotional campaigns; the success at retail and the continued acceptance by consumers of the Company's new products, the dependence upon the Company's ability to continue to successfully develop and introduce innovative products; the uncertainty of the Company's global supply chain and suppliers to continuously supply sourced finished goods and component parts; and general business and economic conditions.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURE ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company sells a small portion of its products in various global markets, primarily Canada. As a result, the Company's cash flow and earnings are exposed to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates relating to receipts from customers and payments to service providers in foreign currencies. As a general policy, the Company has from time to time hedged certain foreign currency commitments of future payments and receipts by purchasing foreign currency-forward contracts. As of December 31, 2002, there were no such contracts outstanding. The majority of the Company's receipts and expenditures are contracted in U.S. dollars, and the Company does not consider the market risk exposure relating to currency exchange to be material at this time.

If interest rates were to change by .25% on the Company's variable rate debt, the impact on interest expense would be approximately $70.

ITEM 8. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTARY DATA

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

To the Shareholders and Board of Directors of Royal Appliance Mfg. Co.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and the related consolidated statements of operations, shareholders' equity and cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Royal Appliance Mfg. Co. and its Subsidiaries (the "Company") at December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (IN THOUSANDS, EXCEPT PER SHARE AMOUNTS)

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS - Royal Appliance Mfg. Co. ("Royal" or the "Company"), an Ohio corporation with its corporate offices in the Cleveland, Ohio metropolitan area, develops, assembles or sources and markets a full line of cleaning products for home and some for commercial use, primarily in North America under the Dirt Devil(R) and Royal(R) brand names. The Company has used the Dirt Devil brand name recognition to gain acceptance for other Dirt Devil floorcare products. The Company continues to market certain metal vacuum cleaners for home and commercial use under the Royal brand name.

On December 16, 2002, the Company entered into a definitive agreement ("agreement") for its acquisition by Techtronic Industries ("TTI"). The agreement provides for Royal shareholders to receive $7.37 per share in cash, for a total price of $105 million. The agreement also provides for change-in-control payments to be made to fourteen officers of the Company aggregating $2.4 million. Under the terms of the agreement, Royal will be merged with a subsidiary of TTI which, following the completion of the merger, will operate as a wholly owned, indirect subsidiary of TTI. The transaction is expected to close on April 23, 2003. It is subject to, among other things, the approval by the shareholders of both TTI and Royal. The parties have received early termination of the Hart-Scot-Rodino waiting period.

During 2001, the Company's subsidiary, Privacy Technologies, Inc. ("Privacy Technologies(TM)") introduced the TeleZapper(TM) - a telephone attachment that helps block unwanted telemarketing calls and removes consumers' phone numbers from the telemarketers' computerized dialing lists.

In July 2002, the Company acquired the North American rights to the home, health and beauty line of products from Medisana AG, along with certain other assets for approximately $800. Medisana home, health and beauty products were offered in North America for the past three years through their North American wholly-owned subsidiary Medisana USA.

The following is a summary of significant policies followed in the preparation of the accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements.

BASIS OF PRESENTATION - The Consolidated Financial Statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries after elimination of all intercompany accounts and transactions. The companies are hereinafter referred to as "Royal" or the "Company".

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts and related disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates include the allowance for doubtful accounts, the reserve for returns and allowances, and depreciation and amortization, among others.

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

Net income per common share is computed based on the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for basic earnings per share and on the weighted average number of common shares and, when not antidilutive, potential common shares outstanding for diluted earnings per share.

The Company's revenue recognition policy is to record sales upon shipment from the Company's distribution centers. Although a majority of customers are shipped "FOB shipping point", the Company has a select number of customers who use EDI for invoicing and are shipped "FOB destination".

ROYAL APPLIANCE MFG. CO. AND SUBSIDIARIES

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

Customers that have "FOB destination" terms are primarily the Company's large retail customers. The Company's three distribution centers are strategically located within a relatively close proximity to these large retail customers' distribution centers. As a result, and in response to definitive just-in-time delivery parameters mandated by the retailers' product placement programs, shipments from the Company in transit and not received by the customer at year-end are de minimis.

All sales are final upon shipment of product to the customer. The Company records estimated reductions to net sales for customer programs and incentive offerings including pricing arrangements, promotions and other volume based incentives.

The Company includes royalty income from various license agreements in net sales. For the three years ended December 31, 2002, royalty income totaled $3,687, $340 and $497, respectively.

Shipping and handling costs are included in cost of sales.

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

International operations, primarily Canadian, are conducted in their local currency. Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at current exchange rates, and income and expenses are translated using weighted average exchange rates. The net effect of currency (gains) and losses realized on these business transactions was $(145), $192 and $347 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 respectively, and have been classified as other (income) expense, net in the accompanying Consolidated Statement of Operations.

The Company has used forward exchange contracts from time to time to reduce fluctuations in foreign currency cash flows related to receivables denominated in foreign currencies. The terms of the currency instruments are consistent with the timing of the transactions being hedged. The purpose of the Company's foreign currency management activity is to protect the Company from the risk that the eventual cash flows from the foreign currency denominated transactions may be adversely affected by changes in exchange rates. Gains and losses on forward exchange contracts are deferred and recognized in income when the related transactions being hedged are recognized. Such gains and losses are generally reported on the same financial line as the hedged transaction. The Company does not use derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes. There were no forward exchange contracts outstanding as of December 31, 2002 and 2001.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS - The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

ALLOWANCE FOR DOUBTFUL ACCOUNTS - The Company maintains an allowance for trade accounts receivable for which collection on specific customer accounts is doubtful. In determining collectibility, management reviews available customer financial statement information, credit rating reports as well as other external documents and public filings. When it is deemed probable that a specific customer account is uncollectible, that balance is included in the reserve calculation.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT COSTS - Research and development costs are expensed as incurred. Research and development costs totaled approximately $6,834, $7,909 and $6,785 in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION - Cost incurred for producing and communicating advertising are expensed during the period aired, including costs incurred under the Company's cooperative advertising program. Advertising and promotion costs were $34,112, $37,372 and $40,446 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

(IN THOUSANDS, EXCEPT PER SHARE AMOUNTS)

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

In fiscal 2001, the Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") issued EITF No. 00-14, "Accounting for Certain Sales Incentives," and EITF No. 00-25, "Vendor Income Statement Characterization of Consideration to a Purchaser of the Vendor's Products or Services" (both of which were clarified by EITF 01-09 "Accounting for Consideration Given by Vendor to a Customer"). These pronouncements address the recognition, measurement and statement of operations classification for certain sales incentives and are effective January 1, 2002. The Company adopted these pronouncements in the first quarter of fiscal 2002 and as a result certain items previously included in selling, general and administrative expenses were reclassified as a reduction of net sales. Additionally, prior period amounts were reclassified to conform to the new requirements. The impact of these two issues resulted in a reduction of net sales of $5,212, $7,114 and $6,708 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. These amounts, consisting principally of promotional allowances to the Company's retail customers were previously recorded as selling, general and administrative expenses; therefore, there was no impact to net income for any period.

INVENTORIES - Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method.

Inventories at December 31, consisted of the following:

	2002	2001
Finished goods	$ 40,942	$ 43,277
Work in process and component parts	7,366	7,530
	$ 48,308	$ 50,807

PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT - The Company capitalizes, as additions to property, plant and equipment, expenditures at cost for molds, tooling, land, buildings, equipment, furniture, computer software, and leasehold improvements. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to operating expense as incurred. The asset and related accumulated depreciation or amortization accounts are adjusted to reflect retirements and disposals and the resulting gain or loss is included in the determination of net income.

Internal and external costs incurred to develop internal use computer software during the application development stage are capitalized and amortized on the straight line method over the estimated useful life of software. Capitalized costs include payroll costs and related benefits, costs of related hardware and consulting fees. During 2001, $185 of such internal costs was capitalized.

Plant and equipment are depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the respective classes of assets. Leasehold improvements and assets held under capital leases are amortized over the shorter of useful lives or their respective lease terms. Accumulated amortization on assets under capital leases totaled $1,703 and $1,555 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

Depreciation for financial reporting purposes is computed on the straight-line method using the following depreciable lives:

Buildings.....	40 years
Building under capital lease	20 years
Molds, tooling, and equipment	2 - 5 years
Furniture, office and computer equipment, and software	2 - 5 years
Vehicles	3 years
Internal use software	2 - 5 years

Accelerated methods as permitted by the applicable tax law are used for tax reporting purpose.

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

Depreciation expense was $15,724, $14,477 and $15,396 in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

INTANGIBLE ASSETS - Intangible assets are included within other long-term assets in the accompanying balance sheets and consist of patents and trademarks and are amortized on a straight-line method over their legal or estimated useful life. The Company does not have any intangibles with indefinite lives. The Company evaluates the remaining useful life of intangible assets each reporting period to determine whether events and circumstances warrant a revision to the remaining period of amortization.

The following summarizes the gross carrying value and accumulated amortization for each major category of intangible asset:

	2002		2001
	Patents	Trademarks	Patents	Trademarks
Gross carrying amount	$ 2,813	$ 213	$ 2,334	$ 159
Accumulated amortization	(1,237)	(95)	(659)	(69)
	-----	-----	-----	-----
Net balances	$ 1,576	$ 118	$ 1,675	$ 90

Amortization expense for the above intangibles was $722, $441 and $208 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. The estimated amortization expense for intangibles for the five years ending December 31, 2003 through 2007 is as follows: 2003 - $762; 2004 - $514; 2005 - $230; 2006 - $139, and 2007 - $49.

IMPAIRMENT REVIEW POLICY FOR LONG LIVED ASSETS - The Company reviews for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment or amortizable intangible assets may not be recoverable. If it is determined that an impairment loss has occurred based on expected undiscounted future cash flows, the loss as measured using discounted cash flows is recognized on the Consolidated Statement of Operations.

PRODUCT WARRANTY COSTS AND SERVICE RETURNS - The Company's return policy is to replace, repair or issue credit for product under warranty. Returns received during the current period are expensed as received and a reserve is maintained for future returns from current shipments. Management calculates the reserve utilizing historical return rates by product family. These rates are reviewed and adjusted periodically as actual results become available.

A reconciliation of warranty reserve activity is as follows for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001:

	2002	2001
	-----	-----
Balance at the beginning of year	$ 9,950	$ 9,800
Provision for warranties issued	15,708	20,958
Net settlements made during the year	(16,358)	(20,808)
	-----	-----
Balance at the end of the year	$ 9,300	$ 9,950
	=====	=====

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS - Financial instruments consist of a revolving credit agreement that is carried at an amount which approximates fair value.

26

STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION - At December 31, 2002, the Company has a stock-based employee compensation plan comprised on non-qualified stock options and stock rights, which is described more fully in Note 8. The Company accounts for the stock options under the recognition and measurement principles of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees". No stock-based employee compensation cost is reflected in net income for the stock options, as all options are granted at an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant. The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using Black-Scholes option-pricing model. Compensation expense is recognized over the vesting period for the stock rights.

The Company adopted the disclosure only provisions of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation". As permitted by SFAS No. 123, the Company continues to measure compensation cost in accordance with Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25 and related interpretations in accounting for its plans. Had compensation cost for the Company's stock-based compensation plans been determined based on the fair value at the grant dates for awards under these plans consistent with the method of SFAS 123, the Company's net income and earnings per share would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

Year Ended December 31,
-----	-----	-----
----	----	----

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

Net income (in thousands)	As reported.....	$ 9,565	$ 9,324	$ 5,939
	Pro forma.....	$ 8,939	$ 9,091	$ 5,623
Basic earnings per share	As reported.....	$.74	$.68	$.39
	Pro forma.....	$.69	$.66	$.37
Diluted earnings per share	As reported.....	$.69	$.65	$.38
	Pro forma.....	$.64	$.64	$.36

The effect on net income and earnings per share is not expected to be indicative of the effects on net income and earnings per share in future years. Since the SFAS No. 123 method of accounting has not been applied to options granted prior to 1995, the resulting pro forma compensation costs may not be representative of those to be expected in future years. The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2002	2001	2000
Expected volatility.....	34.0%	35.7%	36.6%
Risk-free interest rate.....	3.35%	4.85%	5.12%
Expected life of options in years.....	7 years	7 years	7 years
Expected dividend yield.....	0%	0%	0%

During fiscal years 2002, 2001 and 2000 the weighted average grant-date fair value of options granted was $2.33, $2.17 and $2.39 per share, respectively.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS - In June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets", effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. Under the new rules, goodwill and intangible assets deemed to have indefinite lives are no longer amortized but are subject to annual impairment tests. Other intangibles continue to be amortized over their useful lives and will be assessed for impairment under SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". The adoption of SFAS No. 142 did not impact the results of operations, financial position or liquidity of the Company.

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

In June 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations". SFAS No. 143 requires companies to record the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation in the period in which it was incurred. The amount recorded as a liability will be capitalized by increasing the carrying amount of the related long-lived asset, which is then depreciated over its useful life. SFAS No. 143 became effective for the Company on January 1, 2003. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS No. 143 to have a material impact on its results of operations, financial position or liquidity.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." This statement addresses financial accounting and reporting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets. This Statement superseded FASB Statement No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to Be Disposed Of", and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations". The Company adopted the provisions of this statement effective January 1, 2002, at which time it had no effect on its results of operations, financial position or liquidity.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities", effective for exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. This Statement nullifies EITF Issue No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring)." This Statement requires that a liability for a cost associated with an exit or disposal activity be recognized when the liability is incurred. Under Issue No. 94-3, a liability for exit costs was recognized at the date of the entity's commitment to an exit plan. This Statement also establishes that fair value is the objective for initial measurement of the liability. The Company does not expect the adoption of this Statement to have a material impact on its results of operations, financial position or liquidity.

In November 2002, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 45, "Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others" (FIN 45). FIN 45 requires certain guarantees to be recorded at fair value. The initial recognition and measurement provisions of FIN 45 are applicable, on a prospective basis, to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. FIN 45 also requires a guarantor to make new disclosures regarding guarantees. The disclosure provisions of FIN No. 45 are effective for periods ending after December 15, 2002. The recognition provisions are effective on a prospective basis to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. The Company has adopted the disclosure provisions of FIN No. 45 in these financial statements and does not expect the adoption of the recognition provisions of FIN No. 45 to have a material impact on its results of operations, financial position or liquidity.

In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure - an amendment of FAS 123, Accounting For Stock-Based Compensation", effective for financial statements for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002. This Statement amends FAS No. 123, and provides alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. This Statement also amends FAS No. 123 and requires disclosure about the effects on reported net income with respect to the stock-based employee compensation. Lastly, this Statement amends APB Opinion No. 28, and requires disclosure about the effects of stock-based employee compensation in interim financial information. 2. CHANGES IN DEPRECIABLE LIVES AND CHARGES FOR TOOLING OBSOLESCENCE:

During 2002, 2001 and 2000, the Company shortened the useful lives of tooling for certain product families due to declining sales volumes, reduced product life cycles and the launch of replacement products. As a result of the reduced useful lives for certain product families, the Company recorded accelerated depreciation expense of $586, $191 and $1,788 during 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Also during 2000, the Company relocated its corporate headquarters. As a result of the move, the remaining net book value of leasehold improvements associated with the former corporate headquarters was amortized on an accelerated basis from the date the decision was made to move through the actual date of the move. Due to this event, accelerated depreciation expense of approximately $1,200 was recorded in 2000.

3. FINANCING:

At December 31, 2002, the Company had a collateralized revolving credit facility with availability of up to $70,000, including letters of credit, and a maturity date of April 1, 2005. Under the agreement, pricing options of the bank's base lending rate and LIBOR rate are based on a defined formula. In addition, the Company pays a commitment fee based on a defined formula on the unused portion of the facility. The revolving credit facility contains covenants which require, among other things, the achievement of minimum net worth levels and the maintenance of certain financial ratios. The Company was in compliance with all applicable covenants as of December 31, 2002. The revolving credit facility is collateralized by the assets of the Company. As long as the Company remains in compliance with all covenants, the revolving credit facility permits share repurchases and dividends based on a defined formula up to $18,369 as of December 31, 2002. The Company's effective interest rate was 4.99%, 7.34% and 9.28% for 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Letters of credit and standby letters of credit outstanding at December 31, 2002 total $812.

The Company utilizes a $35,000 revolving trade accounts receivable securitization program to sell without recourse, through a wholly-owned subsidiary, certain trade accounts receivable. Pursuant to the terms of the securitization program, the Company transfers certain trade accounts receivable, on a revolving basis, to a wholly owned, bankruptcy-remote subsidiary of the Company, Royal Appliance Receivables, Inc. ("RAR"), which is consolidated for financial reporting purposes. In turn, RAR sells an undivided interest on a revolving basis, of up to $35,000 in its accounts receivable to a special purpose bank sponsored commercial paper conduit. The Company retains an interest in the pool of trade receivables transferred to RAR which are not sold to the commercial paper conduit. These receivables represent ineligible receivables, which include but are not limited to receivables that are past due, concentrations over limits with specific customers and certain reserve amounts. The Company believes that the risk of loss associated with the unsold trade accounts receivable is minimal because of the high credit quality of the receivables that are included in the pool. During 2002 and 2001, the Company sold approximately $142,000 and $153,000, respectively, in total new securitization transactions. The loss recorded on these sales was $547, $993 and $1,559 in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and has been classified as receivable securitization expense in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company accounts for the portion of the receivables not sold as trade receivables on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The Company continues to service the accounts receivable without being compensated by the bank sponsored commercial paper conduit. The Company has recorded a servicing liability, based on its estimate of adequate compensation for the services that are being performed, of $56 and $62 as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The servicing liability is included within accrued liabilities - other on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

As of December 31, 2002, RAR sold $22,600 of undivided interests in accounts receivable. The proceeds from those sales were reflected as a reduction of accounts receivable on the Consolidated Balance Sheets and as operating cash flows in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. The sale proceeds were used to pay down the Company's revolving credit facility. Additionally, the securitization program contains covenants that the Company was in compliance with as of December 31, 2002.

Other contractual commitments for items in the normal course of business total approximately $2,075.

The Hoover Company (Hoover) filed a lawsuit in federal court, in the Northern District of Ohio (case #1:00cv 0347), against the Company on February 4, 2000, under the patent, trademark, and unfair competition laws of the United States. The Complaint asserted that the Company's Dirt Devil Easy Steamer infringed three utility patents and two design patents held by Hoover, and also that the Easy Steamer design infringed the trade dress of Hoover's carpet extractor products. The Court had dismissed charges of infringement against Royal regarding one of the three utility patents, and found that the Dirt Devil Easy Steamer infringed one claim of a second utility patent. The Company filed a lawsuit in federal court, in the Northern District of Ohio (case #1:01cv 2775), against The Hoover Company (Hoover) on December 10, 2001, under the patent, trademark, and unfair competition laws of the United States. The Complaint asserted that Hoover infringed certain patents relating to bagless technology held by the Company. On October 17, 2002, the Company and Hoover reached a settlement of all patent-related litigation described above. Hoover has granted rights to the Company with regard to its existing carpet extractor patents. The Company has granted rights to Hoover with regard to its existing bagless upright vacuum cleaner patents. The settlement includes net cash payments to the Company and resulted in a gain of $3,371 which was included in the caption "Litigation Settlement" on the Consolidated Statement of Operations.

5. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES: (CONTINUED)

The Company filed a lawsuit in federal court, in the Northern District of Ohio (case #1:02cv 0338), against Bissell Homecare, Inc. (Bissell) on February 22, 2002, under the patent, trademark, and unfair competition laws of the United States. The Complaint asserts that Bissell infringes certain patents relating to bagless technology held by the Company. The Company seeks damages, injunction on future production, and legal fees.

Bissell Homecare, Inc. (Bissell) filed a lawsuit in federal court, in Michigan (case #02cv71079), against the Company on March 20, 2002, under the patent, trademark, and unfair competition laws of the United States. The Complaint asserts that the Company's Dirt Devil Easy Steamer and Platinum Force Extractor products infringe certain design and utility patents held by Bissell. Bissell seeks damages, injunction on future production, and legal fees. On June 19, 2002, the Court transferred the case (now #1:02cv 1358) to the Northern District of Ohio. The Company is vigorously defending the suit and believes it is without merit. If Bissell were to prevail on all its claims, it could have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

The Company filed a lawsuit in federal court, in the Northern District of Ohio (case #1:02cv 1127), against White Consolidated, Ltd. (Eureka) on June 14, 2002, under the patent, trademark and unfair competition laws of the United States. Phone Zap, LLC ("Phone Zap") filed a lawsuit in United States District Court, District of Columbia, against the Company and its subsidiary, Privacy Technologies, Inc. on January 6, 2003, under the patent, trademark and unfair competition laws of the United States. The complaint asserts trademark infringement by the Company through the use of the Company's TeleZapper(R) trademark. The Company is vigorously defending the suit and believes it is without merit. If Phone Zap were to prevail on all its claims, it could have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

The Company is involved in various other claims and litigation arising in the normal course of business. The Company has product liability and general liability insurance policies in amounts management believes to be reasonable. There can be no assurance, however, that such insurance will be adequate to cover all potential product or other liability claims against the Company. In the opinion of management, the ultimate resolution of these actions will not materially affect the consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

Deferred income taxes reflect the impact, for financial statement reporting purposes, of temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax basis of assets and liabilities. At December 31, 2002 and 2001, the components of the net deferred tax asset were as follows:

	2002	2001
Deferred tax assets:
Warranty and customer returns	$ 3,034	$ 3,881
Bad debt reserve	428	1,170
Inventory basis difference	437	636

	$ 1,292	$ 538
	=====	=====

The differences between income taxes at the statutory federal income tax rate of 34% and those reported in the Consolidated Statements of Operations are as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2002	% of Pre-tax Income	2001	% of Pre-tax Income

As a result of this study, it was determined that additional expenditures qualify under the current guidance. Based on revised calculations, the Company was entitled to R & E credits of $462, $166 and $302 for the years ended 1999, 1998 and 1997, respectively. These Federal Income Tax refunds were received in 2001. For the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, the R & E credit amounted to $300, $400 and $200, respectively.

7. MAJOR CUSTOMERS:

Royal's three largest customers represented approximately 27.5%, 15.1%, and 15.0% of total net sales in 2002. The Company's three largest customers represented approximately 31.1%, 14.3% and 14.1% in 2001 and 32.6%, 13.5% and 13.1% of total net sales in 2000. Additionally, a significant concentration of Royal's business activity is with major domestic mass market retailers whose ability to meet their financial obligations with Royal is dependent on economic conditions germane to the retail industry. Due to the concentration in the volume of sales with a limited number of customers, the loss of one or more of these customers would have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company. During recent years, several major retailers have experienced significant financial difficulties and some, including Kmart, have filed for protection from creditors under applicable bankruptcy laws. As of December 31, 2002, the net exposure related to Kmart's pre-bankruptcy balance as well as other customers' balances for which management believes collection is doubtful was included in the calculation of allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company sells its products to certain customers that are in bankruptcy proceedings.

The Company provides credit, in the normal course of business, to the retail industry which includes mass market retailers, warehouse clubs, and independent dealers. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers and establishes appropriate allowances for doubtful accounts based upon factors surrounding the credit risk of specific customers, historical trends and other information.

8. STOCK BASED PLANS:

Under the terms of the Company's stock option plans for employees, outside directors and consultants, all outstanding options have been granted at prices at least equal to the then current market value on the date of grant. Typically, stock options granted become exercisable in cumulative 20% installments, commencing one year from date of grant with full vesting occurring on the fifth anniversary date, and expire in ten years. Certain stock options granted vest at the end of five years ("5 year cliff vesting") and expire in six to ten years, while certain other stock options granted vest 50% immediately with the remaining 50% vesting ratably over the next twelve months. All stock options are subject to earlier termination in certain events related to termination of employment. Vesting may be accelerated in certain events relating to change of the Company's ownership.

The following summarizes the changes in the number of Common Shares under option:

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

	2002 ----	2001 ----
Options outstanding at beginning of the year	2,371	2,673
Options granted during the year	562	204
Options exercised during the year	(134)	(321)
Options canceled during the year	(817)	(185)
	-----	-----
Options outstanding at end of the year	1,982	2,371
	=====	=====
Options exercisable at end of the year	1,156	1,651
Option price range per share	$2.50 to $6.38	$2.50 to $10.25	$2.5

The 1,156 exercisable options at December 31, 2002 are exercisable at an average exercise price of $4.44. The Company's current option plans, which provide for a total of 3,060 options, have 314 options remaining for future grants at December 31, 2002. If the merger, as described in Note 1 is approved by the shareholders of both companies, vesting will be accelerated and all outstanding options will be exercised at closing.

8. STOCK BASED PLANS: (CONTINUED)

The Company has also established compensation plans under which stock rights have been granted to certain key employees to receive Company stock upon exercise. These rights typically become 60% vested on the third anniversary from date of grant and an additional 20% vested for each subsequent year while certain other rights vest ratably over 36 months, subject to earlier termination in certain events related to termination of employment. Vesting may be accelerated in certain events relating to change of the Company's ownership. During 2002 and 2001, the Company awarded 334 and 116 stock rights under the plans, respectively, with a weighted average fair value at the date of grant of $4.79 and $4.25 per share for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. Compensation expense is calculated as the number of stock rights granted multiplied by the closing stock price on the date of issue. The Company amortizes unearned compensation to expense over the five-year vesting period. Compensation expense related to these awards was $1,148, $586 and $361 for 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. At December 31, 2002, 43 total stock rights were reserved for future issuance. If the merger, as described in Note 1 is approved by the shareholders of both companies, vesting will be accelerated and all outstanding stock rights will be exercised at closing.

9. SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN:

The Company has a Shareholder Rights Plan which provides that under certain circumstances each Right will entitle the shareholder to purchase one one-hundredth of a share of Series A Participating Preferred Stock at an exercise price of $40. Upon the occurrence of certain other events, including if a "Person" becomes the beneficial owner of more than 20% of the outstanding Common Shares or an "Adverse Person" becomes the beneficial owner of 10% of the outstanding Common Shares, the holder of a Right will have the right to receive, upon exercise, Common Shares of the Company, or Common Stock of the acquirer, having a value equal to two times the exercise price of the Right. The Shareholder Rights Plan is designed to deter abusive market manipulation or unfair takeover tactics and to prevent an acquirer from gaining control of the Company without offering a fair price to all shareholders. The Rights expire on November 2, 2003, unless redeemed prior to that date. The Rights can be redeemed at a price of $.01 per Right. The Shareholder Rights Plan was amended in December 2002 so as not to be triggered by the contemplated merger as described further in Note 1.

10. BENEFIT PLANS:

The Company sponsors a 401(k) defined contribution plan which covers substantially all of its employees who have satisfied the plan's eligibility requirements. Participants may contribute to the plan by voluntarily reducing their salary up to a maximum of 90% of qualified compensation subject to annual I.R.S. limits. All contributions vest immediately. For each of the last three years, the matching contribution was 100%, up to the first 3% of qualified compensation, and 50% of the next 2% of such compensation. The Company has also made discretionary contributions to the plan. The Company's provisions for matching and discretionary contributions totaled approximately $1,171, $965 and $1,017, for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Voluntary after-tax contributions and certain rollover contributions are also permitted.

The Company also sponsors a non-qualified deferred compensation plan which permits key employees to annually elect (via individual contracts) to defer a portion of their compensation on a pre-tax basis until retirement. The retirement benefit to be provided is based on the amount of compensation deferred, Company match and investment earnings. All contributions vest immediately. Although the Plan is designed to be unfunded, the Company has funded the deferred compensation liability with investments in marketable securities, primarily stock mutual funds, which are classified as current assets. The Company's provisions for matching and discretionary contributions totaled approximately $54, $72, and $77 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. The deferred compensation liability which equals the related assets recorded by the Company was $513 and $419 as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

The Company does not offer any other post-retirement benefits, accordingly,

Edgar Filing: ROYAL APPLIANCE MANUFACTURING CO - Form 10-K

it is not subject to the provisions of SFAS No. 106, "Employers' Accounting for Post Retirement Benefits Other Than Pensions."

11. SHARE REPURCHASE PROGRAM:

In February 2000, the Company's Board of Directors authorized a common share repurchase program that enabled the Company to purchase, in the open market and through negotiated transactions, up to an additional 4,250 of its outstanding common shares. The Company completed the program repurchasing 3,289 shares for an aggregate purchase price of $20,065 in February 2001. The Company repurchased approximately 1,322 shares for an aggregate purchase price of $6,900 under the program that expired in December 2002.

Each Director who is not an employee of the Company receives a director's fee in the amount of $30,000 per annum for up to five meetings, and reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attending such meetings. OPTION / SAR GRANTS IN 2002

Name	Granted (#) (1)	Granted to Employees in Fiscal Year	Price ($/Sh)	Expiration Date	5%
Michael J. Merriman	175,000 130,000	19.5% 14.5%	$ 5.35 $ -	3/1/12 2/11/12

David M. Brickner	50,000 50,000	5.6% 5.6%	$ 5.35 $ -	3/1/12 2/11/12

(1) The March options vest 20% on each anniversary of the grant date with full vesting occurring on the fifth anniversary date, except for Mr. Merriman's which vested 50% immediately with the remaining 50% vesting ratably over twelve months, assuming the executive officer remains employed by the Company. The February stock rights become 60% vested on the third anniversary from the date of grant and 80% vested on the fourth anniversary with full vesting occurring on the fifth anniversary date, except for Mr. Merriman's which vest ratably over 36 months, assuming the executive officer remains employed by the Company. The Options and Rights expire in ten years from the date of grant, subject to earlier termination in certain events related to termination of employment. The Plans provide that in the event of a "change in control" of the Company, the Compensation Committee can cause all outstanding stock rights to be immediately exercisable and may accelerate the termination date of all such options. A "change in control" generally means the occurrence of (I) the acquisition by a person of 20% or more of the Company's Common Shares, (ii) the first purchase of shares pursuant to an exchange or tender offer, or (iii) shareholder approval of a merger in which the Company is not the surviving corporation or pursuant to which the Company's shares are converted into cash. See also "Change-in-Control Arrangements" herein.

(2) The dollar amounts set forth in these columns are the result of calculations at the 5% and 10% rates set by the Securities and Exchange Commission, and therefore are not intended to forecast possible future appreciation, if any, of the Company's Common Stock price. Using these rates, the total of potential realizable values for the named officers represents less than 6% of the gain that would be realized by all shareholders of the Company. Based on the number of shares outstanding and the market price on the February and March grant dates, the aggregate gain realized by the Company's shareholders assuming a 5% annual rate of stock appreciation for the option term would be in excess of $39 million and $45 million, respectively; a 10% annual rate of stock appreciation would result in a gain in excess of $100 million and $115 million, respectively.

CHANGE-IN-CONTROL AND OTHER EMPLOYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

Michael J. Merriman, President and Chief Executive Officer, and the Company entered into a new Employment Agreement effective as of March 14, 2002. Under the Agreement, Mr. Merriman is entitled to a base salary of $400,000 per year, and participates in the Company's annual management incentive plan ("MIP"). The term of the agreement is for one year, with automatic renewals unless one party gives notice of its intent not to renew the agreement. In the event of Mr. Merriman's termination without cause, termination due to death or disability, termination for "good reason" (as defined in the agreement), or if the Company gives notice of its intention not to renew the agreement (collectively, a "Triggering Termination"), Mr. Merriman is entitled to severance payments equal to: (a) three times the sum of his then current annual base salary and the average annual bonus based on the prior three years (paid in six semi-annual installments); (b) a prorated portion of his MIP award for the year in which the termination occurs, if applicable; (c) a lump sum severance payment determined annually by the Board (initially $1.5 million) , (d) forgiveness of all amounts due from Mr. Merriman on his April 2001 $542,750 note payable to the Company, and (e) continuation of his insurance and other employee benefits for 36 months. If any of these payments or any other payments made by the Company would precipitate an excise tax as a "parachute payment" under Internal Revenue Code, Mr. Merriman shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the amount of those excise taxes plus a tax "gross-up" payment. If a Triggering Termination occurs following a change-in-control (as defined in the Agreement), Mr. Merriman's severance payments will be paid in a lump sum. The Agreement also contains a covenant by Mr. Merriman not to compete with the Company for up to 36 months following the termination of his employment. In the event of a Triggering Termination, any and all unvested stock options and phantom stock rights held by Mr. Merriman will fully vest.

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement with Techtronic Industries discussed in Item 1 and assuming the Merger is consummated, Mr. Merriman's employment agreement has been amended whereby Mr. Merriman has agreed to repay all amounts due on his $542,750 note payable to the Company and forego the other benefits provided in clauses (a) through (e) above in exchange for a lump-sum payment of $742,000. Moreover, in the event Mr. Merriman is terminated without "cause", as defined in his new employment agreement, after the Merger, or terminates his employment for "good reason", as defined in his new employment agreement, his severance shall be one-half the sum of his then-current base salary and the average of his annual bonus for the prior three years. Under Mr. Merriman's amended employment agreement, he is entitled to receive a stock option for 2,000,000 shares of Techtronic in May 2003, following release of Techtronic's earnings for fiscal 2002.

CHANGE-IN-CONTROL AND OTHER EMPLOYMENT ARRANGEMENTS (CONTINUED)

The Company has entered into Severance Agreements with the other three Named Executive Officers that are designed to retain the executives and provide for continuity of management in the event of any actual or threatened change in the control of the Company. Each agreement only becomes operative upon a "Change in Control" as defined in the Agreements. After a Change in Control, if, during the three-year period commencing with the Change in Control, the executive's employment is terminated for reasons other than "cause" (as defined in the Agreement), death or disability, or the executive terminates his employment for "good reason" (as defined in the Agreement), under their respective agreements, the executive shall be entitled to receive a severance amount equal to three times of his then base salary. The Company may make an additional payment to reimburse such individuals for excise tax payments, if any, triggered by the foregoing severance payments. All options and stock rights held by the executives with respect to the Company's common stock will become immediately exercisable upon the date of termination of employment and remain exercisable for a period of up to three years.

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Messrs. Farone, Vasek and Brickner agreed to amend their severance agreements. In exchange for lump sum payments of $311,000, $289,000 and $251,000, respectively, Messrs. Farone, Vasek and Brickner each agreed to new one-year employment contracts that provide for severance payments in the event of their termination of employment for reasons other than "cause" or for "good reason", as defined in their new agreements. The severance payments equal one-half the sum of the then current salary of the executive plus the average of the annual bonus for the prior three years. Under their employment agreements, Messrs. Farone, Vasek and Brickner each are entitled to receive stock options for 1,000,000 shares of Techtronic in May 2003, following release of Techtronic's earnings for fiscal 2002.
