

CURRENT REPORT

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

See disclosure contained in Item 2.03 below, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On March 12, 2010, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 2, 2009 (the “Merger Agreement”), among The Stanley Works (“Stanley”), The Black & Decker Corporation (“Black & Decker”) and Blue Jay Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Stanley (“Merger Sub”), Merger Sub merged with and into Black & Decker, with Black & Decker continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly owned subsidiary of Stanley (the “Merger”).

As a result of the Merger, each outstanding share of Black & Decker common stock was converted into the right to receive 1.275 shares of our common stock (“Stanley Common Stock”), with cash paid in lieu of fractional shares. Based on the closing price of the Stanley Common Stock on March 11, 2010 the consideration received by Black & Decker stockholders had a value of approximately $4.7 billion.

As previously announced, we plan to begin conducting business under the name Stanley Black & Decker in conjunction with consummating the Merger, and we have formally changed our name to “Stanley Black & Decker, Inc.” effective on March 12, 2010. Additional information regarding the Merger may be found in the press release issued by Stanley in connection with the announcement of the completion of the Merger, which is filed as Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 2.1 to this current report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

New Credit Facility

On March 12, 2010, Stanley Black & Decker, Inc. (the “Registrant”) entered into a 364-Day Credit Agreement (the “Credit Agreement”) with The Black & Decker Corporation, as Subsidiary Guarantor, and each of the initial lenders named therein, Citibank, N.A., as Administrative Agent, Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and Banc of America Securities LLC, as Lead Arrangers and Bookrunners, and Bank of America, N.A., as Syndication Agent, to obtain extensions of credit and revolving commitments aggregating $700 million (the “Credit Facility”).

Borrowings under the Credit Facility will bear interest at a floating rate or rates equal to, at the option of the Registrant, the Eurocurrency rate or the prime rate, plus a margin specified in the Credit Agreement for Eurocurrency rate advances. A certain amount of the borrowings may be made in Euros or Pounds Sterling by certain designated subsidiaries of the Registrant.

The Registrant must repay all advances by the earlier of (i) March 11, 2011 or (ii) the date of termination in whole, at the election of the Registrant, of the commitments by the lenders under the Credit Facility, pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement. The Credit Agreement provides the Registrant with the right to request prior to the Termination Date to convert all outstanding Advances to a term loan with a maturity date no later than March 11, 2012, as determined by the Registrant as long as certain conditions specified in the Credit Agreement are satisfied. The Registrant may be required to prepay any borrowings under the Credit Facility upon a change of control.

The Registrant does not anticipate it will draw on the Credit Facility in the near term. The Credit Facility serves primarily as a backstop to the Registrant's commercial paper program.

The Credit Agreement contains covenants that include, among other things:

- maintenance of an EBITDA interest covenant ratio which provides for the exclusion of certain restructuring charges and charges associated with the Merger as well as certain adjustments to reported interest;
 - a limitation on creating liens on certain property of the Registrant and its subsidiaries;
 - a restriction on mergers, consolidations and sales of substantially all of the assets of the Registrant or its subsidiaries;
 - a restriction on entering into certain sale-leaseback transactions.

The Credit Facility contains customary events of default. If an event of default occurs and is continuing, the Registrant might be required to repay all amounts outstanding under the Credit Facility.

The investment and commercial banking firms that are parties to the Credit Agreement or their affiliates have in the past performed, and may in the future from time to time perform, investment banking, financial advisory, lending and/or commercial banking services for the Registrant and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates.

The description contained herein is a summary of certain material terms of the Credit Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement attached as Exhibit 10.4 hereto.

Cross-Guarantees

In connection with the Merger, on March 12, 2010, the Registrant and Black & Decker entered into supplemental indentures (the “Supplemental Indentures”) providing for (i) senior unsubordinated guarantees by Black & Decker (the “Black & Decker Guarantees”) of the Registrant’s existing notes described below and (ii) senior unsubordinated guarantees by the Registrant (the “Stanley Guarantees”) of Black & Decker’s existing notes described below.

The Black & Decker Guarantees are in respect of:

The Registrant’s 6.15% Notes due 2013 (the “Stanley 2013 Notes”);

The Registrant’s 4.9% Notes due 2012 (the “Stanley 2012 Notes”);

The Registrant’s convertible notes due 2012 (the “Stanley Convertible Notes”); and

The Registrant’s 5.0% Notes due 2010 (the “Stanley 2010 Notes” and, together with the Stanley 2013 Notes, the Stanley 2012 Notes and the Stanley Convertible Notes, the “Stanley Notes”).

Each of the Stanley Notes was issued under an Indenture, dated as of November 1, 2002 (the “Stanley Indenture”), between Stanley and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, as successor trustee to JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.

The Stanley Guarantees are in respect of:

$300,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Black & Decker’s 5.75% Notes due 2016 (the “Black & Decker 2016 Notes”);

$350,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Black & Decker’s 8.95% Notes due 2014 (the “Black & Decker 2014 8.95% Notes”);

$300,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Black & Decker’s 4.75% Notes due 2014 (the “Black & Decker 2014 4.75% Notes”);

$400,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Black & Decker’s 7.125% Notes due 2011 (the “Black & Decker 2011 Notes”); and

$150,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 7.05% Notes due 2028 issued by Black & Decker Holdings, LLC (formerly Black & Decker Holdings Inc.), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Black & Decker (the “Black & Decker 144A Notes” and, together with the Black & Decker 2016 Notes, the

Edgar Filing: STANLEY WORKS - Form 8-K

Black & Decker 2014 8.95% Notes, the Black & Decker 2014 4.75% Notes and the Black & Decker 2011 Notes, the “Black & Decker Notes”).

The Stanley Guarantees are unsecured obligations of the Registrant, ranking equal in right of payment with all the Registrant’s existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. Interest on each series of Black & Decker Notes is payable semi-annually. Each of the Black & Decker Notes (other than the Black & Decker 144A Notes) and Black & Decker’s guarantee of the Black & Decker 144A Notes rank equally with all of Black & Decker’s other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness.

Each of the Black & Decker 2016 Notes and Black & Decker 2014 8.95% Notes was issued under an Indenture, dated as of November 16, 2006 (the “Black & Decker 2006 Indenture”), between Black & Decker and The Bank of New York Mellon (formerly known as The Bank of New York), as trustee. The Black & Decker 2014 4.75% Notes were issued under an Indenture, dated as of October 18, 2004 (the “Black & Decker 2004 Indenture”), between Black & Decker and The Bank of New York Mellon (formerly known as The Bank of New York), as trustee. The Black & Decker 2011 Notes were issued under an Indenture, dated as of June 5, 2001 (the “Black & Decker 2001 Indenture”), between Black & Decker and The Bank of New York Mellon (formerly known as The Bank of New York), as trustee. The Black & Decker 144A Notes were issued under an Indenture, dated as of June 26, 1998 (the “Black & Decker 1998 Indenture”), among Black & Decker Holdings, LLC (formerly Black & Decker Holdings Inc.), Black & Decker, as guarantor, and The Bank of New York Mellon (formerly known as The First National Bank of Chicago), as trustee. The foregoing indentures are referred to collectively herein as the “Black & Decker Indentures.”

Each Black & Decker Indenture contains certain negative covenants that limit Black & Decker’s ability and the ability of certain of its subsidiaries to incur certain liens, engage in certain sale-leaseback transactions, and merge or consolidate or sell all or substantially all of Black & Decker’s assets. Each Black & Decker Indenture provides for customary events of default, including a failure by Black & Decker to pay the principal of, premium, if any, interest or additional amounts, if any, on any indebtedness in excess of $50,000,000, in the case of the Black & Decker 2006 Indenture and the Black & Decker 2004 Indenture, or $20,000,000, in the case of the Black & Decker 2001 Indenture and the Black & Decker 1998 Indenture, or acceleration of the maturity of such indebtedness in such amounts. In addition, each of the Black & Decker Notes are redeemable, in whole or in part, at the issuer’s option, at the redemption price set forth in the applicable Black & Decker Indenture.

With respect to the Black & Decker 2016 Notes and Black & Decker 2014 8.95% Notes, upon the occurrence of a change of control repurchase event, unless Black & Decker has exercised its option to redeem such notes as described above, Black & Decker will be required to make an offer to repurchase all outstanding Black & Decker 2016 Notes and Black & Decker 2014 8.95% Notes at a price in cash equal to 101% of the principal amount of such notes, plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but not including, the purchase date. The change of control repurchase event is defined as both a change of control and a below investment grade rating event (i) that occurs within 60 days following public notice of the occurrence of a change of control, (ii) where the company’s senior unsecured debt is rated less than Baa3 by Moody’s and less than BBB- by S&P, each defined in the applicable indenture and (iii) the rating agency making the reduction in rating announces or informs the trustee in writing that the reduction was the result of an event relating to the change of control. Based upon discussions with the ratings agencies, the Company expects that its senior unsecured debt, including the above referenced notes, will be rated A, Baa1, and A- by S&P, Moody’s and Fitch, respectively.

The foregoing description of the Supplemental Indentures, the Stanley Indentures and the Black & Decker Indenture is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full and complete terms of the Supplemental Indentures, the Stanley Indenture and the Black & Decker Indentures which are attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibits 4.1, 4.2, 4.3, 4.4, 4.5, 4.6, 4.7, 4.8 and 4.9 and are incorporated herein by reference.
