Edgar Filing: CAMCO FINANCIAL CORP - Form 8-K

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On December 23, 2004, Advantage Bank (the "Bank"), the wholly-owned subsidiary of Camco Financial Corporation (the "Corporation"), refinanced $144.1 million in convertible fixed rate borrowings from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati (the "FHLB") with advances ranging up to 5 years. In connection with this transaction, the Bank paid early payment fees totaling $18.88 million before tax or $12.46 million after tax, which fees were included in the new advance.

The refinanced FHLB advances had a weighted average interest rate of 6.25% and an average term of maturity of approximately 5.61 years. The new advances have a weighted average interest rate of 3.59%. The Bank is obligated to make monthly interest payments and to repay the full principal amount at maturity. As with the refinanced advances, the new advance is secured by a blanket lien on 100% of the Bank's one to four family mortgage portfolio and multi-family mortgage portfolio.

The new advances were otherwise made on terms generally available to other FHLB member institutions and were not accompanied by covenants or other restrictions that the Corporation believes materially affect its business or operations, or the rights of its shareholders.

On December 23, 2004, Camco Financial Corporation issued a news release announcing this restructuring. The news release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.
